

This book was produced in EPUB format by the Internet Archive. The book pages were scanned and converted to EPUB format automatically. This process relies on optical character recognition, and is somewhat susceptible to errors. The book may not offer the correct reading sequence, and there may be weird characters, non-words, and incorrect guesses at structure. Some page numbers and headers or footers may remain from the scanned page. The process which identifies images might have found stray marks on the page which are not actually images from the book. The hidden page numbering which may be available to your ereader corresponds to the numbered pages in the print edition, but is not an exact match; page numbers will increment at the same rate as the corresponding print edition, but we may have started numbering before the print book's visible page numbers. The Internet Archive is working to improve the scanning process and resulting books, but in the meantime, we hope that this book will be useful to you.

The Internet Archive was founded in 1996 to build an Internet library and to promote universal access to all knowledge. The Archive's purposes include offering permanent access for researchers, historians, scholars, people with disabilities, and the general public to historical collections that exist in digital format. The Internet Archive includes texts, audio, moving images, and software as well as archived web pages, and provides specialized services for information access for the blind and other persons with disabilities.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $$$& (Vol-1) 25 Foreword to Original Arabic Edition By Hadhrat Maulana Sayyid Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi

3&&lc#>5 All praises belong to Allaah 3\%>2JQ; the Rabb of the universe. May the special mercies of Allaah &WSZ and peace be on our master Muhammad @i? who is the seal of all Ambiyaa (prophets). May Attaah 3033?'s mercy and peace be on his family, all his companions and all those coming until the Day of Qiyaamah who follow him dutifully. Without a doubt, the lifestyle and history of Rasulullaah W&Z and his companions W&8& are among the most powerful sources providing strength of Imaan and love for the Deen. The Ummah and the call towards Deen has always been drawing sparks of Imaan from these sources and it is by this that the embers of their hearts have been kept burning. However, these embers are being quickly extinguished in the gale force winds of worldly love. Once they are extinguished, this Ummah will lose its might, its identity and its influence over others. It will .then become a mere corpse which life will carry along on its shoulders. The biographies of the Sahabah '0&@>t> contain the history of men who accepted the invitation of Islaam when it was presented to them. Their hearts testified to its truth and all they said when they were called towards Allaah £838331? and His Rasool ^P?§ was, "Our Rabb, we have certainly heard the caller (Rasulullaah WHOHs) calling to Imaan (saying), 'Believe in your Rabbi' so we believed"(1*. They placed their hands in the hands of Rasulullaah { ^i? and it became easy for them to sacrifice their lives, their wealth and their families. They then began to find pleasure in the difficulties and hardships that afflicted them in the course of calling others towards Allaah 3JSS3SC:. In this manner, conviction permeated their hearts and gained mastery over their bodies and their minds. They displayed the wonderful belief in the unseen, undying love for Allaah ®&>2JZ and Rasulullaah (iei$, compassion for the Mu'mineen and sternness towards the Kuffaar. They preferred the Aakhirah to this world, credit (the rewards of the Aakhirah) to cash (the rewards of this world), the unseen to the seen and guidance to ignorance. They were eager to invite people towards Islaam, thus removing the creation from their slavery to the creation and taking them towards the servitude of Allaah 3)8£$? alone. They removed people from the injustice of other religions, transporting them to the justice of Islaam. They displayed no concern for the attractions and vanities of this world and aspired to meet Allaah 3&>Z& and enter Jannah. They also exhibited outstanding (1) Surah Aal Imraan, verse 193.

26 . THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) courage and farsightedness in spreading the gift of Islaam and delivering it to the world without any cost. For this purpose, they spread themselves throughout the far corners of the world, sparing no efforts to reach as far as they could. In doing this, they forgot their personal pleasures, forsook their luxuries, left their homes and selflessly spent their lives and wealth. They continued in this manner until the foundations of Deen were established, hearts turned to Allaah and the blessed and pleasant winds of Imaan blew strongly. An empire of Towheed, Imaan, Ibaadah and Taqwa was established. Jannah found a ready attraction in people, guidance spread throughout the world and people entered the fold of Islaam in droves. The books of history are full of their stories and the chronicles of Islaam record their accounts. This has always remained a source of revival and rejuvenation in the lives of Muslims. It is because of these accounts that the concern of callers to Islaam and reformers have intensified. These narratives have always assisted in reviving the courage of Muslims and in rekindling the embers of Imaan in their hearts and their allegiance to the Deen. However, there came a time when the Muslims grew unmindful of this history and forgot all about it. Muslims writers, lecturers and preachers then turned to narratives depicting latter-day ascetics and saints. Books and compendiums overflowed with stories about them and their miracles. People became obsessed with these narratives and they occupied pride of place in lectures, academic lessons and books. As far as we know, the first person in our times who grew conscious of the status of the narratives and lives of the Sahabah in the fields of Da'wah and reforming the religious consciousness of people was the famous preacher and great reformer Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Ilyas Kandhelwi (passed away in 1363 A.H/1944 A.D). He recognised the value of this treasure of reformation that lay buried between the pages of books and realised the value of its effect on the hearts of people. He busily engaged himself in studying these accounts, teaching them, narrating them and discussing them. I have personally seen him display tremendous interest in the biographies of Rasulullaah (S[^] and the Sahabah by discussing them with his students and friends. These used to be recited to him every night and he would listen to them with great attention and insatiability. He desired that they be relived, circulated and discussed. His nephew the great Muhaddith Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Zakariyya Kandhelwi (author of "Awjazul Masaalik ilaa Mu'aata Imaam Maalik") has written a book in Urdu about the stories of the Sahabah (titled "Hikaayaatus Sahabah"). Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Ilyas was overjoyed with this book and instructed those engaged in Da'wah and travelling in the path of Allaah to study and teach this book. Consequently, this book became one of the most important prescribed books for preachers and others and enjoyed wide acceptance.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH W&8&& (Vol-1) 27 Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Yusuf £IGk2>I&%) succeeded his esteemed father (Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Ilyaas3Su&lif«5) in assuming leadership of those engaged in the effort of Da'wah. He also followed his father's footsteps in his deep interest in the biographies of Rasulullaah @f§ and the Sahabah W&&&- it was he who used to read these narratives to his father. Even after his father passed away, he continued studying biographies of Rasulullaah 0M, books of Islaamic history and the Sahabah jsS!S@ss> despite his demanding commitments to the effort of Da'wah. I do not know of anyone with a wider scope of knowledge about the Sahabah $9!a@g> and the finer details of their lives. I do not know of anyone who could quote so many of their narratives, could cite them more eloquently and string them together as beautifully as pearls of a necklace. These reports and stories inspired his discourses and caused magical affects on the hearts of large groups of people who then found it easy to give great sacrifices in Allaah cJJ^SKB's path. They were thus motivated to persevere the greatest of hardships and difficulties in Allaah 3!®33t?'s path. During the period of his leadership, the effort of Da'wah spread throughout the Arabian peninsula and even to places such as America, Europe, Japan and the islands of the Indian Ocean. The necessity was then felt to produce a book for those taking up the effort of Da'wah and travelling to foreign countries could study and read to each other. This was needed to provide nourishment for their hearts and minds, to motivate their spirituality and to encourage them to emulate Rasulullaah W$i and the Sahabah

28 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) completed in several volumes. With the assistance of Allaah, he also compiled the book "Hayaatus Sahabah" in three large volumes, collecting in it many reports that were scattered in the various books of biography and history. The distinguished author has commenced every section with reports from the life of Rasulullaah and then added accounts from the lives of the Sahabah, devoting special attention to Da'wah and spiritual reformation for the benefit of those involved in these fields. Therefore, this book offers advice to preachers, is a great provision for those engaged in the effort of Da'wah and a valuable teacher of imaan and conviction to the Muslim public. He has collected in these volumes such reports that cannot be found in any other book because they all have their sources in a myriad of historical and biographical books. He has prepared an encyclopaedia that depicts the lives, behaviour and attributes of those living during the time of Rasulullaah. The painstaking details mentioned in this book gives it an inspirational effect not felt in books that suffice with brief accounts. As a result, the reader is always basking in an environment of Imaan, Da'wah, courage, virtue, sincerity and asceticism, it is generally believed that a book is a reflection of the author, that it represents the love of his life and that it will express the fervour and spirit with which it is written. If this be true, I can vouch that this book is truly inspiring, powerful and a success because the author wrote it with great passion and love for the Sahabah. Love for the Sahabah had truly penetrated his very flesh and blood to the extent that it had dominated his personality and psychology. He has lived in the mould of their lives for a long period of time and continues to do so, always drinking from the refreshing fountains of these reports. This book does not require a foreword from someone like myself because the author is an extremely eminent and sincere personality. I am convinced that he is nothing short of a divine gift and a gem from the gems of time with regard to the strength of his Imaan, the power of his Da'wah, his devotion to Da'wah and his self-sacrificial behaviour in the path of Allaah. The likes of him are not found in the annals of history except after long period of time. He leads an Islamic movement that is one of the most powerful, most judicious and most inspiring. However, he wanted to honour me with writing this foreword and I have every intention to be a part of this marvellous work. I have therefore written these few words hoping to achieve proximity to Allaah. May Allaah accept this book and make it a means of benefit to mankind. Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi Sahaaranpur 2 Rajab 1378 (12 January 1959) (1) This foreword was written during the lifetime of Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Yusuf.

THE LIVES, OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 29 Foreword to the Urdu Edition By Hadhrat Maulana Sayyid Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi (M&F This book (Hayaatus Sahabah) was originally written in Arabic, which is the official and most loved language of Islaam and the Muslims. It will always remain such because Allaah (Exalted) says in the Qur'aan: (^ :jx>- ijyj) $IQs) Uj^iJ 4jbl j ^5 jJI Ujj ij^u\ "Without doubt only We have revealed the Reminder (the Qur'aan) and We shall certainly be its protectors." {Surah Hijr, verse 9} This promise to eternally safeguard the Qur'aan automatically implies that it will always be recited and taught. This naturally means that the language of the Qur'aan will always remain protected, spoken and taught. During the time of the author Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf (رحمۃ اللہ علیہ), the effort of Da'wah and Tableegh which began in Nizaamud Deen in Delhi had already spread to Hijaz and other Arab countries and it had tremendously influenced the scholars of these parts. It was therefore appropriate that this book should be published in Arabic and it was originally printed by the Arabic press of Daa'ira Ma'aarif Uthmaaniyyah of Hyderabad. It was favourably accepted in scholarly circles and in the Arab countries. It was later painstakingly printed and attractively bound by Daarul Qalam in Damascus. It was again received favourably in 'religious and academic circles and is still enjoying wide acceptance. However, the need was long felt for a clear and reliable Urdu translation of the book for the people of the subcontinent (India/Pakistan) and those areas where people from the Indian subcontinent have settled and where Urdu is widely spoken. In this manner, the interested people of these areas and others engaged in the effort of Da'wah and Tableegh may directly benefit from the book. This would enable them to rekindle the embers of Imaan in their hearts and to cast their lives, character and inclinations into the mould of the first Mu'mineen who had been great preachers of Islaam nurtured by none other than Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Although the need was long felt for an Urdu translation, the time for everything has been ordained. It was the current Ameer of the effort of Da'wah and Tableegh Hadhrat Moulana In'aamul Hasan (رحمۃ اللہ علیہ) the successor and old friend of Hadhrat Moulana Yusuf (رحمۃ اللہ علیہ) who initiated the translation. The honour of translating this great work fell to the lot of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ihsaanul Haqq (lecturer at Madrassah Arabiyyah Raiwind). He is a graduate of Mazaahirul Uloom Sahaaranpur, a successor of Hadhrat Sheikhul Hadith Moulana Zakariyyah (رحمۃ اللہ علیہ) and he received nurturing in the school of Tableegh which teaches concern for the Ummah and the importance of good deeds. Translating a book of this type, which serves as an interpreter for the effort of

30 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Da'wah and which is filled with fervour and effect is not the work of a person who merely understands the language of the book. It is necessary that the translator should share the same fervour and be someone who promotes the same objectives that this book was written to propagate. With the grace of Allaah, the translator fulfils all these requirements. Not only is he influenced by and supportive of the principles and objectives of the effort of Tableegh in his personal and domestic lives, his mindset, field of knowledge and heartfelt feelings also include the same. In fact, he is a forerunner in its propagation. In addition to this, the translation has been reviewed by several leading scholars including Hadhrat Mufti Zaynul Aabideen, Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ahmad Ansaari, Hadhrat Moulana Zaahir Shah, Hadhrat Moulana Nadhrur Rahmaan, Hadhrat Moulana Jamshed Ali and numerous other pious people and scholars of Pakistan and the Nizaamud Deen Markaz. Among these, someone worthy of mention is Hadhrat Moulana Azharul Hasan Kandhelwi. May Allaah make this translation beneficial and inspiring in every way and fulfil its noble purpose. This translation was completed with the common Muslim in mind, who is generally unaware of the various Islaamic terminologies so that the book can inspire him with its simple and easily understandable style. May Allaah increase its benefit and acceptance. Aameen. Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi Daarul Uloom Nadwatul Ulema Lucknow 19Rabi-ul-Awwal 1412 29 September 1991

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-i) 31 Foreword by the Urdu Translator Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ihsaanul Haqq QBi$&h The Sahabah $&&&& are the foundation of this Deen and were the first to propagate it. They acquired the Deen from Rasulullaah {icS and conveyed it to us. They were the blessed group whom Allaah cpjaSSC had chosen to be the companions of His beloved Rasulullaah W$£- They are therefore most worthy of being role models, whose example deserve emulation. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Sgjfia®* used to say, "Anyone wishing to follow the (religious) ways of another should follow the ways of those who had already left the world, namely the companions of Rasulullaah @$$, who were the best people of this Ummah. Their hearts were pure, their knowledge deep and pretentiousness (showing-off) was non-existent in their lives. Allaah &&$& has selected them to be the companions of Rasulullaah {£H! and to propagate His Deen. You should therefore acknowledge their virtue and distinction. Follow in their footsteps and adopt their character and lifestyles with all your strength because they were the ones on the path of guidance."

^ To understand the life of Rasulullaah ®SI, it is only the lives of the Sahabah itcS!3®Sg) that can be used as a criterion because they were the fortunate group who benefited most from the lamp of Nabuwaat. The inspiring rays from the sun of Nabuwaat shone directly on them without any screen. It is impossible for anyone after them to acquire the warmth of Imaan and the spiritual illumination that they received. It was only the assembly of the Sahabah '$&&&& that the Qur'aan pays tribute to by declaring that Allaah 3)3&3>C; is pleased with them, they are pleased with Him, and that they were rightly guided people as well as guides for others. It is because of this that the Ummah has always been unanimous about the fact that all the Sahabah W$j®& without exception were reliable and trustworthy. Any matter on which they all agreed is regarded as an authoritative law in the Shari'ah. Anyone who rejects their virtuousness falls outside the fold of Islaam. The Sahabah WS$8£#> were mirror images of Rasulullaah &^'s perfect character and the most comprehensive icons of his attributes. They were the truest interpreters of his praiseworthy attributes, his excellent character as well as all the rulings and proofs of the Shari'ah. It is therefore necessary to follow them so that the Muslim Ummah may save themselves from all deviated manners. Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas S&folcfy was brought up by his maternal grandmother who was affectionately called Ummi Bi. She was the fourth daughter of Hadhrat Moulana Muzaffar Husain Kandhelwi 3&SI;ofs>. She dearly loved Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas 3i25b!ctfy and would often say, "Ilyaas, (1) Mishkaatul Masaabeeh.

32 / THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH j@,&@j?g (Vol-1) I smell the fragrance of the Sahabah W&&& coming from you." She would also place her hand on his head and say, "Why is it that I see the images of the Sahabah i@!S@s) always with you?" In fact, Hadhrat Sheikhul Hind Moulana Mahmoodul Hasan cflSiSlcsSy used to say, "Whenever I see Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas, I think of the Sahabah i€P@sg>." Hadhrat Moulana Manzoor Nu'maani 3&{&l&<%i wrote, "Myself and some of my friends blessed with spiritual light and deep insight are unanimous about the fact that the existence of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas "which contained stories of the Sahabah (Sffi2i@0 under various headings. The wide acceptance of this book can be judged from the fact that it has been translated into the major languages of the world including English, French and Japanese, Hadhrat Mouiana's son Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf 2Jl2ffi)ti^3 inherited the love for Rasulullaah ^SH and the Sahabah i@)2@g> from his illustrious father. Even in his childhood he used to study the lives and reports of the Sahabah '$&$%&&. He enjoyed reading to himself and to others books such as "Samsaamul Islaam" and "Muhaarabaate Sahabah jtSBSsSaSs '!' During the lifetime of his father Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas cJffifiuk^, it was the duty of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf t&\M&> to recite the books of Rasulullaah {JUMP'S biography to his father after the Isha salaah. Even after his father passed away, it remained the practise of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf 3Sffl^ to recite Hayaatus Sahabah j&& after Isha. When he explained the incidents of the Sahabah iSP®®, it appeared as if he had seen them with his own eyes, that they were people of his household or that the incidents had taken place in front of him. Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas $2S)1£85 desired that the biographies of the Sahabah i@lf®£> be presented in a manner that accented their efforts of Da'wah. For the compilation of such a book he chose his son Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf cJCSffl^ . Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf SiSSufc^sS set aside his work on the book "Amaanil Ahbaar" to complete this work, which was titled "Hayaatus Sahabah (^82®^" on the recommendation of Hadhrat Moulana Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi 92i&lcjfy. Notable scholars agree that no biography of the Sahabah '$&&$&> as comprehensive as this has even been compiled. For the past few years, Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Umar Paalanpuri 'cJiSfflil^ has been requesting me to translate this great work into Urdu. Unfortunately,

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-D 33 because of my incompetence and my lack of experience coupled with my commitments to teaching and Da'wah in the Madrassah of the Raiwind Masjid, I had been unable to tackle the task. However, on my return to Delhi after the 1990 Raiwind Ijtimā, I was at the Lahore airport when Hadhratji (Hadhrat Moulana In'aamul Hasan Siddiqi) and the respected Haaji Muhammad Abdul Wahhaab instructed me to translate "Hayaatus Sahabah" into Urdu. Hadhrat Moulana Umar Paalanpuri then told me that I could now not refuse the task after receiving an explicit instruction from Hadhratji. My incompetence made me shrink at the task, regarding it to be too great a responsibility. Nevertheless, I commenced the task drawing courage from the fact that the blessings, du'aas and fond attention of the pure souls who instructed me would Insha'Allah enable me to accomplish the work. Therefore, I began the translation with the name of Allaah on the 21 November 1990. I initially used a copy of "Hayaatus Sahabah" printed in Hyderabad, but completed the translation using the edition compiled by Moulana Muhammad Ilyas Baara Bankwi, who is a "Muqeeb" of the Bangla Waali Masjid of Hadhrat Nizaamud Deen in Delhi. The translation has been completed using a simple style and commonly spoken Urdu so that it would be beneficial to the common Muslim who is not learned in complex terminologies and rhetoric. May Allaah accept this translation and make it of immense benefit to the Muslim Ummah. May Allaah also make it a means of motivating the Ummah to engage in the noble effort of Rasulullaah and to adopt the lifestyles of the illustrious Sahabah. Aameen. We request readers to make pleasant du'aas for the translator and all those who assisted in the translation, typesetting and printing of this translation. 34 x Ttff LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&&$&& (Vol-D Foreword to English Translation All praise is due only to Allaah. We laud Him and beseech His aid and beg forgiveness only from Him and believe in Him and rely solely on Him. We seek salvation in Him from the evils of our inner selves and the vices of our actions. There is none to misguide one whom Allaah intends to guide. I bear witness that there is no one worthy of worship but Allaah, the One who has no partner. I also testify that Hadhrat Muhammad (Sallahu Alahyi Wassalam) is the faithful servant and the Last Rasul of Allaah. May Allaah Ta'ala's mercy be on him, his family and his Sahabaah (Radia Allahu Anhum Ajmaeen) and may He bless them and raise their status. The book "Hayatus Sahabah 5§3)j3@s>" which is the master - piece of Hadhrat Moulana Yusuf Khandelwi (A.R) has now reached you in a fresh, reviewed, better translated version. All Praise is due to Allaah. It would be most befitting to record some brief history, thought and ideology, concerns and dynamic concepts of Moulana Yusuf Khandelwi (A.R) so that the reader can acquaint oneself with the author. One will then realize what a revolutionary personality, noble character and one of lofty Ideals was the Moulana. Brief History Moulana Muhammad Yusuf, son of Moulana Muhammad Ilyas, son of Moulana Muhammad Ismaeel, son of Ghulaam Hussain, son of Hakim Bakhsh, son of Hakim Ghulam Muhyuddin, son of Moulwi Muhammad Sajid, son of Moulwi Muhammad Faiz, son of Moulwi Muhammad Sharif, son of Moulwi Muhammad Ashraf, son of Shaikh Jamal, son of Muhammad Shah, son Shaikh Ibni Shah, son of Shaikh Bahauddin, son of Moulwi Shaikh Muhammad Fadil, son of Shaikh Muhammad, son of Shaikh Qutub Shah. (Biography of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib - Amire Tabligh-PG 23) Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith cJSi&l&Sy married the sister of Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib (the daughter of Moulana Muhammad Ilyas Sahib) after the demise of his first wife. In this manner, Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith is the brother -in-law of Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib. (Ibid - PG 36) Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib first married the eldest daughter of Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Sahib on the 3rd Muharram 1354 Hijri. The nikah was performed by Shaikhul Islaam Moulana Sayid Hussain Ahmad Madani SKSfiulcJJS at the annual jalsa of Madrassah Mazahir e Ulum Saharanpur. In Shawwaal 1367 Hijri, she passed away while performing sajdah. She was survived by only one son, Moulana Muhammad Harun Sahib. In the year 1369 Hijri, Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib married the second daughter of Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith. No children were born from this marriage, in this manner, Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib is also the son-in-law of Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Sahib. (Ibid -PG 36)

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&&!&?> (Vol-1) 35 Moulana Yusuf Sahib was born on Tuesday the 25th of Jumadal Ula 1335 Hijri, corresponding to the 20th of March 1914. His aqiqah was performed on Monday, the 2nd of Jamaduth Thaniyah. (Ibid - PG 48) Thereafter in 1353, he came back to Saharanpur to study Abu Dawood Sharif etc. under Shaikhul Hadith Moulana Muhammad Zakariyyah Sahib 3&ffl)li*%> (Ibid PG60) Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib mostly taught Abu Dawud Shariff. (Ibid - PG 77) Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Moulana Muhammad Zakariyyah Sahib 3C5iJ3>liw%> was the paternal cousin, father -in-law, brother -in-law, Ustaad and patron of Hadhrat Ji ^ffikjiy This Imani, Deeni and family relationship bonded the two closely together. (Ibid - PG 147) Hadhrat ;i was a replica of his father, Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas Sahib 92c&lcfy. His father had three outstanding qualities; the reality of knowledge, sincerity and a burning enthusiasm of striving to give Da'wah. These three qualities were found in Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib cflsffli?© to the degree of perfection. (Ibid - PG 149) Hadhrat Ji 3& lived a physicaHife of only forty eight years. (Ibid - PG 139) The founder of the Tablighi Movement, Hadhrat Moulana Shah Muhammad Ilyas Sahib cJSuBilc^ passed away in 1944. (Ibid - PG 163) His thoughts 1.) He said: "Deen cannot be understood by remaining at one place. Deen is understood by movement. Reflect! The Qur'aan was not revealed at one place. It was revealed sometimes at home sometimes on journey and sometimes in battle." (Ibid - PG 18) 2.) Hadhrat Ji W^&Ss used to say: "The remedy for current westernization is the unlimited movement of Tablighi Jamaat and spreading of the six points." (Ibid-PG 18) 3.) "We regard teaching as one of the fundamental duties. Our involvement in teaching proves this. We wish involvement in teaching to be combined with Tabligh." (Ibid -PG 77; 4.) Once he addressed a group of businessmen in the following manner, "Earning a living is not part of the Arkan (pillars) of Islaam. It is astonishing that we are destroying the Arkan of Islaam and wasting away our lives on those activities which are not the Arkan." (ibid - PG 80) 5.) Finally, he explained the movement, ikhwanul Muslimin, as follows, "When Hasan Albanna announced that his men should display their physical might in Egypt, I sent a message, through my men, stopping him from doing so. I advised him to continue the great task of reviving Deen and not to display physical force, otherwise the government would crush his profitable organization. Unfortunately he took no heed to my advice." (Ibid - PG 81) 6.) Then Hadhrat Ji added, "This Ummah was formed when none supported only his own family, community, party, nation, area or language." (Ibid - PG 86)

36 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH &&&& (Vol-D 7.) "The cure and remedy for this is to involve yourselves in the effort of Sayyidina RasulueJiS<^Sah W0&- Connect the Muslims to the Masjid where Iman is explained, Ta'lim is conducted, Dhikhr is practiced and Mashwarah regarding Dini effort takes place." (Ibid - PG 87) 8.) Hadhrat Ji S&u&liSy said, "It is erroneous to think that the acquisition of authority and wealth will cause Islaam to prosper. In fact, political authority and wealth is causing much harm to Islaam. Today's political leaders are no longer the representatives of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ©)f@si and Umar 5sS2@*?>. They represent Qaisar, Kisra, Shaddad and Namrud. There remains no hope in them for the revival of Islaam. The condition of Islaam under their rule has caused the heart to cry out, "How will Allaah cJ.^33^ revive this dead corpse." (Surah Baqarah) (Ibid - PG 89) 9.) Further, in the same discourse, he said: "Honour and disgrace is not in the planning of Russia and America, but in the control of Allaah cJJSX:3i\3 has blessed honour and disgrace on certain principles. Whichever individual or nation or family adheres to the principles of success, Allaah W&F will make them successful. On the other hand, whoever chooses the actions of failure, Allaah WM will destroy him." (Ibid - PG 90) 10.) The following words reveal the Yaqin of Hadhrat Ji cJGSSuliJSjsi on Am'mal: "Allaah fJ3335Gi has made the Am'mal produced by Sayyidina Rasulullaah ^M more powerful than the atom bomb. Each and every Am'mal of his is a means of causing a complete change in the universe. (Remember) Salatul Istisqa is a means of changing the conditions (of drought) on earth." (ibid - PG 91) 1 1.) The month of Ramadhaan is the month of the Qur'aan, Hidayat (guidance) and correction of A'mal. If we proceed in this blessed month to make effort for Deen according to its principles, then it is hoped that Allaah cSJSHS^ will open the path of Hidayat for the nations of the world. (Ibid - PG 97) 12.) Ilm (knowledge) without Dhikr is darkness and Dhikr without Urn is the door offitnah. (Ibid - PG 112) 13.) Moulana 3&fESs> also said: "The ultimate object of Tariqat is to develop a natural dislike to perpetrate the divine prohibitions." (Ibid - PG 115) 14.) Ensure that the oppressor compensates the oppressed, though the oppressor be from one's own family, nation or country. (Ibid - PG 118) 15.) Remember, Islaam demands unity. It does not call for individuality. (Ibid PG 130) 16.) Hadhrat Ji "<2&5Mf3 used to say: "We do not send Jamaats to Deoband and Saharanpur for the sake of doing Da'wah and Tabligh amongst the Ulama. We send them with the sole reason of bridging the gap which currently exist between the public and the Ulama. In this lies the benefit of the public." (Ibid - PG 144/145) 17.) He said: "The destruction of westernism lies in the universal Da'wah and propagation of the Sunnah." He propagated the Sunnah both verbally and practically. (Ibid - PG 156)

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH &&&& (Vol-1) 37 18.) When he was informed about these remarks, he said: "I undertook this journey with the intention of following the Sunnah. It will be a bargain for me to sacrifice all my wealth in order to follow one Sunnah." (Ibid - PG 158) 19.) He used to say: "Success is not in wealth. If success was in wealth, the Qarun would have been successful. Success is in the control of Allaah ﷻ. If Allaah ﷻ wills, then He can make a poor person successful and, if Allaah ﷻ wills, then He can make a rich person unsuccessful." (Ibid - PG 181/182) 20.) Hadhrat Madani and Hadhrat Raipuri رضى الله عنه said: "Why are you dispatching jamaats during these difficult times?" I replied: "It is my conviction that peace and tranquility will prevail wherever Jamaats will go." (Ibid - PG 185) 21.) Whenever our pious predecessors were introduced, it was never ever said: "He is the owner of so many mills," instead they were introduced in this manner, "He is a Badri," "He participated in Uhud," "He participated in these battles," "He is the one who made these sacrifices for Deen." (Ibid - PG 187) 22.) "The time you spend for useless pursuits should be utilized for the sake of Deen. Your entire vacation period which is spent in entertainment and fun should be correctly utilised in the path of Allaah ﷻ & ﷻ. We do not want you to forsake your studies." (Ibid - PG 191) 23.) These Jamaats proceeded to Arabia with the following message: "You brought Deen to us. At that time and even presently, you are more worthy of doing the effort of Deen. The people of the world learnt Deen from you. Hence, even now you should continue doing the same work." (Ibid - PG 192) 24.) He said: "These two nations have been permanent enemies of Islaam. Their culture has caused much harm to Deen. It is a difficult task to rectify this harm. They have distorted the history of Islaam, the life of Sayyidina Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and the meaning of the Holy Qur'aan in such a manner that even knowledgeable persons are deceived." (Ibid -PG 248) 25.) "Brother! It is better to spend as less time as possible to reach our destination. The ordinary place will take nine hours, whereas the jet will reach the destination in approximately three hours." (Ibid - PG 255) 26.) "Our life in this world is temporary. We have to make such an effort in this short life-span that will save us from disgrace in the Aakhirat." (Ibid - PG 260) 27.) He said: "When a person makes effort to himself, he reaches a stage where Allaah Ta'aala becomes pleased with Him. Allaah ﷻ then makes decisions (of favourable conditions) upon the actions of his limbs and the world falls at his feet. Today, we are chasing after the world, whereas the world is running away from us." (Ibid -PG 264) 28.) "When you listen to the recitation of the Qur'aan Sharif, then think: "Allaah ﷻ is addressing me. When you read or listen to the Ahadeeth, then think: Sayyidina Rasulullaah ﷺ is addressing me." (Ibid - PG 296) 29.) "Do not prepare people to attend Ijtimas for the sake of meeting me or to request me to make Du'aa for them. Instead, prepare them to come for the sake of pleasing Allaah ﷻ, receiving rewards in the Aakhirah and becoming

38 ; THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH 8S!£$@?gS (Vol-1) inviters to the Deen." (Ibid - PG 296) 30.) "If you fulfill the right of involvement in this effort, then those powers who possess atom and hydrogen bombs will become your slaves with all their weapons. To fear the atom and hydrogen bombs is tantamount to the fear of the idolaters for their idols." (Ibid - PG 297) 31.) The foundation of the social life of Sayyidina Rasulullaah W$s is based on purity, simplicity and modesty. The social life of the Jews and Christians is based on immodesty, extravagance and luxury. You are preferring the social life of those who shed the blood of your pious predecessors, dishonoured you and usurped your land. Now they are extending their help to you in a manner you feed chickens (for the sake of slaughtering them). (Ibid - PG 315) 32.) You will spread Nur (light) in this world if you travel with it as the sun rotates. You will acquire Nur through Imaan, the A'mal and Akhlaaq (actions and character) of Sayyidina Rasulullaah {SH? and giving the Da'wah of Deen with sincerity. The sun has three qualities. Firstly it rotates with Nur, secondly, it is in continuous rotation all the time and thirdly, it does not take any benefit from those upon whom it sheds its light. Your condition should be similar, travel with this Nur, continuously proceed in the path of Allaah $&$£, and'make this Ayah: "I do not seek any reward from you for this work of Tabligh," your principle. You should not take any personal benefit from the effort of Da'wah. (ibid -PG. 3 19/320 33.) The purpose of our Tabligh effort is that the Muslims must live obedient to the Commands of Allaah W$H. A life of obedience will result through developing the six qualities. (Ibid - PG. 335) 34.) One wisdom of performing two sajdahs in every Rakaat is that we should remember our creation from sand when performing the first Sajdah. The second Sajdah should remind us of the termination of our life one day and our return to sand. Standing up from Sajdah should remind us of our standing in front of Allaah {$2$l to render an account of our lives in this world." (Ibid - PG 339) 35.) Remember! Slogans like: "my nation," "my country," "my community," disunites the Ummah. Allaah 53)8*33? dislikes such slogans. (Ibid - PG 344) 36.) Remember! The corruption of monetary and social dealings destroy the unity of the Ummah. (Ibid - PG 345) His Works This is an Arabic commentary of Imaam Tahawi's Kitaab, "Sharh Ma'aniyul Athar." Two volumes have been published. The first volume consists of 376 pages and second 442 pages. Moulana was busy working on the manuscript of the third volume when all of a sudden he passed away. (Ibid - PG 66) Hayatus Sahabah consists of three volumes. The first volume consists of 612 pages, the second and third volumes consist of about 714 pages. After the demise of Moulana Mohammad Yusuf Sahib, Moulana In'amul Hasan Sahib began reading the Hayatus Sahabah after Isha Salaah. (Ibid - PG 73) The latter and former 'Ulama have unanimously approved and accepted the Kitab Sharah Am'aniyul Athar of Imam Tahawi aStfuliSsi. First Hadhrat Moulana

58 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-I) Abi Haalah J&Kb®© to describe Rasulullaah (ﷺ) because he could describe excellently. His reason for asking for a description of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was to adopt something of the description (because Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali (رضي الله عنه) was only seven when Rasulullaah (ﷺ) passed away, he did not have sufficient opportunity to study the appearance of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) in much detail). Hadhrat Hind bin Haalah (رضي الله عنه) began, "Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was of outstanding stature, appearing such to others as well. His face shone brightly like the full moon at night. He was taller than the average person yet shorter than a lanky person. His head was gracefully large and his hair had gentle curls. If his hair formed a path, he would leave it that way, otherwise he never took pains to make one (while he would make a path if a path formed easily, he would not take pains to make one if it became difficult). When his hair grew long, it would be below his earlobes. His complexion was radiant and his forehead was wide. His eyebrows were full though fine and stood separately. Between the two was a vein which would swell when he became angry. His nose was smooth with a high bridge and had a lustre about it, which made an unacquainted person think that it was large (whereas its lustre only made it seem such). His beard was thick, his eyes were black and his cheeks were smooth and unobtrusive. His mouth was moderately wide, his teeth discreet with a slight gap between the two front teeth." "The hair of his chest formed a thin line up to the navel. Because of its smoothness and clarity his neck appeared to be that of a carved silver statue. His body was firm and moderately built with his stomach in line with his chest. His chest was wide, his shoulders broad and his joints prominent and powerful. The uncovered parts of his body were always radiant. He had a line of hair running between his chest and navel and although his abdomen and breasts were hairless, his arms, shoulders and upper part of the chest had hair. He had long forearms, broad palms and his bones were well formed and straight. His hands and feet were well-built with his fingers and toes proportionately long. The inside of his foot was deep with the upper part so smooth that water easily flowed down them." "He lifted his feet well off the ground and leaned forward when he walked. He put his steps down lightly and walked briskly, taking long strides as he went along. He walked as if he was descending from a high place. When he turned to someone, he turned his entire body towards the person. He kept his gazes lowered and would more often be looking down than up. (Out of modesty) He never looked at a person straight in the face, always walked behind his companions and greeted whoever he met before they greeted him." Hadhrat Hasan (رضي الله عنه) then asked his uncle to describe the manner in which Rasulullaah (ﷺ)

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (SB)*!@^ (Vol-1) 59 did not speak vaguely and spoke most comprehensively (without wasting words). His words were distinct and conclusive with neither excess nor shortage (leaving no room for ambiguity). He spoke kindly without being harsh towards anyone or embarrassing anyone. Regardless of how insignificant they seemed, he always held favours in high esteem without belittling them or praising them excessively (so that no greed is shown)." "When the truth was being opposed, nothing could stem his anger until the truth was avenged." Another narration states, "Matters relating to this world never made him angry. However, whenever the truth (matters of Deen) met opposition, nothing and no one could stem his anger until the truth was avenged. He never became angry for personal reasons and never took revenge for anything affecting his personal life." "Whenever he pointed towards something, he pointed with his entire hand (and not only with one finger) and he always turned his hands over when expressing surprise. He (sometimes moved his hands when speaking and) would hit the palm of his right hand on the thumb of the left hand. When he was angry with someone, he would turn his face away from the person and then either ignore him or forgive him. When he was happy, he would lower his gaze because of modesty. Rasulullaah ﷺ smiled most of the time and when he did, his teeth would shine like hailstones." Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali WSt&& says that he did not mention this description to his brother Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali 5e3)3ffi!« for some time afterwards, but when he did, he gathered that his brother had learned about this from their uncle even before he could. He also learned that his brother Husayn ©(2@$ had even enquired from their father (Hadhrat Ali WG&&) about the manner in which Rasulullaah {JsSSI entered his home, left the home, conducted his gatherings and about the other mannerisms and behavioural characteristics of Rasulullaah ^$. It appeared that there was not any detail of Rasulullaah (JiS's life that Hadhrat Husayn W&&& had not asked about. Hadhrat Husayn JIM®© narrates further that when he asked his father Hadhrat Ali &&®% about the manner in which Rasulullaah OiS entered the house, the reply was, "His entry into his home was by (Allaah 3H3*335i's) permission and when he arrived home, he divided his time into three parts. There was a part reserved for Allaah SSI^^Q (for Ibaadah), a part for his family (to speak to them and to see to their needs) and a part for himself. The part reserved for himself was further divided between himself and the people. The Sahabah ftBISs®* closest to him would (discuss matters with Rasulullaah &SS at home and) pass on whatever they heard from Rasulullaah {$$!$ to the public without keeping anything secret. When allowing the Sahabah i@]3®*i to enter into discussions with him during this time, it was his practice to give preference to the Sahabah $&%!&$ who were most virtuous in terms of their merit in Deen. Among them were those who had one need, others who had two needs and others who had more needs. Rasulullaah &S$| would engage himself with (fulfilling the needs of)

6Q THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH '§&&&& (Vol-1) these people and would advise them concerning matters leading to their (spiritual) reformation and the reformation of the Ummah at large. Rasulullaah &j$$j| would enquire from those visiting him about the welfare of the Muslim public and advise them accordingly." "Rasulullaah £|f would say to those coming to see him, 'Those present here should pass the message on to those who are absent. You should communicate to me the needs of those who are unable to present themselves (because they are too modest, afraid or living too far to appear themselves). On the Day of Qiyaamah, Allaah £l]32$3 shall keep firm the feet of that person who informs their leader about the needs of another person who cannot do so himself.' It was only matters of importance that were mentioned to Rasulullaah %$$: and he did not entertain anything else (such as futile talk). People used to visit him in search of Deeni knowledge and would not leave without tasting something (this either means that they would not leave without receiving the knowledge they came for or that they would not leave without having something to eat or drink). They would leave him as guides towards good." Hadhrat Husayn 5gt!fi©?> further narrates that he asked his father about what Rasulullaah && and when he left the house. Hadhrat Ali *g$ils58fs) replied, . "Rasulullaah Ofii? always guarded his tongue from everything besides matters that concerned him. He always put people at ease without ever making them feel uncomfortable (he always advised and censured them in a manner that never made them afraid being with him). He always honoured the noble persons of a tribe and appointed them as leaders of their tribes. He would warn people (about the punishment of the Aakhirah as well as about the harms they faced from other elements and people). Together with warning others, he also guarded himself from the harms of others without depriving anyone of his cheerfulness and good character. He always watched over his companions and enquired about the welfare of the masses." "Rasulullaah {JSP would commend anything good and encourage it. On the other hand, he condemned anything evil and discouraged it. He chose the moderate path in all matters and was never contradictory. He was never negligent of the Deeni welfare of the people so that they did not grow negligent towards the Deen or turn away from it altogether. He had a method of dealing with every situation without compromising on the rights of any person nor transgressing them in any way. The best of people were in his attendance and those that he regarded as the most virtuous were the ones who wished the best for others. In his estimation, the highest ranking people were those who sympathised most with people and assisted them most." Hadhrat Husayn SBSsl>e> narrates that he further asked his father about the gatherings that Rasulullaah Wi$s held. Hadhrat Ali *g})3@« replied, "Rasulullaah W80: never sat or stood without Dhikr on his tongue. He would never reserve a place for himself (in the Masjid) and also forbade others from doing this. Whenever he arrived in a gathering, he sat on the fringe of the gathering and

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) instructed people to do the same. He gave equal attention to each person in the gathering so that all of them thought that they were the most honoured. Whenever a person sat with him or stood with him to address a need, Rasulullah remained with him patiently until the person himself took leave. When anyone asked him for anything, he would give the person his need or kindly tell the person that he did not have the means to fulfil the need.

"Rasulullah generously distributed his cheerfulness and good character to every person so that he became a father to them all and fulfilled the rights of each one of them equally. His gatherings included forbearance, modesty, tolerance and confidentiality. Voices were never raised in his gatherings, reputations were never smeared and faults were never publicised. Those attending his gatherings were treated equally (no racial and social discrimination existed) and people were held in high esteem only in relation to the level of their Taqwa. Each person respected the other and just as the elderly were shown great reverence, the youngsters were shown great compassion. The needy were attended to and enquiries were made about strangers (to see to their needs)." When Hadhrat Husayn asked his father about Rasulullah's interaction with the people in his gatherings, Hadhrat Ali replied, "Rasulullah always smiled and displayed a tolerant attitude and a soft nature. He was never ill-tempered, never hard-hearted, never shouted, was never vulgar, never searched for the faults of people and never joked excessively. Rasulullah pretended not to be aware of things he disliked but would not make a person lose hope in receiving something he wanted, which Rasulullah himself disliked (he would give the person something to appease him or advise him kindly)." "Rasulullah divorced himself from three things and also prevented people from these three things. These were (1) arguing, (2) speaking too much and (3) indulging in futile talk. He never spoke ill of anyone, never insulted anyone and never searched for the faults of any person. He only spoke when he anticipated rewards for his speech." "Whenever Rasulullah spoke, the Sahabah sitting in the gathering sat with their heads bowed as if there were birds perched on their heads (they sat absolutely still like people afraid that any movement of theirs would disturb birds perched on their heads). The Sahabah remained silent as he spoke and spoke only when he was silent. They also took care never to argue in his presence. Rasulullah expressed amusement when the Sahabah laughed and expressed surprise when they did. He tolerated the blunt speech and harsh manner of questioning that strangers used (when they came to ask various questions). (Seeing that Rasulullah did not mind the questions and because they were too respectful to ask such questions,) The Sahabah used to bring such strangers to the gatherings." "Rasulullah used to say, 'Help a needy person whenever you see one.' He did not tolerate anyone praising him, unless a person was expressing gratitude

62 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (S@!2@e> (Vol-1) for a favour done (Rasulullaah W8& allowed this so that people learned that they should express gratitude to others). He would never interrupt the speech of any person unless the person spoke something wrong, in which case, Rasulullaah (JIM would interrupt the speech by either stopping the person from continuing or by standing up and leaving." Hadhrat Husayn iiSSffi!® states further that he even asked his father about the manner in which Rasulullaah l&^ observed silence. His father Hadhrat Ali S!^S!g) replied, "Rasulullaah (S® observed silence on four occasions. These were (1) when he needed to bear with something, (2) when exercising caution, (3) when considering something and (4) when pondering about something. There were two things that he always considered. These were how he could (1) see all people alike and (2) hear all of them alike. There were also two things that he usually pondered about. These were (1) that which is everlasting (the Aakhirah) and (2) that which will come to an end (this world). Allaah SB-SOSt? had granted Rasulullaah @i? both the qualities of forbearance and fortitude because of which nothing made him so angry that he lost control of himself. ^ Rasulullaah &M exercised caution with regard to four matters. These were (1) ensuring that he does good and (2) giving importance to those things that would benefit the Ummah in this world as well as in the Aakhirah (his narration mentions only two matters). However, the narration in Kanzul Ummaal states, "Rasulullaah l&M exercised caution with regard to four matters. These were (1) ensuring that he does good so that his example should be followed (2) avoiding evil so that others also stay away from it, (3) exerting his mind in matters that will benefit the Ummah and (4) giving importance to those things that would benefit the Ummah in this world as well as in the Aakhirah. 2' Statements of the Sahabah $S! 3@«> Concerning Their Qualities Hadhrat Suddi 3i«fulcc%> has reported the following narration from Hadhrat Umar W&6 concerning the verse: C>ji»jjj^£UI iJP Oj-tfJJ OJ^i-Jlj OJj*v ij*^*^ u-^>l \a\J»^ j*ifj "You were the best of all nations who have been raised for (the benefit and salvation of) mankind. 68 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1). By Allaah (ﷺ). He was a standard-bearer of knowledge, a fortune of piety, a stronghold of intelligence and a mountain of good. He was a light to those walking in the pitch darkness and an unrelenting caller to the great straight path. Hadhrat Ali (رضي الله عنه) possessed profound knowledge of the earlier scriptures, propagated the teachings of the Qur'aan and always imparted excellent advice. He always clung to the ways of guidance and stayed far from injustice, causing harm to others and from everything destructive. He was the best of those who possessed Imaan and Taqwa and the leader of all those who dressed in sewn garments or in unstitched shawls. He was the most noble of those who performed Hajj and Sa'ee, the most magnanimous of those who administered justice and equity and the most eloquent of people save for the Ambiyaa and the chosen Rasool of Allaah (ﷺ). He was also among those early Muslims who performed salaah facing towards both Qiblas (the Kabah and Baytul Maqdas). Can there be any monotheist equal to him? He was the extremely fortunate one to marry the best of women (Hadhrat Faatima (رضي الله عنها)) and was the father of the two noble grandsons (of Rasulullaah (ﷺ)). My eyes have never seen anyone like him and will never see anyone of his calibre until the Day of Qiyaamah, which is the Day of Meeting. May the curses of Allaah (ﷻ) and the curses of every servant of Allaah (ﷻ) until the Day of Qiyaamah be on the one who curses him." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (رضي الله عنه) then asked, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Talha (رضي الله عنه) and Hadhrat Zubayr (رضي الله عنه)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) replied, "May Allaah (ﷻ)'s mercy be showered on them. By Allaah (ﷻ)! They were both extremely virtuous and pious Muslims who remained extremely pure. They were both martyrs and exceptionally learned men. Although they made an error, Allaah (ﷻ) shall forgive them because of the tremendous assistance they rendered (to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and the propagation of Deen), because they were among the earliest Muslims, among earliest companions of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and because of the many good deeds they carried out." Then Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (رضي الله عنه) asked, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Abbaas (رضي الله عنه)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) said, "May Allaah (ﷻ) shower His mercy on Abul Fadhl (Hadhrat Abbaas (رضي الله عنه)). By Allaah (ﷻ)! He was the real brother of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and the delight of his eyes. He was a chosen servant of Allaah (ﷻ), a sanctuary for all people and the leader of all the uncles of Rasulullaah (ﷺ). He possessed deep insight into all matters, always considered the consequences of everything and was adorned by profound knowledge. The virtue of others fades into the background when his virtues are mentioned and the achievements of other families seem insignificant before the accomplishments of his family. Why should he not be such a great person when he was raised by none other than Abdul Muttalib, who was the most honourable of people and the most esteemed of the Quraysh who ever walked or rode." The above is a part of a lengthy Hadith (1). (1) The Hadith is reported by Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.160) who reports from Tabraani but comments that one of the narrators is not known.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $$$& (Vol-1) 69 Chapter One The Chapter Concerning Da'wah Towards Allaah and His Rasool t-StW This chapter highlights how calling people towards Allaah and towards Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was the action that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and the Sahabah W&&& loved more than anything else. It also draws attention to the fact that their ardent desire was for mankind to be guided towards the Deen of Allaah and to enter its fold so that they may be immersed in Allaah's mercy. In addition to this, it focuses on their tireless efforts to achieve this so that the creation could be linked to their Creator. Love for Da'wah and Preoccupation with it The Concern of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) for Mankind to Accept Imaan Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) narrates that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was extremely concerned that the whole of mankind should accept Imaan and pledge allegiance to him. Allaah therefore revealed Qur'aanic verses such as: (Vo :JjA 8jyj) \!%tfD .!*> J (>ji<> jt j>>)*jp Among them (mankind) are the fortunate (those destined for Jannah) and the unfortunate (those destined for Jahannam). {Surah Hood, verse 105} in these verses, Allaah informed Rasulullaah (ﷺ) that people will accept Imaan only if the good fortune of doing so has been destined for them in the Lowhul Mahfoodh. Similarly, only those people for whom ill-fortune has been destined in the Lowhul Mahfoodh will go astray. Allaah then revealed to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) $&f&: (O Rasulullaah (ﷺ) &^J It seems like you will destroy yourself (with grief) because they (the Kuffaar) are not becoming Mu'mineen. The two of them continued speaking to Abu Taalib in this manner until the final words he uttered (as he passed away) were, "I remain on the religion of Abdul Muttalib." Rasulullaah (S8Si then said, "I shall continue seeking Allaah's forgiveness for you (O my uncle) until I am forbidden from doing so." THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH %&&$& (Vol-1) 73 Another similar report states that Rasulullaah i^$| continued presenting the Kalimah to Abu Taalib as the two Mushrikeen (Abu Jahal and Abdullaah bin Abi Umaayyah) repeated their words to him. Eventually, Abu Taalib passed away with the words, "I remain on the religion of Abdul Muttalib" without reciting, "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah" Rasulullaah f$$| then said, "Behold! I shall continue seeking Allaah's forgiveness for you (O my uncle) until I am forbidden from doing so." It was after this that Allaah revealed the two verses (mentioned above). (1) Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah $}&&%> narrates that Rasulullaah {Ji^i came to see his uncle Abu Taalib when he was about to pass away. Rasulullaah (£SS$ said to him, "O my beloved uncle! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' so that I may be witness to it on the Day of Qiyaamah." Abu Taalib said, "I would have certainly said it to please you if I did not fear that Quraysh would ridicule me by saying, 'He said it only because he feared death.' I would have then definitely said it only to please you." It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the verse: Verily you (O Rasulullaah WtOfE) cannot guide (to Islaam) those whom you love (such as Abu Taalib), but Allaah guides whoever He wills. He is best aware of those who are (deserving to be) rightly guided (and who deserve to be guided to Imaan). {Surah Qasas, verse 56}'2^ Rasulullaah &P$| refuses to Forsake Calling people to Allaah Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib (the son of Abu Taalib) narrates(3) that on one occasion when members of the Quraysh approached Abu Taalib (to discuss Rasulullaah t&iB), Abu Taalib said to Rasulullaah {£$$!, "O my nephew! By Allaah! As you well know, I have always listened to what you have to say (I now wish that you would listen to me). Your people have come to me to complain that in their gatherings and at the Kabah you tell them things that hurt them, if you think it appropriate, you should stop doing this." Looking towards the heavens, Rasulullaah {JSSI replied, "I do not have the ability to stop doing what I have been sent to do just as any of you do not have the ability to grab hold of a spark of fire from the sun." ^ A narration of Bayhaqi reports that Abu Taalib called for Rasulullaah WM and told him that the people had come to him and told him many things about what Rasulullaah ££$•; was doing. Hearing this, it crossed Rasulullaah (JiSI's mind that his uncle had changed his opinions, that he would stop assisting him, that he would now hand him over to the people and that he had lost courage in supporting him. Rasulullaah ®H? said, "O my uncle! Even if the sun were placed in my right hand and the moon in my left hand, I would not forsake this work (of propagation) until Allaah makes it (this Deen) dominant or I am destroyed in the process. "After saying this, the eyes of Rasulullaah W®£ filled with tears and he began weeping. (The complete Hadith will now be mentioned.) Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillaah ii3! 2@se> narrates that the Quraysh once gathered together and said, "Look for a person who is most learned in magic, fortune-telling and poetry so that he may meet this man (Rasulullaah W$!) who has split our community, divided us and insulted our religion. Everyone agreed that the best person for the task was Utba bin Rabee'ah and they said to him, "Go to him, O Abu Waleed!" When Utba met Rasulullaah (£$il, he asked, "O Muhammad! Are you better than Abdullaah (your father)?" Rasulullaah SHI!? remained silent. Utba continued, "Are you better than AbdulMuttalib(yourgrandfather)?" When Rasulullaah W$! remained silent for the second time, Utba proceeded to say, "If you think that all these people are better than you, then remember that they worshipped the very idols that you find fault with. However, if you think that you are better than them, then say so, so that we may hear you. By Allaah! We have never seen a youngster bringing more ill-fortune to his nation than yourself! You have split our community, disunited us, insulted our gods and disgraced us among the Arabs so much so that news has spread among them that the Quraysh have a magician and the Quraysh have a fortune-teller. By Allaah! (We are so disunited that) All we are waiting for is a shout of pain like that of a pregnant woman before we begin opposing each other with swords and destroy each other. Both replied, "We shall come willingly." Within two days, Allaah then made them (the skies) into seven skies, and issued a suitable command to (the angels occupying) each sky. Allaah decorated the sky of the world with lanterns (stars) and made them a means of protection (to be used to pelt the Shayaateen who attempt to eavesdrop on the conversations of the angels). This is the decree of the Mighty, the Wise. If they (the Kuffaar) turn away, then say, "I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Aad and Thamud." {Surah HaaMeem Sajdah, verses 1-13} Utba exclaimed, "Enough! Do you have nothing else to say?" Rasulullaah {Ji^l replied, "No." utba then left. When he met with the other members of the Quraysh, he said to them, "I told him everything you wanted me to tell him." "Did he give you a reply?" they enquired. Utba started saying, "Yes," but then quickly said, "No!" He added, "By the Being Who made the Kabah a place of worship! I understood nothing from what he said except that he warns us of a punishment like the punishment that afflicted the Aad and the Thamud." To this the people said, "Woe to you! A man speaks to you in Arabic and you cannot understand what he says!" Utba replied, "No (I cannot help it)! By Allaah! I understood nothing except mention of the punishment that afflicted the Aad and Thamud." ^ Other authorities including Bayhaqi have reported a narration from Haakim in which it is added that Utba also said to Rasulullaah g|$3f, "If it is leadership that you want, we will all anchor our flags for you (it was the practice in those times that leaders would have the flags of their tribes anchored at their homes) so that you become our leader for as long as you live." This narration also adds that Utba placed his hand on the mouth of Rasulullaah %0l$ii when Rasulullaah {&f$!• reached the verse: (VT :»A~> j^> 5jj~.) \%#!l ij^JJ ilP XiU+fi JIa "iJuyp j&j j JLil JJb \y»jf\

Utba grew extremely angry when he heard this and swore by Allaah that he would never again speak to Rasulullaah W&f. He then said to them, "You know well that I am one of the wealthiest people of the Quraysh." He then related the meeting with Rasulullaah && and said, "I went to him and he replied with words that I swear by Allaah are neither (products of) magic, poetry or fortune-telling. He started reciting: In the name of Allaah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. HaaMeem. (This Qur'aan is) A revelation from the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. He continued reciting until he reached the verse: If they (the Kuffaar) turn away, then say, "I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Aad and Thamud." {Surah HaaMeem Sajdah, verse 1 3} I then held his mouth and beseeched him in the name of our family relations that he should stop reciting. You know very well that Muhammad never lies when he speaks, so I feared that the punishment would afflict you people."

*" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar i&&&6 narrates that some members of the Quraysh once gathered to discuss about Rasulullaah {js^ as Rasulullaah W^ sat in the Masjid (the Masjidul Haraam in Makkah). Utba bin Rabee'ah said to the rest, "Leave me to speak to^him for I shall perhaps be softer on him than the rest of you." Saying this, Utba stood up and sat by Rasulullaah (^i. He then said, "O my nephew! I have no doubts that you are certainly from the best family and enjoy the most honour from all of us. However, you have placed your people in a situation that no other has done to their people. If it is wealth that you want by propagating your message, your people will take the responsibility to ensure that they accumulate their wealth to make you the wealthiest person. If it is position that you want, we shall all honour you until there is none more honourable than you and we shall do nothing without your approval. If you are doing this because you have been afflicted by evil spirits which you are unable to get rid of, then we shall spend all our fortunes until we grow helpless finding a cure for you. If it is leadership that you want, we shall make you our leader." Rasulullaah W@f then said, "Have you finished O Abu Waleed?" When Utba replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah && recited Surah HaaMeem Sajdah and (1) Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.62). Abu Ya'la has narrated a Hadith similar to that of Abd bin Humayd from Hadhrat Jaabir SSS&s. Abu Nu'aym has also narrated such a Hadith in his Hilya (Pg.75). Bayhaqi has mentioned that among the narrators is a person named Ajlah Kindi who is reliable according to Ibn Ma'een and others, but who Imaam Nasa'ee and some other scholars regard as unreliable. Besides him, the other narrators are reliable.

78 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH ﷺ (Vol-D prostrated in Sajdah when he recited the Sajdah verse (verse 37/8). However, Utba remained sitting with his hand behind him for support. When Rasulullaah ﷺ completed reciting the Surah, Utba stood up and (was so astounded by the words of the Qur'aan) that he did not know what to tell the others. Seeing him arrive, the others commented, "Utba is returning with a face quite different from the one he left you with." Utba said, "O gathering of Quraysh! I spoke to him as you instructed but when I had finished, he spoke to me with words that I swear by Allaah, my ears have never heard before. I did not know what to say to him. O gathering of the Quraysh! Obey me this once even if you disobey me forever afterwards. Leave this man alone to himself because I swear by Allaah that he will never forsake what he is doing. Allow him to do as he pleases with the Arabs because if he is dominant over them, his honour would be yours and if they dominate him, your objective would be reached without your intervention." To this the others said, "O Abul Waleed! You have forsaken your religion." *

Rasulullaah ﷺ Resolve to Fight for the Duty that Allaah Sent him with Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama SBSSS and Hadhrat Marwaan iUJ^iSSei have reported a lengthy narration concerning the incident leading to the Treaty of Hdaybiyyah, which will be mentioned later in this chapter. Part of the narration states. that while Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah ﷺ were stationed in the valley of Hdaybiyyah, Budayl bin Waraqa Khuzaa'ee arrived there along with a group of people from his tribe the Khuzaa'ah. This tribe were from the Tihaamah region and were the friendliest tribe of the region towards the Muslims. He told Rasulullaah ﷺ that they had just passed by the tribes of Aamir bin Luway and Ka'b bin Luway, who were camped at some of the springs of Hdaybiyyah. They informed Rasulullaah ﷺ that these tribes were ready to engage in battle with the Muslims and prevent them from coming to the Kabah. In fact they were so intent on fighting the Muslims that they had arrived with (all their "resources and even) those camels that were close to giving birth and those that had just given birth. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "I have not come to fight anyone, but wish only to perform Umrah. (It is surprising that the Quraysh want to fight because) Fighting has already weakened them and caused them much harm. If they want, we are prepared to enter into a treaty with them for a period. During this period, they should not interfere with my efforts on the people. If I dominate over the people (if they accept Islaam), the Quraysh have the choice of entering into the Deen which the others have entered into. On the other hand, if people get the upper hand over me, the Quraysh will have no worries. However, if the Quraysh refuse (to accept Islaam and insist on fighting), then I swear by the Being in Whose control my life lies, I shall fight them for the sake of this Deen until either my (1) Ibn Is'haaq as mentioned in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.63). Why do they rather not allow me to continue my work among the people without interference? If the other Arabs gain the upper hand over me and finish me off, the heartfelt desire of the Quraysh will be accomplished. On the contrary, if Allaah grants me victory over the other Arabs, the Quraysh will also enter the fold of Islaam. However, if the Quraysh refuse to accept Islaam and still have the strength to fight me, what do they think? I swear by Allaah that I shall fight for the sake of this (Deen) which Allaah has sent me with until Allaah grants me victory or this head is separated from my body." This is reported in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.165). (3) Bukhari. Muslim has also reported a similar narration in Vol.2 Pg.279.

80 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) The Outstanding Perseverance of Rasulullaah ^ﷺ when Inviting Hakam bin Kaysaan to Islaam Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Amr ^{رضي الله عنه} narrates that when he took Hakam bin Kaysaan prisoner (during one of the battles), his commander wanted Hakam executed. However, he (Hadhrat Miqdaad ^{رضي الله عنه}) managed to persuade his commander not to execute Hakam but to rather take him to Rasulullaah ^ﷺ. When they brought him to Rasulullaah ^ﷺ, the noble Rasulullaah ^ﷺ started inviting him to accept Islaam and spent a long time speaking to him. After some time, Hadhrat Umar ^{رضي الله عنه} said, "O Rasulullaah ^ﷺ! For what reason are you talking to him so much? By Allaah! He shall never accept Islaam! Allow me to execute him so that he may reach his destination in Jahannam!" However, Rasulullaah ^ﷺ paid no attention to Hadhrat Umar ^{رضي الله عنه} (and continued speaking) until Hakam accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Umar ^{رضي الله عنه} says, "When I saw Hakam accept Islaam, I was surrounded by thoughts of the past and future. I chided myself for addressing Rasulullaah ^ﷺ concerning a matter about which he had more knowledge than me. I then told myself that I had done so only for the welfare of Allaah and His Rasool ^ﷺ." Hadhrat Umar ^{رضي الله عنه} also said, "Hakam became a Muslim and by Allaah, he was an excellent Muslim who fought for the pleasure of Allaah until he was martyred at Bir Ma'oonah. Rasulullaah ^ﷺ was pleased with him and he has entered the gardens of Jannah." (1) In a narration of Zuhri, Hakam asked Rasulullaah ^ﷺ, "What is Islaam?" Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Faatima &&!&$ Weeps at the Pale Appearance of Rasulullaah W8& Caused by his Exertion In the Duty Allaah Entrusted to Him Hadhrat Abu Tha'laba Khushani 3&K3@« narrates that Rasulullaah @jjj83i once returned from a battle and entered the Masjid to perform two Rakaahs of salaah. Whenever he returned from a journey, Rasulullaah W&it always liked to proceed first to the Masjid to perform two Rakaahs of salaah and then go to the house of Hadhrat Faatima 13@l2!@fe' his daughter before proceeding to the homes of his wives. Consequently, he went to the home of Hadhrat Faatima Sp3@ti upon returning from a particular journey before going to see his wives. Welcoming him at the door, Hadhrat Faatima W&i&b started kissing Rasulullaah &$t on his face and his eyes. She then began weeping. When Rasulullaah Q$ffl& asked her what it was that made her weep, she replied, "O Rasulullaah ($&f! It is because I see your face so pale and your clothing so tattered (because of the strenuousness of the journey)." To this, Rasulullaah W@f said, "Do not weep, O Faatima. Allaah has sent your father with a Deen by means of which He will enter honour or disgrace into every baked and unbaked home and every skin tent on the surface of the earth (those who accept Islaam will have the honour while the others will "have the disgrace). It (the Deen) shall reach wherever the night reaches (everywhere). Those who accepted Islaam were blessed with good, honour and respect while those who remained Kuffaar suffered disgrace, humiliation and had to pay the Jizya." (3) (1) Bukhari (Vol.2 Pg.710). A similar Hadith is also narrated by Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.76), Abu Dawood (Vol.2 Pg.238), Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.89) and Nasa'ee as quoted by Ayni (Vol.9 Pg.121). THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 83 Hadhrat Umar's Desire for the Renegades to Return to Islaam Hadhrat Anas narrates that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari sent him to give the news of the conquest of Tustar to Hadhrat Umar. He says that Hadhrat Umar asked him about what had happened to six members of the Bakr bin Waa'il tribe who had forsaken Islaam and proceeded to live with the Mushrikeen. Hadhrat Anas replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! They have renounced Islaam and joined up with the Mushrikeen. Their only treatment is their execution." To this Hadhrat Umar said, "I prefer getting hold of them alive and well to all the gold and silver in the world." Hadhrat Anas asked, "O Ammerul Mu'mineen! What would you do with them if you got hold of them alive?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I would present to them the door from which they left so that they may re-enter it. If they accept, I would accept it from them, otherwise I would hand them over to the prison." Abdur Rahmaan Al Qaari reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari once sent a person to Hadhrat Umar. When Hadhrat Umar asked the person about the condition of the people, he duly replied. When Hadhrat Umar asked the person if there were any recent developments, he said, "Yes, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! A person who had become a Muslim, reverted to kufr." "What did you do with him," asked Hadhrat Umar. "We called him and executed him," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar said, "Why did you rather not imprison him for three days, feed him bread each day and encourage him to repent? He may then have repented and re-entered Allaah's Deen. O Allaah! I was not present there. I did not command it and am not pleased with it now that it has come to my notice." Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas once wrote to Ammerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar to ask him what was to be done about a person who had reverted to kufr after accepting Islaam, then accepted Islaam again, only to return to kufr. This he had done several times already. "Should his Islaam be accepted from him again?" was the question Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas posed. In response, Hadhrat Umar wrote back, "As long as Allaah accepts the Islaam of a person, you should do the same. You should therefore present Islaam to him again. If he accepts, you should set him free, otherwise you may execute him." states that the narrators in the report of Ahmad are narrators of authentic Ahaadeeth. 84 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Hadhrat Umar Weeps over the Exertion of a Christian Monk Abu Imraan Jowni narrates that Hadhrat Umar once passed by a monk and remained standing there. Someone called the monk and told him that the Ameerul Mu'mineen was there. When the monk peeped out, the effects of difficulty, exertion and forsaking the world were clearly apparent on his face (he had grown extremely pale and haggard on account of his spiritual exertions). Looking at him, Hadhrat Umar began to weep. "But he is a Christian," someone commented. Hadhrat Umar replied, "I know, but I feel sorry for him because I thought of the verse in which Allaah mentions: He who suffered affliction and who endured many difficulties (thinking that he was pleasing Allaah whereas his beliefs and actions did not conform with the injunctions of Allaah). He shall enter the blazing fire. {Surah Ghaashiya, verses 3,4} I feel sorry for him because despite his exertion and efforts in this world, he shall still end up in Jahannam." Upon reaching Makkah, I realised that Rasulullaah &S$I was in hiding and that his people were unashamedly harassing him. I therefore employed subtle tactics and finally managed to meet him." "I asked, "What are you?" Rasulullaah gfIH replied, 'I am the Nabi of Allaah.' I asked further, "What is a Nabi?" He said, 'A Rasul of Allaah.' "Has Allaah sent you?" I enquired. When he replied in the affirmative, I asked, "What (message) has Allaah sent you with?" There is still a considerable portion of this Hadith still to be mentioned. ^ Hadhrat Amr bin Abasa JDJSSStj has narrated yet another Hadith. He says that he once asked Rasulullaah gSSil, "With what message did Allaah send you?" May I now stay with you if you decide that this is appropriate." He replied, "As you can see, the people regard this Deen which I have brought as something very evil. Therefore, you should return home and when you hear that I have reached the place of my Hijrah, then you may come to me." *1' Rasulullaah (ﷺ) invited Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (رضي الله عنه) to Islaam. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (رضي الله عنه) was one of the first people to accept Islaam. He was of the first of his brothers to accept Islaam. His path to Islaam started with a dream that he saw. In his dream he saw himself standing on the edge of a blazing fire. He mentioned that the fire was so large that only Allaah knows its vastness. In this dream, he saw his father pushing him into the fire while Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was holding him by the waist so that he should not fall in. This scene frightened him so much that he woke up with the shock. When he awakened, he said to himself, "This is definitely a true dream." Thereafter, he met Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) and related the dream to him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) said to him, "Good is in store for you. He (Rasulullaah (ﷺ)) is the Nabi of Allaah so do follow him. (The interpretation of your dream is) You will follow him and enter into Islaam with him. Thereafter this Islaam will save you from entering the fire of the Jahannam where your father is at the moment." Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (رضي الله عنه) then met Rasulullaah (ﷺ) in the Ajyad district and said to him, "O Muhammad (ﷺ) To what do you call me?" He replied, "I call you to the One Allaah who has no partner and to believe that Muhammad is His servant and Rasul. I call you to renounce your worship of stones that cannot hear, cannot cause harm, they cannot be of benefit to you for they do not even know those who worship them from those who do not worship them!" Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (رضي الله عنه) said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship besides Allaah and I testify that you are the Rasul of Allaah." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was extremely happy when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (رضي الله عنه) did so severely that the whip broke as it struck his head. His father then said, "By Allaah! I shall not give you anything to eat!" To this Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (رضي الله عنه) said, "If you do not give me anything to eat, then Allaah shall definitely provide for me and I will pass my life." He then left (1) Ahmad (Vol. 4 Pg. 111) as well as Muslim, Tabraani, Abu Nu'aym (as mentioned in Isaabah), ibn Abdil Birr in Isti'ab (Vol. 2 Pg. 500) and Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'ilun Nabuwwah (Pg. 86).

(1) According to another narration his father sent their slave Raafi to look for him along with Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed and his other brothers who had not yet accepted Islaam. When they found him, they brought him to his father Abu Uhayha. His father started rebuking him and beating him with a whip that he carried in his hand. He beat him so severely that the whip broke on his head. His father then said, "Do you follow Muhammad when he opposes his people and finds faults with their gods and their forefathers who have passed away?" Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said to his father, "By Allaah! He's speaking the truth and I follow him." Thereupon his father became very angry and started swearing and saying, "You despicable person! Go whenever you please. I swear by Allaah that I shall stop feeding you." In reply, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "If you stop feeding me and then Allaah shall grant me enough sustenance with which to live." his father chased him out of the house and said to all his other sons that they will receive the same treatment if they ever spoke to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed then left his father and was the constant companion of Rasulullaah (ﷺ). According to another report, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed hid from his father in the gullies of Makkah and when the second group of Sahabah migrated to Abyssinia, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed accompanied them. When his father Sa'eed bin Al Aas bin Umayyah fell ill, he said, "If Allaah removes this illness from me, the god of Ibn Abil Kabsha (Rasulullaah (ﷺ)) will never be worshipped in the valley of Makkah." To this, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "O Allaah! Do not remove the illness from him." Subsequently, he died with that illness. Gave to Groups Leaders of the Quraysh Dispute the Da'wah Rasulullaah (i^i Gave them Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas SS2®?> narrates that it was after sunset when several leaders of the Quraysh gathered behind the Kabah for a meeting. Among them were Utba and Shaybah the two sons of Rabee'ah, Abu Sufyaan bin Harb, someone from the Abdid Daar tribe, Abul Bakhtari from the Banu Asad tribe, Aswad bin Abdil Muttalib bin Asad, Zam'ah bin Al Aswad, Waleed bin Mughiera, Abu Jahal bin Hishaam, Abdullaah bin Abi Umayyah, Umayyah bin Khalaf, Aas bin Waa'il and Nabeeh and Munabbah the two sons of Hajjaaj from the Banu Sahm tribe. They decided to send someone to call Rasulullaah {^H to them in an effort to speak to him frankly and thrash out matters so that people would know that they had made every effort (to resolve matters). Consequently, the message reached Rasulullaah {^S that the leaders of his people have gathered to speak to him. Rasulullaah (fi$$ hurried to meet them thinking that they had changed their opinions about him (and were ready to accept Islaam) because he was always eager for their welfare, always desired that they be rightly guided and-always distressed by their errant ways. When Rasulullaah SUSSI sat with them, they said, "O Muhammad! We have sent for you so that people may know that we have done our best to persuade you. By Allaah! We know of no other Arab who has distressed his people as you have done. You have insulted our forefathers, blasphemed against our religion, made our luminaries seem foolish, abused our gods and disrupted our unity. In fact, you have done everything possible to spoil relations between us. If it is wealth that you want by propagating your message, we shall accumulate wealth to make you the wealthiest person amongst us. If it is honour that you want, we shall make you our leader. If it is kingship you aspire for, we shall make you our king. If you are doing this because you have been afflicted by evil spirits that have overwhelmed you, then we shall spend all our fortunes until you are cured or until we grow helpless in finding a cure for you." Rasulullaah && replied, "I aspire for none of the things you have mentioned. I have not brought to you what I have brought (the message of Islaam) in search of your wealth nor to attain honour or kingship. However, Allaah has sent me as a messenger to you. On the other hand, should you reject this, I shall wait for the decision of Allaah when he decides matters between myself and you people." , After listening to him, the leaders of the Quraysh said, "O Muhammad! Since you would not accept any of our proposals, you know very well that there is no city more restricted than ours, no nation poorer than us and none who live lives more difficult than ours. Therefore, ask your Rabb who has sent you to move from us these mountains that have restricted us, to expand our city, to cause rivers to flow like the rivers of Shaam and Iraq. In addition to this, ask Him to bring back to life our forefathers who have passed away. Amongst these He should bring back to life Qusay bin Kilaab because he was a pious person. We shall then ask him whether you are truthful in your claim or not. If you fulfil all that we have asked you and if our forefathers verify what you say, then we shall believe you and acknowledge your status with Allaah. We shall then acknowledge that Allaah has sent you as a messenger as you claim. In response to this, Rasulullaah {S} said, "I have not been sent for this reason. I have been sent to you people with that which Allaah has sent me for and I have already conveyed to you that which Allaah has sent me with. If you accept it, you shall meet good fortune in this world as well as in the next. On the other hand; should you reject this, I shall patiently await the command of Allaah when He decides matters between yourselves and me." The Mushrikeen then said, "If you do not wish to do this, then at least do this for yourself that you ask your Rabb to send an angel to verify what you say and give answers on your behalf. You should also ask Him to grant you orchards, treasures and palaces of gold and silver by which you would become independent of the things we assume you are hankering after because you merely stand in the market places and earn a living just as we do. If you do this, we shall acknowledge your high standing in the sight of your Rabb. This you would do if you are really a Nabi as you claim." Rasulullaah said to them, "I shall not do this. I am not one to ask my Rabb for such things and I have not been sent to you for this reason. However, Allaah has sent me as a bearer of glad tidings and as a warner. If you accept what I say, you shall meet good fortune in this world as well as in the next. On the other hand, should you reject this, I shall patiently await the command of Allaah when He decides matters between yourselves and me." Then Mushrikeen then said, "In that case, cause the sky to fall on us as you claim your Rabb is able to do if He pleases. We shall never believe you unless you do this." Rasulullaah {S} said to them, "That is left to Allaah. If He wills, He would make it happen." They said, "O Muhammad! Bujra told them, "As far as I am concerned, no one in this marketplace shall return with anything worse than that with which you shall return. You are doing something that will cause all the Arabs to shun you and wage war with you. His people know him better. Had there been any good in him, they would have considered it a privilege to support him. He is a foolish man whose people have discarded him and rejected him yet you people wish to give him shelter and assist him! Your decision is evil indeed!" Bujra then went to Rasulullaah and said, "Get up and return to your people! By Allaah! Had you been among my people, I would have severed your head!" When Rasulullaah mounted his camel, the wretched Bujra stabbed the camel with a stick in its abdomen, causing it to bolt and throw Rasulullaah off. Hadhrat Subaagha bint Aamir bin Qurtasimah who was one of the ladies who accepted Islaam in Makkah happened to be visiting her cousins there. When she saw this, she said, "O children of Aamir! None of you are like Aamir to me (if you do not help Rasulullaah). Can none of you do something when this has happened to the prophet of Allaah right in your midst?!" In response to her plea, three of her cousins stood up and charged for Bujra, while two other men stood up to defend Bujra. The three cousins felled their opponents, sat on their chests and beat them up. Rasulullaah said, "O Allaah! Bless these (the three cousins) and curse those!" Consequently, the three who assisted Rasulullaah accepted Islaam and died as martyrs while the others died under the curse of Allaah. The names of the two who helped Bujra were Hazn bin Abdillaah and Mu'aawiya bin Ubaadah while the three who helped Rasulullaah were Urwa bin Abdillaah and Ghitreef and Ghatfaan the two sons of Sahl. (1) Hadhrat Suhri narrates that Rasulullaah met the Banu Aamir bin Sa'sa'ah tribe and placed Islaam and himself before them (invited them to accept Islaam and to assist him). Among the members of this tribe was a person named Bajeera bin Firaas who said, "If I could hold on to this person, I could destroy all the Arabs with him." He then said to Rasulullaah "You say that if we support you in your effort and then Allaah grants you victory over your enemies, shall we then have kingship?" Rasulullaah replied, "The decision rests with Allaah. He shall grant kingship to whoever He pleases." Bajeera exclaimed, "Hear! Hear! We should risk our necks in front of the Arabs and then when Allaah grants you victory, others receive kingship! We have no need for your effort." He says that he happened to stop by Hadhrat Umar $f%%!&» (who was then not yet a Muslim) as he was busy torturing a slave girl of the Banu Amr bin Mu'ammil. Thereafter, he (Hadhrat Umar Sua®©) stopped by Hadhrat Zinneeraa WZ&v and started torturing her as well. (2) Rasulullaah S^? They replied, 'From the Rabee'ah tribe.' He then asked, 'From which family of the Rabee'ah tribe?'" Hadhrat Ali Wffi&s> then continues the lengthy narration until he reached the words, "We then reached a gathering filled with an air of respect where there sat several elders of high status and eminence. Hadhrat Abu Bakr Jp3i®ei was always one to take the initiative so he approached them and greeted them. When he asked them where they came from, they replied that they were from the Banu Shaybaan bin Tha'laba tribe. Hadhrat Abu Bakr JS8«@> posed a further question saying, "What are the battles like between yourselves and your enemies?" Mafrooq said, "We are most angered when we fight and we fight fiercest when we are angered. (We love war so much that) We prefer pedigreed (fighting) horses to children and weapons (1) Bukhari in his Taareekh, Abu Zur'ah, Baghawi, Ibn Abi Aasim and Tabraani as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 1 Pg. 275). I swear by Allaah that this is not the speech of those on earth because if it were, we would have definitely recognised it." Thereafter Rasulullaah &Ot recited the following verse of the Qur'aan: j J&Jj ZL&\ yp J4& Ji'j&\ ^i fCF\ o^fj Jj^JW yk ipi fJ^ Verily Allaah instructs (people to carry out) justice, Ihsaan (do things well, as well as doing everything with the consciousness that Allaah is watching), and giving (charity) to relatives. And Allaah forbids immoral behaviour, evil and oppression. He advises you so that you may take heed (and thereby save ourselves from ruin and Jahannam). {Surah Nahl, iverse 90} Mafrooq exclaimed, "O Qurayshi! I swear by Allaah that you call towards the best of character and the most beautiful actions. Without doubt, any nation that rejects you and supports others against you are certain liars." Mafrooq then decided to include Haani bin Qabeesah in the conversation. He therefore introduced Haani by saying, "This is Haani bin Qabeesah. He is our elder and in charge of our religious affairs." Thereafter, Haani addressed Rasulullaah W$& saying, "O my Qurayshi brother! I have heard what you have to say and accept every word of it. However, I feel that if we forsake our religion to follow yours, it would be a mistake and would reflect upon the weakness of our understanding and lack of contemplation over the matter. The reason for this is that this is only our first meeting with each other, which may not even be the last and no one knows what the future holds. Mistakes often occur because of haste. In addition to this, we have people at home who would dislike that we enter into any agreement without consulting them. Therefore, you should return and we shall return. There after you contemplate over your matter and we shall contemplate over ours."

120 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $$$& (Vol-D Haani then wished to include Muthanna bin Haaritha into the conversation. He therefore introduced him saying, "This is Muthanna bin Haaritha. He is our elder and in charge of our military affairs." Addressing Rasulullaah g$H, Muthanna said, "O Qurayshi brother! I have listened to what you have said. I like what you said for it appealed to me very much. However, my r^ply to you will be the same reply that Haani bin Qabeesah has given. We find ourselves between the borders of two countries. The one is Yamaamah and the other is Samaawah." Rasulullaah W$i asked him, "On the borders of for which two countries you are situated?" He replied, "On one side and we have the land, the high hills and mountains of the Arabs while on the other side we have the land of the Persians and the rivers of the Kisra. The Kisra has permitted us to live there on condition that we do not start anything new and do not support any person who starts a new movement. The possibility is great that the Persian kings would not like that which you are calling us towards. Whereas the custom in the land of the Arabs is to forgive those who will have erred and to accept their excuse, the custom of the land of the Persians is that people who make mistakes are not forgiven nor are their excuses accepted. Therefore, if you wish that we take you back to our land and assist you against the Arabs, we can accept this responsibility (however, we cannot bear the responsibility of opposing the Persians)." Rasulullaah W0& said to them, "Your reply has not been an evil one because you have spoken frankly. However, the only people who can establish the Deen of Allaah are those who protect it from every angle." Rasulullaah &f then stood up taking the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr WS%$£». Hadhrat Ali 5i3J2s@»ei narrates further when he says that the three of them then proceeded to the Aws and Khazraj tribes and left them only after they had pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah (S^i. Speaking about the Aws and Khazraj tribes, Hadhrat Ali JSUiSiSSSg says, "They were extremely truthful and extremely perseverant people. May Allaah be pleased with all of them." *1' Another narration states that Rasulullaah *£$£• said to them, "The only people who can establish the Deen of Allaah are those who protect it from every angle." Thereafter, Rasulullaah ®Sf added, "Tell me. If after a short while Allaah grants you their (the Persians') land and their wealth and takes their women to your beds (making them your wives and slaves), will you then not be prepared to glorify Him and proclaim His purity?" To this, Nu'maan bin Shareek said, "You then have our support, O brother of the Quraysh." Rasulullaah $$$& then recited the verse: O Nabi ^$] We have certainly sent you as a witness, a carrier of good news (to the Mu'mineen that they will enjoy Jannah), a warner (to the Kuffaar that they will suffer the punishment of jahannam if they do not (1) Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (pg. 96).

By Allaah, they used their swords, their power of speech and their generosity of their hearts to nurture Islaam just as a mare nurtures her foal in a green pasture. During the seasons of Hajj, Rasulullaah ®i? used to go out to call the various tribes to Islaam. However, none was prepared to accept his message. He used to meet the various tribes at the marketplaces of Majinna and Ukaaz and at Mina until he would meet the same tribes returning year after a year. In fact, there were those tribes who used to say to him, "When will the time come for you to give up hope on us because you have been meeting with us for such a long time? Eventually the tim^came when the Most Powerful the Most Honoured Allaah decided matters in favour of the tribes of the Ansaar. Rasulullaah ®$$ then presented Islaam to them and they readily accepted. They took Rasulullaah W$f to their town, assisted him and sympathised with him. However, he was abused and hurt. Eventually, the decision of Allaah demanded that honour come to this tribe of the Ansaar. Consequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ met a group of them at a place called Aqaba as they were busy shaving off their hair (after performing Hajj). When one of the narrators asked Hadhrat Umm Sa'd Sp2j@<> who the group was, she replied, "They were six or seven persons. From the Banu Najjaar tribe were As'ad bin Zuraa'rah and two sons of Afraa." She did not name the rest of them. Rasulullaah ﷺ sat down with them, conveyed the message of Allaah to them and recited a part of the Qur'aan to them. They accepted Allaah and his Rasool ﷺ and agreed to meet him the following year. This incident is known as the first pledge of Aqaba. Thereafter, the second pledge of Aqaba took place. One of the narrators then asked Hadhrat Umm Sa'd W%®&, "How long did Rasulullaah ﷺ stay in Makkah?" She replied, "Have you not heard the words of Abu Sirma Qais bin.Abi Anas?" The narrator responded by saying, "I do not know what he said." She then quoted the following couplet: "He stayed with the Quraysh for a few years more than ten Advising people with the hope of meeting a suitable friend" She then proceeded to quote an entire poem, which shall Inshaa Allaah be quoted in a Hadith of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas JIKSSffiSsS in the chapter concerning the help that the Sahabah &SH&9 rendered to the cause of Islaam. (2) Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib ©!^@> and Hadhrat Zuhri narrate that one day during the period when the Mushrikeen started harassing Rasulullaah ﷺ to a great degree, he said to his uncle Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib S!3®e>, "O my beloved uncle! Allaah shall assist His Deen using such people to whom the oppressive opposition of the Quraysh would seem trivial and who would enjoy great honour in the eyes of Allaah. Indeed these idols have misled many people. So whoever will follow me (by believing in Towheed), then he is certainly from me (from among the adherents of my religion). Arjfd whoever will disobey me, then (I pray that you give him the ability tot obey, me because) surely You are Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. O our Rabb! I have settled some of my children (Ismaa'eel 0%&f) in a valley that cannot be cultivated, close to Your sacred house (the Kabah). O our Rabb! (I have left them here) So that they establish salaah, so cause the hearts of some people to be inclined towards them (so that people may love them and settle with them). And provide for them fruits (all types of provisions) for their sustenance so that they may be grateful. O our Rabb! Indeed You know what we conceal and what we disclose (so forgive us for all the mistakes we make). Nothing in the heavens and the earth is hidden from Allaah. All praise be to Allaah, Who has gifted me with (my sons) Ismaa'eel W&& and Is'haaq $S8&f despite (my) old age. Undoubtedly, my Rabb hears all prayers. O my Rabb! This (Qur'aan) is a message for people so that they are warned by it and so that they may know (by the proofs and examples it contains) that He (Allaah) is but One Ilaah, and so that the intelligent ones take heed (listen, learn and prepare for the Akhirah). {Surah Ibraheem verses 35-52} Their hearts were moved by these words of the Qur'aan and they accepted Islaam. As they were engaged in conversation with Rasulullaah {2S$f, Hadhrat Abbaas 513fa@»e> passed by. Recognising the voice of Rasulullaah (S8jif, he said, "O my nephew! Who are these people with you?" Rasulullaah ®fi said, "These are the residents of Yathrib from the Aws and Khazraj tribes. I gave them the same Da"wah that I had given to so many other tribes before them and they accepted my message and believed what I said. They have also mentioned that they shall take me back with them to their city." Hadhrat Abbaas JSH^@si descended from his animal, tied it up and said, "O people of the Aws and Khazraj! This is my nephew and the person I love most. If you accept his message, believe him and intend to take him with you to your city, I want you to make a promise so that my heart may be contented. Promise me that you shall never desert him and never betray him because your neighbours are the Jews and the Jews are his enemies. I fear that the Jews may connive against him." Facing Rasulullaah gjijf, Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah W&@& said, "O Rasulullaah {$Sif! There is a path to every call. While some paths are easy, others are difficult. Today you have called us towards something that is both new and difficult for people to accept. You have called us to forsake our religions and to follow you in your Deen. This is not an easy task. However, we have accepted your call. You have called us to sever all' ties we have with both close and distant relatives (by following you rather than them). This is not an easy task. However, we have accepted your call. You have invited us to Islaam whereas we are a strong group living in a place that is powerful and mighty (where our lives and properties are

This is not an easy task but we have accepted it. These things appear difficult for all save those whose welfare Allaah has decided and who foresee good in, its results. We have accepted your call with our tongues, our hearts and our hands because we believe what you have conveyed to us and we accept it with conviction that has settled deep within our hearts. We pledge our commitment to you in all of this and we pledge it to our Rabb and your Rabb as well. Allaah's hand is above ours (approving this pledge). We shall spill our blood to protect yours and give our lives for yours. We shall protect you as we protect ourselves, our children and our wives. Should we fulfil this pledge, it shall be for Allaah. Should we betray this pledge, it shall be betraying Allaah to the cost of making us the most wretched people. O Rasulullaah ﷺ All that we have told you is the absolute truth and we seek Allaah's assistance (to help us fulfil the pledge)." Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah رضى الله عنه then turned to Hadhrat Abbaas رضى الله عنه saying, "As for you who have used your words to be a barrier between Rasulullaah ﷺ and us. Allaah knows best what you meant by your words but you have mentioned that this is your nephew and the person whom you love the most. However, we have cut ourselves off from people near and distant as well as from blood relatives. We testify that he is certainly the Rasul of Allaah whom Allaah has Himself sent. He is certainly no liar and what he has brought does not at all resemble the words of man. As for your statement that you cannot be content with us until we make a promise to you, we shall certainly not refuse such a request made out of concern for Rasulullaah ﷺ. You may therefore take from us whatever promises you wish." Turning once again to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah رضى الله عنه said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Take any promises you wish from us and make any conditions from the side of your Rabb that you wish to make." The details of their pledge of allegiance shall Inshaa Allaah be mentioned in the complete Hadith in the chapter concerning the assistance that the Ansaar rendered to Islaam at the very beginning. '" The Da'wah that Rasulullaah ﷺ gave in the Marketplaces Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Ibaad رضى الله عنه belonged to the Banu Deel tribe who had all accepted islaam after passing through the Period of Ignorance. Rasulullaah {£S$£I prepared food weighing only a "mudd" (4), from which everyone ate to their fill. (Also forbidden for you are; What (that animal which) has been slaughtered at the altars (in the name of gods besides Allaah) and distribution by arrows'1'. {Surah Maa'idah, verse 3} Hadhrat Abu Umaamah J3!3s@ei says that as he invited them towards Islaam, they kept rejecting. He then said to them, "Shame on you! At least give me some water for I am extremely thirsty." They responded by saying, "No! We shall not give you any water but would rather leave you to die thirsty." He then tied his turban around his head and lay down on the scorching sand. He narrates, "When I fell asleep, I saw a person come to me with a crystal glass so beautiful as no one had" ever seen. In the glass was a drink that no one has ever tasted a drink as delicious. He gave the glass to me and I drank from it. I woke up as soon as I had finished drinking and I swear by Allaah that after that I had never been thirsty nor even known what thirst is." ^ A shorter version of this narration reported by Abu Ya'la states at the end that someone from Hadhrat Abu Umaamah SSBssSUsi's tribe said to the others, "One of your leaders has come to you and you could not even honour him!" The people then brought some milk for him to drink, but he said, "I have no need for it now." He then (narrated the dream to them and) showed them his (full) stomach. Every one of them then accepted Islaam. A narration of Bayhaqi in Dalaa'il states that Hadhrat Abu Umaamah &SS5i&t> was sent to his tribe who were the Baahila tribe. (3) Rasulullaah &f? Sends a Person to the Banu Sa'd tribe Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais W&&& narrates that he was once performing Tawaaf around the Kabah when a man from the Banu Layth tribe grabbed hold of his hand saying, "Shall I not give you glad tidings?" When Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais JSK»S(S!« asked to be informed, the person said, "Do you not remember the time when Rasulullaah QMJUt sent me to invite your tribe to Islaam? When I presented Islaam to them and invited them to accept, you said to me, You are inviting us (1) The Mushrikeen Arabs used to predict future events using special arrows and also used such arrows in a form of gambling. (2) Tabraani as well as Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummai{Vo\7 Pg.94). Haythami (Vol. 9 Pg.387) has commented on the Hadith. (3) Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.182). When Rasulullaah ﷺ heard about this, he said, 'O Allaah! Forgive Ahnaf.'" It was on account of this that Hadhrat Ahnaf (r.a) would always say, "I have more hope in this (du'aa of Rasulullaah ﷺ) than any good act that I have carried out." (1) Imaam Ahmad and Tabraani have reported this Hadith thus: "Rasulullaah ﷺ sent me to convey the message of Islaam to your tribe the Banu Sa'd. It was you who said, "Rasulullaah ﷺ speaks only good" or (you said) "What I am hearing is only good". When I returned and informed Rasulullaah ﷺ about what you said, he prayed thus, 'O Allaah! Forgive Ahnaf.'" It was on account of this that Hadhrat Ahnaf (r.a) would always say, "I have more hope in this (du'aa of Rasulullaah ﷺ) than any good act that I have carried out." (2) Rasulullaah ﷺ sends a Person to a Man who was Influential during the Period of Ignorance Hadhrat Anas (r.a) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once sent one of the Sahabah (r.a) to give Da'wah to a person who was influential during the Period of Ignorance. The person asked, "What is your Rabb towards whom you call made of? Is he made of iron? Is he made of copper? Is he made of silver? Is he made of gold?" When the Sahabi (r.a) reported back to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ sent him back (to repeat the invitation). However, the person repeated his remark. When the Sahabi (r.a) reported back to Rasulullaah ﷺ the second time, Rasulullaah ﷺ sent him back for the third time. However, the person repeated his remark yet again. When the Sahabi (r.a) again reported to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Allaah has struck your friend with a bolt of lightning that incinerated him." It was then that the following verse was revealed: II ' 'll "» 1 ' ' £ Ml .'»-!•'»» , iTyi > "•' J > >' ■ ' ' t' s „ J, >' \ (\r :Sfij) \ Sjj-0 \ % ^) Allaah sends the bolts of lightning to strike whoever He wills while they are disputing about Allaah. Allaah is fiercely Powerful. {Surah Ra'd, verse 13} <3> A report of Bazaar states that the person was one of the tyrannical Arab leaders and that the Sahabi (r.a) said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! He is more tyrannical than Fir'oun. This version of the report states that the Sahabi (r.a) was still busy inviting the person to Islaam for the third time when Allaah sent a cloud above him that started to rumble with thunder. A bolt of lightning then emerged from the cloud and decapitated the man. (4) (1) Ibn Abi Asim and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.614). (2) Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.2) has commented on the Hadith. (3) Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.42) has mentioned that Abu Ya'la and Bazaar have both quoted this narration. (4) Tabraani has also reported a similar narration in his Awsat.

The narration of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed W03&9 has already passed in the chapter entitled "Inviting Towards Islaam on the Battlefield". In that narration, he mentions that when Rasulullaah %M$ dispatched him to Yemen, Rasulullaah (JSP said to him, "If you hear the Adhaan being called out among any nation you meet, leave them alone. However, if you pass a nation/and hear no Adhaan from them, you should invite them to Islaam." ? Insha Allaah, the narration shall soon be mentioned in which Rasulullaah £| $| dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Murra 3a)!3@9 to give Da'wah to his people. Rasulullaah &f Dispatches Groups to Give Da'wah Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 3S»2@e> narrates that Rasulullaah $$$$ once summoned Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf SS2@£5 and said to him, "Prepare yourself because I want to send you out with a group." After some detail, the Hadith continues to mention that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 3p2Sa!gi left and met up with the some other Sahabah (8S.t2@!sg>. They all then left together until they reached a place called Dowmatul Jandal (this was a fortress between Madinah and Shaam to which several villages were attached). When he arrived there, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf JS3.t2@ss> spent three days inviting the people to accept Islaam. On the third day, their leader Asbagh bin Amr Kalbi S!3@e> who was a Christian accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ©!3@8> sent a letter with a person from the Juhayna tribe called Raafi bin Makeeth ©)3@SJ, reporting the events to him. Rasulullaah $$$£ wrote back to him with the instruction to marry the daughter of Asbagh. He therefore married her. This daughter of Asbagh was called Tumaadir from whom Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf W&M& had a son called Abu Salma. (1) Rasulullaah Si Sends Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Wffi$fg> to Banu Baliy to Encourage the people to Accept Islaam Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Tameemi 2s3!2@g> narrates that Rasulullaah (J^i sent Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas out 5!3!3@s> to encourage the Arabs to accept Islaam. Rasulullaah #$$ sent him to the Banu Baliy tribe because the mother of Aas bin Waa'il (his father) was from this tribe and he would be able to identify with them. When he reached a watering place called Salaasil (by which the Battle of Salaasil got its name) which was situated in the territory of the Judhaam, he sensed danger and sent a message for Rasulullaah t£M? to dispatch reinforcements to assist him. Rasulullaah W^ then sent a battalion of the early Muhaajireen under the leadership of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah JiSSSSiSi. Among this battalion were the likes of Hadhrat Abu Bakr SB2@« and Hadhrat Urridr JSD3i@§>. I have control over none but my own self. O Rasulullaah (iSsi! If you wish that I come to you personally, I am prepared to do so for I testify that whatever you say is the absolute truth. ^ The Letter Rasulullaah {H$SI sent to Heraclius the Emperor of Rome Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi 3fI13®& narrates that Rasulullaah (JiSjJi sent him with a letter to the Emperor of Rome. When he arrived there and handed over the letter, the emperor's nephew who was a blue-eyed boy with a reddish complexion and straight hair was' present with him. When he opened the Tetter, he read, "Front Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah to Heraclius the Roman leader." When he read this much, the Emperor's nephew snorted loudly and exclaimed, "This cannot be read today!" "Why not?" asked the Emperor. His nephew replied, "Because he started the letter with his name and wrote 'the Roman leader' instead of 'the Emperor of Rome.'" The Emperor instructed, "You shall definitely read it!" When the letter had been read and the people dispersed from the Emperor's court, he summoned Hadhrat Dihya Jf312!©# and also sent for the high priest who was his special advisor. The people had informed the high priest about what had happened and the Emper'or also informed him and had the letter read out to him. The high priest said, "He (Rasulullaah (HSU) is the one whom we have been waiting for and about whom Isa %$$> had foretold." The Emperor asked him, "What do you advise me to do?" The high priest said, "As for myself, I certainly believe him. and shall follow him." The Emperor said, "As for myself, I shall lose my kingship if I do so." Thereafter, everyone left the Emperor's court. The Emperor then sent for Abu Sufyaan who happened to be there at the time (for trade). The Emperor asked Abu Sufyaan, "Tell me about this person who has appeared in your land. How is he?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "He is a young man." The Emperor asked further, "What is his pedigree arrtongst you?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "He enjoys a pedigree that none can surpass." The Emperor said, "This is a sure (1) Bayhaqi from Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in AlBidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.83).

He then asked, "Tell me about those of your people who have joined with him. Have any of them returned to you?" "None," came the reply. The Emperor again remarked, "This is a sure sign of prophethood. Is heaven defeated when he leads his companions to battle?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "His people have done battle with him. Sometimes they have defeated him and at other times he had defeated them." The Emperor said, "This is a sure sign of prophethood." He then sent for Hadhrat Dihya ©USSSgi and said to him, "Tell your leader that although I know well that he is a prophet, I cannot forsake my kingship." Hadhrat Dihya WHs^ narrates further that the people used to gather before the high priest every Sunday when he would deliver lectures to them and advise them. However, when Sunday came, he did not go out to meet the people and remained in his home until the following Sunday. Hadhrat Dihya 5SHS@s> says that he used to meet with the high priest who would speak to him and ask him many questions. When the next Sunday came, the people again awaited his arrival. However, he did not meet them with the pretext of being ill. This he did for several Sundays until the people eventually delivered the ultimatum and sent a message to him stating, 'You will come to us otherwise we shall come to you and kill you. We have noted the change in your attitude since the Arab has arrived.' The high priest then said to Hadhrat Dihya 5S3!2s@ss>, "Take this letter to your leader. Greet him on my behalf and inform him that I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad ffjj$ji is Allaah's Rasul. I believe in Rasulullaah W$£, accept what he says and follow him but my people dislike this. Also inform him about what you have seen." He then went to meet the people and they killed him. (1) Some scholars of Hadith have narrated that Heraclius said to Hadhrat Dihya iMs&s>, "O dear! I swear by Allaah that I know that your leader is the sent prophet and that he is the one we have been waiting for and who is described in our scriptures. However, I fear that the Romans will take my life. Were it not for this fear, I would have certainly followed him. Go to the high priest Daghaatir and tell him about your leader for he is higher than me in status and more influential in Rome. When Hadhrat Dihya WH3I&6 approached the high priest and informed him of matters, he said, "I swear by Allaah that your leader is a sent prophet. We recognise him by his description and his name." The high priest then entered (his rooms), removed his clothing and wore white clothing. He then went out to meet the Roman people and testified to the true Shahaadah. They immediately attacked him and killed him. (2) (1) Bazaar, Haythami (Vol.8 Pgs.236,237) has commented on the Hadith. Tabraani has also narrates a similar report from Hadhrat Dihya ©BSB8S. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.306) has commented on this narration. Abu Nu'aym has also narrated a similar Hadith in Dalaa'il(? g.\2\), which is more brief. A more detailed narration like this has been reported by Abdaan bin Muhammad Marwazi from Abdullaah bin Shaddaad.

(2) Abdaan from Ibn Is'haaq. Yahya bin Sa'eed Umawi has narrated a similar report in his Maghaaz as did Tabari who narrates from Ibn Is'haaq as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.216).

 narrates that it was in Hims that he once saw the man from the Tanookh tribe whom Heraclius had sent to Rasulullaah &$ as an envpy. The man was.
 his neighbour and had was extremely old, close to death. Sa'eed bin Abi Raashid asked the man, "Will you not tell me about the letter that Heracliussent to Rasulullaah (S® and the letter that Rasulullaah $M$ sent to Heraclius." He readily agreed and related that Rasulullaah QSzM was in Tabook when he sent Hadhrat Dihya %&$*$%> to Heraclius. When the letter of Rasulullaah {^^ reached Heraclius, he summoned all the priests and learned scholars of Rome to; his court and had all the doors locked. He then addressed them saying, "This person has reached the place you see (Tabook) and has sent to me a letter with three options. He invites me to (1) follow him in his religion, (2) to pay him our wealth (Jizya) in which case we keep our land or (3) to prepare for battle. By Allaah! You know from what you have read in the scriptures that he shall definitely take the land from beneath my feet. Come! Let us follow him in his religion or give him part of our wealth to keep our land." (When those present heard this) They snorted simultaneously like the snort of a single person and threw down their hats shouting, "Are you proposing that we forsake Christianity and become the slaves of a villager from Hijaaz?!" When Heraclius sensed that they would incite a rebellion among the citizens if they left (in that condition), he added, Heraclius "I have said this only to test your steadfastness in your religion." Thereafter, Heraclius sent for a person from the Tujayb tribe who had been the leader of the Arab. Christians and said to him, "Get me someone with a good memory who speaks Arabic so that I may send him to that man (Rasulullaah (liS!) with a reply to his letter." (The narrator of this report from the Tanookh tribe) says that it was he who was sent to Heraclius, who handed over to him a letter inscribed on the sternum of an animal. Heraclius then said to the man, "Take this letter to that person and from everything you hear him say, take careful note of three things. See whether he mentions anything about the letter that he wrote to me. See whether he mentions the night when reading my letter and look carefully at his back to see for anything that puts you in doubt." The envoy carried the letter to Rasulullaah {S^i in Tabook and found Rasulullaah 2ii$$ sitting with the Sahabah $&&!$&?> near a watering place. When he asked for their leader, one of the Sahabah $BX%&& pointed Rasulullaah (JSSI out to him.
 The envoy walked up to Rasulullaah (Ji$!$, sat before him and handed over the letter to him. Placing the letter in his lap, Rasulullaah ^S asked the man, "Which tribe do you belong to?" When he identified himself as a member of the Tanookh tribe, Rasulullaah fS$i asked him, "Do you wish to enter into the religion of your father Ibraheem $$$&, which is far removed .from all deviation and is securely on the straight path?" The envoy replied, "I am an envoy for a nation and follow their religion, I shall not leave their religion until I first return to them."

152 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH k$&&&2> (Vol-1) Rasulullaah ^§ then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan: Verily you f<3 Rasulullaah $$$s) cannot guide those whom you love (to Islaam), but Allaah guides whoever He wills. He is best aware of those who are (deserving to be) rightly guided (to Imaan). {Surah Qasas, verse 56} Rasulullaah {JSH then said, "O my brother from the Tanookh! I have sent a letter to Najaashi(1) but he tore it up. Allaah shall therefore tear him and his kingdom apart likewise. I also wrote a letter to your leader (Heraclius) who held on to the letter (without tearing it up). Therefore, as long as good is destined in his life, people shall continue living in awe of him." The envoy narrates that he said to himself, "This is one of the three things that Heraclius instructed me to take note of." He therefore removed an arrow from his quiver and etched the words on his sheath. Rasulullaah ^§ then handed over the letter to someone on his left hand side, to which the envoy asked, "Who is your scribe who reads your letters?" "Mu'aawiya," came the reply. The letter contained the following: "Do you invite me to a Jannah the width of which spans the heavens and the earth, which has been prepared for those who have Taqwa? (If the Jannah occupies all this space) then where is the fire?" Rasulullaah &M exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! Then where is the night when the day appears?" Taking an arrow from his quiver, the envoy etched these words on his sheath. After reading the letter, Rasulullaah &$!& said to the envoy, "You are an envoy and have a right over us. If we had anything with us, we would surely have rewarded you with it, but we are travellers whose provisions have been depleted." Then someone amongst a group called out, "I shall reward him." He then opened his satchel and brought a set of clothing from Safoora (a place in Jordan), which he placed in the envoy's lap. When the envoy asked who the donor of the clothing was, he was told that it was Hadhrat Uthmaan t&GWH. Continuing the report, the envoy says, "Thereafter, Rasulullaah ffl$i asked the Sahabah W$88», 'Who shall entertain the envoy?' A youth from the Ansaar volunteered for the job and stood up. I stood up with him. When I was leaving the gathering, Rasulullaah W®£ called me back saying, 'O brother from the Tanookh!' I hastened back until I stood in the very place where I had been sitting before him. Rasulullaah £83$ then removed the shawl from his back and said, 'Here! Come over and do what you have been ordered.' I went around to his back and saw the seal of prophethood between his shoulder blades, which resembled the egg of a dove." (2) (1) Not the Najaashi (king of Abyssinia) who accepted Islaam. (2) Abdullaah bin Ahmad and Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.235,236) has commented on the Hadith. Ahmad has also reported the Hadith as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.15). Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan has also reported it as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.27).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH jtBi^®^ (Vol- 1) - 153 Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan SN*®e> and Heraclius Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 5E))f@s> narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan *|313@g> told him that he went to Shaam with a trade caravan of the Quraysh during the period when Rasulullaah (f|$| had extended a peace treaty to Abu Sufyaan and the Kuffaar of the Quraysh. When they were at a place called Ilyia (Baytul Maqdas) when Heraclius summoned them. When they appeared in his court in the presence of the Roman ministers, Heraclius called for an interpreter. Heraclius then asked, "Which of you is closest in lineage to the person who claims to be a prophet?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "I am closest to him in lineage." Heraclius then ordered that Abu Sufyaan be brought close to him while the others should be made to sit behind him. He then addressed the others through the interpreter saying, "I shall ask this man about that person (Rasulullaah ®i?). Point out his lies if he lies to me." Abu Sufyaan thought to himself, "By Allaah! I would have certainly lied had I not feared being called a liar." The first question Heraclius posed was: "How is his lineage amongst you?" "He is of extremely high lineage amongst us," was the reply. Heraclius asked further, "Has anyone from amongst you made such a claim before?" When Abu Sufyaan replied in the negative, the next question was, "Were there any kings amongst his forefathers?" "No," replied Abu Sufyaan. "Is it the nobles among people who follow him or the weak ones?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "The weak ones." "Ate his followers increasing or decreasing?" Heraclius asked. "They are increasing," replied Abu Sufyaan. Heraclius then asked, "Have any of them turned back to their religion out of displeasure for his religion after entering it?" When Abu Sufyaan' replied in the negative, the next question was, "Have any of you accused him of lying before he made his claim?" "No," came the reply. "And has he ever broken a treaty?" came the question. "No," replied Abu Sufyaan, "But we are presently bound by a treaty with him and do not know what he will do." Abu Sufyaan says, "Besides this, there was nothing else I could add." Heraclius continued, "Have you ever fought against him?" "Yes," replied Abu Sufyaan. "Then how did you fare?" the emperor asked. Abu Sufyaan said, "Wars are like the bucket of a well between us. Sometimes he defeats us and sometimes we defeat him." Heraclius asked, "What does he command you to do?" "He commands us to worship the One Allaah without ascribing partners to Him and to forsake what our forefathers said. He also commands us to perform salaah, to be truthful, to remain chaste and to join family ties." Heraclius then instructed the interpreter saying, "Tell him that when I asked about his (Rasulullaah &|$l's) lineage, he maintained that he is of extremely high lineage. Such are the prophets who are of high birth. Then I asked you if anyone had made such a claim (of prophethood) before him and you replied in the negative. Had anyone made such a claim before him, I would have said that he is a man aping what was said before him. You again replied in the negative when I asked whether, any of his forefathers were kings. Had there been kings amongst his forefathers, I would have said that he is a man seeking the kingdom of his

154 : THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH f83wN2>S) (Vol-1) father. Then I asked you whether any of you had ever accused him of lying before and you said that none had done so. I do realise that it is impossible for a person to abstain from lying about people and then lie about Allaah. I then asked you whether it is the nobles among people who follow him or the weak and you replied that they were the weak ones. These hav^e always been the followers of the prophets. I also asked you whether his followers are increasing or decreasing and you said that they were increasing. Such is the case with Imaan until it is completed. Thereafter I asked you Whether anyone had returned to his former religion out of displeasure after entering into his religion and you informed me that none had done so. Such is the condition of Imaan when it penetrates the depths of the heart. When I asked you whether he ever broke a treaty, you said that he had not. Such are the prophets. They never break their pledges. I then asked you what he commanded and you said that he commanded you to worship the One Allaah without ascribing partners to Him, that he forbade you from worshipping idols and that he commanded you to perform salaah, to speak the truth and to remain chaste. If whatever you say is true then he shall seize control of the ground I stand on. Although I was expecting his appearance, I had no idea that he would appear among you people. If I knew that I could reach him, I would have burdened myself to do so and had I been in his presence, I would have washed his feet." He then called for the letter that Rasulullaah Qj$$ii sent with Hadhrat Dihya *gPs@e> to the chief of Busra, which the chief of Busra has subsequently forwarded to Heraclius. The letter read: In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful From Muhammad the servant and Rasool of Allaah %j$$$$s To Heraclius the Emperor of Rome Peace be on the one who follows the guidance. I call you with the invitation of Islaam. Accept Islaam, you will live in peace and Allaah shall double your reward. If they turn away (refusing to accept the proposal) then say, "Be witness that we are certainly Muslims (we have surrendered ourselves to Allaah's commands)." ^ Abu Sufyaan narrates further, "After Heraclius had spoken and read the letter, there was a lot of noise about and people started speaking at the top of their voices. It was then that they. sent us out. When we were sent out, I said to one of my companions, 'The affair of Ibn Abi Kabsha (Rasulullaah i&M) has grown so powerful that even the king of the yellow skins (the Romans) have begun to fear him.' Thereafter, I remained convinced that Rasulullaah {HSHi would dominate until Allaah blessed me with Islaam." A person by the name of Ibn Naatoor was the governor of Ilyia, a good friend of Heraclius and the high priest of the Christians in Shaam. He narrates that once when Heraclius was visiting Ilyia (Baytul Maqdas) when he appeared extremely unwell and restless one morning. In fact, some of his pastors even told him that he did not seem himself. Heraclius was an astrologer and could read the stars so when they asked him (about the reason for his ill disposition) he said to them, "When I gazed into the stars, I saw that the king of the circumcised people had made his appearance. Which nation practices circumcision?" They told him, "it is only the Jews who practise circumcision, but you have nothing to fear from them. Simply circulate a command throughout your kingdom calling for all Jews to be killed." They were still busy discussing this when an envoy arrived from the governor of Ghassaan, informing them about Rasulullaah W$f. When Heraclius had questioned the envoy, he instructed the pastors to investigate whether the envoy was circumcised. When they determined that he had been circumcised, he was asked whether the Arabs practiced circumcision. When he informed them that circumcision was customary amongst the Arabs, Heraclius said, "It is the king of this nation who has made his appearance." Heraclius then wrote a letter to a friend in Rome who was also an expert in astrology as he was. He then left for Hims. He had not yet reached Hims when a reply came from his friend which corresponded with the opinion of Heraclius that Rasulullaah ®P had made his appearance and that he was a Nabi. Heraclius then invited the leading people of Rome to his castle in Hims and had all the doors locked. He then made an appearance and addressed them saying, "O leaders of the Roman people! Do you want to achieve success, good fortune and keep your kingdom? Simply follow this Nabi." When they heard this, everyone present started to flee like wild camels and headed for the doors, which they found locked. When Heraclius noticed their derision and lost hope in their accepting Imaan, he instructed his men to bring everyone back. He then said to them, "I told you this only to test your steadfastness in adhering to your religion. I have now witnessed it." They all prostrated before him and were satisfied with (1) Surah Aal Imraan, verse 64.

156 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-I) him. This was the final stand of Heraclius (he never accepted Imaan) ^ The Letter Rasulullaah &M sent to Kisra the Emperor of Persia Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas IS*®?) narrates that Rasulullaah (S^? sent a messenger with a letter addressed to Kisra, instructing the messenger to hand the letter over to the governor of Bahrain. The governor in turn had it sent to Kisra. However, Kisra tore the letter up and it was probably Ibn Musayyib who narrates that Rasulullaah ®$| cursed Kisra by saying that Allaah should also tear him apart completely. ^ Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abd Qaari JsSS®®' narrates that Rasulullaah &iii stood on the pulpit one-day to deliver a sermon. After praising Allaah, and reciting the Shahaadah, he said, "I intend sending some of you to the non-Arab kings so do not dispute before me as the Bani Israa'eel did in front of Isa the son of Maryam $$!&f." To this, the Muhaajireen said, "O Rasulullaah &Hl! We shall never ever dispute with you concerning anything. Issue the command and send us (wherever you wish)." Rasulullaah (fHi then sent Hadhrat Shujaa bin Wahab to Kisra. (When he arrived) Kisra had his palace decorated and gathered the leading personalities of his kingdom there before admitting Hadhrat Shujaa W&&f. When Hadhrat Shujaa *S©(@jg) entered, Kisra ordered that the letter of Rasulullaah %!®tj$ should be taken from Hadhrat Shujaa ©!2®^5 and handed over to him. However, Hadhrat Shujaa W$&$ refused to surrender the letter and insisted that he wanted to personally hand the letter to Kisra as Rasulullaah ^$ had commanded him. Kisra permitted him to draw close and when he did, he handed the letter over. Kisra then summoned one of his scribes from Heera who read the letter out. The letter read: "From Muhammad bin Abdillaah the Rasool of Allaah to Kisra the Emperor of Persia." The fact that Rasulullaah ffil$ began the letter with his name infuriated Kisra so much that he tore the letter to bits before being informed of what it contained. He then ordered Hadhrat Shujaa WiS&z out of his court. Mounting his conveyance, Hadhrat Shujaa &$/@S& said, "By Allaah! Now that I have delivered the letter of Rasulullaah ®i, I have no concern about which of the two paths I am on (whether Kisra is pleased or not)." When Kisra's anger had abated, he sent someone to call Hadhrat Shujaa 5£3!S®# back, but Hadhrat Shujaa ©IS®© had already left by then. The person searched for him until he reached Heera but Hadhrat Shujaa JSI,I2®J5 was already far ahead. When Hadhrat Shujaa &8&& reported back Rasulullaah && and informed him (1) Bukhari. Imaam Bukhari SiS&liSS has narrates this incident in several places in his Saheeh in different words. The other authors of the six most authentic Hadith compilations with the exception of Ibn Majah have also reported this narration from Zuhri 3ffi&lcfs5 who in turn narrates from Abaydullaah bin Abdullaah bin utba bin Mas'ood from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas SMSffiSS - AJ Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.266). ibn Is'haaq has also narrated from Zuhri cWiI4Sb> as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 157 that Kisra had torn up the letter, Rasulullaah (s) commented, "Kisra has torn up his kingdom." (1) Abu Salam bin Abdir Rahmaan (r) narrates that after the letter of Rasulullaah (s) had reached Kisra and he read it and tore it up, he wrote to Baadhaan the governor of Yemen instructing, "Sent two burly men to this man in Hijaaz with instructions to bring him to me." In compliance with the letter, Baadhaan sent his chief minister Abaanuh in the company of a Persian man called Jadd Jameerah. Abaanuh was a man proficient in Persian letters and numbers. Baadhaan sent a letter with them to Rasulullaah (s), instructing Rasulullaah (s) to leave for the court of Kisra with the two of them. Baadhaan also instructed his chief minister to scrutinise Rasulullaah (s), to engage him in discussion and to report the details back to him. The two left and finally reached Taa'if where they made enquiries about Rasulullaah (s) from some businessmen of the Quraysh. They were informed that Rasulullaah (s) was in Madinah. (Realising that the two men were out to take Rasulullaah (s) to Kisra,) The businessmen became overjoyed and exclaimed, "Now that Kisra has stood up against him (Rasulullaah (s)), we have nothing more to do." When the two reached Madinah, Abaanuh spoke to Rasulullaah (s) and said to him, "Kisra has written to Baadhaan with instructions to send someone to take you before him. He has sent me so that you come with me." Rasulullaah (s) said to him, "You may leave now and return to see me tomorrow." When the two arrived the next day, Rasulullaah (s) informed them of the precise night of a particular month in which Allaah has killed Kisra and handed the kingdom over to his son Sherway. The two men said, "Do you know what you are saying? May we write back to Baadhaan with this news?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah (s), "and tell him that if he accepts islaam, I shall hand back to him control of all the lands he presently rules." Rasulullaah (s) then gave Jadd Jameerah a belt decorated with gold and silver that had been given to him as a gift. When the two returned to Yemen and informed Baadhaan about the events, he said, "This is not the speech of some king. We should definitely investigate the truth of what he said." They did not have to wait long before they received a letter from Sherway which after the formalities stated, "With the support of the Persian people, I have killed Kisra in a fit of fury because he saw nothing wrong in killing Persian nobles for no reason. Secure allegiance to me from all the people in Yemen and ensure that you cause no harm to the person (Rasulullaah (s)) whom Kisra ordered you to capture." After reading the letter of Sherway, Baadhaan said, "This man (Rasulullaah (s)) must, certainly be a Rasul." He then accepted Islaam and so did all the Persians living in Yemen. ^ (1) AlBidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.269). (2) Abu Sa'eed Nayshapuri in his book Sharaful Mustafa where he narrates from Ibn. Is'haaq who narrates from Zuhri. Abu Nu'aym has also narrated it in Dalaa'il where the name Kharkhusra is mentioned in place of "Jadd Jameerah" while his companion is also named as Abaanuh - Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.259).

158 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH W2ffii®S& (Vol-1) Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Rasulullaah W$£ sent Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa JS8«@g) with a letter addressed to Kisra in which Rasulullaah {$$$1 invited him to accept Islaam. When he read the letter, he tore it up and wrote to Baadhaan his governor in Yemen. The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one above. However, this narration states that when the two men reached Madinah, Baadhaan spoke to Rasulullaah {SSi? and told him, "indeed the king of all kings Kisra wrote to the governor Baadhaan instructing him to send someone to him who would bring you to him. If you comply {by going to Kisra), I shall send a letter with you that will benefit you. However, if you refuse, Kisra shall destroy you and your people and turn your land into ruins." Rasulullaah (£!$£ said to him, "You may leave and return tomorrow." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one above. (1) Hadhrat Zaid bin Abi Habeeb narrates that Rasulullaah Q$$i sent Hadhrat Abdullah bin Hudhaafa %£&$%> with a letter for Kisra bin Hurmuz who was the Emperor of Persia. The letter read: In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful From Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah &$% To Kisra the Emperor of Persia Peace be on the one who follows- the guidance, who believes in Allaah and His Rasool and who testifies that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partners and that Muhammad ®H is Allaah's servant and Rasul. I call you with the invitation of Allaah for I am the Rasul of All&ah to all of mankind who warns the living so that the decree (of punishment) becomes binding on the disbelievers. If you accept Islaam, you shall live in peace and if you refuse, then the sin of the fire-worshippers shall be on you. Kisra tore up the letter when he read it and wrote to Baadhaan. The rest of the Hadith is as mentioned earlier from the narration of Ibn Is'haaq. However, this report adds that when the two men entered the presence of Rasulullaah W$£, their faces were shaven off and their moustaches were grown very long. Rasulullaah (S$i? therefore detested even looking at them and said, "Woe to you! Who instructed you to do this?" Referring to Kisra, they said, "Our Rabb commanded us to do this." Rasulullaah 0$l said to them, "My Rabb has commanded me to let my beard grow and to trim my moustache." (2) Hadhrat Abu Bakrah 3g!12j@e> narrates that when Rasulullaah ^M was sent to propagate the message, Kisra sent a message to his governor over Yemen and the surrounding areas of Arabia, who was called Baadaam. He stated in his letter, "It has reached me that a person has surfaced in your district who claims to be a Nabi. When they returned and informed the governor likewise, he said to them, "Take note of that night." He then asked them, "Tell me how you found him?" They replied, "We have not seen a king as blessed as he. He walks about freely without any fear, dresses most simply, has no bodyguards and no one raises their voice before him." Maqoqis then asked further, "If he really is Allaah's prophet, why did he then not curse his people when they drove him out of his town (Makkah)?" Hadhrat Haatib JsS2SB« responded by asking, "Do you not testify that Isa the son of Maryam Wf& was Allaah's Rasul?" "Indeed," came the reply. "Then when his people seized him to crucify him," began Hadhrat Haatib S)2@sS, "why did he not pray to Allaah to destroy them when Allaah raised him to the heavens?" Maqoqis said to Hadhrat Haatib 523,12@©, "You are a wise man who has come from the company of a wise man. Here are some gifts that I am sending with you to Muhammad W&f. Besides this, Maqoqis also sent selected gifts that were acclaimed in their land. <2> The Letter that Rasulullaah {iH sent to the People of Najraan The grandfather of Abd Yasoo who was a Christian before accepting Islaam narrates that Rasulullaah W$Hs sent a letter to the people of Najraan before Surah "TaaSeen Sulaymaan" (Surah Naml) was revealed (the letter therefore does not begin with "Bismillaahir. Rahmanir Raheem" because it was only after the revelation of this Surah that Rasulullaah W$i started including "Bismillaah ir Rahmanir Raheem" in his letters as this Surah mentions Hadhrat Sulaymaan W&& did), the letter read: I begin in the name of the Ilaah of Ibraheem %$&, ls'haaq$5l&£ and Ya'qoob g$|&. From Muhammad the Nabi and Rasool of Allaah To the high priest and people of Najraan Peace be to you. Before you I praise the Ilaah of Ibraheem (1) Bayhaqi. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) [161] Is'haaq and Ya'qoob. I call you from the worship of Allaah's slaves to the worship of Allaah and from the friendship of Allaah's slaves to the friendship of Allaah. Should you refuse (to accept Islaam), you shall have to pay the Jizya and should you refuse even this, I shall have to declare war against you.

Was Salaam When the high priest read the letter, he was alarmed and grew extremely frightened. He immediately sent for a person from Najraan called Shurahbeel bin Wadaa'ah who hailed from Hamdaan tribe. Whenever any problem arose, he was summoned even before the heroes, leaders and high-ranking people. The high priest handed over Rasulullaah's letter to Shurahbeel, who read it. The high priest then asked, "O Abu Maryam! What is your opinion?" Shurahbeel said, 'You know well that Allaah promised Ibraheem prophethood in the progeny of his son Ismaa'eel. It would come as no surprise if this is the very person (who has received the promised prophethood). I can offer no opinion in the matter of prophethood. Had the matter been a worldly one, I would have advised you and exerted myself to assist you.' The high priest then bade Shurahbeel to step aside and be seated, which he did. The high priest then sent for a man called Abdullaah bin Shurahbeel who was also from Najraan and belonged to the Dhu Asbah branch of the Himyar tribe. When the high priest read the letter to him and asked his opinion, his reply was similar to that of Shurahbeel. The high priest then bade Abdullaah to step aside and be seated, which he did. He then sent for a man called Jabbaar bin Faydh who was also from Najraan and belonged to the Banu Haarith bin Ka'b branch of the Banu Himaas tribe. When the high priest read the letter to him and asked his opinion, his reply was similar to that of Shurahbeel and Abdullaah. He also took a seat when asked to do so. Once they had all agreed on the matter, the high priest called for the bells to be tolled, fires to be lit and flags to be raised in the churches. This was their practice whenever trouble brewed during the day. When there was trouble during the night, they would only toll the bells and light the fires in the churches. Consequently, when the bells were tolled and the flags raised, all the people living on the top and bottom parts of the valley gathered. The valley was so long that it would take a speeding rider a complete day to pass and in it were seventy three villages comprising of one hundred and twenty thousand warriors. When the high priest read the letter of Rasulullaah to them, everyone agreed that Shurahbeel bin Wadaa'ah from the Hamdaan tribe, Abdullaah bin Shurahbeel from the Dhu Asbah tribe and Jabbaar bin Faydh from the Banu Haarith tribe should be sent to gather news about Rasulullaah. The delegation left and finally arrived in Madinah. There they removed their traveling clothes and wore decorative long garments made in Yemen, which they had to

Addressing Hadhrat Uthmaan JiXSsQsgi and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 3&l)3@9, Hadhrat Ali JSM@« said, "I think that they should remove these clothes and these rings and wear their traveling clothes. Thereafter they should return to Rasulullaah (f!$$!• . When they did this and, again greeted Rasulullaah &i$, he replied to their greeting and said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth that Iblees was certainly with you when you came to me the first time." Rasulullaah &0t then asked about them and they asked him questions. During the course of their questioning, they asked, "What have you to say about Isa #f&&? We are Christians and will be returning to our people. If you are a Nabi, We would be pleased to hear what you have to say about him." Rasulullaah @SI said to them, "I have nothing much to say about him today. Stay a while longer until I am able to inform you what my Rabb has to say about Isa $f!&f." By the following morning, the following verses of the Qur'aan had been revealed: Verily the likeness of Isa %$&& (who was created without a father) with Allaah is as the likeness of Aadam 4j$tef (who was created with neither a father nor a mother). He (Allaah) created him (Aadam $$$&) from clay then said to him, "Be!" and he became (a living man). This is the truth from your Rabb so do not be of those who doubt. Whoever disputes with you (O Muhammad ^$) concerning this (concerning the incident of Isa W&&) after the knowledge (revelation) has come to you, then say to them, "Come! We shall call your sons and our sons, your wives and

Consequently, Rasulullaah W0& arrived the following morning (for the challenge) together with Hadhrat Hasan isSSSBS and Hadhrat Husayn *&)%$&?> wrapped in his shawl. Behind him came Hadhrat Faatima Sla@5> and his many wives. (Seeing this) Shurahbeel said to his two companions, "You know well that the people from the entire top and bottom parts of our valley always return content with my decisions. I swear by Allaah that what I see here is an extremely serious and weighty affair. If he is a sent Rasul, we shall be the first Arabs to be an eyesore for him and the first to oppose him. This insult will not leave his heart nor the hearts of his companions until they destroy us. We are also the closest Arabs to them (and are most prone to any pending attacks). If he is a sent Rasul of Allaah, then to engage him in Mubaahala would even destroy the hairs and fingernails of each of us on earth." The two asked him, "What then is your proposal, O Abu Maryam?" Shurahbeel said, "I propose that we negotiate (a treaty) with him for I do not see him to be one who would ever make futile clauses." The two said to him, "We leave you to do as you see appropriate." Shurahbeel went to see Rasulullaah W^ and said, "I propose something better than Mubaahala." "What is that?" asked Rasulullaah &f. Shurahbeel replied, "You have today and tonight to pass judgement (formulate the clauses of a treaty). We are prepared to accept whatever clauses you make." Rasulullaah &$ $• asked him, "Perhaps there are people left behind who may criticise you (for this)." Shurahbeel said, "You may ask my two companions." When Rasulullaah &S5SI asked them, they said, "The people from the entire top and bottom parts of our valley always return content with the decisions of Shurahbeel." Rasulullaah { ^2l$ then returned home without carrying out the Mubaahala." The next day, they met Rasulullaah (f$ $! and wrote the following letter: In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful This is the treaty that the Nabi and Rasool of Allaah Muhammad has written for the people of Najraan. Other clauses are also mentioned in the, narration. 2' A narration of Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.55) adds that the witnesses to (1) Mubaahala: when two conflicting parties collectively make du'aa to Allaah that He should destroy the party that is wrong. Hadhrat Miswar isSSffi! swears by Allaah that Khaalid bin Waleed did not notice them until (the Muslims were almost on top of him) and he saw their dust fly. He then hastily returned to warn the Quraysh. Rasulullaah {Ji$f continued riding until he reached a valley that fell on the road to Makkah. It was there that his camel sat down. The camel's name was Qaswa. (According to their custom) When the Sahabah $&&&» shouted, "Hal! Hal!" (to get her moving), she refused to budge. The Sahabah ®Sffi&& started saying, "Qaswa has become stubborn! Qaswa has become stubborn!" Rasulullaah &$% pointed out to them that she was not being stubborn for she normally never behaved in this manner. Rasulullaah ®$$ then scolded his camel and she stood up again. He moved away from the road and settled at the end of the valley of Hdaybiyyah where there was a spring. The spring contained so little water that the Sahabah %&%i&>9 could only draw very little. They were hardly there long when all the water was finished. When the Sahabah $&3&i&& complained about this to Rasulullaah fsJ8$, he took out an arrow from his quiver and instructed them to fix it at the spring (which they did). Rasulullaah &I$Ji said, "I have not come to fight anyone, but wish only to perform Umrah. (It is surprising thatf the Quraysh want to fight because) Fighting has already weakened them and caused them much harm, if they want, we are prepared to enter into a treaty with them for a period. During this period, they should not interfere with my efforts on the people. If I dominate over the people (if they accept Islaam), the Quraysh have the choice of entering into the Deen which the others have entered into. On the other hand, if people get the upper hand over me, the Quraysh will have no worries. However, if the Quraysh refuse (to accept Islaam and insist on fighting), then I swear by the Being in Whose control my life lies, I shall fight them for the sake of this Deen until either my head is separated from my neck or this Deen of Allaah flourishes." Budayl told Rasulullaah ®$f that he would convey this message to the Quraysh. He then left and when he met with the Quraysh. He said to them, "We have just come from that man and have heard him say something. If you wish us to convey it to you, I shall oblige." Some foolish persons present said, "We have no need to be told anything about him." However, some intelligent ones said, "Tell us what you heard." "Of course not," they asserted. Urwa asked, "Are you not aware of the fact that I mustered the support of the people of Ukaaz to assist you but when they refused, I presented myself with my family, my children and all who would obey me?" When Urwa raised his hand to touch Rasulullaah (Jl^'s beard, Hadhrat Mughiera 3s3)i5®9 struck Urwa's hand with the handle of his sword saying, "Keep your hand away from Rasulullaah (i^i's begird." Raising his gaze, Urwa asked, "Who is this?" When he was informed that it was Hadhrat Mughiera 3eK3®!>s>, Urwa said, "O betrayer! Have I not borne the brunt of your betrayal!" During the Period of Ignorance, Hadhrat Mughiera ©!S@ss> had befriended some people whom he later killed and robbed of their possessions. He later came to Rasulullaah &0- with all the stolen goods and accepted Islaam. However, Rasulullaah fiil said to him, "I shall accept your conversion to Islaam, but will have nothing to do with the wealth." (Urwa was referring to this incident). Urwa then started observing the Sahabah $3!3!®»s> very closely. He says* "By Allaah! Even when Rasulullaah fi$l would spit, someone would catch it and rub it on his face and body. I have been to the royal courts of Caesars, Kisras and Najaashi. I have never seen the followers of any ruler so devoted to him as the followers of Muhammad W^ are to him. By Allaah! When the man came to Rasulullaah ^$ and the Sahabah $&&$&&, Rasulullaah &i8I$ said, "Here comes a man belonging to a tribe that honours sacrificial animals, so put some of them in front for him." When the animals were sent forward to him and the people met him reciting the Talbiya, he said, "Subhaanallaah! It is not correct to prevent these people from the Kabah." When he returned to his people, he said, "I saw the sacrificial animals already garlanded and marked for sacrifice. I do not think that they should be prevented from the Kabah."

Thereafter, another person by the name of Mikraz bin Hafs stood up and requested leave to meet with Rasulullaah Wife, which was granted. When he arrived to meet Rasulullaah Wife, Rasulullaah Wife said, "He is Mikraz who is an evil person." Mikraz started negotiating with Rasulullaah Wife and was still in the process of doing so when SuHayl bin Amr arrived. Suhayl bin Amr's Meeting with Rasulullaah Q$M and the Clauses of the treaty Hadhrat Ma'mar iS&Wg-i narrates from Ayyoob and Ikrama that when Suhayl bin Amr arrived, Rasulullaah Wife (took a good omen from his name and) said, "Allaah has now made matters easier." Hadhrat Ma'mar SKau&lcgg further states that according to the narration of Zuhri ®&b&%, when Suhayl bin Amr arrived he said, "Come, let us write a treaty between ourselves." Rasulullaah W$i sent for a scribe and instructed him to write: "(We begin) In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful" To this Suhayl bin Amr objected, "By Allaah! We do not know what 'Ar Rahmaan' is. As we usually do, why do you not rather write: "(We begin) In Your name O Allaah" The Muslim protested against writing anything but: "(We begin) In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful" However, Rasulullaah Wife instructed the scribe to write: "(We begin) In Your name O Allaah" Thereafter, Rasulullaah W$% instructed the scribe to write, "This is what Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah has decided." Suhayl bin Amr again objected by saying, "By Allaah! Had we known that you are truly the Rasul of Allaah, we would not have prevented you from visiting the Kabah, nor would we have fought against you. Rather write, 'Muhammad the son of Abdullaah.'" To this, Rasulullaah

Consequently, this was written (that the Muslims will be allowed to perform Umrah during the following year). (Proposing the next clause) Suhayl bin Amr said, "Should any man from our ranks join you, he would be returned to us even though he follows your religion." (The Muslims exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! How can he be returned to the Mushrikeen when he has come as a Muslim?" The incident of Abu Jandal 'igmal Negotiations were still underway when Hadhrat Abu Jandal the son of Suhayl bin Amr arrived there chained in fetters. He had just left the lower part of Makkah and handed himself over to the Muslims. "This man O Muhammad," said Suhayl bin Amr, "is the first person I am demanding that you return to me in accordance with the treaty." "But we have not yet concluded the treaty," said Rasulullaah ﷺ. Suhayl bin Amr adamantly said, "Then I shall never negotiate any treaty with you!" Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "At least leave him to me." "I shall never leave him to you!" Suhayl bin Amr bellowed-. "Why not? I am sure you can," Rasulullaah ﷺ requested. "I shall not," Suhayl bin Amr said stubbornly. Mikraz however said, "We shall not leave him to you." Hadhrat Abu Jandal addressed the Muslim saying, "O gathering of Muslim! Why should I be returned to the Mushrikeen when I have come as a Muslim? Have you not seen how I have suffered?" Hadhrat Abu Jandal had endured severe torture at the hands of the Mushrikeen. Hadhrat Umar then approached Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, "Are you not the true Nabi of Allaah?" "I am indeed," replied Rasulullaah ﷺ. Hadhrat Umar asked further, "Are we not on the truth and our enemies on falsehood?" "Certainly," said Rasulullaah ﷺ. "Then," asked Hadhrat Umar, "why do we have to submit?" Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, "I am certainly the Rasool of Allaah. I cannot disobey Him and He is my Helper." Hadhrat Umar asked, "Did you not tell us that we shall arrive at the Kabah and perform Tawaaf around it?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Indeed I did but did I tell you that it would be this year?" "No," said Hadhrat Umar. "Then you shall certainly arrive there and perform Tawaaf around it," Rasulullaah ﷺ assured him. Hadhrat Umar then approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr and asked him, "Is he not the true Nabi of Allaah?" "He is indeed," replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Umar asked further, "Are we not on the truth and our enemies on falsehood?" "Certainly," said Hadhrat Abu Bakr. "Then," asked Hadhrat Umar, "why do we have to submit?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "O person! He is certainly the Rasool of Allaah. He cannot disobey Allaah and Allaah is his Helper." Hadhrat Umar asked, "Did Rasulullaah ﷺ not tell us that we shall arrive at the Kabah and perform Tawaaf around it?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "He did indeed, but did he tell you that it would be this year?" "No," said Hadhrat Umar. "Then you shall certainly arrive there and perform Tawaaf around it," Hadhrat Abu Bakr

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 173 him. After narrating this incident, Hadhrat Umar (r) says that he later carried out numerous good deeds to make amends for this behaviour. After the treaty had been written, Rasulullaah (s) instructed the Sahabah (a) to slaughter their animals and to shave off their hair (an indication that they were to return without performing Umrah). The narrator of the Hadith says, "By Allaah! No one stood up to do this even though Rasulullaah (s) thrice repeated the instruction (because they all hoped that he would perhaps reconsider the situation)." When he saw that no one was prepared to carry out the command, he went to (his tent where he met) his wife Hadhrat Umm Salma (r). When he informed her of the difficulty he was having, she said, "O Nabi of Allaah! Why do you rather not do this? Go out there without speaking a word to anyone, slaughter your animal, call for someone to shave your hair and have it shaved off." Rasulullaah (s) then went out and did accordingly. He slaughtered his animal, called for someone to shave off his hair and had it shaved off. When the Sahabah (a) saw this, they all stood up, slaughtered their animals and started shaving each others' hair. In fact, they were so sad that it appeared that they could almost kill each other out of grief. Thereafter, some Muslim women arrived there (to join the Muslims) and the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

'O you who have Imaan! When Mu'mineen women come to you (in a Muslim country) as immigrants, then (instead of sending them back) examine them (test whether they are sincere Muslims). (Of course, you can only judge the sincerity of their Imaan superficially because only Allaah best knows the (true) condition of their Imaan. If (after examining them,) you determine that they really are Mu'mineen women (and not impostors), then do not return them to the Kuffaar. Neither are these women lawful (as wives) for the Kuffaar men nor are the Kuffaar men lawful (as husbands) for these women. Return to them (to their Kuffaar husbands) what they have spent (as dowry because the marriage has terminated). (Thereafter,) There is no harm if you (Muslim men) marry these women when you give them their dowry. (O Muslim husbands!) Do not stubbornly cling to your Kuffaar wives (who do not want to accept Islaam after you have accepted). {surahMumtahina, verse 10}

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Baseer WSi&b and the Two Men who were sent after him After the incident at Hudaibiyyah, Rasulullaah 8i$ returned to Madinah where a Muslim from the Quraysh called Abu Baseer US&Ssi came to him. However, the Quraysh had dispatched two men after him to remind Rasulullaah g|@f about the treaty. Rasulullaah {|3Sf therefore handed him over to the two men. The two men left with him and when they stopped to eat some dates at Dhul Hulaifah, Hadhrat Abu Baseer &&&f said to one of them, "By Allaah! I see that you have an extremely fine sword." The man drew the sword from the sheath and said, "By Allaah! It is fine indeed. I have tried it again and again." Hadhrat Abu Baseer i!3!S@se> said, "Let me have a look at it." When the man handed it over, Hadhrat Abu Baseer 3$S* struck him, killing him instantly. The Quraysh eventually (grew weary and) sent a message to Rasulullaah {^Sl, imploring him in the name of Allaah and by the family ties they shared that he should call this group to Madinah. They also added that whoever came to Rasulullaah @si (from Makkah) as a Muslim afterwards would be left in peace (without having to return to Makkah). Rasulullaah fS$SI then called them to Madinah. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $$$i$si> (Vol-1) 177 The Words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr &fi&$ Concerning the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah Hadhrat Abu Bakr &&I6&9 used to say, "There has never been a victory in Islaam greater than the victory at Hudaibiyyah but the people on that day were unable to understand what Muhammad HUFFliJUt and his Rabb were doing. While man is hasty, Allaah does not have the haste man has because of which matters condense to what Allaah has intended. On the occasion of the Farewell Hajj I have seen Suhayl bin Amr standing at the place where animals were being slaughtered, taking Rasulullaah fail's camel closer to him. Rasulullaah $$$ slaughtered it with his own hand and then called for someone who shaved off his hair. I then praised Allaah Who had guided him to islaam." (1) Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 'tg!$@& Accepts Islaam Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas JgJJSSSS narrates that when they left the trench after the Battle of Ahzaab, he gathered some people from the Quraysh who usually shared his opinions and who did as he said. He said to them, "As you know, I am of the opinion that the Deen of Muhammad shall dominate all others in a very unpleasant manner. However, I see a solution so tell me what you think." When the people asked what he "thought, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Wi%$&$ said, "I think that we should join Najaashi (in Abyssinia) and remain there. If Muhammad is victorious, we shall be with Najaashi and being under his rule is better than being under the rule of Muhammad. On the other hand, if our people are victorious, then they would still know us and we can expect only good from them." "This is an excellent opinion," they all agreed. Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas SJ!3@« then told them to collect some articles to offer as gifts to Najaashi and because Najaashi liked most the leather from these parts, they collected a large amount of leather. Taking this along, they finally reached Najaashi. Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas W&&& narrates further. He says, "By Allaah! We had reached the court of Najaashi when Amr bin Umayyah Damri arrived. (1) The Conquest of Makkah Rasulullaah ﷺ Leaves Madinah and Camps at Marruz Zahraan Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ left Madinah (for Makkah), he appointed Abu Ruhm Kulthoom bin Husayn Ghifaari (رضي الله عنه) as the Ameer of Madinah. He left on the tenth of Ramadhaan while he and the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) were fasting. They broke their fasts when they reached Kudayd which was an oasis between Usfaan and Amj. Rasulullaah ﷺ then proceeded with the ten thousand Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) until they set up camp at Marruz Zahraan. There were also a thousand people from the Muzayna and Sulaym tribes and every tribe had brought provisions and weapons. Every one of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar left with Rasulullaah ﷺ without anyone remaining behind. He then mounted the white mule belonging to Rasulullaah W8& and set out towards Makkah until he reached a place called Araak, thinking that he may meet some woodcutter, someone milking an animal or anyone else who had come out for some need. He could then inform them of where Rasulullaah W$& was so that they could seek amnesty from him before he entered Makkah by force. The Incident of Abu Sufyaan with Hadhrat Abbaas and Hadhrat Umar jg9&5@$ Hadhrat Abbaas JgiMSffiSsi continues to say that he was still searching for someone when he heard the voices of Abu Sufyaan and Budayl bin Waraqa, who were talking to each other. Abu Sufyaan was saying, "By Allaah! To this day I have never seen such a large concentration of campfires nor as large an army." Budayl bin Waraqa said, "By Allaah! These are the campfires of the Khuzaa'ah tribe, it appears as if a war has lit them." Abu Sufyaan commented, "By Allaah! The Khuzaa'ah tribe is smaller than this. This cannot be their fires and army." Recognizing the voice of Abu Sufyaan, Hadhrat Abbaas ©13^ called out, "O Abu Handhala!" Recognising Hadhrat Abbaas t's voice, Abu Sufyaan called out, "O Abul Fadhl!" When Hadhrat Abbaas SJ|3®« confirmed that it was he, Abu Sufyaan asked, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! The various tribes then began passing by him, each bearing their flags. When a tribe passed by, Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abbaas?" "They are the Banu Sulaym tribe," came the reply. To this, Abu Sufyaan would say, "What have I to do with the Banu Sulaym (Why should they be marching against us)?" When another tribe passed, Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abbaas?" When Hadhrat Abbaas W&8&9 informed him that they were the Muzaynah tribe, Abu Sufyaan said, "What have I to do with the Muzaynah tribe?" This continued until all the tribes had passed. Abu Sufyaan said, "Then why did you not do this at the beginning and inform me that you needed to bring me here. This would have put me at ease." Hadhrat Abbaas ©!<&!<> replied, "It did not occur to me and that you would look at it this way." Rasulullaah QHJOMr had already arranged the lines of the Sahabah ft£&3@$ and each tribe began passing by with their leaders. Each battalion also passed by carrying their flags. The first battalion that Rasulullaah f% $& sent forward was the Banu Sulaym tribe under the leadership of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed JsllS®!©. They numbered a thousand strong. They bore a small flag carried by Hadhrat Abbaas bin Mirdaas 3S»3®ei as well as another carried by Hadhrat Khufaaf bin Nudba &tl3®s). The large flag was held high by Hadhrat Hajaaj bin Ilaat SIS®©. When Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed JsJ!2j@J© drew alongside Hadhrat Abbaas WS®%> with Abu Sufyaan at his side, the soldiers cried out, "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice before passing by. Thereafter Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam iJ!3®8> passed by leading a battalion of five hundred men comprising of Muhaajireen and many unknown people. They carried a black flag and when Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam HS8&I&& passed Abu Sufyaan, he called out "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice. His battalion echoed after him. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is Zubayr bin Awaam," replied Hadhrat Abbaas $$$%&&. "Your sister's son?" asked Abu Sufyaan. "Yes," was the reply. Carrying their flag, Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari W8&&6 then passed with three hundred soldiers of the Ghifaar tribe. According to other scholars, it was Hadhrat Imaa bin Randan SJISSbS© who carried the flag. They also procalimed "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abul Fadhl?" "That is the tribe of Ghifaar," replied Hadhrat Abbaas ©IS®!. "What have I to do with the Ghifaar tribe?" responded Abu Sufyaan. (1) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.167) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi has also narrated the Hadith in detail as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.291).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 187 Next followed the Aslam tribe. They comprised of four hundred soldiers and bore two flags. One was carried by Hadhrat Buraydah bin Husayb while Hadhrat Naajiya bin A'jam carried the other. They also called out "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "who are they, O Abul Fadhl?" "That is the tribe of Aslam," replied Hadhrat Abbaas. "What have I to do with the Aslam tribe?" responded Abu Sufyaan, "There has never been any dispute between us." Hadhrat Abbaas said to him, "They are a nation who have entered the fold of Islaam." Thereafter, five hundred men belonging to the Banu Ka'b bin Amr tribe passed by with Hadhrat Bishr bin Shaybaan carrying their flag. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "They are the Ka'b bin Amr tribe," replied Hadhrat Abbaas. "O yes," acknowledged Abu Sufyaan, "they are the allies of Muhammad." They also proclaimed "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. The Muzayna tribe passed next. They were a thousand strong who included a hundred horsemen and they carried three flags. Their flag bearers were Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin, Hadhrat Bilaal bin Haarith and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr. They also cried "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is the Muzayna tribe," replied Hadhrat Abbaas. "What have I to do with the Muzayna tribe?" responded Abu Sufyaan, "They have also come to me from the peaks of their mountains with their weapons clattering." The Juhayna tribe passed next with their leader. They consisted of eight hundred soldiers and bore four flags. There was a flag with Hadhrat Abu Zur'ah Ma'bad bin Khaalid, another with Hadhrat Suwayd bin Sakhr, a third with Hadhrat Raafi bin Makeeth and the fourth with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Badr. They also cried "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Thereafter, came the Kinaana tribe that consisted of the Banu Layth, the Banu Dhamra and Banu Sa'd bin Bakr families. They numbered two hundred and Hadhrat Abu Waaqid Laythi bore their flag. They also cried "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is Banu Bakr tribe," replied Hadhrat Abbaas. Abu Sufyaan said, "Oh yes! By Allaah! They are a tribe of misfortune. It is because of them that Muhammad is attacking us. (1) Swear by Allaah that they (the Quraysh) did not consult with me and I had no knowledge of the matter. When the news of what happened reached me, I was most disgusted. Nevertheless, the matter was predestined." Hadhrat Abbaas said to Abu Sufyaan, "Allaah has destined good in this offensive of Rasulullaah against you as you all enter the fold of Islaam." Waaqidi has mentioned that he was informed by Abdullaah bin Aamir who narrates from Abu Amr bin Himaas that the Banu Layth marched all by themselves. They numbered two hundred and fifty and Hadhrat Sa'b bin I (1) After the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah, the Banu Bakr tribe struck up an allegiance with the Quraysh while the Banu Khuzaa'ah aligned with the Muslims. However, a joint attack on the Banu Khuzaa'ah by the Banu Bakr and the Quraysh led to the annulment of the Treaty, allowing the Muslims the opportunity to march on to Makkah. Abu Sufyaan was referring to this incident.

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam WZ3&?> proceeded with his battalion until they reached Hajoon while Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed JS)j&@£ penetrated further and entered the lower end of Makkah. There he encountered some ruffians from the Banu Bakr tribe and had to fight them. Allaah granted Hadhrat Khaalid *SSjS@»» victory over them and while some were killed at a place called Hazwara, others fled to their homes. Those who were mounted on horseback climbed the Handama hill as the Muslims followed in pursuit. Rasulullaah £HS$ eventually entered Makkah with the last group of people. A crier announced, "Whoever locks himself in his house without fighting shall be safe." Abu Sufyaan was also calling out in Makkah, "Accept islaam and remain safe." It was really through Hadhrat Abbaas SB2i@9 that Allaah had protected the people of Makkah. Hind bint Utba (Abu Sufyaan's wife) grabbed hold of his beard and shouted, "

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra ©(Ss&Ssi narrates further that the people then dispersed as if they had been revived from their graves and they accepted Islaam. Imaam Bayhaqi states that in a narration of this incident that Imaam Shafi'ee 2R2iffifc<3S narrated from Imaam Abu Yusuf &%M&> it is mentioned that when the people gathered in the Masjidul Haraam, Rasulullaah &i$$ asked them, "What do you think I shall do with you?" Hadhrat Ikrama asked him, "What should I say," He replied, "Say that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." Hadhrat Ikrama said to him, "It is from this that I am fleeing." As they spoke, Umm Hakeem arrived and started waving a cloth (to attract their attention) as she shouted, "O my cousin! I have come to you from the one who best maintains family ties, who is the most pious of people and the best of people. Do not destroy yourself." He waited for her until she caught up with him. She then said to him, "I have secured amnesty for you from Rasulullaah ﷺ." "Have you really?" he asked. "Yes," she replied, "I spoke to Rasulullaah ﷺ and he granted you amnesty." Hadhrat Ikrama then returned with Umm Hakeem when she informed him about the details of her experiences with the Roman slave. (In a fit of rage) He killed the slave but had not yet accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Ikrama Accepted Islaam and Testifies to the Perfect Excellence of Rasulullaah ﷺ When Hadhrat Ikrama drew close to Makkah, Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم), "Ikrama the son of Abu Jahal is coming to you as a Mu'min and a Muhaajir so do not curse his father because cursing the dead only hurts the living without ever reaching the dead." Hadhrat Ikrama kept making efforts to cohabit with his wife but she refused saying, 'You are Kaafir while I am a Muslim.' Hadhrat Ikrama remarked, "That which prevents you from me must be something very great." When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw Hadhrat Ikrama and his wife, he hastened towards him without wearing his upper shawl out of happiness at seeing Hadhrat Ikrama and his wife. Rasulullaah ﷺ then sat down while Hadhrat Ikrama and his wife stood before him alongside his wife who donned a veil. Hadhrat Ikrama said, "O Muhammad! This lady has informed me that you have granted me amnesty. Rasulullaah ﷺ responded by saying, "She has spoken the truth. Your safety is assured." Hadhrat Ikrama then asked, "Towards what do you invite?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "I invite you to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am Allaah's Rasul. I also invite you towards establishing salaah and paying zakaah." Rasulullaah ﷺ then mentioned several other things that he was to do. Hadhrat Ikrama said, "By Allaah! You have invited to nothing but the truth and excellent and beautiful actions. By Allaah! Even before you started inviting towards your invitation, you had been the most truthful of us and the most righteous. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad ﷺ is Allaah's servant and Rasul." This pleased Rasulullaah ﷺ tremendously. Hadhrat Ikrama then asked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! He was well acquainted with the people, well liked by his people, soft-natured and from all of the Quraysh he possessed the most knowledge of their family trees and the good and bad conditions that prevailed over them. He was a good-natured businessman of excellent character and because of his vast knowledge, his business expertise and his entertaining nature, his people used to come to him and confide in him in numerous matters. He therefore started calling all those people to Allaah and to Islaam who confided in him when they met him and sat in his company. As far as I am told, the following persons accepted Islaam at his hands: Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam, Uthmaan bin Affaan, Talha bin Ubaydillaah, Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas and Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf. They all came to Rasulullaah with Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Rasulullaah presented Islaam to them, recited the Qur'aan to them and informed them about the rights Islaam had on them. They all accepted Imaan. These eight persons(1) were the forerunners in Islaam who believed in Rasulullaah used to present islaam to him saying, "If you accept Islaam, I could take assistance from you in safeguarding my trusts because it is not permissible for me to use you to safeguard the trusts of the Muslims when you do not belong to their religion." However, when Asbaq refused to accept Islaam, Hadhrat Umar would say, "There is no compulsion in Deen." Hadhrat Asbaq narrates further, "When Hadhrat Umar was on his deathbed, he freed me while I was still a Christian and said, 'You may go wherever you please.'" (Asbaq did accept Islaam afterwards.) Hadhrat Aslam (also a slave of Hadhrat Umar) narrates that when they were in Shaam, he brought some water for Hadhrat Umar to make wudhu with. Hadhrat Umar asked, "Where have you brought this water from? I have never seen any sweet water nor any rainwater as good as this." Hadhrat Aslam informed him that he had obtained the water from the house of an old Christian lady. When Hadhrat Umar had completed his wudhu, he approached the old lady and said, "O lady! Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in Hifya (Vol.9 Pg.34) from a Roman slave called Wasaq. The only difference in this narration is that Hadhrat Umar said, "...in safeguarding the trusts of the Muslims because it is not befitting for me to use anyone to safeguard their trusts who does not belong to their religion."

When we worshipped stones and sacrificed animals for them, was this any religion? I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." Hearing my footsteps, my mother shouted, 'Stay where you are, O Abu Hurayra.' I then heard the pattering of water (as my mother took a bath to accept Islaam). She then wore her clothes and hastily donned a scarf. She opened the door and said, 'O Abu Hurayra! In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful, I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul.'" Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says that he then returned to Rasulullaah and informed him about what had happened. Rasulullaah's wife praised Allaah and made du'aa in their favour. (3) According to another narration, Hadhrat Abu Hurayra used to say, "By Allaah! Whenever any male or female Muslim hears my name, they take a liking to me." "How do you know this?" the narrator asked. He then mentioned that he used to invite his mother to Islaam and the narration continues like the one mentioned above. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 223 those from his people who had accepted Islaam. At the time Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was in Khaybar. Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr eventually reached Madinah with seventy or eighty families from the Daws tribe. (1) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) has also narrated from Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr (رضي الله عنه) the story of how he accepted Islaam, how he gave Da'wah to his father, his wife and his people and his arrival in Makkah, just as it was mentioned in the previous narration. However, the narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) adds that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) sent Hadhrat Tufayl (رضي الله عنه) to burn an idol called Dhul Kaffayn. In addition, it also mentions that Hadhrat Tufayl (رضي الله عنه) thereafter left for Yamaamah where he saw a dream and was then martyred in the Battle of Yamaamah. (2) Another narration states that when Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr arrived in Makkah, some people from the Quraysh told him about Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and requested him to assess Rasulullaah (ﷺ). He therefore went to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and recited some of his poetry to Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then recited Surah Ikhlaas and the Mu'awwadhatayn (Surahs Falaq and Naas) to him. He accepted Islaam on the spot and then returned to his people. The narration then goes on to speak about his whip and its light. The narrator mentions further that Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr then invited his parents to Islaam. His father accepted Islaam but his mother did not. When he invited his tribesmen, it was only Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) who accepted. Thereafter, Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr went to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and said, "Would you like a fortified stronghold with strong defences?" he was referring to the territory of the Daws tribe (which he wanted Rasulullaah (ﷺ) to take hold of after cursing the Daws tribe). However, when Rasulullaah (ﷺ) made du'aa for the Daws tribe instead, Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr said, "This is not what I wanted." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "There are many of them who are just like you." Amongst the Daws tribe was a person called Jundub bin Amr bin Humama bin Auf who used to say during the Period of Ignorance, "I know that the Creation has a Creator but I do not know who it is." When he heard of Rasulullaah (ﷺ), he went to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) along with seventy five men of his tribe and they all accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) narrates that Jundub placed each man individually before Rasulullaah (ﷺ). I want you to tell me something, but do speak the truth and do not lie because a free man never lies. Do not deceive me either because a respectable person never deceives someone who trusts him. Has Allaah given your Nabi a sword from the heavens which he has given to you by virtue of which you defeat anyone against whom you draw it? Hadhrat Khaalid JUS3@g>: No Jarja: Then why are you called the sword of Allaah ('Sayfullaah')? Hadhrat Khaalid Sf5@s>: Allaah sent His Nabi amongst us who preached to us. However, we expressed resentment and kept our distance from him. Even I was amongst those who treated him like a liar and ostracised him. Thereafter, Allaah seized our hearts and forelocks and guided us through him. We then pledged allegiance to him. He once said to me, You are a sword from the swords of Allaah whom Allaah has drawn against the Mushrikeen.¹ He then prayed to Allaah to assist me. This is why I am called the sword of Allaah. I am therefore amongst the sternest of Muslims against the Mushrikeen. Jarja: O Khaalid! Towards what do you call? Hadhrat Khaalid W&@g>: We call people to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad 8§§i is Allaah's servant and Rasul. We also call them to accept everything that Rasulullaah &iHi has brought from Allaah. Jarja-. What about those who do not accept this? For anyone who saw what we saw and who heard what we heard there was no option but to accept Islaam and to pledged allegiance to him. As for you people, you have not seen the miraculous events and signs (of his Nabuwaat) that we saw and heard. Therefore, whoever of you will enter this Deen with sincerity shall be better than us. Rustam instructed them to grant him entry and he came with his spear, which tore most of the rug as he walked while leaning on it. The courtiers asked, "What brings you here?" He replied, "It is Jannah, which shall be the lot of people who die fighting those who reject (Islaam). Victory shall be the lot of those who survive." Rustam asked, "I have heard what you have to say. Will you allow us grace so that you and us may look into the matter?"

"Certainly," Hadhrat Rib'ee responded, "How much time do you require? One day? Two days?" "No," said Rustam, "We need time to write to our consultative assembly and our leaders." Hadhrat Rib'ee said, "Rasulullaah has not set such a precedent that allows enemies more than three days respite at the time of battle. Look into the matter for your benefit and for the benefit of your people and then choose one of the three options before the expiry of the (three day) term." Rustam asked, "Are you the leader of your people?" "No," replied Hadhrat Rib'ee "but all Muslims are like a single body. The lowest of them may grant amnesty (to an enemy) which is binding on the highest of them." Rustam gathered the leaders of his people and asked, "Have you ever heard words more powerful yet as gentle as those of that man?" They said, "Allaah forbid that you should have taken a liking to anything that he said and forsake your religion for that dog! Did you not see his clothing?" Rustam said to them, "Shame on you! Do not look at clothing but rather look at the prudence, the speech and the personality. The Arabs care little for clothing and food but are covetous about their lineage." Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Mihsin and Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba present the Da'wah to Rustam on the Second and Third Days The next day, the Persians asked for another person and Hadhrat Sa'd sent Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Mihsin who addressed them in the manner that Hadhrat Rib'ee did. On the third day, Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba was sent and he spoke to them in a very pleasant manner and in great detail. In their discussion, Rustam said to Hadhrat Mughiera, "Your coming to our land is like a fly that saw some honey and announced, 'Whoever takes me to the honey shall receive two Dirhams.' However, when the fly fell into the honey, it started drowning and could find no escape despite all its efforts. It then announced, 'Whoever removes me from the honey shall receive four Dirhams.' Your example is also like a weak fox that entered a vineyard through a hole in the wall. Seeing that it was so weak and frail, the owner of the vineyard took pity on it and left it alone. However, when the fox became fat, it started Rustam then filled with rage and took an oath by the sun saying, "I shall kill you all tomorrow!" Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba SDSSS© calmly said, "You will soon find out." Rustam then said to Hadhrat Mughiera JSUSa®?), "I have issued the command that each of you should receive a set of clothing and that your commander should receive a thousand Dinaars together with a set of clothing and a conveyance. You should then leave us." Hadhrat Mughiera W&®&j said, "You wish to do this after we have weakened your kingdom and diminished your respect? We have been a while in your kingdom and shall take the Jizya from you, which you shall pay by hand as subjects submitting to our authority. Regardless of what you think, you will soon become our slaves." When Hadhrat Mughiera Wffli&& said this, Rustam flew into a towering rage. (1) Hadhrat Sa'd W&fl&j Sends a group of Sahabah 8SB2B$fgi to give Da'wah to the Persian Leader Before Engaging in Battle Hadhrat Abu Waa'il *s3!3®e) narrates, "Hadhrat Sa'd W&®& marched with the Muslim army until they set up camp at a place called Qaadisiyya. I cannot tell, precisely but we numbered no more than seven or eight thousand while the Mushrikeen numbered thirty thousand." This is the figure according to this narration. However, according to a narration of Hadhrat Sayf*2*, the Kuffaar army numbered eighty thousand. Another narration places the figure of Rustam's army at a hundred and twenty thousand with another eighty thousand reinforcements. In addition to this, Rustam had thirty three elephants, led by the largest which was a white elephant belonging to Saaboar. All the other elephants obeyed this elephant. Like this narration, there are others citing various figures. However, when the Sahabah $&&$}& refused to return, the Persians said, "Send to us one of your intellectuals to explain to us what brings you here." 242 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH &&&f (Vol-1) stray arrow struck him. ^ Hadhrat Sayf narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd 3SDj5@© sent a group of Sahabah $3!f@g> to the Persian leader to invite him to Islaam before the battle. When they requested permission to see "him, permission was granted and the people of the city came to have a look at their appearance. The/Sahabah isSt!2@g> were wearing their shawls over their shoulders, carried their whips in their hands, were wearing sandals and their horses were extremely weak because of which they tread heavily on the ground. The people were struck with inexplicable astonishment when they saw them. They wondered how people like these could defeat their larger and well-equipped armies. When the Sahabah $&%!&$ were allowed to meet the Persian king Yazdajird, he made them sit in front of him. He was a haughty man who had little respect for others. He questioned them about the names of their garments, their shawls, their shoes and their whips. Each time they told him the name, he took an omen from them in his favour. However, Allaah ensured that each omen backfired against him. He then asked them, "What has brought you to our lands? Have you become bold because our civil war has started?" Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin i!3!@gi said, "Allaah has showered his mercy on us when He sent a Rasul to us who guided us towards good and commanded us with virtue. He defined evil for us and forbade us from it. He promised us the good of this world as well as the Aakhirah if we accepted his call to good. Whenever he invited a tribe towards this, they divided into two groups, one that drew close to him and the other that distanced itself from him. It was only the few selected ones who drew close to him. He continued his preaching in this manner for as long as Allaah wanted him to. Thereafter, Allaah commanded him to tackle those Arabs who opposed him and he started with them (before proceeding to the non-Arabs). When he did this, they all joined him as two groups; those who were forced to join but were then happy that they had done so and those who did so happily and whose happiness then increased. We all realised that the Deen he called us towards was far superior to the hostility and the narrow lives we had been leading. He then instructed us to start tackling the nations around us and to invite them towards justice. We are therefore inviting you towards our Deen the Deen of Islaam which regards all good as good and all evil as evil. However, if you refuse (to accept Islaam), the options are two unpleasanties, the one being more demeaning than the other. The one option is to pay the Jizya and if you refuse, then the other is war. On the other hand, if you accept our Deen, we shall leave the Book of Allaah behind with you. We shall give you a grounding in it so that you may rule by its laws and we shall leave you to your affairs and your territories. If you wish to pay the Jizya, we shall accept it from you and give you protection. Otherwise (if you refuse Islaam and Jizya), we shall fight you." Yazdajird said, "I do not know of any nation on earth that is more wretched then (1) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.451). Haakim and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.215) have both commented on the chain of narrators.

The Persians have never fought you so do not think that you can stand in their way. If your numbers have increased, let this never fool you about (thinking that you can overpower) us. If it is poverty that has called you here, we shall provide relief for you until you become prosperous. We shall also honour your leaders, provide clothing for you and appoint for you a king who will be kind towards you." The Sahabah $&&$&?> remained silent until Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba JsilasSSsi stood and said, "O King! These are all leaders of the Arabs and their aristocrats'. They are all respectable people and it is only respectable people who show consideration for respectable people and who honour respectable people. Only they give importance to the rights of respectable people. They have not yet told you everything they were sent to tell you and have not replied to all of your questions. They have done well to do this and it is only people like them who can act this respectfully. You should rather be conversing with someone like me. I shall convey the message to you and they will testify to what I say." Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba %ffi3g&$ continued, "By the way in which you have described us, it appears that you are unaware of our situation, concerning the statement you made about our poor condition, (it is true because) there was none in a poorer condition than we had been. With regard to hunger, none suffered the hunger we suffered. Regarding them to be food, we used to even eat dung beetles, other insects, scorpions and snakes. As for our homes, it used to be the bare earth and our clothing consisted of only what we wove from the skins of camels and hairs of goats. Killing and oppressing each other was our way of life and there were even those amongst us who would bury his infant daughter alive because he disliked that she should share his food. Our condition in the past was exactly as I have described." "Allaah then sent to us a man whom we knew and whose lineage we were well aware of. We were well acquainted with his personality and his place of birth. His land was the best of our lands, his lineage the best of our lineages, his family the best of our families and his tribe the best of our tribes. Despite the terrible conditions prevailing then, he was also the best person amongst us, the most truthful and most forbearing. When he called us towards Islaam, none of us accepted besides his childhood friend who became the Khalifah after him. When he spoke, we said something else and when he told us the truth, we regarded them as lies. However, his followers increased while ours decreased. Whatever he said became reality and Allaah eventually inspired us to believe in him and to follow him. He then became our link with Allaah. Whatever he told us was actually from Allaah and whatever he commanded was actually Allaah's commands." "He told us, Your Rabb says, 'I am the One Allaah Who h-as no partner. I have

We testify that Rasulullaah i!2$| certainly brought the truth from the True Allaah. Allaah also said, 'Whoever follows you in this Deen shall enjoy the privileges you enjoy and shall bear the responsibilities you bear. I shall be the Judge between you. I shall enter into My Jannah those of you who are martyred and those of you who survive shall have My assistance with them against those who oppose you.'"

Hadhrat Mughiera 413!*®£ then issued the ultimatum to Yazdajird when he said, "You may choose to pay the Jizya if you wish, in which case you will live as subjects. You may also choose the sword if you wish. Otherwise, you are at liberty to save yourselves by accepting islaam." Yazdajird retorted by saying, 'You dare face me with these proposals!' Hadhrat Mughiera JsSSSaSs said, "I address whoever is speaking to me. Had another person been speaking to me, I would have presented them to him." Yazdajird burst out saying, "Had it not been for the principle that envoys cannot be killed, I would have surely killed you for you have no status in my estimation."

Yazdajird then said (to his courtiers), "Bring me a basket of sand and place it on the head of the person of the highest birth amongst them. Then lead him to the outskirts of Madaa'in." (Addressing the Sahabah &&&, Yazdajird said,) "Go back to your leader and inform him that I shall send Rustam to him who will bury him along with his army in the trenches of Qaadisiyyah. Those coming afterwards shall learn a lesson from what is to happen to him and to you people. I shall then send Rustam to your land and he shall torture you worse than Saaboora*1) did." Yazdajird then asked, "Which of you is of the highest birth?" After a brief silence, Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr Wffi&Z volunteered to take the sand without consulting the others and said, "I am of the highest birth amongst them all. Let me carry the sand." "Is that so?" asked Yazdajird. When the other Sahabah %&i&&s agreed, the basket of sand was placed on his neck. He carried it out of the palace and to the outskirts where he mounted his animal and loaded the basket on it. He then raced his mount to take it to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas W8s®&. He rode ahead of the other Sahabah IsSJJa®© and passed by the gates of Qudays (a palace in Qaadisiyyah) calling, "Give the Ameer glad tidings of victory! Insha Allaah, we shall certainly be victorious!" Hadhrat Aasim *S3!Sag> then rode on until he placed the sand on Arabian soil. Returning to Hadhrat Sa'd !£$£$&, he informed him about what had happened. Hadhrat Sa'd SIJS®!^, "Glad tidings! By Allaah! Allaah has already given us the keys of their kingdom." There they were met by the chief priest of Egypt Abu Maryam who was there with another high priest and the Egyptian army. Maqoqis (the king of Egypt) had sent them to defend the country. When Hadhrat Amr W&8&9 arrived there, they immediately prepared to attack but Hadhrat Amr &&&& sent a message telling them that they should not be hasty and should first listen to their reason for coming, after which they could make a decision. Whoever accepts shall be one of us and whoever refuses to accept shall be given the option of paying Jizya. We shall then do everything in our capacity to provide protection. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) has informed us that we shall certainly conquer you people and advised us to be good to you to maintain the family ties that exist between us. If you accept this option (of paying Jizya), you shall have in your favour another right (of being family) in addition to the right of protection (that we will be obliged to give you). Amongst the commands that our Ameer had given are his words, "Treat the Copts well because Rasulullaah (ﷺ) has advised that the Copts should be treated well by virtue of the fact that they are relatives and deserve protection as well." To this, the Egyptians said, "It is only the Ambiyaa who would maintain such distant relations. (Referring to Haajira the wife of Hadhrat Ibraheem (عليه السلام), they said) She was a celebrated and honourable lady who was the daughter of our king. She belonged to the House of Manf who were the ruling family. However, the House of Aynush Shams attacked them, killed many of them, seized the kingdom and the rest of them were forced into exile. She then became the wife of Hadhrat Ibraheem (عليه السلام). His coming was most welcome and a happy event for us. Do leave us in peace until we return to you (after consulting with the others). Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (رضي الله عنه) said, "You will be unable to fool the likes of me. You therefore have three days to ponder over the matter and to consult with your people. Otherwise (if you fail to return within three days) we shall have to attack you." When the two priests requested an extension of time, Hadhrat Amr (رضي الله عنه) gave them an additional day. They then asked for more time and he added another day. • They then returned to Maqoqis who seriously considered the alternatives. However, a person called Artaboos (2) refused to submit and ordered an attack against the Muslims. The two priests said to the people, "We shall do our best to defend you without returning to the Muslims. However, there are still four days left in which we can hope for nothing but peace from them." The people of Farqab launched a surprise attack against Hadhrat Amr (رضي الله عنه) and Hadhrat Zubayr (رضي الله عنه) at night but Hadhrat Amr (رضي الله عنه) was prepared for the attack. He engaged the enemy and killed the people of Farqab along with those with them (Artaboos was also killed with them), after which the rest of them fled. Hadhrat Amr (رضي الله عنه) and Hadhrat Zubayr (رضي الله عنه) then left for Aynush Shams. • Hadhrat Abu Haaritha and Abu Uthmaan narrate that when Hadhrat Amr (رضي الله عنه) set up camp at Aynush Shams, the Egyptian people said to their king, "What do you wish to do against people who have defeated Kisra and Caesar and occupied (1) Hadhrat Haajira the wife of Hadhrat Ibraheem (عليه السلام) who was from Egypt as was Hadhrat Maariya (رضي الله عنها) the mother of Rasulullaah (ﷺ)'s son Ibraheem. On the other hand, if they choose to join you, they will enjoy the same privileges that you do and will have to bear the same responsibilities that you bear. (Secondly) If they refuse to accept Islaam, call them to pay the Jizya. Hadhrat Salama S&f@tg; says, "We then marched and when we met the Mushrikeen enemy, we gave them the Da'wah as the Ameerul Mu'mineen had instructed. When they refused to accept Islaam, we called them to pay the Jizya, which they also refused. We then fought them and Allaah assisted us to defeat them. However, there were still those Mushrikeen amongst the Ansaar who adhered to their religion. Amongst these was Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh S®@®, whose son Mu'aadh S3^@« had also pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah &£ at Aqaba. Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh 2$3ta@»© was one of the leaders of the Banu Salma tribe' and one of the most respected persons amongst them. As was the practice of the noble people of those times, Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh JSBJ^e also kept a wooden idol in his house that he named Manaas. He regarded it to be his deity and always kept it clean. After accepting Islaam, some of the youngsters of the Banu Salma tribe together with others who had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah (j$8$i at Aqaba such as Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal WS^&6 and Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh SS^a&'s son Mu'aadh %£3&8&9, used to take away the idol of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh H®&8&9 at night and then throw it head first into one of the pits they used as a rubbish dump. In the mornings, Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh JgSSjSSeS used to say, "Woe be to those who have manhandled our god last night!" He would then go looking for the idol. When he found it, he would wash it, clean it thoroughly and apply perfume to it. Thereafter, he would say, "I swear by Allaah that if I found out who did this, I would certainly disgrace him." However, as soon as Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh SJSffiS© went to sleep, the youngsters again repeated their deed. One day, when they had carried out their deed once too often for him, he took the idol out from where they had thrown it after cleaning it and applying perfume, he hung his sword around its neck. He then said to it, "By Allaah! I have no idea who is doing this to you. However, if you have the courage, you should defend yourself for you now have this sword with you." The following morning when Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh 51312@i$ did not find the idol in its place, he went out in search of it and found it lying on its head in the well with the dead dog tied to it. Seeing this, he realised the helplessness of the idol and after the Muslims of his tribe had spoken to him, he accepted Islaam, becoming an excellent Muslim. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. (1) Another narration states that when a few members of the Banu Salma tribe accepted Islaam, the wife and son of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh &S%8£6 also accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh 383!S®e> said to his wife, "Do not allow any of the children to go to your family until I investigate what they are doing." He also thanked Allaah for saving him from the spiritual blindness and deviation that he was trapped in. When he asked her where Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was, she replied, 'Your brother has just left.' With an axe in his hand, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha then entered the room where the idol stayed and smashed it to bits. As he did this, he took the name of each idol as he hymned the couplet: "Behold! Everything that is worshipped besides Allaah is a fake" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa's wife had been hearing the noise of the axe and when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha emerged from the room, she burst out, "O son of Rawwaaha! You have ruined me!" He had just left the house when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa entered the house and found his wife sitting there crying out of fear for his reaction. When he asked her what was wrong, she said, "Your brother Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha came here by surprise and did what you see." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa flew into a towering rage but then thought to himself that if his idol was of any good, it would have defended itself. He then went to Rasulullah who was with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha and accepted Islaam.

* The Letter that Hadhrat Umar Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Concerning Jizya and Prisoners of War Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Jaz Zubaydi narrates a lengthy report about what happened after the Muslims conquered Alexandria during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar. In this report he also mentions that they stopped at a place called Balheeb where they waited for the letter of Hadhrat Umar to reach them. When it arrived, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas read the letter to the Muslims, which stated: Your letter has reached me with the news that the king of Alexandria has opted to pay the Jizya on condition that all the prisoners of his country are returned to him. By my life! The Jizya that we receive and that the Muslims after us shall receive is more beloved to me than the booty that is distributed and then finished. Suggest to the king of Alexandria that he should pay the Jizya on condition that the prisoners in your custody should be given the choice of either accepting Islaam or remaining faithful to their religion. Whoever amongst them accepts Islaam would become one of the Muslims and shall enjoy the privileges all Muslims enjoy together with bearing the responsibilities all Muslims bear. Those who choose the religion of their people shall have to pay the same amount of Jizya fixed for the people of his faith. As for those prisoners who have dispersed into Arabia and reached places like Makkah, Madinah or Yemen, we shall be unable to return them to him and we cannot enter into an agreement (1) Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.336).

What the Sahabah did during the Conquest of Alexandria Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Jaz states further, "Hadhrat Arrtr bin Al Aas then sent a letter to the king of Alexandria, explaining to him the instructions that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had written to him. The king accepted the proposal and we then gathered all the prisoners with us. When all these Christian prisoners had gathered, we approached each one of them and allowed him to choose between Islaam and Christianity. When any of them accepted Islaam, we shouted 'Alaahu Akbar' louder than we did when conquering any town and took him into our protection. If any of them chose Christianity, the Christians would make a noise and take him into their protection. We would then impose the Jizya on him. When this happened, we were so grieved that it appeared as if one of us had defected to them. This continued until all the prisoners had been given the choice. Amongst those who came to us was Abu Maryam (whose name was) Abdullaah bin Abdur Rahmaan." Another narrator by the name of Qaasim says that he met Abu Maryam when he was chief of the Banu Zubayd tribe. Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Jaz continues saying, "When we approached Abu Maryam whose parents and brothers were all Christians and gave him the choice between Islaam and Christianity, he opted to accept Islaam. As we took him into our protection, his parents and brothers darted across to pull him away from us and actually tore his clothing apart. However, he is now our chief as you can see." (1) The Incident of Hadhrat Ali's Armour and his Interaction with a Christian who then Accepted Islaam Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when (the Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Ali once went to the marketplace, he found a Christian selling a coat of armour. Recognising the coat of armour, Hadhrat Ali said, "That armour belongs to me. Let us have the judge of the Muslims decide the matter between us." The presiding judge at that time was Qaadhi Shuray and Hadhrat Ali asked him to rule in the matter. When Qaadhi Shuray saw the Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali, he got up from his place and made the Ameerul Mu'mineen sit there. He then sat in front of the Ameerul Mu'mineen next to the Christian. Hadhrat Ali said, "O Shuray! Had my adversary been a Muslim, I would have sat with him. However, I have heard Rasulullaah say (about the non-Muslims living in a Muslim country), 'Do not shake hands with them, do not be first to greet them, do not visit them when they fall ill, do not perform their funeral prayers, make them use the narrow part of the pathway and keep them in a lowered position as Allaah has kept them in a lowered position'. Qaadhi Shuray ruled, "The armour cannot be taken from the Christian unless you have proof (of your ownership, O Ameerul Mu'mineen)." Hadhrat Ali ©)S@gi submitted, "Shuray is right." The Christian then said, "As for me, I testify that it is certainly the judgement of the Ambiyaa that the Ameerul Mu'mineen can come to a judge under his power who passes judgement against him. Hadhrat Yazeed Tameemi reports a lengthy narration in which he states that Qaadhi Shuray said to Hadhrat Ali W&8!&, "We shall accept the testimony of your freed slave but not that of your son." After she had applied henna, she returned to Rasulullah (ﷺ) who said to her, "I require you to pledge that you will not ascribe any partners to Allaah, will not steal and will not commit adultery." She interrupted by saying, "Does a free woman ever commit adultery?" Rasulullah (ﷺ) continued, "And that you will not kill your children for fear of poverty." "You have not left us any child to kill," she interjected (referring to her children who were killed while fighting against the Muslims). She then pledged allegiance and with reference to the two gold bangles she wore on her hand, she asked, "What do you say about these two bangles?" Rasulullah (ﷺ) replied, "These are two coals from the fire of Jahannam (when zakaah is not paid for them)." (1) Another famous narration (2) states that when Rasulullah (ﷺ) said, "That you do not commit adultery", she said, "Does a free woman ever commit adultery?" and when Rasulullah (ﷺ) said, "And that you will not kill your children for fear of poverty", she said, "We grew them up as children and then you killed them when they were big." According to yet another narration (3), when Rasulullah (ﷺ) said, "That you do not commit adultery", she said, "Does a free woman ever commit adultery?" and when Rasulullah (ﷺ) said, "And that you will not kill your children for fear of poverty", she said, "It is you who killed them". A similar narration quotes her as saying, "Have you left us any children after the Battle of Badr?" Another narration states at the beginning that Hadhrat Hind (رضي الله عنها) said (to her husband Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (رضي الله عنه)), "I wish to pledge allegiance to Muhammad (ﷺ)." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (رضي الله عنه) said, "But I have noticed that you have always been rejecting what he says." She replied, "By Allaah! That is true. However, I swear by Allaah that before this night I have never seen Allah being worshipped in this Masjid as He deserves to be worshipped. By Allaah! The Muslims spent the entire night performing salaah standing, bowing down and prostrating." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (رضي الله عنه) said, "But you have done many things (against Islaam). Take someone from your people along with you." Hadhrat Hind (رضي الله عنها) then went to Hadhrat Umar (رضي الله عنه), who accompanied her and sought permission from Rasulullah (ﷺ) to allow her in. She entered the presence of Rasulullah (ﷺ) wearing a veil. The episode of her Bay'ah then followed. Rasulullaah ﷺ arrived with a criterion (the Qur'aan) that differentiated between truth and falsehood and even divided father and son. The situation was (so heartbreaking) that a (Muslim) person whose heart was unlocked to be filled with Imaan had to see his father or his son or his brother live as a Kaafir knowing well that whoever enters Jahannam shall be destroyed. He was therefore unable to experience any coolness (comfort) knowing that his close relative was destined for Jahannam. It is about this that Allaah says in the Qur'aan: (Yi roliyUl 5JJ-) %p*\ «> UjU^J Mjj> ^-U v* Ljjj O our Rabb! He then went to the Thaqeef tribe (in Taa'if), hoping that they would grant him asylum and assist him. There he met- three chiefs of the Thaqeef clan. They were all brothers whose names were Abd Yaleel bin Amr, Habeeb bin Amr and Mas'ood bin Amr. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) presented his case to them and told them about the torment and impudent treatment he received from his people. However, one of them said, "If Allaah has sent you with anything at all, I shall steal the covering of the Kabah!" The other said, "By Allaah! I shall never speak a word to you again after this! If you are really a Nabi, you are too honourable to speak to me." The third one said, "Was Allaah unable to find anyone besides you to make a Nabi?" (1) Tabraani in his Awsat. When Rasulullaah (ﷺ) put his hand in the plate, he recited - "In the name of Allaah". Addaas looked into Rasulullaah (ﷺ)'s face and said, "By Allaah! The people of this area do not say such words." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) asked, "From the people of which area do you belong O Addaas? What is your religion?" Addaas replied, "I am a Christian from the people of Nineveh." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) commented, "You are from the town of the pious man Yunus bin Matta once said, "If only you had seen Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and myself as we climbed up to the cave (of Thowr en-route to Madinah)! Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then said, "Whoever wishes to see someone whose blood is mixed with mine, should look at Maalik bin Sinaan." (2) Hadhrat Aa'isha (r.a.) narrates that whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr (r.a.) spoke about the Battle of Uhud, he would say, "Every credit for that day goes to Talha." He then continued to explain, "I was the first person to return to the fight (after the Muslims were taken by surprise) and I saw someone very fiercely defending Rasulullaah (ﷺ). I said (to myself) '(I hope that it would be) Talha!' Since I had missed what (rewards of defending Rasulullaah (ﷺ)) I had missed, I wanted him to be a man from amongst my people (so that we may have the honour, and Talha was from amongst my people). Between the Mushrikeen and myself was another person whom I did not recognise. While I was closer to Rasulullaah (ﷺ), he was running much faster than I could. He turned out to be Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah." "When we reached Rasulullaah (ﷺ), his canine tooth was already broken and his face was injured when two links of his helmet pierced his cheeks. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, 'See to your companion!' Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was referring to Talha who had become weak due to loss of blood. However, (seeing the condition of Rasulullaah (ﷺ)) we failed to comply with the instruction and went to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) to remove the links from his face. Abu Ubaydah pleaded to me, 'By the right that I have (as your Muslim brother), do leave it to me.' So I left it for him. Because of the pain that it would have caused Rasulullaah (ﷺ), Abu Ubaydah disliked pulling the links out with his hand so he bit hard onto it and pulled out one of the links. However, one of his front teeth fell out in the process. When I motioned to do as he had done, he again pleaded, 'By the right that I have, do leave it to me.' He then repeated what he had done the first time and another front tooth fell out with the link. Abu Ubaydah was one of the best looking people without front teeth." "After tending to Rasulullaah (ﷺ), we went to Talha who had fallen into a ditch. He had suffered seventy odd wounds inflicted by spears, arrows and swords. We then nursed him." You give people what they cannot find, you maintain family ties, you carry the burdens of others, you entertain guests and you assist in all good avenues. I shall grant you protection go and worship your Rabb in your town." Ibnud Daghina then returned with Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R.A.) and he went around to all the leaders of the Quraysh telling them, "A person like Abu Bakr cannot leave and cannot be made to leave. How can you exile a person who gives people what they cannot find, who maintains family ties, who carries the burdens of others, who entertains guests and who assists in all good avenues." The Quraysh did not oppose the amnesty that Ibnud Daghina had granted but said to him, "Tell Abu Bakr that he should worship his Rabb in his house, perform his salaah there and recite as much of the Qur'aan he wishes. However, he should not annoy us by doing this in public because we fear that he would then mislead our women and children." Ibnud Daghina conveyed this message to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R.A.). Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R.A.) then stayed like this. He worshipped Allaah in his house, did not perform salaah in public and did not recite Qur'aan in any house but his own. It then occurred to him that he should construct a Masjid in the courtyard of his house and here he used to perform salaah and recite the Qur'aan. The women and children of the Mushrikeen crowded around to look at him for they were overwhelmed by him. He was a man who wept easily and could not control his eyes when he recited the Qur'aan. This development alarmed the leaders of the Quraysh and they sent for Ibnud Daghina. When Ibnud Daghina met them, they said to him, "We sanctioned the amnesty that you granted to Abu Bakr on condition that he worships his Rabb within the confines of his house. He has now overstepped the bounds by building a Masjid in the courtyard of his house where he openly performs salaah and recites the Qur'aan. We greatly fear that he shall mislead our women and children. You had better stop him. If he confines the worship of his Rabb to his house, he may do so. However, if he is adamant to do so publicly, ask him to absolve you of your amnesty because we would hate to break our promise to you. We cannot (under any circumstances) allow Abu Bakr to make things public." Hadhrat Aa'isha (R.A.) narrates further that when Ibnud Daghina came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R.A.), he said, "You know well the conditions of the agreement I made with you. You may either confine yourself to these conditions or absolve me of the amnesty I have granted because I would not like to hear the Arabs say that I had reneged on an agreement I had made with someone." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R.A.) said, "I absolve you of the amnesty you have granted and am pleased with the protection of Allaah." The details of the Hadith shall be mentioned in the discussion of Hijrah. Return (to Makkah) for you are under my protection." Hadhrat Abu Bakr Wti$&$ therefore returned with Ibnud Daghina and when they entered Makkah, Ibnud Daghina stood beside Hadhrat Abu Bakr JaJISftSfe* and announced, "O Quraysh! I have taken the son of Abu Quhaafa into my protection so everyone should treat him well." The people therefore stopped harassing Hadhrat Abu Bakr igXfflSSS. The concluding part of this narration states that Ibnud Daghina said, "O Abu Bakr! I did not grant you amnesty so that you may annoy your people. They dislike the place you have adopted (in your courtyard) and it annoys them. Go into your house and do as you please." Hadhrat Abu Bakr JfiHlS®« said, "Should I rather absolve you of your protection and content myself with the protection of Allaah?" Early one night, Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab had heard his sister recite: (^ : jJLp i>yJ) \ ~>\> \j>\J "Read in the name of your Rabb Who created..." {Surah Alaq, verse 1} He then beat her up so badly that he thought he had killed her. He therefore went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and found Hadhrat Bilaal RA at the door. When he knocked at the door, Hadhrat Bilaal RA asked who he was. When he said that he was Umar bin al-Khattaab, Hadhrat Bilaal RA told him to wait until he sought permission from Rasulullaah ﷺ for him to enter. Hadhrat Bilaal RA then said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, "Umar bin al-Khattaab is at the door." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "If Allaah intends good for Umar, he will enter the Deen." Rasulullaah ﷺ permitted Hadhrat Bilaal RA to open the door and then grabbed hold of Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab's collar and shook him saying, "What do you want? Why have you come?" Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab replied, "Present to me what you call people towards." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "You should testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad SAW is Allaah's servant and Rasul." Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab accepted Islaam on the spot and then told Rasulullaah ﷺ to come out of the house (and to perform salaah openly in the Masjidul Haraam). ^ Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab's slave Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab once asked him, "Do you wish to know about the days when I first accepted Islaam?" When Hadhrat Aslam asked to be informed, Hadhrat Umar bin al-Khattaab said, "I used to be one of Rasulullaah ﷺ's strongest opponents. It was during an extremely hot day in one of the alleyways of Makkah when someone saw me and asked where I was going. When I informed him that I was going after Rasulullaah ﷺ, he said, 'O son of al-Khattaab! You are saying this when this Deen has entered your very household!' 'What are you saying?' I asked. He explained, 'Even your sister has gone to the Deen.' In a rage, I returned and knocked at her door." "It was the practise of Rasulullaah ﷺ to bond people without any wealth to others who were able to spend on them. There were therefore two Sahabah RA who were bonded in this manner to my sister's husband. When I knocked at the door and was asked to identify myself, I said, 'Umar bin al-Khattaab.' 310 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) (the two Sahabah with my brother-in-law) had been busy reading a manuscript they had with them and when they heard my voice, they hid somewhere inside the house, forgetting to take the manuscript with them. When my sister opened the door, I shouted, 'O enemy of yourself! Have you become a heretic?' I then lifted something in my hand and hit her on the head. She wept and said, 'O son of Khattaab! Do what you like for I have already accepted Islaam.' She went in and I took a seat. It was then that I noticed the manuscript by the door. "What is that manuscript over there?" I asked. My sister replied, 'Keep away from it, O son of Khattaab because you do not take the ceremonial bath or clean yourself thoroughly. Only pure people may touch it.' However, I insisted until she gave it to me." The rest of the narration continues. 'Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Endures Hardships and Difficulties Hadhrat Umar narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon noticed that while he could walk about in safety under the protection of Waleed bin Mughiera, the other Sahabah were suffering great torment. He then said to himself, "There must be a great deficiency in me because my days and nights are spent in safety under the protection of a Mushrik while my companions and members of my Deen are suffering torture and hardships." He then went to Waleed bin Mughiera and said to him, "O Abu Abdish Shams! You have certainly fulfilled your duty, but I wish to absolve you of the protection you have granted me." Waleed asked, "Why is it, O nephew? Has one of my people perhaps harmed you?" "No," replied Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon, "I prefer rather the protection of Allaah and do not want to seek protection from anyone besides He." Waleed said, "Let us proceed to the Masjidul Haraam to announce that I have been absolved of my protection just as I had announced the granting of my protection in the first place." The two men proceeded to the Masjidul Haraam where Waleed announced to the people, "Uthmaan here has come to absolve me of the protection I had been giving him." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon then addressed the people saying, "What he says is true. He has been true to his word and an honourable guardian. However, because I prefer not to seek protection from anyone other than Allaah, I have absolved him of his protection." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon was returning when he noticed (the famous poet) Labeed bin Rabee'ah bin Maalik bin Kilaab Qaysi reciting poetry to a gathering of the Quraysh. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon sat with them as Labeed was reciting a couplet which meant, "Behold! Everything other than Allaah has no substance." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon congratulated him by saying, "That's true." Labeed then recited another couplet which meant, "And every bounty must definitely come to an end." To this, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon commented, "You are mistaken because the bounties of Jannah will never come to an end." (1) Bazaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.64) has commented on the chain of narrators.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 311 Labeed said, "O assembly of Quraysh! A person in your company is usually never offended (no one has objected to my poetry before). Since when has this started amongst you?" Someone in the gathering said, "This person is one of many fools like him who have forsaken our religion. Think nothing of what he says." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon replied to the man and their dispute became so intense that the man stood up and slapped Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon so hard that his eye was blackened. Watching what had happened from close by, Waleed bin Mughiera said, "Dear nephew! By Allaah! Your eye would not have received what it did (had you still been in my protection). You were enjoying a secure protection." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon replied by saying, "True! However, dear Abu Abdish Shams, my good eye is very much in need of what its sister eye received for the sake of Allaah. I am now in the protection of One Who is much more honourable and more powerful than you." Concerning what happened to his eye, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon used to say a few couplets which mean: "So what if my eye suffered for the pleasure of my Rabb at the hands of an irreligious and misguided person? At Rahmaan has already granted His rewards in exchange And whoever pleases Ar Rahmaan is certainly most fortunate Without doubt, even though you call me one who is misguided, astray and a fool, I shall still adhere to the Deen of Muhammad In this I seek only the pleasure of Allaah and our Deen is undoubtedly the truth Even though this displeases those who oppress us and who overstep the limits" Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib composed the following couplets concerning the blackened eye of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon: "In thinking of times of danger Have you become grieved and weep like a distraught person? Or do you weep in thinking of foolish people Who harshly oppress those who invite towards the Deen These people shall never desist from immoral behaviour as long as they remain healthy While deception is way with them and they cannot be trusted Have you not seen that Allaah has reduced the good in them And that we are upset about what happened to Uthmaan bin Madh'oon When they fearlessly slapped him over the eye Persistently taunting and hitting without abate Although he did not die instantly, Allaah shall certainly punish them Measure for measure, they shall be punished without any reduction " A narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that Waleed invited Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon to return to his protection, but Hadhrat Uthmaan bin (1) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 103)

He wore the best perfume in Makkah and shoes made in Hadhramaut (considered the best). When speaking of Hadhrat Mus'ab Jg).l3@sei, Rasulullaah W$£ would say, "I have never seen anyone in Makkah with better hair, finer clothes and enjoying as many bounties as Mus'ab bin Umayr." When Hadhrat Mus'ab heard that Rasulullaah ®Sf was inviting people to Islaam in the house of Arqam bin Abi Arqam, he went to the house where he accepted Islaam and believed in Rasulullaah W$. After leaving the house, he kept his conversion a secret for fear of his mother and family. He frequently visited Rasulullaah W$£ in secret but Uthmaan bin Talha once saw him performing salaah and informed his mother and family about it. They therefore captured him and kept him jailed until he finally managed to migrate to Abyssinia with the first group of Muslims immigrants. He later returned to Makkah with the other Muslims but his condition had changed because he lived a difficult life. (After showing him this) The emperor again asked Hadhrat Abdullaah to become a Christian, but he again refused. The emperor then gave orders that Hadhrat Abdullaah should be thrown into the cauldron. As Hadhrat Abdullaah was being led to the cauldron, he began weeping. When the emperor was informed about this, he thought that Hadhrat Abdullaah was frightened, so he called him back. Again he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah to become a Christian, but the offer was again refused. The emperor then asked, "Then what made you weep?" Hadhrat Abdullaah replied, "I wept when I thought to myself that once I am thrown into the fire, I will be killed instantly. I wish that I had as many lives as the hairs on my body so that each one could be given for the pleasure of Allaah." The tyrant said, "Would you kiss my head in exchange for your freedom?" Hadhrat Abdullaah asked, "In exchange for all the prisoners?" The emperor agreed, "In exchange for all the prisoners." Hadhrat Abdullaah said to himself, "Although he is an enemy of Allaah, I don't mind kissing his head in exchange for my freedom as well as the freedom of all the Muslim prisoners." Hadhrat Abdullaah therefore drew closer and kissed his head, after which all the prisoners were handed over to him. Hadhrat Abdullaah then brought them all back to Hadhrat Umar. When Hadhrat Umar was informed about the events, he said, "It is compulsory for every Muslim to kiss the head of Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa and I shall be the first." Hadhrat Umar then stood up and kissed his head (so that Hadhrat Abdullaah should forget the unpleasant experience of kissing the emperor's head). The Hardships and Difficulties Endured by the Sahabah in General The Torture the Sahabah Suffered at the Hands of the Mushrikeen Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas, "Was the torture that the Mushrikeen put the Sahabah (Sgt) through so severe that they would have been excused if they had to forsake Islaam?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "Certainly. By Allaah! Hadhrat Abu Hurayra ^{رضي الله عنه} replied, "I have kept it for my mother." "Eat it," said Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم}, "I shall give you two dates for her as well." Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} then gave him another two dates. (1) Hadhrat Anas ^{رضي الله عنه} narrates that when Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} went to the trench (before the Battle of Ahzaab) early one morning, he found the Muhaajireen and Ansaar digging in the cold because they had no slaves to do the work for them. When he saw the fatigue and hunger they were suffering, he said: "O Allaah! There is no life but the life of the Akhirah Do forgive the Ansaar and the Muhaajirah (the Muhaajireen)" In response to this, the Sahabah ^{رضي الله عنهم} said: ^{لقد كننا نقاتل في سبيل الله ونؤذي المشركين وما كنا نأكل ولا نشرب ولا نلبس ثيابا ولا نلبس ثيابا ولا نلبس ثيابا} "We are those who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad Pledged to wage Jihaad as long as we are alive" Another narration from Hadhrat Anas ^{رضي الله عنه} states that as the Muhaajireen and Ansaar dug the trench around Madinah and carried the sand on their backs, they sang: "We are those who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad Pledged to wage Jihaad as long as we are alive" in response to this, Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} would say: "O Allaah! There is no real good but the good of the Akhirah Do bless the Ansaar and the Muhaajirah (the Muhaajireen)" Hadhrat Anas ^{رضي الله عنه} narrates further that even when two handfuls of barley was brought, it was cooked with decaying fat and served to people who were extremely hungry (and ate it) even though it would not go down easily and had an unpleasant odour. (2) Hadhrat Jaabir ^{رضي الله عنه} says, "As we were digging the trench for the Battle of Khandaq, a very hard large boulder got in our way. We went to Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} and said, 'This large boulder in the trench has come in the way. Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} said, 'I shall come down (to see). 'As Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} stood up, (we noticed that) he had a stone tied to his stomach and we had not as much as tasted any food for three days. " The Hadith continues in detail. (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ^{رضي الله عنه} narrates that Rasulullaah ^{صلى الله عليه وسلم} and the Sahabah ^{رضي الله عنهم} dug the trench while they had stones tied to their stomachs because of hunger. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $Sfl£8"Eg> (Vol-1) 329 be mentioned in the chapter discussing the assistance that the Sahabah 'fB&@& received from unseen sources. Another narration^ states that the Sahabah &S3S&& numbered eight hundred when they were digging the trench. Hadhrat Aamir £$S2S@3» said, "Rasulullaah ^$ once sent us on a military expedition with only a bag of dates as provisions. The commander would (initially) distribute handfuls of it amongst us until he could give us only one each. "His son asked, "Of what use is one date?" Hadhrat 'Aamir 'SKb@S> said, "Do not say that, dear son. We realised the value of the one date when we did not even have one date. " 2 Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah ^ta@jg> and his Companions Experience Severe Hunger on a Journey Hadhrat Jaabir H®@Sj& says, "Rasulullaah (JISI appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah SSS® ^ as our commander and sent us to intercept a caravan of the Quraysh. Unable to find anything else, we took a bag of dates with us for our provisions. From there, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah WS83&& used to give us each a single date." The narrator asked Hadhrat Jaabir W&1&9, "What would you do with just a single date?" He replied, "We would suck on it as a child suckles and then drink water. This would meet our requirements for the day until the night. We also used our staffs to bring leaves down from the trees, which we soaked in water to eat." The Hadith continues. ^3' A narration of Maalik, Bukhari, Muslim and others state that the Sahabah &Ss^S numbered three hundred on the expedition while a narration of Tabraani places the figure above six hundred. (4) A narration of Imaam Maalik states that a student of Hadhrat Jaabir W&&6 asked him, "Of what use was the one date?" He replied, "When all the dates were finished, we missed even that one date." The Hunger Rasulullaah W& and the Sahabah ftSMSft Suffered During the Tihaama Expedition Hadhrat Abu Khunays Ghifaari JsS2i@S> narrates that he accompanied Rasulullaah && on the Tihaama expedition. When they reached Usfaan, the Sahabah $&$%&& approached Rasulullaah gjjgir and said, "O Rasulullaah {JiHl We are suffering extreme hunger. Permit us to eat one of the riding animals." Rasulullaah ®$$ granted the permission. When Hadhrat Umar is!83®8 was informed about this, he came to Rasulullaah &0t and said, "O Nabi of Allaah {ji$! What have you done? If you have instructed the people to slaughter their riding animals, what will they ride?" "What do you suggest, O son of Khattaab?" asked Rasulullaah WM. Hadhrat Umar &&@% replied, "I suggest that you instruct them to bring all their leftover provisions which you should gather together and place in a dish. Rasulullaah (SiSSI then gave the order to collect all their leftover provisions in a dish, after which he made du'aa. Thereafter, he told them all to bring their satchels and each person's satchel was filled. (1) Hadhrat Umar SB2@gi narrates that they werewith Rasulullaah $$$> on an expedition when they said, "O Rasulullaah {f!$!•! The enemy is here. They have eaten well while our people are hungry." The Ansaar offered, "Should we not slaughter our camels and feed the people?" Rasulullaah gjjifgi said, "Whoever has any leftover food should bring it here." While some people brought a Mudd, others brought a Sad2\ Some brought more while others brought less. The sum of all the food the people brought was twenty-odd Saa. Rasulullaah f■f$$ then sat aside and prayed to Allaah to bless the food. Thereafter, he said, "Take but do not loot." The Muslims then started taking, someone in his basket and another in his bag. Everyone filled their satchels and people even tied knots in the sleeves and filled them (sleeves were made very wide in those days). When everyone had finished taking, the food was still the same as it had been at the beginning. Rasulullaah QOffiHit them said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that. I am Allaah's Rasul. Whoever says this with sincerity, Allaah will save him from the heat of Jahannam." ^ The lady who fed Some of the Sahabah m%& Every Friday Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd &i&s> says, "There was a woman from amongst our tribe who used to grow beetroot in her garden. Every Friday she would remove the beetroot, place it in a pot together with a handful of barley which she would grind. The beetroot then served the purpose of meat. After the Jumu'ah salaah, we used to go to her and greet her. She would then serve the dish to us. We looked forward to Fridays because of this meal." Another narration states that there was no fat and no stickiness in the meal and that the Sahabah $&&&% would be very happy on Fridays (because of this food). *4' The Sahabah $f?S<ft@$ eat Locusts and never Ate Bread made of Wheat during the Period of Ignorance Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa JiSSffiS^ narrates that they fought seven battles with Rasulullaah ®Sf in which they ate locusts. Because we used to hear during the Period of Ignorance that eating bread made of wheat flour made a person fat, each one of us started looking at his sides after eating the bread to see whether he had grown fat." (1) Another narration states, "We were with Rasulullaah (ﷺ) during the Battle of Khaybar when we chased off the enemy from the bread they made from fine wheat flour (they fled, leaving the bread behind)." (2) Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (رضي الله عنه) says, "After winning the Battle of Khaybar, we passed by some Jews who were baking bread made of wheat flour in ovens made in the ground. We chased them off and shared the bread. I received a piece of it, part of which was burnt. Because I had heard that eating this bread made one fat, after eating it, I looked at my sides to see whether I had become any fatter." (3) Enduring Thirst when Inviting People Towards Allaah and His Rasool (ﷺ) The Intense Thirst that the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) Suffered During the Expedition to Tabook Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) narrates that Hadhrat Umar (رضي الله عنه) was once asked to give an account of "The Hour of Difficulty" (the expedition to Tabook). Hadhrat Umar (رضي الله عنه) said, "When we left for Tabook, the heat was intense and when we stopped over at a place, we were so thirsty that we thought our necks would fall off (that we would die). In fact, when any of us went out in search of his mount, he really thought that he would die by the time he returned. The situation was so severe that when one of us slaughtered a camel, he would extract the liquids from its entrails to drink and then rub the remainder on his stomach (so that the coolness could penetrate his stomach)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) then said, 'O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! Allaah is always good to you so make du'aa to Allaah on our behalf.' 'Do you really want me to do so?' asked Rasulullaah (ﷺ). 'Please do,' entreated Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه). Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then raised his hands to the heavens (to make du'aa) and had not yet dropped his hands when clouds started gathering in the sky. First a drizzle fell and then the rains came pouring down. The Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) filled whatever containers they had and when we left the place, we discovered that the rain had not fallen further than the area where the army was camped." 332 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Hishaam, Ikrama bin Abi Jahal and Ayaash bin Rabee'ah were all fatally wounded during the Battle of Yarmook. When Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam asked for some water and was about to drink it, Hadhrat Ikrama looked at him. Hadhrat Haarith said, "Give the water to Ikrama." When Hadhrat Ikrama took the water, Hadhrat Ayaash looked at him. Hadhrat Ikrama therefore asked that the water be given to Hadhrat Ayaash. However, before the water could reach Hadhrat Ayaash, he had already passed away. By the time the water reached the others, they had also passed away. (1) Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari Endures Severe Thirst in the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah says, "Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari had participated in the Battles of Badr, Uhud and the pledge at Aqaba. I once saw him fasting (on the battlefield), restless because of severe thirst. He asked his slave to pass him his shield and when the slave did so, he fired an arrow which did not go far (because he had grown weak with thirst). When he had fired three arrows, he said that he had heard Rasulullaah (Si) say, 'Whoever fires an arrow in the path of Allaah, the arrow shall be a source of light for him on the Day of Qiyaamah whether it reaches its target or not.' Hadhrat Abu Amr was martyred before sunset of that day." ^ Another narration states that he asked his slave for water, which the slave gave. Enduring Extreme Cold when Inviting People Towards Allaah The Sahabah Dig the Trench in Extreme Cold Hadhrat Abu Rayhaana who was with Rasulullaah (Jigi in a battle narrates, "We took shelter near a hill one night when the cold was so severe that some men dug holes in the ground, got in and covered holes with their shields. When Rasulullaah noticed this, he announced, 'Who will stand guard over us tonight? I shall make such a du'aa for him, the virtues of which he will certainly receive.' A man from the Ansaar stood up and volunteered. When Rasulullaah asked who he was, he gave his name. Rasulullaah (H^ asked him to come closer and when he did, Rasulullaah held a part of his clothing and started making du'aa for him. When I heard the du'aa, I also volunteered. 338 TOE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH mmeft> (Vol-1) The Story of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh $W and his Martyrdom During the Battle of Uhud Several elders of the Banu Salma tribe have reported that Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh &tisi&$ was badly crippled while his four sons were like lions and participated in every battle by the side Rasulullaah'{$S$|. When the Battle of Uhud took place, his sons tried to prevent him from participating saying, "Allaah has excused you." He then approached Rasulullaah gjj3i!r saying, "My sons want to stop me from leaving with you to participate in this battle. By Allaah! I wish to walk in Jannah with my paralysis." Rasulullaah (HHP said to him, "Allaah has excused you. Jihaad is not compulsory for you." Rasulullaah {$$$f then said to his sons, "You need not prevent him (from participating) because Allaah may perhaps grant him the high rank of martyrdom." Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh W&@$& then left with Rasulullaah W&f and was martyred during the Battle of Uhud. (1) Hadhrat Abu Qataadah 3E!83ffi!$ who participated in the Battle of Uhud says that Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh MsS2@si who was crippled once approached Rasulullaah &S% and said, "O Rasulullaah QfMl If I fight in the path of Allaah and am killed, will I walk with a healthy leg in Jannah?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah Wi$f. Subsequently, the Kuffaar martyred Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh i!3!3@s, his nephew and their slave during the Battle of Uhud. When Rasulullaah g^ passed by (the corpse of) Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh H6SS3H&%, he said, "I can see him walking in Jannah with a healthy leg." Rasulullaah &$#! then instructed that Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh @.l3@s>, his nephew and slave should be buried in one grave. (2) The Story of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej *fM$ Hadhrat Yahya bin Abdul Hameed' narrates from his grandfather that an arrow struck Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej JSJ,li$@»e> during either the Battle of Uhud or the Battle of Hunayn^3'. He then went to Rasulullaah {$$f and asked him to remove the arrow. Rasulullaah {JSH said, "O Raafi! If you want, I could remove the shaft together with arrowhead. Otherwise, I could remove only the shaft without arrowhead and testify on the Day of Qiyaamah that you are a martyr." Hadhrat Raafi W&S&t> said, "O Rasulullaah @$f ! Remove the shaft without the arrowhead and testify for me on the Day of Qiyaamah that I am a martyr." Rasulullaah gjjfP did this. Hadhrat Raafi *il!23@# lived until the period when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya S8i3@# was Khalifah, when the wound reopened and he passed away after Asr. Such is the report according to this narration. However, the correct version of the story according to Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya is that Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej ©)2@» passed away after the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 5S312@e>. isaaba (Vol. 1 Pg.496) states that a period elapsed between the time his wound reopened and the time that he passed away. Marzooq is unsure which battle it was. (4) Bayhaqi. The narration is also reported by Baawardi, Ibn Mandah and Tabraani as quoted in isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.474) as well as Ibn Shaaheen as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.496).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&!&$&$&) (Vol-1) 339 Chapter Four The Chapter Concerning Hijrah (Migration) "This chapter highlights how the Sahabah |®!55®»g left their dearly loved homelands, an act that is extremely difficult for a person. They also left with the intention of never returning until their deaths. This chapter also highlights the fact that doing this was more beloved to them than the world and all its pleasures and that they gave preference to the Deen above mundane pleasures and were not concerned when these pleasures were lost. The chapter also emphasises how the Sahabah $38383% travelled from place to place to protect the Deen from evil, as if they were specially created for the Aakhirah and were its sons. It therefore appeared as if this world was created for them." The Hijrah of Rasulullaah {jfgl and Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&m The Leaders of the Quraysh Conspire Against Rasulullaah && Hadhrat Urwa iffts®s> narrates that after the Hajj season, Rasulullaah (H^ was in Makkah during the remaining days of Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and Safar. The Mushrikeen then gathered to conspire against him, thinking that he would soon be leaving Makkah since they knew that Allaah had created a place of safety and protection for him in Madinah. They had also found out that the Ansaar had accepted Islaam and that the Muhaajireen were going to them. The Mushrikeen therefore planned to capture Rasulullaah {$££ and then either assassinate him, imprison him(1), exile him or keep him tied up. Allaah informed Rasulullaah &j3££ about their plot and revealed the following verse: (O Muhammad &&/ Remember the time) When the Kuffaar schemed against you to imprison you, kill you or exile you (drive you out of (1) The narrator Amr bin Khaalid is unsure whether the term is "imprison him" or "drag him on the ground" (the first seems more correct).

The Mushrikeen spend the night walking about and discussing how they would leap on to the person sleeping and tie him up. When they asked Hadhrat Ali i&iZO&s where Rasulullaah %$$f was, he said that he did not know. They then realised that Rasulullaah {S$Ei had left Makkah. The Mushrikeen then took to their mounts and started searching for RasulullaahW$5. They reached the cave of Thowr where Rasulullaah &j| $| and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 5i3!«@5g> hid and had even climbed on top of the cave (where the entrance was). He also had an honest and trustworthy slave by the name of Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra Wffi&i who was a very good Muslim. Hadhrat Abu Bakr iP3@» sent him to hire a guide (to take them to Madinah) and Hadhrat Aaamir W&&& hired a man called Ibnul Ayqadh. He belonged to the Banu Abd bin Adi tribe who were allies of the Banu Sahm branch of the Banu Aas bin Waa'il tribe that belonged to the Quraysh. This guide from the Banu Adi tribe was a Mushrik then and it was his occupation to guide people on the journeys. During those nights (that they hid the cave), the two of them (Hadhrat Aamir $$&&$ and the guide) hid in the camels of Rasulullaah &B and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 3&R3@&' while Hadhrat Abdullaah J&ISS®® the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ££9&5@& would come to them every evening and relate to them the events taking place in Makkah. Every night, Hadhrat Aamir JSHas®?) would bring them some goats, which they would milk and then slaughter one to eat. Early in the mornings, he would take the goats away to the grazing fields that the people used for their goats and no one realised what was happening. This continued until talk of Rasulullaah {^i and Hadhrat Abu Bakr Jg3!2®« died down and they learnt that things were quiet. Their two companions then arrived with the camels and they left. They had already been in the cave for two days and two nights. They took Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra 5$3!«@>ei along with them, who drove the camels, served them and assisted them. Hadhrat Abu Bakr 5152®!$ would let him ride the camel behind him in turns. Besides Hadhrat Aamir *SM®e> and the guide from the Banu Adi, no one else accompanied Rasulullaah Si$$ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr *g»2@». (1> The preparations that Hadhrat Abu Bakr S10@«> made for the Hijrah Hadhrat Aa'isha SpSSa® narrates, "Rasulullaah {J$$| never failed to visit Hadhrat Abu Bakr @)3@ei during one of the ends of the day. He either visited during the mornings or during the evenings. This was his practice until the day arrived when Allaah permitted him to migrate and to leave Makkah in the midst of all the people. That day, Rasulullaah &ifjji came to our house at midday which was a time that he usually never visited. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr JUSSS© saw him come, he said, 'Rasulullaah W!$£ will come during this hour only if something important has cropped up.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr sJ!3@9 replied, 'It is only my two daughters. May my parents be sacrificed for-ypu, thete is no harm in them being here.'" Narrating further, Hadhrat Aa'isha BpSsQgi says, "Rasulullaah &$• then said, 'Allaah has permitted me to migrate and to leave Makkah.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr Wffi&i asked, 'May I accompany you?' Hadhrat Abu Bakr JSHSiSSS then said, 'O Nabi of Allaah &&] I have kept those two camels ready for this purpose.' He then hired Abdullaah bin Urayqidh as a guide to show them the way. He was a Mushrik from the Bartu Du'il bin Bakr tribe whose mother belonged to the Banu Sahm bin Amr tribe. They gave him their two camels and he kept them and grazed them until the appointed day." 'J) A reliable narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha W^H> states that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&$&$ asked Rasulullaah $%$• whether he could accompany him and Rasulullaah >8ffitz agreed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr JSI!S®« said, "I have two camel that I have fed for the past six months for this purpose. They then stayed in the cave. ^ Hadhrat Asmaa W&&& whowas the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr S.©@s> narrates that that when they were staying in Makkah Rasulullaah (S^i usually visited them twice each day. However, one day he arrived in the afternoon. She said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ©S&SSp, "Father, here comes Rasulullaah (gjjSIr. May my parents be sacrificed! Hadhrat Abu Bakr JsS3@« asked, "May I accompany you, O Rasulullaah &$%?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah WHz. Hadhrat Abu Bakr &%&& said, "I have two camels that I have been rearing from a long time in anticipation for this day. You may take one." Rasulullaah (UsS said, "Only at a price, Abu Bakr." Hadhrat Abu Bakr SS2@gi replied, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You may have it at a price if you so wish." Hadhrat Asmaa W%8&i> says, "We then prepared the food for their journey. I cut my belt and used part of it to fasten their provisions." Rasulullaah W& and Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&@% then left and stayed in a cave in the Thowr mountain. When they arrived at the cave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 3aS2@e» entered first and placed his finger in every hole, fearing that there may be an insect there (which would harm Rasulullaah {$££). When the Quraysh found out that they were gone, they set out in search of them and fixed a reward of a hundred camels for anyone who captured Rasulullaah {$&£. They scoured the mountains of Makkah and eventually reached the mountain where Rasulullaah 0$$$ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&S&ti were hiding. Referring to a person who was facing the cave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&tm said, "O Rasulullaah (UttPi He will surely see us." "Never," replied Rasulullaah Q88&, "because the angels are hiding us with their wings." Still facing the cave, the man then sat down to pass urine. Rasulullaah (S2$£ said, "Had he seen us, he would never have done that." They stayed three nights in the cave and every evening Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra *a»i% would bring the goats of Hadhrat Abu Bakr *£»!&

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 343 night, he would take them back and by the morning they would be grazing with the shepherds in the grazing lands. Hadhrat Aamir used to return the goats in the evening with the other shepherds, but would walk very slowly (so that he would be left behind) and then take the goats to Hadhrat Abu Bakr once the night became dark. Hadhrat Abdullaah the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr used to spend the day in Makkah finding out the news and then inform Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr about this when he met them at night. He then left them late at night and was in Makkah by the dawn. Rasulullaah Leaves the Cave and Heads for Madinah (After three nights) Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr left the cave and took a route along the coast. Hadhrat Abu Bakr travelled in front of Rasulullaah but whenever he felt any danger from the rear, he travelled at the back. The entire journey passed in this manner. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was a well known man. Therefore, whenever someone met him, they asked who was with him. He would reply, "He is a guide who is showing me the way." By saying this, he meant that Rasulullaah was guiding him in Deen but the person thought that Rasulullaah was someone showing him the road. When they reached the settlement of Qudayd which lay on their route, someone told the Banu Mudlaj tribe (who lived there), "I have seen two riders near the coast. I think that they are the men from the Quraysh whom you are searching for." Suraaqa bin Maalik said to the person, "Those are two men whom we have sent out to do some work for the people." (Suraaqa knew that the riders were Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr but said this so that he could have them to himself and earn the reward). Suraaqa then called for his slave woman and whispered to her to get his horse. He then set out on the trail of Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr Praises Hadhrat Umar Ibn Seereen narrates that during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar, mention was made of some Sahabah and it appeared as if the people regarded Hadhrat Umar to be better than Hadhrat Abu Bakr. When Hadhrat Umar heard about this, he said, "I swear by Allaah that a single night of Hadhrat Abu Bakr is better than the entire family of Umar and single day of Hadhrat Abu Bakr is better than the entire family of Umar. When Rasulullaah left for the cave that night, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was with him. At times he walked ahead of Rasulullaah and at other times he followed him. (1) Tabraani. Rasulullaah ££$£ said, 'O Abu Bakr! if anything has to happen, do you prefer that it happens to you rather than me?' 'Certainly! I swear to this by the Being who has sent you with the truth!' replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr SBSffiSg." "When they reached the cave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr *gD3@® said, 'O Rasulullaah {J$gi! When he came out and remembered that he had not cleaned the holes, he said, 'O Rasulullaah W0&\ You stay here until I have cleaned it.' He then entered the cave and cleaned out the holes. He then told Rasulullaah {J$Hi to enter and Rasulullaah &$££ did. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! That single night is better than the entire family of Umar!" (1) Hadhrat Abu Bakr m%M> Fears for Rasulullaah WSit when they were in the Cave Hadhrat Hasan Basri narrates that that when Rasulullaah &$ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr igX%&6 went to the cave, the Quraysh came to search for Rasulullaah &S&. However, when they saw that a spider had spun a web on the entrance, they concluded that no one could have entered the cave. Rasulullaah £$$$£ was busy performing salaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr JSKSESei was keeping watch when Hadhrat Abu Bakr SS«®85 said, "Here comes your people in search for you. By Allaah! I have no concern for myself but I fear that I should not see anything unpleasant happen to you." Rasulullaah &$t comforted him saying, "O Abu Bakr! Do not fear for Allaah is with us." (2) Hadhrat Anas 3SK2i@» narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr *|3j3®9 told him, "(When we were in the cave) I said to Rasulullaah $%$£, 'if any of them has to look to his feet, he would certainly spot us beneath his feet.' Rasulullaah && said, 'O Abu Bakr! What do you think of two who have Allaah as the third?'" (3) Hadhrat Abu Bakr *£»&' Speaks about His Hijrah with Rasulullaah £K and their Encounter with Suraqa bin Maalik Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&&6 once bought a saddle from (his father) Hadhrat Aazib Js3S3®!& for thirteen Dirhams. Hadhrat Abu Bakr i&ESaaS then asked Hadhrat Aazib g%m& to tell (his son) Baraa 3fK5@g to (1) Bayhaqi as quoted mAlBidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.180). Haakim has also narrated as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.348). As quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.335), Baghawi has also narrated it from Hadhrat Umar SJ©@» and the Hadith is reliable, as confirmed by Ibn Katheer. (2) Haafidh Abu Bakr Qaadhi. (3) Ahmad as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.181,182). I then strained my eyes' to see whether I could see any shade to take shelter. When I spotted a large boulder, I hurried to it and found that it still offered some shade. I then levelled the ground for Rasulullaah {J$jj$ and spread out a coat for him. I then bade him to lie down and he did. Thereafter, I went to see whether I could spot anyone who was searching for us." Hadhrat Abu Bakr JSJ1G3&! related further, "When I saw a shepherd and asked him who he worked for, he took the name of a man from the Quraysh whom I knew. 'Do any of the goats have milk?' I asked. "Yes," he replied. 'Will you milk some for me?' I enquired. When he agreed, he held the animal still as I had asked. I then asked him to wipe off the sand from the udders (which he did with his hands) and I then asked him to dust his hands off. I had a container with me that had a cloth tied to the mouth. After he had milked a bit of milk for me, I threw water onto a cup so that its bottom got cold (and the milk as well). I then went to Rasulullaah {Ji3jji and found him awake. I said, 'Drink, O Rasulullaah >&^\ He then drank so much that I became very pleased. 'Is it not time to leave?' I said. We then left." "Although people were searching for us, no one caught up with us besides Suraaqa bin Maalik bin Ju'shum, who did so on his horse. When Suraaqa drew close and was only the distance of one or two spear lengths away from us, I cried and said, 'O Rasulullaah W0&\ He has caught up with us!' Rasulullaah ifHi asked, "What makes you weep?" I replied, 'I swear by Allaah that it is not for my own safety that I weep but I am crying for your safety.' Rasulullaah &jji@g then made du'aa saying, 'O Allaah! Deal with him on our behalf as You please.' Suraaqa's horse suddenly sank into the ground up to its belly although the ground was hard. Suraaqa sprang off the horse and said, 'O Muhammad! I know that you have done this. Please pray to Allaah to save me from this predicament and I swear by Allaah that I shall throw every other tracker I meet off your trail. Rasulullaah 8a$$ said, 'I have no need for that.' Rasulullaah gfjgg then made du'aa to Allaah and Suraaqa was freed. He then returned to his people." He gave both Rasulullah &!$£ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr iU!3s@«& white clothing to wear. When the Muslims in Madinah heard that Rasulullah {$$£!; had left from Makkah, they left for Harra every morning to wait for him until the extreme afternoon heat made them return home. After waiting for a long time one day, they returned and took shelter in their homes, it was then that a Jew who had climbed on top of a Jewish fortress to see if something happened spotted Rasulullah Qf&M and his companions all dressed in white. As they arrived, the mirage on the horizon started to recede. The Jew could not help calling out at the top of his voice, "O Arabs! Here comes the chief you have been waiting for!" The Muslims rushed for their weapons (to ceremoniously receive Rasulullah &£) and met Rasulullah &SH at Harra. Rasulullah gji$£ led them to the right of Harra where they stopped in the neighbourhood of the Banu Amr bin Awf tribe. This happened on the second of Rabee'ul Awwal. Hadhrat Abu Bakr W$fflS& remained standing while Rasulullah &$ sat down quietly. Those Ansaar who had never before seen Rasulullah &M started greeting Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&!&t> (thinking that he was Rasulullah W&). The Masjid that was established on Taqwa ..." {Surah Taubah, verse 108} Rasulullah &M performed salaah there and then mounted his camel. The people walked with him until the camel sat at the location of Rasulullah &B's Masjid (Masjidun Nabawi). it was there that the Muslim males had been performing their salaah at the time. It was a piece of land where dates were dried and it belonged to two orphaned children called Sahl and Suhayl who were under the guardianship of Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah WS&&9. When the camel sat there, Rasulullah OHM said, "Insha Allaah, this shall be the place where we shall stay." (1) Ahmad. We agreed that if any of us was not there by dawn, it meant that he was stopped and the other two were to proceed. Consequently, Ayaash and I were at Tanaadhib by dawn and Hishaam was prevented from coming. He was put in difficulty (by the Mushrikeen) and he succumbed to it (forsook Islaam). When we arrived in Madinah, we stayed with the Banu Amr bin Awf tribe at Quba. Ayaash was the cousin and uterine brother of Abu Jahal bin Hishaam and Haarith bin Hishaam. The two of them therefore came for him in Madinah (to take him back to Makkah) at a time when Rasulullaah {Jjjjiii was still in Makkah." The two of them spoke to Ayaash and said, "Your mother has taken a vow never to comb her hair and never to take shade from the sun until she sees you." Bukhari and Muslim have also narrated it as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.188).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH &&>8&S> (Vol-1) 349 Ayaash took pity on his mother. I said to him, 'Beware of them because I swear by Allaah that all they want is to take you away from your Deen. By Allaah! When the lice start harassing your mother, she will start combing her hair and when the heat of Makkah becomes unbearable, she will have to take shade.' However, Ayaash said, 'I shall fulfil the vow pf my mother. In any case, I still have some wealth in Makkah that I need to collect.' I pleaded with him saying, 'By Allaah! You know that I am one of the wealthiest people of the Quraysh. You can have half of my wealth if you do not go with them.' In spite of this, he refused my offer and insisted on going with them. When I saw that he was adamant to go, I said to him, 'Since you want to do as you want to do, at least take this camel of mine for she is of good pedigree and very obedient. Stay on her and if you doubt anything your people do, use her to (escape and) save yourself.' Hadhrat Umar Jf})S@« narrates further, "Ayaash then left with the two and on the road, Abu Jahal said to him, 'Dear brother! By Allaah, this camel of mine has become very lazy. Will you not allow me to ride with you on that camel?' 'Certainly,' replied Ayaash. He therefore made the camel sit down and the two others also made their camels sit so that Abu Jahal could change camels. When they were on the ground, the two men attacked Ayaash and tied him up very securely. They then took him to Makkah and when they pressurised him to forsake Islaam, he succumbed to the pressure. We believed that Allaah would never accept the repentance of a person who forsakes Islaam and this is what those who forsook Islaam also thought. It was only when Rasulullaah £1331 arrived in Madinah that Allaah revealed the following verses of the Qur'aan: jAio j {J* Ijkuj i j, j.j.atl J^s \fjj\ ^jJI (jiLjo Jjj (oo b or :yj>\ ijj--) ^Q! ojj^ ^ j^sil J JuuJ cj1i*JI sJfjvj c)l Say, "O My bondsmen who have wronged their souls (by committing kufr or other sins/. Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." Turn to your Rabb and surrender to Him before punishment afflicts you, after which you will not be assisted. Follow the best (the injunctions of Islaam), which your Rabb has revealed to you before punishment suddenly afflicts you (for not accepting Islaam) without your realising it. {Surah Zumar, verses 53-55} Hadhrat Umar &&>& says that he wrote down these verses and sent them to Hishaam bin Aas. You people should go there." Consequently, (my father) Hadhrat Haatib and Hadhrat Ja'far left for the sea and I was born on the very ship (they took)."

Hadhrat Ja'far once asked, "O Rasulullaah! Permit me to go to a land where I will be able to worship Allaah without having to fear anyone." When Rasulullaah permitted him, he went to Najaashi (the king of Abyssinia). The detailed Hadith will follow soon, Insha Allaah.

The Quraysh send Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas to Najaashi to Bring the Sahabah back to them Hadhrat Ummu Salama narrates that a time came when it became too difficult for the Sahabah to live in Makkah. They were being tortured and put through many difficulties. They realised that these great difficulties and tests were directed at them because of their Deen and that Rasulullaah was unable to protect them. Under the protection of his tribe and his uncle, Rasulullaah was not suffering as they were. Rasulullaah therefore said to them, "The land of Abyssinia has a king who does not oppress anyone in his kingdom. Go to his country and stay there until Allaah creates an escape for you from your suffering." Hadhrat Ummu Salama says further, "We therefore left in several groups until a number of us had gathered there. We had settled in a nice place with good neighbours where we could peacefully practise our Deen without fearing any oppression. However, when the Quraysh saw that we had found a safe haven, they disliked it very much. They therefore decided to send a delegation to Najaashi to have us removed from his country and returned to them. The persons they sent were Amr bin Al Aas and Abdullaah bin Abi Rabee'ah. They also collected many gifts for Najaashi and for his generals. There was not a person for whom they did not have a gift that was exclusively for him." Hadhrat Ummu Salama narrates further that the Quraysh briefed the two delegates saying, "Give every general his gift before you speak about the Muslims. Thereafter, give Najaashi his gifts. If possible, try to have the Muslims (1) Ahmad and Tabraani as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id ' (Vol.6 Pg.27). (2) Tabraani and Bazaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.29) has commented on the chain of narrators.

352 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&&$&f (Vol-1) handed over to you before you have to speak about them to Najaashi." The two men left and gave every general his gift and spoke to them. They said, "We have come to your king concerning some fools from our people who have forsaken the religion of their people and have not even embraced your religion. Their people have sent us (to negotiate with you) so that ^the king should send them back to us. When we speak to the king we would appreciate it if you could advise him to do this." They all agreed to comply. They then went to Najaashi and gave him his gifts. The gift Najaashi loved most was the leather of Makkah. After giving him the gifts, they said to him, "O King! Some foolish lads from our people have forsaken the religion of their people and have not even embraced your religion. They have fabricated a religion that is strange to us and have sought asylum in your country. Their tribes, parents, uncles and people have sent -us to bring them back for they know them best. Because they are people who will not enter into your religion, you need not keep them here." Najaashi became furious and said, "Never by the life of Allaah! I shall never send them back to their people until I have called them, spoken to them and looked into the matter. They are people who have sought asylum in my country and chosen to be my neighbours rather than that of others. If they are as you claim, I shall return them. However, if they are not like you say, I shall keep them here. I shall not come in between them and their people (by returning them) neither shall give their people the pleasure (of having them back). (Najaashi then sent for the Muslims.) The Sahabah ji@£3@& Meet Najaashi and his Views about Hadhrat Isa $5|&f and Hadhrat Maryam IS^^ When the Muslims came to Najaashi, they greeted him with Salaam without prostrating before him. Najaashi said, "O people! Tell me why you have not greeted me (by prostrating) as the others from your people have greeted me when they arrived? Tell me also what you have to say about Isa $®&S and what your religion is. Are you Christians?" When the Muslims replied in the negative, Najaashi asked, "Are you then Jews?" "No," they replied. "Then what is your religion?" he asked. When they informed him that they followed Islaam, he asked them what is Islaam is. They replied, "We worship Allaah and do not ascribe any as partner to Him." Najaashi asked further, "Who has brought this religion to you?" They replied, "A man from amongst our own people brought it to us. We knew him and his lineage very well. Allaah sent him as a Rasul to us just as Allaah sent many Ambiyaas before us. He instructed us to do good, to be charitable, to fulfil promises and to return trusts. He prohibited us from worshipping idols and to rather worship the One Allaah Who had no partner. We believed in him and recognised the word of Allaah. We are convinced that whatever he taught is from Allaah. When we did what he told us, our people became our enemies and they

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH j@.E$&!sf) (Vol-1) 353 also became the enemies of the true Nabi ﷺ. They called him a liar and also wanted to kill him. They wanted us to worship idols and we therefore fled from them and came to you with our Deen and lives still intact." Najaashi exclaimed, "By Allaah! This is the same light that has come from Moosa ﷺ." Hadhrat Ja'far *U!2@g> then said, "Regarding the greeting, Rasulullaah ﷺ has informed us that the greeting of the people of Jannah is the Salaam and he has commanded us to greet in this manner. It is therefore with the same greeting we use between ourselves that we have greeted you. Regarding Hadhrat Isa ﷺ the son of Hadhrat Maryam G@l3i@g5, he was' the servant of Allaah, His Nabi, His word that he cast on Hadhrat Maryam W %®& and the spirit that Allaah created. He was the son of a chaste virgin." Najaashi picked up a stick and said, "I swear by Allaah that the son of Maryam $H4ic would not add even the weight of this stick to what you have mentioned." The Abyssinian leaders exclaimed, "By Allaah! If the people of Abyssinia hear what you have said, they will certainly overthrow you." Najaashi replied, "By Allaah! I shall never say anything more about Isa $$$&f. When Allaah returned my kingdom to me, He did not bother about what the people had to say, so why should I bother about what they say about the Deen of Allaah? Allaah forbid that I should do such a thing!" (1) A lengthy narration also from Hadhrat Ummu Salama ®lfi@s> the wife of Rasulullaah W$& states that Najaashi sent a message to the Sahabah 'fB&&& to come to him. When the message reached them, they convened a gathering. They consulted with each other saying, "What will we say about him (Hadhrat Isa

354 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-D commanded us to worship Allaah without ascribing any partners to Him and to establish salaah and pay zakaah." As Hadhrat Ja'far enumerated the injunctions of Islaam, the other Muslims confirmed what he said until he said, "So we believed in him and followed whatever he brought to us. We worshipped the one Allaah without ascribing any partners to him. We also regarded as forbidden all those things that Allaah had made Haraam for us just as we regarded permissible all those things that he had made Halaal for us. However, our people became our enemies. They started torturing us and putting us through many difficulties because of our Deen so that we should revert to worshipping idols instead of worshipping Allaah. They wanted us to regard the many vices as lawful which we used to regard as lawful in the past. When their high handedness and oppression became too much for us and became an obstacle between us and our Deen, we left for your country. O King! We preferred you over others and preferred to be your neighbours hoping that we will not be oppressed by you." Najaashi asked, "Do you know anything that has been revealed from Allaah?" "Yes indeed," replied Hadhrat Ja'far. Najaashi requested, "Then recite it." Hadhrat Ja'far recited before him the opening verses of Surah Maryam. Najaashi wept until his beard was soaked with tears. When the priests heard the recitation, they also started to weep until their scriptures were soaked with tears. Najaashi commented by saying, "I swear by Allaah that this and the words that came to Moosa emerge from the same lantern. (Turning to the two delegates of the Quraysh, Najaashi said) You may leave because I swear by Allaah that I will never hand them over to you and will never consider doing so for even a moment." Relating further, Hadhrat Ummu Salama says, "When the two left Najaashi, Amr bin Al Aas said, "I swear by Allaah that tomorrow I shall definitely defame them so much in front of Najaashi that they will be uprooted!" Abdullaah bin Rabee'ah who was the softer of the two towards the Muslims said, "Do not do so. They are after all our relatives even though they have opposed us." Amr bin Al Aas then said, "By Allaah! I shall then tell Najaashi that they regard Isa bin Maryam to be a servant of Allaah." The following day, they returned to the king and said, "O King! These people say awful things about Isa bin Maryam. Summon them and ask them what they have to say about him." When Najaashi called for them to question them, the Muslims again convened a meeting because nothing like this had happened before. They asked each other what their reply to Najaashi would be when he asked about Hadhrat Isa. They finally resolved, "By Allaah! We shall say what Allaah has said about him and what our Nabi (S[^]) has brought regardless of what the consequences are." When they went to Najaashi and he asked them what they had to say about Hadhrat Isa, Hadhrat Ja'far replied, "We say what our Nabi has brought to us about him that he was the servant of Allaah, His Nabi, the spirit that Allaah created and His word that he cast on the chaste virgin Hadhrat

Najaashi slapped his hands on the ground and picked up a little stick. He then said, "By Allaah! Even Isa bin Maryam will not add to what you said more than the extent of this little stick." When Najaashi said this, all the priests gathered around snorted in anger. Najaashi said to them, "(This is the truth) Even though you may snort. (Turning to the Muslims, he said,) Go. You are safe in my land and whoever swears at you shall be penalised." He then reiterated, "Whoever swears at you shall be penalised. Whoever swears at you shall be penalised. Even in exchange for a mountain of gold, I would not want to harm any one of you." (Addressing his courtiers,) Najaashi then said, "Return the gifts to the two of them for I have no need for it. By Allaah! When Allaah restored to me my kingdom, He took no bribes. Why should I then accept any bribes. When Allaah did not bother about what the people had to say about me, why should I bother about what they say about Allaah?" Hadhrat Ummu Salama narrates further, "The two (delegates of the Quraysh) therefore had to return in humiliation with their gifts thrown back at them. We then stayed in a nice place with excellent neighbours. By Allaah! Najaashi remained as he was until he was suddenly attacked by people who wanted to take his kingdom. By Allaah! I do not know a time when we were more grieved than we were on that occasion because we feared that if Najaashi was defeated, another person would not accord us our rights as Najaashi had done." "Najaashi marched against the enemy. Between him and the enemy was the River Nile (which Najaashi crossed with his army and engaged the enemy in battle). The Sahabah said, 'Who will go to witness the battle and report back to us?' Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam who was one of the youngest persons there volunteered. Everyone agreed that he was best suited for the task and they blew up a water bag filled with air, which they tied to his chest. He swam across to the bank where the battle was raging and then walked the rest of the way until he reached the armies." Narrating further, Hadhrat Ummu Salama says, "We all made du'aa to Allaah for Najaashi's victory over his enemy and for the stability of his kingdom. We were making du'aa and waiting for the result of the battle when Hadhrat Zubayr suddenly came running. He was waving a cloth saying, 'Glad tidings for you. Najaashi has been victorious. Allaah has destroyed his enemy and restored stability to his kingdom.' By Allaah! We never knew joy like the joy we experienced on that occasion. Najaashi returned after Allaah had annihilated his enemy, stabilised his kingdom and restored his control over the land of Abyssinia. We remained with him in the best of places until we returned to Rasulullaah while he was still in Makkah." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood narrates that Rasulullaah sent approximately eighty of them to Najaashi. Amongst them were Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood, Hadhrat Ja'far, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin (1) Ahmad. Haythami (Vol. 6 Pg.27) has commented on the chain of

When the Muslims were already staying by Najaashi (in Abyssinia), the two men said to Najaashi, "Some foolish and low class people from our community have come to your country. Do hand them over to us." Najaashi said, "I shall not do so until I have heard them out." He then sent for the Muslims and when they arrived, he asked, "What are these men (Amr and Umaarah) saying?" The Muslims replied, "These people worship idols while we believe and accept the Rasul whom Allaah has sent to us." Najaashi asked the two, "Are they your slaves?" When they replied in the negative, Najaashi asked, "Are they then indebted to you?" When they again replied in the negative, Najaashi said, "Then leave them alone." The Muslims then left Najaashi's court. Amr bin Al Aas then said to Najaashi, "Their beliefs concerning isa W&& is different from that which you believe." Najaashi remarked, "If they say anything about Isa $Slilc that is different from what I say, I shall not allow them to stay for a moment in my country." Najaashi again sent for the Muslims. This second summoning was more difficult for them than the first. When Najaashi asked them about what Rasulullaah 0(i? said concerning Hadhrat Isa $f&&, they replied, "He believes that Isa $!££ is the spirit that Allaah created and His word that He cast on to the chaste virgin." Najaashi then sent for certain priests and monks. When several of them appeared before him, he asked them, "What do you say about Isa bin Maryam?" "You know better than us," they submitted, "What do you say?" Picking up something small from the ground, Najaashi said, "Isa $£)&£ did not say any more than what these people say even to the extent of this little thing." Najaashi then asked the Muslims, "Has anyone harmed you?" "Yes," they replied. Najaashi then had a public crier announce that whoever harms the Muslims shall have to pay a penalty of four Dirhams. I certainly think that she meant what she said but I was scared for her and denied that I intended to migrate." Ibn Is'haaq further narrates that Hadhrat Zaynab continued her preparations and when it was completed, her husband's brother Kinaana bin Rabee brought her a camel which she mounted. He took his bow and quiver along with him. He took her out of Makkah during the day and led the camel as she sat in her carriage. When some men of the Quraysh started talking about this, they set out after her and eventually caught up with her at Dhu Tuwa. The first to catch up with her was Habbaar bin Aswad Fihri. As she sat in her carriage, he frightened the camel with his spear until it threw her off. According to what people say, she was expecting at the time. Kinaana sat on his knees, emptied his quiver and said, "By Allaah! I shall place an arrow into anyone who even draws close to me." The men drew back from him. Just then, Abu Sufyaan arrived with a group of senior members of the Quraysh. He called out (to Kinaana) saying, "Dear man! Hold back your arrows until we have a chance to speak to you." Kinaana held back and Abu Sufyaan came forward until he stood before Kinaana. He said, "You have made a great mistake. You have taken the lady openly in full view of everyone when you know the hardships and difficulties we have experienced at the hand of (her father) Muhammad. If you take her away from our midst so openly and in full view of the people, it would be an embarrassment to us and people would regard this to be a sign of our weakness. I swear by my life that we have no need to keep her away from her father and have no revenge to exact from her. However, you should take her back now and secretly take her away to be reunited with her father only once people have quieten down and the word spreads that we have made her return (to Makkah)." Kinaana then did this. (1) Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr narrates that as someone was leaving (Makkah) with Hadhrat Zaynab the daughter of Risulullaah, they were intercepted by two men from the Quraysh who fought him and after gaining the upper hand, pushed her down. She fell on to a rock and miscarried, causing her to bleed profusely. They then took her to Abu Sufyaan, who handed her over to some women from the Banu Haashim who had come to him. It was only after this that she eventually managed to make Hijrah. However, the injury persisted until she finally passed away on account of the injury. People therefore considered her to be a martyr. (2) Another narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha states that after Rasoolullaah had left Makkah, his daughter Hadhrat Zaynab also left with Kinaana or his brother. The Mushrikeen left in search of her and it was Habbaar bin Aswad who caught up with her. He continued sticking his spear into her camel until it dropped her down, causing her to miscarry. She bore the injury with patience and the Banu Haashim and Banu Umayyah tribes disputed about who will care (1) Ibn is'haaq, as

However, she ended up in the care of Hind bint Utba bin Rabee'ah who used to say to Hadhrat Zaynab, "This is all because of your father." Rasulullaah one day said to Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha, "Will you not go and bring Zaynab?" "Certainly, O Rasulullaah" replied Hadhrat Zaid. Rasulullaah said, "Take my ring and give it to her." Hadhrat Zaid subtly used various means to reach Hadhrat Zaynab and eventually met a shepherd. He asked the shepherd, "For whom are you grazing?" When the shepherd informed him that he was grazing for Abul Aas (the husband of Hadhrat Zaynab), Hadhrat Zaid asked him to whom the goats belonged. "To Zaynab the daughter of Muhammad," was the reply. Hadhrat Zaid walked awhile with the shepherd and (after gaining his confidence) then said to him, "May I give you something to give to her without informing anyone?" When the shepherd agreed, Hadhrat Zaid gave him the ring. Hadhrat Zaynab recognised the ring and asked the shepherd, "Who gave this to you?" "Some man," he replied. "Where did you leave this man?" she enquired further. When he described the place to her, she remained silent and went there once night had fallen. When she met Hadhrat Zaid, he told her to sit in front of him on the camel. She refused, telling him to sit in the front. He mounted the camel and she mounted behind him (the laws of Hijaab were not revealed at that time). They eventually arrived in Madinah. Rasulullaah, "This is the best of my daughters who has suffered for my sake." When this Hadith reached Hadhrat Ali bin Husayn, he approached Hadhrat Urwa and said, "What is this Hadith I hear you are reporting in which the status of Hadhrat Faatima is being reduced?" Hadhrat Urwa said, "I swear by Allaah that I would not want to reduce the status of Hadhrat Faatima in exchange for everything between the east and the west. I shall therefore not be reporting this Hadith again."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, Hadhrat Abu Hurayra and Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir all report that when Hadhrat Durra the daughter of Abu Lahab made Hijrah, she stayed at the residence of Hadhrat Raafi bin Mu'allaa Zuraqi. while sitting with her, some women from the Banu Zurayq tribe asked her whether she was the daughter of the person about whom Allaah says: May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and may he be destroyed. 374 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Chapter Five The Chapter Concerning Nusrah (Assisting Others in the Propagation of Deen)

This chapter highlights how rendering assistance to the upright Deen and the Straight Path was more beloved to the Sahabah than everything else and how they prided themselves for this more than they prided themselves for worldly honour. It also brings to light how they sacrificed their pleasures for it, doing it all in search of Allaah's pleasure and in compliance with the commands of Rasulullaah (May Allaah shower His mercy, blessings and peace on him, his family and all his companions). The Beginning of the Nusrah that the Ansaar Rendered A Hadith of Hadhrat Aa'isha (r.a.) in this Regard Hadhrat Aa'isha (r.a.) says, "Every year Rasulullaah (ﷺ) used to present his case to the various Arab tribes, asking them to grant him asylum with their people so that he could propagate Allaah's word and message. He promised them Jannah in return for their assistance. However, no Arab tribe accepted his offer until the time came when Allaah decided that His Deen should become dominant, that his Nabi (ﷺ) should receive assistance and that His promises should be fulfilled, it was then that Allaah pulled forward the tribe of the Ansaar. They accepted the offer of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and Allaah thus created a place to which Rasulullaah (ﷺ) could migrate." J) A Hadith of Hadhrat Umar (r.a.) in this Regard Hadhrat Umar (r.a.) says, "When Rasulullaah (ﷺ) (1) Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators. We failed to fulfil the pledge we made with the Ansaar when we said to them that while we remain the leaders, they shall be the viziers. If I live to the end of the year, every governor of mine shall be from the Ansaar." '*' A Hadith of Hadhrat Jaabir W®& in this Regard Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillaah *£3!G$@»e> says, "Rasulullaah &^ presented his case to the people as they stayed at their camps (during the Hajj season). He would say, "Who will take me to his people because the Quraysh are preventing me from propagating the word of Allaah SUS393I??' Eventually a man from Hamdaan came to Rasulullaah fflffli. When Rasulullaah ^^ asked him where he hailed from and he said that he was from Hamdaan, Rasulullaah W®& asked further, 'Do your people have military might?' 'They do,' he replied. However, when the man feared that his people may not honour his word (to Rasulullaah (Jiil) and came back to Rasulullaah (JSP and said, 'I shall first go to my people and inform them. Thereafter, I shall come back to you.' Rasulullaah %$$$ agreed and the man left. A delegation from the Ansaar then approached Rasulullaah W$& in the month of Rajab." (2) In the chapter entitled "Pledging Allegiance to Assist Others" 3', the narration has passed in which Hadhrat Jaabir W$%5& narrates that during the ten years that Rasulullaah (JUi lived in Makkah (after announcing his Nabuwaat), he would visit people at the places where they stayed during the seasons of Hajj. This was at the marketplaces of Ukaaz and Majinna. He would ask the people, "Who will give me asylum? Who will assist me so that I could propagate the message of my Rabb? Whoever does this shall receive Jannah." However, he found noneto grant him asylum and assistance. However, (instead of assisting him) matters reached such an ebb that when a person from Yemen or from the Mudhar tribe left (for Makkah), the people of his tribe and his relatives would say to him, "Beware that the man from the Quraysh does not get you into trouble." People even pointed at Rasulullaah QOfflit as he passed between their camps. Hadhrat Jaabir W&8£& continues, "This situation prevailed until Allaah sent us (the Ansaar) to him from Yathrib. We offered him asylum and believed him. Whenever a person from us left (for Makkah), he would believe in Rasulullaah Wt$Hs, who would recite the Qur'aan to him. He would then return to his family (in Madinah) and they would all accept islaam by virtue of his Islaam. Eventually there was scarcely a family from the Ansaar that did not have a group of Muslims who made their Islaam public." Hadhrat Jaabir ^0iM& says further that they all then discussed with each other saying, "Until when will we leave Rasulullaah ^$ to call on people, to be kicked (1) Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.30). 376 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-D about in the mountains of Makkah and face the threats of others?" Consequently, seventy men of the Ansaar rode off and met Rasulullaah during the Hajj season. After agreeing to meet at the valley of Aqaba, they arrived there one-by-one and in twos until they were all present. They then asked, "O Rasulullaah! To what should we pledge allegiance at your hands?" The narration continues further. A Hadith of Hadhrat Urwa in this Regard Hadhrat Urwa narrates that when one of the Hajj seasons arrived, a group of individuals from the Ansaar left for Hajj. Amongst them from the Banu Maazin bin Najjaar tribe was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa and Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah. From the Banu Zurayq tribe was Hadhrat Raafi bin Maalik and Hadhrat Dhakwaan bin Abdil Qais, from the Banu Abdil Ash'hal tribe was Hadhrat Abul Haytham bin Tayyihaan and from the Banu Amr bin Awwas Hadhrat Uwaym bin Sa'adah. Rasulullaah approached them and informed them that Allaah had chosen him for Nabuwat and great honour. Rasulullaah also recited the Qur'aan to them. They were silent when they listened to Rasulullaah and their hearts were satisfied with his Da'wah. By the appearance of Rasulullaah and by the Da'wah he gave, the Ansaar recognised in him what they had been hearing the Ahlul Kitaab say about him. They therefore accepted what he said, believed in him. And became the vehicles of good. They said to Rasulullaah, "You know about the bloodshed that takes place between the Aws and Khazraj tribes. We like Allaah has guided your effort and we are prepared to make every effort for Allaah and for you. We would also advise you to do as you have, but (for now) you should wait (here in Makkah) with your trust in Allaah until we return to our people to inform them about you and invite them towards Allaah and towards His Rasool. Perhaps Allaah shall reconcile between us and reunite us. At present, we are far from each other and harbour enmity for each other. Therefore, if you were to come to us right now while we have not yet reconciled, we shall be unable to unite around you. However, we promise to meet you in the forthcoming Hajj season." Rasulullaah was happy with what they said and they returned to their people. They started giving Da'wah to the people in secret and informing them about Rasulullaah. They also informed the people about the message Allaah had sent with Rasulullaah and to which he called with the Qur'aan. Eventually, there was scarcely a home amongst the households of the Ansaar that did not have some Muslims. (2) The rest of the Hadith is similar to that quoted earlier under the subheading "The Da'wah that Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr gave" (this appears under the heading "The Da'wah that the Sahabah gave to individuals"). (1) Haakim has also reported the narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.2 Pg.625). (2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators.

(1) . The Muhaajireen and Ansaar, Inherit from Each other Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas W@®% narrates that when the Muhaajireen first arrived in Madinah, a Muhaajir would inherit from his Ansaar brother because of the bonds of brotherhood that Rasulullaah W$£ created between them. In fact, even the relatives of the Ansaar would not inherit from their families as the Muhaajireen would. However, this practice was abrogated when Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan: J>\y LU*- JXJj j For each (man and woman) We have appointed heirs. {Surah Nisaa, verse 33}2 While this narration states that the above verse abrogated the inheritance of a confederate (the Muhaajir whom Rasulullaah ®if appointed as a brother to an Ansaari), the next narration makes it clear that the verse which abrogated the practice was: (Vo :JUj,3ll Sjj--) Those who are relatives are closer to each other in Allaah's Book (and will therefore inherit from each other before anyone else). Undoubtedly (Only) Allaah knows everything (He knows who deserves what). {Surah Anfaal, verse 75} Haafidh Ibn Hazar tseS!&&» states that this narration is more reliable. However, he also points out that this practice could have been abrogated twice. It is possible that in the early stages, the only form of inheritance was between those whom Rasulullaah &0t appointed as brothers, without any inheritance being stipulated for relatives. However, relatives were also given a share of inheritance together with the confederates when Allaah revealed the verse: For each (man and woman) Viz have appointed heirs. {Surah Nisaa, verse 33} This is the interpretation of the narration reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas }gt!3j@»s). However, inheritance was left exclusively for relatives and the inheritance of confederates was completely abrogated by the following verse of Surah Ahzaab: gill ^ ^Jlj £>p\ &&&/j>&$\Z& Jtft 1j%) (1) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.228). Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the Hadith as quoted Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.26). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.89). (2) Bukhari.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 379 In Allaah's Book (the "Lowhul Mahfoodh"), relatives are closer to each other (and therefore have a greater right of inheriting from each other) than the (other) Mu'mineen (who are not related) and the Muhaajireen, (they will not receive any portion of your estate as inheritance) unless you wish to do a good turn to your (unrelated Mu'mineen or Muhaajireen) friends (in which case you may bequest a maximum of one third of your estate to them). This (injunction) has been documented. in the Book (the "Lowhul Mahfoodh"). {Surah Ahzaab, verse 6} After this verse was revealed, all that the confederates could have from the inheritance of the Ansaar was what the Ansaar gave them as goodwill to assist them. By this interpretation, all the Ahadeeth have their explanation. (1) A large group of Taabi'een have narrated that when Rasulullaah (s) arrived in Madinah, he forged ties of brotherhood between the Muhaajireen themselves and between the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar so that they may care for each other. They used to inherit from each other and numbered seventy individuals from amongst the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. Some say that they numbered a hundred. Nevertheless, they stopped inheriting from each other on the basis of this brotherhood when Allaah revealed the verse: d vb»* »jj-<> i& Of U ^ Jtf ^* -^#1 !$j) Those who are relatives are closer to each other in Allaah's Book ... {Surah Ahzaab, verse 6} ^2' The Financial Assistance that the Ansaar gave to the Muhaajireen Sharing Dates and an Ansaari &f%!&& Refuses to be Paid Back Hadhrat Abu Hurayra OS08&9 narrates that the Ansaar once said to Rasulullaah W&, "Share out our date plantations between us and our (Muhaajireen) brothers." We have never seen people better than those to whom we have come (the Ansaar). They are prepared to assist even though they have little and when they have plenty, they spend most generously. They do all the work on the plantations for us and share the dates with us. They do so much for us that we actually fear that they should not take all the rewards." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "This will not happen as long as you keep praising them and making du'aa for them." Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that whenever the Ansaar harvested their crops, they would divide the crop into two parts, the one part being smaller than the other. They would then place branches with the smaller portion (to make it look bigger than the other portion). Thereafter, they gave the Muhaajireen the choice between the two portions. The Muhaajireen would choose the larger portion (the portion without the branches, thinking that they were leaving the larger portion for the Ansaar). The Ansaar would then take the smaller portion for themselves. This practise continued until Khaybar was conquered. When Khaybar was conquered, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said to the Ansaar, "You have fulfilled your duty towards us. Now, if you please, you may hand over your shares (of plantations) in Khaybar (to the Muhaajireen) and have your date crops (in Madinah all for yourselves without sharing it with the Muhaajireen, who will now receive from Khaybar)." The Ansaar (accepted the proposal and) said, "You have placed several responsibilities on us while you have taken the responsibility that (in exchange for this) we shall have Jannah. We have now fulfilled what you had asked of us and require your condition to be met." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "You have it." (3) Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) once called for the Ansaar to distribute the land of Bahrain amongst them. However, they refused to have any of it unless the Muhaajireen also received an equal amount of land. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then said to them, "In that case, we cannot (distribute the land)." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then added, "You Ansaar should exercise patience until you meet me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) because (after my death) others will be given preference over you." ^ How the Ansaar Severed the Ties they had During the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen the Ties of Islaam The Jew Ka'b bin Ashraf is Killed Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillaah narrates that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) once said, (1) Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.312), as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.228). (2) Ahmad. In his Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.228), Ibn Katheer has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Jareer, Haakim and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.7 Pg.136). (3) Bazaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.40) has commented on the chain of narrators. (4) Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.535).

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama W&®&> stood up and said, "Do you want me to kill him?" "Yes," replied Rasulullaah ^Ssl. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama Si&®& then said, "Do permit me to say something to }iim as well." Rasulullaah W>Ms granted him permission. (Taking some companions along with him) Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama SUSS®® went to Ka'b bin Ashraf and said, "That man (Rasulullaah {£$$$?) had asked us for charity and had tired us with requests. We have therefore come to you for a loan." Ka'b said, "By Allaah! He will again tire you out afterwards." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama *sS3@e> said, "We have started following him and do not like to leave him until we see what happens to him in the end. We want you to lend us a Wasaq or two of grain." Ka'b replied, "Fine, but I need collateral first." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama SK2s®s> and the other Sahabah i@12@) asked, "What collateral do you want?" Ka'b said, "Give me your women as collateral." They responded by saying, "How can we give you our women as collateral when you are the most handsome of the Arabs?" Ka'b said, "Then give me your children." They said, "How can we give our children as collateral when people will taunt by saying that these are the children who were given as collateral for a mere one or two Wasaq of grain? This would be too embarrassing for us. We shall rather give you our weapons as collateral." When Ka'b agreed, they arranged to meet at night. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama Slf@£i arrived at night with Hadhrat Abu Naa'ilah &&$& who was Ka'b's foster brother by virtue of being suckled by the same woman. Ka'b called them to a fortress and came down to meet them. Ka'b's wife asked, "Where are you going at this hour?" he replied, "It is only Muhammad bin Maslama and my brother Abu Naa'ilah." According to another narration, she said, "I hear a sound resembling the dripping of blood." Ka'b reassured her saying, "It is only my brother Muhammad bin Maslama and my foster brother Abu Naa'ila. A brave person responds even if he is called to a confrontation at night." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama JSP®® brought another two or three men with him and said to them, "When he arrives, I shall hold his hair to smell it and you shall also ask them to smell. When you see that I have a good hold of his head, you should attack him." Ka'b arrived wearing a belt studded with jewels and exuded the fragrance of perfume. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 3j|3!tf@gi exclaimed, "To this day have I never smelt anything so good!" Ka'b said, "I have the most fragranced Arab women and the most beautiful ones." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama JsS3s@« said, "Do allow me to smell your head." "Why certainly," said Ka'b smugly. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama W&®& smelt Ka'b's head and allowed his companions to do so as well. Thereafter, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama W&!&s6 asked, "Will you permit me a second time?" When Ka'b allowed him, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama ©|i3®s> took firm hold of Ka'b's

382 ^HE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&&$> (Vol-D According to a narration of Hadhrat Urwa WS^&i, Rasulullaah {Jf$$? praised Allaah when they reported back to him. A narration of Ibn Sa'd states that (after killing Ka'b) when Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama MUS^Ss© and his companions reached Baqee Gharqad (the graveyard), they shouted "Allaahu Akbar!". Rasulullaah &0t was busy performing salaah that night and when he heard them shout "Allaahu Akbar!", he also shouted "Allaahu Akbar!" because he guessed that they had already killed Ka'b. When they came to him, Rasulullaah @ji commented, "(You have the) Faces of successfufpeople." "Your face is too, O Rasulullaah @P," they responded. They then threw Ka'b's head before Rasulullaah &I8SI and he praised Allaah for Ka'b's death. A narration of Hadhrat Ikra"ma states that (after Ka'b's death) the Jews became terrified and came to Rasulullaah &%. They said, "Our leader was killed by deception." Rasulullaah i^i reminded them of Ka'b's treacherous ways and about how he instigated against islaam and harmed the Muslims. Ibn Sa'd adds that after this, the Jews became scared and kept silent. (1) Ibn is'haaq narrates that Rasulullaah W^ once announced, "Who will see to Ibn Ashraf for me?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama SpiSSii said, "I shall see to him for you, O Rasulullaah {JSS$. I shall kill him." Rasulullaah QjfUfflit said, "Do so if you can." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama Ja312i@g spent the next three days without eating or drinking anything besides what was needed to preserve his life. When Rasulullaah ^^ was informed about this, he called Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama J&3I3®© and asked him why he had stopped eating and drinking. He replied, "I have promised you something that I am unsure whether I will be able to fulfil." Rasulullaah W@£ said to him, "All you have to do is to try." Another narration of Ibn is'haaq from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas isS3@? states that Rasulullaah %!$$• even walked with Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama JSJlSiBS and his companions up to Baqee Gharqad and pointed them in the direction saying, "Proceed with the name of Allaah. O Allaah! Assist them." ^ Abu Raafi Sallaam bin Abul Huqayq is Killed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik &Z&&?> says that amongst the many advantages that Allaah had granted Rasulullaah {j|^ (to facilitate the effective propagation of Deen) was that the two (Ansaar) tribes of the Khazraj and Aws were always competing to serve Rasulullaah W$£ just as two wrestlers compete. Whenever the Aws did something to benefit Rasulullaah UiP, the Khazraj would say, "By Allaah! By doing this you shall not surpass our standing with Rasulullaah US$1." They would then stop at nothing to match the feat. Similarly, whenever the Khazraj did something to win Rasulullaah (S^?'s favour, the Aws would say the same thing. Therefore, when the Aws managed to kill Ka'b bin Ashraf for his hostilities towards Rasulullaah gfii, the Khazraj said, "By Allaah! THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH & (Vol-D 383 surpass us by doing this." They then discussed who was as hostile towards Rasulullaah ^JM- as Ka'b bin Ashraf was. They arrived at the conclusion that such a person was Ibn Abul Huqayq who lived in Khaybar. They therefore sought permission from Rasulullaah & to kill him and when permission was granted, five men from the Banu Salama family of the Khazraj left. They were Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek W&t>, Hadhrat Mas'ood bin Sinaan W&f&j, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays @!2@e>, Hadhrat Abu Qataadah Haarith bin Rib'ee Ji3!is@e> and Hadhrat Khuzaa'ee bin Aswad @)SsS!s9 who was their ally from the Bani Aslam family. When they left, Rasulullaah &$ appointed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek SSDSaSS as their Ameer and forbade them from killing any women and children. When the Sahabah &S^&» reached Khaybar, they went to the house of Ibn Abul Huqayq at night. Every room in the house was locked from outside so that none could come out. Ibn Abul Huqayq had an upstairs room to which a ladder made of date fibres led. The Sahabah &&&& climbed the ladder and standing at his door, they sought permission to enter. When Ibn Abul Huqayq's wife came out to ask who they were, they said that they were Arabs looking for grain supplies. She pointed them to Ibn Abul Huqayq and they entered the room. The Sahabah W&8H& narrate, "When we entered the room, we locked the door behind us fearing that nothing should become an obstacle between us and him. His wife started screaming to alert him about our arrival and we rushed to him brandishing our swords as he lay on the bed. By Allaah! It was only the whiteness of his body that led us to him in the darkness of the night. He appeared to be a white Coptic cloth thrown on the bed. When his wife gave us away, one of our men lifted his sword over her but immediately retrained himself when he remembered the instructions of Rasulullaah &$$. Had it not been for this, we would have killed her that night. When we attacked him with out swords (and he was stffl not dead) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays $a3J3@9 pushed his sword into Ibn Abul Huqayq's belly with such force that the sword went right through him as he pleaded, "Enough! Enough!" We then left the room." "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek SUISSSE was poor sighted and fell from a step, injuring his leg very badly. We carried him until we reached one of the water inlets of a Jewish fortress. We crept in as the Jews lit fires and vigorously searched for us everywhere. When they eventually lost hope of finding us, they returned to Ibn Abul Huqayq and surrounded him as he was dying. We asked ourselves, 'Howwouldwegetto know whether the enemy of Allaah has died?' One of us volunteered to go and find out. He proceeded and walked amongst the Jews." The Sahabi &&6$» who went says, "I found his wife and several Jewish men around Ibn Abul Huqayq. His wife carried a lantern in her hand and was speaking to the others as she looked at her husband's face. She was saying, 'I swear by Allaah that I heard the voice of Ibn Ateek but I then disagreed with myself and said, 'How can Ibn Ateek be in this place?!' She

They then started disputing about who had killed him, each one of them claiming to have done it. Rasulullaah &!$| asked them to give him their swords and after inspecting them, Rasulullaah &HI said about the sword of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays 5SP@g>, "This one had killed him for I see traces of food on it." ^' Hadhrat Baraa W&S&j narrates that Rasulullaah fHI sent some men from the Ansaar to kill the Jew Abu Raafi. Rasulullaah (ill appointed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek JSiJSfSls© as their Ameer. Abu Raafi used to harm Rasulullaah (Ji$| greatly and assist others against him. He was staying in a fortress somewhere in Hijaaz (Khaybar). When the Sahabah $&&$*f> drew close to the fortress, the sun had already set and the people had already returned home with their animals. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek Wffi&& said to the others, "Sit here. I shall go and devise a plan with the gatekeeper to enter the gate." When he approached the gate of the fortress, he covered himself with his clothes so that he resembled a person answering the call of nature. By then all the people had already entered. The gatekeeper then shouted to him, "O servant of Allaah! If you wish to enter, please do so because I want to lock the gates." Hadhrat Abdullaah *sH3@fS narrates further. He says, "So I entered and hid myself away. Eventually, when everyone had entered, the gatekeeper .locked the gates and hung the keys on a nail. I went to the keys, took them and opened the gates. Stories used to be recited every night to Abu Raafi who was in the upper story of his home. When the story- tellers had left, I climbed the ladder to his room. As I opened each door, I locked it behind me saying to myself that if the people find out about me, they will only reach me after I had killed Abu Raafi. When I reached him, he was in a dark room with his wife and I had no idea where he was in the room. I said, 'Abu Raafi!' When he replied, 'Who is it?' I charged in the direction of the voice and struck him with my sword. However, because I was afraid, my strike did not kill him. When he started screaming, I left the room and waited awhile. I then entered and asked, "What is all this commotion, O Abu Raafi?" He said, 'Woe to your mother! Someone in the room has just struck me with a sword.' I then struck him again but rather than killing him, I only succeeded in wounding him. I then pushed the bade of my sword into his belly until it reached his back and I was convinced that I had killed him." "I then started opening door after door until I reached the ladder. (As I climbed down, I reached a place where) I placed my foot down thinking that I had reached the ground, but I fell in the moonlit night. My shinbone broke and I carried on walking after bandaging it with my turban. I then sat at the gate telling myself that I shall not leave until I am certain that I had killed him. When the cock crowed, an announcer stood on the wall and announced, 'Abu Raafi

Accept Islam before you suffer the same fate as the Quraysh suffered in the Battle of Badr." The Jews said, "The Quraysh do not know how to fight. If you were to fight against us, you would learn that we, are real men." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan: Say to the Kaafoor, "You shall be overpowered (by the Muslims in this world) and gathered in Jahannam (in the Akhirah), which is the worst of beddings (places)." Indeed there was a sign for you in the two groups which met (during the Battle of Badr). One group fought in the way of Allaah (in the obedience of Allaah, this was the Muslim army led by Rasulullaah ﷺ) while the other was (the group of) Kuffaar, who saw them (the Muslims) as twice their number with their very eyes (Allaah made the Muslims seem twice their number to the Kuffaar). Allaah strengthens with His aid whoever He wills. Do not pride yourself on the fact that you have killed some people of the Quraysh who were unseasoned in the art of warfare and did not know how to fight. Should you fight against us, you would soon learn that we are real men and that you have not met the likes of us in battle." (2) Imaam Zuhri narrates that after the Mushrikeen were defeated at Badr, the Muslims said to their Jewish acquaintances, "Accept Islam before Allaah makes you suffer a day like the day of Badr." Maalik bin Sayf commented, "Are you deceived by that fact that you have defeated a group of people from the Quraysh who have no knowledge of warfare? If we resolve to amass all our forces against you, you would have no power to fight us." Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit then said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ I have many Jewish friends who are powerful men with plenty weapons and great influence. However, I release myself from their friendship to adopt the friendship of Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ. I shall have no protecting friend besides Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ." It was Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and his nephew Haarith bin Aws carrying a shield. I immediately sat down on the ground and Sa'd passed by wearing a coat of steel armour. (Because of his extraordinary height) Part of his body was exposed and I feared for those parts (that an enemy should not strike him there). Sa'd was one of the largest and tallest of people and was reciting the following couplets as he passed: Wait awhile until Hamal reaches the battle How beautiful is death when its term arrives' 1 then stood up and entered an orchard where I found a group of Muslims sitting. Amongst them was Hadhrat Umar and a person wearing a helmet. (When he saw me) Hadhrat Umar said, 'What brings you here? By Allaah! You are certainly a brave woman. Do you not fear that a calamity may befall us or that we are defeated?' He continued reprimanded me until I wished that the earth should open up at that moment so that I could enter it. The other person then lifted his helmet and I saw that he was Talha bin Ubaydillaah. He said, 'Shame on you Umar. You have been overdoing things since today. Where else can we run to except to Allaah?' "A man from the Quraysh called Ibn Arqa shot an arrow at Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and said, 'Take that for my name is Ibn Arqa!' the arrow struck an artery in his arm and cut it wide open. Sa'd had been an ally of the Banu Qurayza during the Period of Ignorance and prayed to Allaah saying, 'O Allaah! Allaah then sent a cyclonic wind against the Mushrikeen, thereby alleviating the Mu'mineen of having to fight. Allaah is Most Powerful and Mighty." Hadhrat Aa'isha continues narrating. She says that (since the Mushrikeen were forced to retreat,) Abu Sufyaan and those with him returned to Tihaama while Umayyah bin Badr and his people returned to Najd. The Banu Qurayza returned and locked themselves up in their fortresses. Meanwhile, Rasulullaah returned to Madinah and had a tent pitched for Sa'd in the Masjid. Hadhrat Jibra'eel then arrived and had sand on his front teeth (indicating that he was still engaged in battle). He asked Rasulullaah, "Have you already put down your weapons? The Sahabah were just as Allaah described them in the Qur'aan when He says: "Compassionate amongst themselves" {Surah Fatah, verse 29} Hadhrat Alqama narrates that he then asked Hadhrat Aa'isha, "Dear mother! What did Rasulullaah then do?" Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "Although Rasulullaah would not cry often upon the death of anyone, when he was really grieved, he would hold his beard." Hadhrat Aa'isha also narrates that when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh passed away, Rasulullaah and the Sahabah cried whereas Rasulullaah usually only held his beard when his grief grew intense. She says further, "I could also recognise the crying of my father (Hadhrat Abu Bakr, his tears flowed on to his beard). The Ansaar prided themselves on their Accomplishments in Deen Hadhrat Anas says that on one occasion the Aws and Khazraj tribes boasted to each other. The Aws said, "Amongst us was the person whom the angels bathed (after his martyrdom). He was Handhala bin Raahib. Also amongst us was the person for whom the throne of Allaah shook (when he passed away). He was Sa'd bin Mu'aadh. Amongst us was also the person who was protected by a swarm of wasps (when the Mushrikeen intended to mutilate his body). He was Aasim bin Thaabit bin Abil Aflah. We also had in our ranks the person whose testimony was allowed (by Rasulullaah) in place of the testimony of two people. He was Khuzayma bin Thaabit. May Allaah be pleased with all of them." In response to this, the members of the Khazraj said, "We have four persons who memorised the entire Qur'aan during the lifetime of Rasulullaah. There were none besides them who achieved this honour. He then appointed Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 5s3)2f@ss> to take charge of the other flank of the army while Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah J$3!2i@g> was put in charge of those Muslims who had no armour. As Rasulullaah {Ji$S remained with his contingent, the rest marched through the centre of the valley. The Quraysh gathered the riffraff of their society and said, "We will send this lot forward (against the Muslims). If they achieve any success, we shall join them. If they are defeated, we shall have to give in to the demands of Rasulullaah W& ." Hadhrat Abu Hurayra @lis@© narrates further that when Rasulullaah &f lifted his gazes, he saw him and called for him. Hadhrat Abu Hurayra &&?> replied, "I am at your service, O Rasulullaah &S$|!" As he performed Tawaaf, - Rasulullaah (ﷺ) passed an idol standing next to the Kabah, which people used to worship. He was holding a bow on one end and poked the eye of the idol as he recited the following verse of the Qur'aan: t ;t (ks ■ JJlj->l ^ hy) 40 ^3*3 0& J^ o\ h JJf$ 3*3j j^ '*&$... The truth has arrived and falsehood has disappeared. Indeed, falsehood was bound to disappear. {Surah Bani Israaeel, verse 81} Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then went to Mount Safa and climbed it until he could see the Kabah. He then raised his hands and engaged in Dhikr and Du'aa for some time. Standing below him, the Ansaar said to each other, "It seems like the love for his city and pity for his people has overtaken Rasulullaah (ﷺ)." Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (رضي الله عنه) says further, "Revelation then started to descend on Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and when this happened it was no secret to any of us and no one would look at Rasulullaah (ﷺ) until it was finished." Once the revelation had stopped, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) lifted his gazes and said, "O assembly of Ansaar! Was it you who said, 'It seems like the love for his city and pity for his people has overtaken Rasulullaah (ﷺ)'?" When the Ansaar admitted that they had made the statement, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "What will my name then be? I am certainly the servant of Allaah and His Rasul. I have made Hijrah towards Allaah and towards you people. My life shall be with you and my death as well." The Ansaar then came weeping to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) saying, "By Allaah! We only said what we did so that Allaah and His Rasool (ﷺ) should remain exclusively ours (we feared that you should not leave us to settle in Makkah)." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "Verily Allaah and His Rasool (ﷺ) believe you and accept your excuse (believing that you said it out of extreme love)." *

The Story of The Ansaar During the Battle of Hunayn and the Statement of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) about them Hadhrat Anas (رضي الله عنه) narrates that when the Battle of Hunayn took place, the Hawaaazin, Ghitfaan and other tribes came (to the battlefield) with their stock animals as well as their families (indicating that they intended to fight until the end). Rasulullaah (ﷺ) arrived with ten thousand Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) and many others who had been granted amnesty (when Makkah was conquered). However, (when the Muslim army was caught by surprise, the Muslims fled the battlefield and) Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was left all alone. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then made two distinct announcements. Turning to his right, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "O Assembly of Ansaar!" The Ansaar responded by saying, "We are at your service, O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! Accept the glad tidings that we are with you." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then turned to his left and announced, "O Assembly of Ansaar!" The Ansaar again (1) Ahmad, Muslims and Nasa'ee, as quoted in AlBidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.307). Ibn Abi Shayba has also reported the narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.135).

394 THE JIVES OF THE SAHABAH &&&& (Vol-1) responded by saying, "we are at your service, O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Accept the glad tidings that we are with you." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then dismounted his white mule saying, "I am the servant of Allaah and His Rasul." The Mushrikeen were later defeated and Rasulullaah (ﷺ) received a vast amount of booty. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) distributed the booty amongst the Muhaajireen and those who had been granted amnesty. The Ansaar received nothing. Some people of the Ansaar then commented, "We are called when times are difficult, but the booty is given to others." When this statement reached Rasulullaah (ﷺ), he gathered the Ansaar in a tent and asked, "O Assembly of Ansaar! What is this that has reached me?" when they remained silent, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! Does it not please you that while people return home with worldly articles, you would be returning with the Rasool (ﷺ) of Allaah, who you shall keep in your homes?" The Ansaar replied, "it certainly does please us." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) added, "If everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar." A narrator by the name of Hishaam says that he then asked Hadhrat Anas (رضي الله عنه), "O Abu Hamzal Were you present here?" Hadhrat Anas (رضي الله عنه) replied, "How could I absent myself?" ^ Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (رضي الله عنه) narrates that when Rasulullaah (ﷺ) received the booty from the Battle of Hunayn, he distributed it amongst the members of the Quraysh whose hearts he wanted to win over and amongst the Arabs who asked for a share. When the Ansaar neither received a small or large part of it, they were so hurt that one of them said, "By Allaah! Rasulullaah (ﷺ) has rejoined with his people." Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (رضي الله عنه) went to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! This tribe of Ansaar feel hurt about you." "Why is that?" asked Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Hadhrat Sa'd (رضي الله عنه) replied, "Because of the way in which you distributed the booty amongst your people and the other Arabs without giving them anything." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) asked, "What are your feelings, O Sa'd?" Hadhrat Sa'd (رضي الله عنه) replied, "I am but one of my people (I feel the same way)." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "Gather your people (the Ansaar) in this enclosure and call me once they have gathered." Hadhrat Sa'd (رضي الله عنه) went out and shouted for them. Once he had gathered them in the enclosure, some Muhaajireen also arrived and Hadhrat Sa'd (رضي الله عنه) permitted them to enter. When some other Muhaajireen came, he sent them away. When every member of the Ansaar had arrived, Hadhrat Sa'd (رضي الله عنه) went to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)

Rasulullaah Sa3fi then comforted them by saying, "O Assembly of Ansaar! (1) Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed W&H& narrates that as a gesture of goodwill, Rasulullaah ®$£ distributed the booty received from the Hawaazin in the Battle of Hunayn amongst the Quraysh and others. This made the Ansaar upset. When Rasulullaah W0& heard about this, he went to the Ansaar where they were staying and said, "Whoever is amongst the Ansaar (from other tribes) should go to his tent." Thereafter, Rasulullaah (HS^ recited the Shahaadah, praised Allaah and said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas W&v&i said, "O Abu Ayyoob! I wish to leave this house for you just as you left your house for Rasulullaah ©jsi." He then instructed his family to leave, which they did. Thereafter, he gave everything in the house to Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob ©!£©£. When Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob SUSSES) was leaving the place, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas &&*&j asked him, "How much do you need?" Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob S!3®! ss> told him that he required the amount that he usually received as a grant and eight slaves to work in his fields. In this manner, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas W&&9 continued presenting convincing arguments and replied to all objections until the Ameerul Mu'mineen had no option but to accede to the request. Hadhrat Hassaan 5f5)2@& continues to narrate, "We then left after Allaah had fulfilled our need .through the speech of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Wix$&s>. Hadhrat Hassaan W&&9 then recited a poem in praise of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas W&0&9 (which means): "When Ibn Abbaas JsS^SS© shows you his face You will see virtue and grace in every gathering" He then recited the couplets mentioned above, adding the following couplet to it: "You have been created as an ally- of affection and benevolence And as an orator without being inefficient nor incompetent" The Ameerul Mu'mineen said, "In using the word 'inefficient', Hassaan &.l %@& was referring to none but me. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH mmSfS> (Vol-1) 403 Du'aas made for the Ansaar The Du'aa that Rasulullaah &®& Made for the Ansaar and the Statement Hadhrat Abu Bakr &,&$& made about them in his Sermon Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik W8s$&t> narrates that when it became difficult for the Ansaar to continuously use camels to draw and carry water, they gathered before Rasulullaah Wife to request that a flowing river be made for them. Rasulullaah {£jjSil$ said, "A warm welcome to the Ansaar! A warm welcome to the Ansaar! A warm welcome to the Ansaar! I shall grant you anything that you ask from me today and anything I ask Allaah for you will be granted." The Ansaar said to each other., "Make the most of the situation and ask him to pray for our forgiveness." They then asked, "O Rasulullaah &i$! Pray to Allaah for our forgiveness." Rasulullaah %M0!t then made du'aa saying, "O Allaah! Forgive the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar and the grandchildren of the Ansaar." Another narration states that Rasulullaah (JiSgi also asked Allaah to forgive the spouses of the Ansaar. (1) Yet another narration states that Rasulullaah ^S$ said, "O Allaah! Forgive the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar, the grandchildren of the Ansaar and their neighbours." ^ Another report (3) mentions that Rasulullaah &0- said, "O Allaah! Forgive the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar and the friends of the Ansaar." Hadhrat Uthmaan J£3!aj@»s narrates that he heard Rasulullaah (H^i say, "Imaan belongs to Yemen and in the progeny of Qahtaan (an ancient king to whose progeny belongs all the people of Yemen as well as the Ansaar). Hard-heartedness is to be found amongst the progeny of Adnaan whereas in the Himyar tribe is the commander and leader of the Arabs. While the Madh'hij tribe is the chief and defence of the Arabs and the Azd tribe is their shoulders and head (bearing the weight of important matters), the Hamdaan tribe is their crest and their summit. O Allaah! Give honour to the Ansaar through whom Allaah established the Deen; who gave me shelter, who assisted me and who gave me their undaunted support. They are my companions in this world, shall be my party in the Aakhirah and the first of my Ummah to enter Jannah." (4) Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Muhammad Zubayri narrates that in one of his sermons, Hadhrat Abu Bakr W!&&?> related the relationship between the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar to the poem that states: "May Allaah reward ja'far (the Ansaar) on our behalf Who helped us when our shoes made us slip and fall in the path of those who (1) Ahmad (Vol .3 Pg. 1 39) . What Rasulullaah W$£ said about the Quraysh. Hadhrat Humayd bin Abdur Rahmaan Himyari narrates that when Rasulullaah W& passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr S&T®© was at one end of Madinah (where he lived). When he arrived, he opened the face of Rasulullaah ^^ and said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You are so pure in life and death. (When he heard that the Ansaar had gathered to discuss the Khilaafah,) Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&&6 followed by Hadhrat Umar &&&$ went to the Ansaar. In his talk to the Ansaar, Hadhrat Abu Bakr HsXiS@% did not omit to mention any verse of the Qur'aan or statement of Rasulullaah W8& concerning the virtues of the Ansaar. He also said, "I am also aware that Rasulullaah fj|3ir said, 'If everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar.' O Sa'd*2*! Because you were sitting there, you know that Rasulullaah &|$£ said, 'The Quraysh are the successors of this matter (Khilaafah). Righteous people will follow the righteous of the Quraysh while sinful people will follow the sinful of the Quraysh.'" Hadhrat Sa'd i&BSflSSji confirmed this when he said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 2S3!53@»s>, "You have spoken the truth, we shall be viziers while you are the leaders." *3' The incident that occurred in the Hall of the Banu Saa'idah Tribe. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri S.la®9 narrates that after Rasulullaah fj|SI passed away, several speakers from the Ansaar delivered lectures (in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah tribe where the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar had gathered to discuss the Khilaafah). One of them said, "O assembly of Muhaajireen! Whenever Rasulullaah £1331 appointed one of you to a post, he would also put one of us with him. We therefore feel that two persons should take this post, one from us and one from you." The other speakers from the Ansaar followed suit until Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit S3!3i@J2> stood up and said, "Since Rasulullaah £$£| was from amongst the Muhaajireen, the leader should be from the Muhaajireen. Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit &$ %&?> then took hold of the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 5fli3i@& and said, "This is the man. Pledge your allegiance to him." I swear by Allaah that we do not begrudge you this position but we fear that such a person may become the leader whose fathers or brothers we (Ansaar) may have killed (when fighting for islaam. He should then not wish to take revenge from us)." Hadhrat Umar JsJliSs®© said, "If it ever happens, you should rather die (fighting him) if you are able to." Hadhrat Abu Bakr il3.t3©e> then started to speak. He said, "We shall be the leaders while you be the viziers. This matter will be shared equally between us just as the frond of a date palm divides at the centre." The first person to pledge his allegiance was Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd (also known as) Abu Nu'maan SSSi&SeS. After everyone had united under the leadership of Hadhrat Abu Bakr fN23@g, an occasion arrived when he had to distribute some wealth amongst the people. 406 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Chapter Six The Chapter Concerning Jihaad (Striving in the Path of Allaah) This chapter highlights how Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah 'رضي الله عنهم' strove in the path of Allaah and how they went out to give Da'wah towards Allaah and towards His Rasool ﷺ regardless of whether their circumstances were favourable or unfavourable, or whether they had a choice or not. The chapter also makes clear how they prepared for this during times of difficulty and ease, summer or winter. Rasulullaah ﷺ Encourages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause Rasulullaah (ﷺ) leaves for the Battle of Badr after Consulting with the Sahabah 'رضي الله عنهم'

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari (رضي الله عنه) narrates that they were all in Madinah when Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "I have been informed that the trade caravan of Abu Sufyaan is arriving (from Shaam with plenty of wealth). Do you want to march to the caravan so that Allaah should perhaps give you plenty of booty?" When the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) agreed, Rasulullaah ﷺ marched out of Madinah with them. After marching a day or two, Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم), "The Quraysh have received intelligence about us (and have prepared an army to fight us), so what do you say (about fighting them)?" The Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) said, "By Allaah! We do not have the strength to fight them because we intended taking on only the caravan." Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated, "What do you say about fighting them?" When the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) gave the same response, Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad (رضي الله عنه) stood up and said, "in that case, O Rasulullaah ﷺ (if we have to fight them), we shall not say to you what the people of Moosa (عليه السلام) said to him when they said: (نأمرنا أن نقاتلهم ونحن لا نستطيع) <0 0& l$ i Uj l i d f c fJi Ciilj) ' ... This would have been more beloved to us than having an abundance of wealth." it was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan: Just as your Rabb took you (O Muhammad W^) from yo"ur home with the truth (with good cause to fight the battle) while there was certainly a group of the Mu'mineen who were unhappy (to fight the Kuffaar because they were not prepared for battle). {Surah Anfaal, verse 5}*1'

Hadhrat Anas H®&8&6 narrates that when Rasulullaah Gigi consulted with the Sahabah %&&&& to march to Badr, Hadhrat Abu Bakr &&&» gave his opinion (in favour of marching). Rasulullaah 0$$ again asked for opinions and Hadhrat Umar Stt®a« gave his. When Rasulullaah W^ again asked for opinions, someone from the Ansaar said, "O assembly of Ansaar! A person from the Ansaar then said, "In that case, O Rasulullaah W8i (if we have to fight them), we shall not say to you what the Bani Israa'eel said to Moosa $$&f when they told him, You and your Rabb both go ahead and fight. We shall remain sitting here.' In fact, we swear by the Being Who sent you with the truth that we shall follow you even if you travel to (the distant city of) Barkul Ghimaad (in Yemen)." ^

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas WS3&t> states that when Rasulullaah ^$ heard about the arrival of (the caravan of) Abu Sufyaan, he consulted with the Sahabah (©ISffiSei. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr &$$& voiced his opinion (to march), Rasulullaah {Ji$l turned away from him. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah &%%&$ (from the Ansaar) then said, "It is our opinion that Rasulullaah {^ ^ wants." Addressing Rasulullaah %!$$&, he then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! If you command us to ride our animals into the sea, we shall readily do so and if you command us to travel to (the distant city of) Barkul Ghimaad (in Yemen), we shall certainly do so." It was only then that Rasulullaah $$&& gave the command (for the Sahabah $S©&&> to march).

(3) Hadhrat Alqama bin Waqqaas Laythi &%%$ narrates that after leaving for Badr, when he reached a place called Rowhaa, Rasulullaah $$$• addressed the Sahabah $^3ffl«5 asking, "What is your opinion?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr 2&»3®« responded by mentioning the news that had reached them about the extensive battle preparations that Mushrikeen had made. When Rasulullaah W&t again asked for (1) ibn Abi Haatim and Ibn Mardaway, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.263). Look into the matter that Allaah intends you to do and then do it. You may join ties with whoever you please, sever ties with whoever you please, initiate hostilities towards whoever you please, enter into peace treaties with whoever you please and take as much of our wealth as you please." It was with reference to this statement of Hadhrat Sa'd JUIS&JSsi that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan: Just as your Rabb took you (O Muhammad 'QMOT) from your home with the truth (with good cause to fight the battle) while there was certainly a group of the Mu'mineen who were unhappy (to fight the Kuffaar because they were not prepared for battle). {Surah Anfaal, verse 5} (' ' Another narration states that Hadhrat Sa'd SIS@« also said to Rasulullaah 0$E, "Take as much of our wealth as you please and leave as much as you please but what you take from us is more beloved to us than what you leave. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 411 and better." When Rasulullaah (ﷺ) asked him how much he had left for them, he replied, "The sustenance and good that Allaah and His Rasool (ﷺ) have promised." A Sahabi from the Ansaar by the name of Abu Aqeel (رضي الله عنه) brought a mere Saa of dates, which was his donation. When the Munaafiqeen saw the donations, they started mocking. If someone donated a large sum, they would say that he was a show-off and when another donated a small amount of dates, which was all he could afford, they would say, "He is more in need of what he has brought." When Hadhrat Abu Aqeel (رضي الله عنه) brought his Saa of dates, he said, "I spent the entire night pulling a rope (to draw water from a well) in exchange for two Saa of dates. By Allaah! I have nothing besides this." In an effort to excuse his small contribution and feeling embarrassed about it, he concluded by saying, "I have brought one Saa and left the other for my family." The Munaafiqeen commented, "He needs the Saa more than anyone else." The Munaafiqeen continued in this manner as the wealthy and poor amongst them waited to receive a share of the donations. When the time drew close for Rasulullaah (ﷺ) to leave, the Munaafiqeen came in large numbers to seek exemption. They complained about the intense heat and also said that if they had to embark on the expedition, they would face many tests. They even went to the extent of taking oaths to substantiate their lies. Not knowing what their hearts concealed, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) exempted them. It was a group from amongst them who built the Masjid of hypocrisy in expectation of the arrival of the evildoer Abu Aamir as well as Kinaana bin Abd Yaleel and Alqama bin Ulaatha Aamiri. Abu Aamir had aligned himself with (the Roman emperor) Heraclius (with whom he plotted to attack the Muslims. The 'Masjid' was built as a meeting place for him). It was with reference to them that Surah Baraa'ah was revealed part by part. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) continues to narrate that it was also in Surah Baraa'ah that a verse was revealed which does not exempt anyone from marching in Jihaad. The sincere Muslims who were loyal to Allaah and His Rasool (ﷺ) were weak, unwell or poor and complained to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed: Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions). . . {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 4 1 } They said, "There is now no exemption from this (we cannot miss the expedition)." At that stage, many of the sins of the Munaafiqeen were still concealed and only became apparent afterwards. Many of them stayed behind the expedition without any physical ailment because they had no conviction (in Allaah). The Surah (Baraa'ah) was revealed to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) with great clarification and detail, informing him about the people who had joined him.

412 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $gBS@i% (Vol-1) When he reached Tabook, Rasulullaah &$% dispatched Hadhrat Alqama bin Mujazzar ISSg&g to Palestine and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ©SSSb!* to Dowmatul Jandal. Rasulullaah &$% said to Hadhrat Khaalid Js3l®@#, "Move quickly for you may find him (the ruler of Dowmatul Jandal) out hunting and will be able to capture him." Hadhrat Khaalid SSSffiSd* found the ruler out hunting and captured him. In the meantime, the Munaafiqeen in Madinah were anxious to hear bad news (about the Muslims). Consequently, when they heard that the Muslims were suffering great hardships and difficulties, they rejoiced and said, "We expected this and therefore steered clear from it." On the other hand, when they heard that the Muslims were safe and sound, they grew very depressed. Every enemy of the Munaafiqeen in Madinah could clearly see this (enmity towards the Muslims) in the Munaafiqeen. Every Bedouin and non-Bedouin Munaafiq was engaging in some clandestine act, which was eventually exposed. Every indisposed Muslim was anxiously awaiting for Allaah to reveal verses of the Qur'aan that would excuse them. As Surah Baraa'ah was being revealed bit by bit, the Muslims started entertaining all types of thoughts about themselves. Until the entire Surah was revealed, they feared that some punishment would be cited about every major and minor sin that they ever committed. Eventually, (once the revelation was complete) the position of every person became clear. It was then apparent who was rightly guided and who was wandering astray. ^

The Response of Rasulullaah {jjjj31r when Jadd bin Qais Sought Exemption from the Expedition and the Verses of Qur'aan Revealed in this Regard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr bin Hazam ©!3s&!# narrates that whenever Rasulullaah ®fi intended to leave on a military expedition, he made it seem as if he was going in another direction. However, when he intended leaving for Tabook, he made it clear to the people and announced that he intended fighting the Romans. This happened at a time when people were experiencing difficulty, when the heat was intense, the land was drought-stricken and the crops were ripe and ready for harvesting. The people therefore preferred to stay behind to tend to their crops and sit in the shade. They were very reluctant to separate (from their comforts). As Rasulullaah &$% was busy with preparations one day, he asked Jadd bin Qais (one of the Munaafiqeen), "O Jadd! Are you ready to fight the Romans?" Jadd replied, "O Rasulullaah fJ33fr! Excuse me (from the expedition) and do not expose me to temptation. My people know well that there is none so obsessed with women as I am. I therefore fear that I may be cast into temptation when I see the Roman women. Do exempt me, O Rasulullaah fj$$. " Rasulullaah (i$$$@ turned away from him saying, "I exempt you." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse: (1) Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.105). Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.249) has also reported the narration in detail from Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Aa'idh.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&J%&& (Vol-D 413 Among them (the Munaafiqeen) is he who says, "Excuse me (from fighting) and do not expose me to temptation (because I will be unable to control myself when I see the enemy women)." Behold! In temptation did he (already) fall (by being reluctant to fight)..}. {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 49} , This verse tells us that staying behind from the expedition and have greater concern for himself than for Rasulullaah (Ji8if is a worse crime than his falling for the Roman women. Jadd had therefore already fallen for temptation before even leaving on the expedition. Referring to all those after Jadd as well, the verse goes on to state: ... Verily Jahannam shall surround the Kaafiroon (and they will be unable to escape). {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 49} When one of the Munaafiqeen said to the others, "Do not march in the heat," Allaah revealed the following verse: ... Tell them, "The fire of Jahannam is much more intense in heat." If only they understood. (If they understood that the heat of Jahannam is unbearable and everlasting, they would not fear the temporary heat of this world which is bearable.) {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 81 } Rasulullaah (Ja^i then intensified his preparations for the journey and gave the Muslims encouragement to fight in Jihaad. He gave special encouragement to the wealthy Muslims to spend their wealth and to provide transport for the pleasure of Allaah. Many wealthy Sahabah &&8*>t> provided transport only with the intention of earning reward from Allaah. In this regard Hadhrat Uthmaan JsJG^&S© spent most generously and none was able to match his spending. He provided two hundred camels. For this purpose, Rasulullaah g^i sent Hadhrat Buraydah bin Husayb iF3!3@ei to the Banu Aslam tribe with instructions to proceed to a place called Fura. The Sahabah %@ffi&& Spend Generously for the Expedition to Tabook Rasulullaah &f gave the Sahabah 2%&& plenty of encouragement to fight in jihaad and asked them to spend for the pleasure of Allaah. The Sahabah $3)3@!$ therefore donated most generously. The first to spend so generously was Hadhrat Abu Bakr SSaffiSs who donated everything he owned, equalling four thousand Dirhams. Rasulullaah &^ asked him, "Have you left anything for your family?" he replied, "I have left Allaah and His Rasool gj^ for them." Hadhrat Umar Jg5j$®»g> then arrived with half of his belongings. When Rasulullaah W$& asked him if he had left anything for his family, he replied, 'Yes, I have left half of what I have brought.' (Another narration states that he had left as much as he had brought.) When Hadhrat Umar &!f&?> heard about what Hadhrat Abu Bakr J&SSS®* had brought he said, "He has beaten me each time we have vied to do good." Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib SIESBSs, Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah 5f82@g>, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ii3)*®s> and Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama ©IS®?; all donated large sums. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf ©12®© donated two hundred Awqiya of silver (equal to eight thousand Dirhams) while Hadhrat Aasim bin Adi 3ii3!f@»g> contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan 3IXa@g> equipped a third of the army and in providing everything for a third of the army, he became the person who spent the most, in fact, he gave so much that it is said that he left them without any needs. The Sahabah i@12@g> report that Rasulullaah gSfi then said, "Nothing that Uthmaan does after this can cause him any harm."

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 415 With great enthusiasm, the wealthy Sahabah spent in this good cause anticipating the rewards from Allaah. Those Sahabah who were less wealthy assisted those who were poorer than them. They would even bring their camels to one or two persons, asking them to ride in turns. Some people would even bring some money and give it to someone leaving on the expedition. In fact, even the ladies assisted those in every way they could. Hadhrat Ummu Sinaan Aslamiyya says that she saw a cloth spread out in front of Hadhrat Aa'isha in her room, which was filled with bangles, bracelets, anklets, earrings, rings and other jewellery that the women had sent to assist the Muslim army in its preparations. The Muslims were suffering poverty at that time and because it was a time when the fruit crops were ripe and shady areas were sought after. People therefore preferred to stay at home and disliked leaving. Rasulullaah hastened and intensified preparations and made the army camp at Thaniyyatul Wadaa (just outside Madinah). The army was so large that their names could not be contained in one register. Few were those who intended to absent themselves for they knew that their absence would be unknown only until Allaah reveals some revelation to Rasulullaah (a time when they would suffer much embarrassment), when Rasulullaah was ready to leave, he appointed Hadhrat Sibaa bin Urfuta Ghifaari as his deputy in Madinah. According to others, Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama. Rasulullaah instructed the Sahabah saying, "Take many pairs of shoes along because as long as a person is wearing shoes, he is like one who is riding." As Rasulullaah travelled, Ibn Ubay and other Munaafiqeen drew back saying, "Muhammad wants to fight the Romans despite his arduous condition coupled with the extreme heat and the long journey towards an army he has no power to combat. Does he think that fighting the Romans is child's play?" The Munaafiqeen with Ibn Ubay expressed the same opinions. To make people panic about the safety of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah, he also added, "By Allaah! It is as if I can already see the companions of Muhammad tied up in ropes tomorrow." When Rasulullaah left from Thaniyyatul Wadaa for Tabook, he had already flown the large and small flags. He handed over the biggest flag to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, another large flag to Hadhrat Zubayr, the flag of the Aws tribe to Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr and the flag of the Khazraj tribe to either Hadhrat Abu Dujaana or to Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir. This talk then became rife. When Hadhrat Umar 2fR«&!8 heard some of the talk, he refuted what the speaker said and then reported it to Rasulullaah W0&. Rasulullaah (J^i became extremely angry and although he had a bandage tied to his head (because of his illness) and was covered in a shawl, he left his room and ascended the pulpit. After praising Allaah, he said, "O people! What is this talk of yours that has reached me concerning the appointment of Usaama as Ameer? By Allaah! If you object to my appointing him as Ameer, you must have objected to my appointing his father (Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha 2U!^®!8)) before him. Rather use them to combat the Murtaddeen (those who have forsaken Islaam). Another concern we have is that we fear that Madinah may be attacked while there are only women and children here. Why do you not postpone the dispatching of this army against the Romans until stability returns and the Murtaddeen have either returned to the Deen they have left or are destroyed by the sword. You are then at liberty to dispatch Usaama $S351$®e>. We are confident that the Romans will not be marching against us yet." After listening to everything they had to say, Hadhrat Abu Bakr JgXSffiSsi asked, "Does anyone have anything else to add?" They replied, "No. you have heard everything we have to say." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ©Bs®e> then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I shall dispatch this army even if I knew that wild animals would eat me in Madinah (without them here to defend me). How can I not do it when revelation had been descending on RasulullaahdiiSI from the heavens as he kept saying, 'Dispatch the army of Usaama.' Of course, there is one thing that I need to speak to Usaama about. It is that Umar stays behind with us (in Madinah) because we cannot do without him. By Allaah! May Allaah shower His mercy on you. In saying what you heard him say, Umar did not intend to hurt or to insult any Muslim. All he intended by what he said was to encourage those who were hesitant to fight in Jihaad." Thereafter, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed JiBiS*®© (the brother of Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed *j|3!3@g) stood up and said, "The Khalifah of Rasulullaah{ ^ji is right. Do be seated, dear brother." When Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed Jf!la@g> sat down, Hadhrat Khaalid $®ffi&9 continued, "All praises belong to Allaah besides Whom none is worthy of worship. Who has sent MuhammadSJa^? with guidance and the true Deen to make it dominate over all other religions even though the Mushrikeen abhor it. All praises are due to Allaah Who fulfils His promises, Who makes them come to realisation and Who destroys His enemies. We neither oppose you nor have any opposition amongst ourselves. You are a well-wishing and concerned leader and we are prepared to march whenever you command and prepared to obey you whenever you issue an order." Hadhrat Abu Bakr *g><@# was extremely pleased by this speech and said, "May Allaah reward you well, my brother and friend! You had accepted Islaam willingly, migrated with the hope of reward when you escaped from the Kuffaar with your Deen so that Allaah and His Rasool^^? may be pleased and so that the Kalimah may be elevated. You are one of the commanders of the people, so prepare to march. May Allaah shower His mercy on you." Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Bakr JiJSSSs descended from the pulpit. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed ^B^@< then left to make the necessary preparations. In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&&& instructed Hadhrat Bilaal Sllf@g) to make the following announcement: "O people! March in Jihaad against the Romans in Shaam!" There were no doubts amongst the people that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed 5SSJ5@si was their commander. He was the first to reach the army camp, after which people started arriving there in tens, twenties, thirties, forties, fifties and hundreds. Eventually, a very large army had gathered. Accompanied by several leading Sahabah $&&$&&, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Jg))<@e> proceeded to the camp one day. Although he saw an impressive number of men, he did not think that the number was adequate to fight the Romans. Turning to his companions, he asked, "What would you say if I send this number of men to Shaam?" Hadhrat Umar 3S3SS®si replied, "I do not think that this number is sufficient for the large Roman army." Turning to the others, Hadhrat Abu Bakr W&®%> asked, "What do you men think?" they replied, "We second the opinion of Umar." Hadhrat Abu Bakr W8&&& then said, "Should I then rather not write to the people of Yemen, calling them to Jihaad and encouraging them with the rewards for Jihaad?" All his companions shared his opinion and said, "That is an excellent idea! Go ahead." Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sjt^SSeS then wrote the letter.

*فهل 434 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH &#gt; (Vol-1) The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr W@% to the People of Yemen calling them to Fight in Jihaad In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful From the Khalifah of Rasulullaah(to every Muslim and Mu'min of Yemen to whom this letter is read. Peace be to you. Before you all, I praise Allaah besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. Verily Allaah has made Jihaad obligatory for the Mu'mineen and has commanded them to Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy and exert themselves with their wealth and lives in Allaah's way. Jihaad is a greatly emphasised obligation and its rewards with Allaah are tremendous. We have prepared the Muslims to march in Jihaad against the Romans in Shaam. They have hastened to it with noble intentions and with great hopes of being rewarded. Therefore, O servants of Allaah, you should also hasten to that towards which they have hastened, ensuring that your intentions are good. You are assured one of two excellent virtues; either martyrdom or victory and booty. Remember that Allaah is not pleased with only words from His servants that are not accompanied by actions. Furthermore, Jihaad against the enemies of Islaam shall perpetuate until they accept the true Deen and accept the injunctions of the Qur'aan. May Allaah preserve your Deen for you, guide your hearts, purify your deeds and bless you with the rewards of those who wage Jihaad and who are steadfast." He praised Allaah, instructed them to march to Shaam and gave them the glad tidings that Allaah would grant them victory to the extent that they would even build Masaajid there. He said, "You should never think that you are going there for sport. Shaam is a land of plenty that has plenty of food for you so beware of developing pride fori swear by the Rabb of the Kabah that pride and boastfulness will certainly come to you. I advise you with ten things, so always keep them in mind. Never kill a helpless old man..." The Hadith continues further. You should never regard marching against the Persians as something difficult. We have already captured their fertile grounds and the best half of Iraq. We already have half of their kingdom and have caused them tremendous losses. Our people are bold against them and Inshaa Allaah we shall soon also have their remaining lands." Hadhrat Umar W8&8&& then stood up and said, "The region of Hijaaz is not your original homeland. You only stay where you can find some vegetation and it is only by that the people of Hijaaz manage to survive. Where are those Muhaajireen who were always leaping towards the promises of Allaah? March to the lands that Allaah has promised in His Book that He would make you inherit. Allaah has declared: 'To make it (Islaam) dominate over all other religions.' *" Allaah shall therefore make His Deen dominate, give honour to those who assist His Deen and make its adherents the inheritors of (the territories) all nations. Where are the righteous servants of Allaah then?" The first to respond was Hadhrat Abu Ubayd bin Mas'ood, followed by either Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd or Hadhrat Saleet bin Qais it&i%&$. When the party gathered, Hadhrat Umar S3! i$©g> was told to appoint someone from the senior Muhaajireen and Ansaar as their commander. However, Hadhrat Umar 5$})2@ie> said, "By Allaah! I shall not do this. Allaah only gives status on account of your eagerness and enthusiasm to fight the enemy. Therefore, should you shrink away and dislike meeting the enemy, then the most deserving of leadership will be he who was the first to come forward and respond to the call. By Allaah! I shall appoint as commander only he who was the first to respond." Hadhrat Umar WGSt&$ then summoned Hadhrat Abu Ubayd, Hadhrat Saleet and Hadhrat Sa'd &S)2@g> and said (to Hadhrat Saeet and Sa'd #&i&@ft), "If you two had beaten him, I would have appointed you as commander and you would have deserved it because you are Muslims longer." Hadhrat Umar &&$&& then appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubayd as commander of the army and said to him, "Listen to the Sahabah 't&&$m of Rasulullaah{^^ and consult with them. However, when they express reluctance and others do what they had been doing, then those who are prepared to march when heavy or light become more deserving. By Allaah! (2) Hadhrat Umar ^{*ffE3j«5@*f} Consults with the Sahabah ^{$B0@e>} Concerning a Military Offensive Against the Persians Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez says that when the news of the martyrdom of Hadhrat Abu Ubayd bin Mas'ood reached Hadhrat Umar ^{W$®&i>} and he learnt that the Persians aligned behind someone from the family of the Kisra, he had an announcement (of Jihaad) made amongst the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar (and instructed them to meet at a place called Siraar). Hadhrat Umar ^{3S3E35a!se>} left for Siraar and sent Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah ^{SP®s>} ahead to a place called Ahwas. He then appointed Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ^{JSSS©®} as commander of the army's right flank, Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam ^{S&PiSSeS} as commander of the left flank and appointed Hadhrat Ali ^{W&&6} as his deputy in Madinah. However, Hadhrat Umar ^{S3,l^@^} did not consult with them before reaching Siraar and before Hadhrat Talha ^{JgJ!®©} had returned (from Ahwas). When Hadhrat Umar ^{SIS®?)} consulted with the eminent Sahabah ^{'8S&8&&}, Hadhrat Talha ^{%f%$&*>} also expressed the same opinion as the others (to march against the Persians) but Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ^{&&&&} was against the idea. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ^{&&$&?>} said, "After the demise of Rasulullaah ^{&iljii}, I have never before this day and shall never afterwards say that I shall sacrifice my parents for anyone. However, now I say that may my parents be sacrificed for you (O Ameerul Mu'mineen)! Leave this matter to me. You remain in Madinah and send out an army. I have noticed that the decree of Allaah has always been in favour of your armies. The defeat of your army is not (as demoralising) as your defeat. I fear that if you are martyred or defeated in battle, the Muslims (will be so demoralised that they) will never again cry out 'Allaahu Akbar' or recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'." Hadhrat Umar ^{S3)3®9} (accepted this opinion and) was looking for a commander (1) Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol. 4 Pg.61). (2) Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol. 4 Pg.61).

When Hadhrat Umar asked those with him to suggest who should command the army, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said, 'You have just found him.' 'Who is he?' asked Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan replied, 'He is the clawed and valiant lion Sa'd bin Maalik.' The other members of the consultative assembly agreed. Hadhrat Uthmaan Encourages People Towards Jihaad Hadhrat Abu Saalih who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan narrates that he heard Hadhrat Uthmaan saying from the pulpit, 'O people! I had kept secret from you a Hadith that I had heard from Rasulullaah fearing that you would disperse from around me (and proceed in Jihaad). I then decided to mention it to you so that each person may decide to do as he pleases. I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A single day spent guarding the borders (of the Muslim state) for the pleasure of Allaah is better than a thousand other days spent at other places'.' (2) Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Thaabit bin Abdullaah bin Zubayr narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan mentioned the following in a sermon from the pulpit: 'I intent narrating to you a Hadith that I had heard from Rasulullaah. All that prevented me from narrating it to you previously was to keep you behind with me (here in Madinah to tend to the affairs of the capital city). I heard Rasulullaah say, 'A single day spent guarding the borders (of the Muslim state) for the pleasure of Allaah is better than a thousand other days spent in salaah coupled with days spent fasting'.' (3) Hadhrat Ali Encourages People Towards Jihaad Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that Hadhrat Ali once stood up to address the people. He said, 'All praises belong to Allaah Who when He crushes something, none can mend it and when He wants something to remain intact, none can smash it. If Allaah wills, no two persons would have a quarrel and the Ummah would never dispute any of His laws. Similarly, if He wills, no underling would reject the virtue of his superiors. Fate has drawn us and the others to this place. Allaah sees and hears us and if He wills, He could hasten our punishment. Allaah controls change and has the power to expose the oppressor and make it known where the truth lies. Nevertheless, Allaah has made this world a place of actions and has made the Akhirah a place to live forever. On the Day of Judgment (the Day of Resurrection) I will call you to account for what you did in this world.'

Fight them with determination and caution and remain staunch." Hadhrat Ali (r) then turned and left. (1) Hadhrat Ali (r) Encourages the Muslims During the Battle of Siffeen Hadhrat Abu Amra Ansaari narrates that when giving courage to the Muslims during the Battle of Siffeen, Hadhrat Ali (r) said, "Allaah has shown you a trade which will save you from a painful punishment and take you closer to all goodness; (the trade is) Imaan in Allaah and His Rasool and Jihaad in the path of Allaah Whose mention is most high. Allaah has determined that the rewards for this shall be forgiveness from Allaah and wonderful mansions in the eternal Jannah. Allaah has also informed you that He loves those who fight (the enemies of Islaam) in His path (standing) in rows (in front of the enemy with steadfastness and unity) as if they are a solid building. You should therefore straighten your rows like a solid building. Those wearing armour should be in front and those without armour should fall behind. Then persevere with tenacity." (3) Hadhrat Ali (r) Encourages the Muslims to Fight the Khawaarij Hadhrat Abul Wadaak Hamdaani narrates that when Hadhrat Ali (r) camped at a place called Nukhayla (close to Kufa) and had lost hope in the Khawaarij, he stood up (to address the people). After praising Allaah, he said, "He who discards Jihaad and compromises the laws of Allaah, borders on the fringe of destruction unless Allaah rescues him by His grace. Fear Allaah and fight those who oppose Allaah, who attempt to extinguish the light of Allaah, who are in error, deviant, oppressive and sinful, they are not proficient in reciting the Qur'aan, have no understanding of the Deen, have no knowledge of interpreting the Qur'aan and are not even long in the Deen that they could be worthy of Khilaafah. By Allaah! If they become your rulers, they will rule you in the way that Kisra and Heraclius ruled. Prepare well for your march against your enemies from the West. I have sent a message to your brothers from Basrah to come to (assist) you. Inshaa Allaah, we shall all march together (against the Khawaarij) as soon as they arrive. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $$$$ (Vol-1) 439 Hadhrat Ali S^@f> delivers a lecture Concerning the Reluctance of the Muslims to March in Jihaad Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that in his first address to the Muslims after the Battle Nahrwaan, Hadhrat Ali '&&&% said, "O people! Prepare to march against the enemy in a Jihaad that will draw you close to Allaah and secure a great status for you near Him. They are people who are confused about the truth, know nothing about the Qur'aan, are far from the Deen, are bewildered in rebellion and have fallen headlong into the abyss of deviation. Prepare (to use in battle) against them whatever forces of strength (weapons) you can muster, as well as trained horses. Trust in Allaah for Allaah suffices as Defender and Allaah suffices as Helper." When the people failed to march and to prepare, Hadhrat Ali Wffi&$ left them alone for a few days. Eventually, when he lost hope that they would prepare, he summoned their leaders and influential people. When Hadhrat Ali Jg3!i5@e> asked them for their opinions and about what it was that caused them to procrastinate, some of them complained of illness while others excused themselves on account of some pressing circumstances. Only a few of them were willing. Hadhrat Ali S3!a@e> then stood up to deliver a lecture. He said, "O servants of Allaah! What is the matter with you that you cling to the ground when you are commanded to march? Do you prefer the life of this world to that of the Aakhirah? Do you prefer humiliation and dishonour over respect? Each time I call you to wage Jihaad, your eyes start to turn like a person in the throes of death. It then seems as if your hearts have lost their senses, leaving you without any understanding and as if your eyes have been blinded so that you see nothing. By Allaah! When there is comfort and luxury, you are like the lions of the Shira forest but wjtfe you are called towards battle, you become sly foxes. I have permanently lost confidence in you people. You are not the type of horsemen with whom an attack can be launched neither people of nobility with whom refuge can be sought. I swear by Allaah that you people are the worst and most incompetent in battle. The plots of the enemy are sure to succeed against you whereas your strategies would be useless against them. Your limbs are being severed and you cannot defend each other. Your enemies are not asleep whereas you are oblivious. A fighter is vigilant and intelligent whereas one who bows to a truce becomes humiliated. Those who fight amongst themselves are soon defeated and defeated people are suppressed and looted." Hadhrat Ali JS3.12@ continued, "You should now understand that I have rights over you just as you have rights over me. Your rights over me are that I should be your well-wisher as long as I am with you, that I should increase your shares of booty, that I should educate you so that you do not remain ignorant and that I should teach you etiquette and manners so that you are able to learn. Hadhrat Ali W$&f replied by saying, "Farfetched, O son of Umm Zulaym! I swear by Allaah that I would do this if I knew that I am permitted to compromise the Deen of Allaah. In fact, this would cause me less trouble. The Speech of Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr &&&® during the Battle of Qadisiyyah Thereafter, Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr &^&» stood up and said, "Allaah has subjected the people of this land (of Iraq) to you for the past three years and the harm you have done to them (in weakening their military strength) is more than the harm they have caused to you. You are now in a position of superiority and Allaah shall remain with you on condition that you are steadfast and use your swords and spears properly. You will then have possession of their wealth, their women, their children and their country. On the other hand, if you weaken and become cowardly - may Allaah protect you from this - their large army shall not leave a single survivor from amongst you for fear that you would return to destroy them. Fear Allaah! Fear Allaah and remember the previous battles in which Allaah had blessed you. Do you not look back to the land (of Arabia) behind you that is barren without any vegetation. 442 : THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Umar for Jihaad and His Statement that Jihaad is Better than Hajj Hadhrat Umar is reported to have said, "I would have preferred to meet Allaah had it not been for three things; for walking in the path of Allaah, for placing my head on the sand in prostration before Allaah and for sitting in the company of people who choose their words just as the best dates are selected." Hadhrat Umar is also reported to have said (to the people), "Ensure that you perform Hajj for it is a virtuous deed that Allaah has commanded. However, Jihaad is even more virtuous." The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar for Jihaad Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar once said, "When I was brought before Rasulullaah to participate in the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah thought that I was too young and did not accept me. I had never experienced no night like that night. Because Rasulullaah did not accept me (to fight in Jihaad), I did not sleep a wink, was overcome with grief and wept incessantly. When I was brought before him the following year and Rasulullaah accepted me, I praised Allaah for it." Someone then asked him, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Did you people turn back on the day the two armies met (during the Battle of Uhud)?" "Yes," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, "but Allaah forgave all of us, and all thanks are due to Him." When the man entered the treasury and found gold and silver, he asked, "What is all this? I need none of this. All I require are provisions for a journey and transport." The people took the man back to Hadhrat Umar and informed him about what he had said. Hadhrat Umar then issued instructions that the man should be provided with provisions and transport. (When these were brought) Hadhrat Umar himself tied the saddle to the animal. After mounting the animal, the man raised his hands (in du'aa) and praised Allaah for the treatment he received and for what Hadhrat Umar had given him. When the two men left the presence of Hadhrat Umar, Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam said to Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr, "Did you see how we were treated?" Hadhrat Suhayl replied, "Dear man! We should not blame Hadhrat Umar, but should blame ourselves. When those people were invited to accept Islaam, they were quick to do so while we procrastinated." When the Muhajireen and Ansaar had left Hadhrat Umar, the two men approached him and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We noticed what you did today and realise that is was due to our own shortcomings. However, is there any way in which we could gain the status we have not been able to achieve?" Hadhrat Umar said to them, "I know of no other way but in that direction." He then pointed towards the Roman borders (where the Muslims were waging Jihaad against the Romans). The two men then left for Shaam, where they both passed away. The Statement of Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr to the Leaders over Whom Hadhrat Umar had Given preference to the Early Muhajireen Hadhrat Hasan narrates that several persons came to the door of Hadhrat Umar. Amongst them were Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr, Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb and other prominent leaders of the Quraysh. Hadhrat Umar's doorkeeper came out and allowed inside those Sahabah who participated in the Battle of Badr such as Hadhrat Suhayb, Hadhrat Bilaal and Hadhrat Ammaar. Hadhrat Hasan says, "I swear by Allaah that Hadhrat Umar had himself participated in the Battle of Badr. He loved those who participated in the Battle of Badr and always advised others to show preference to them. Abu Sufyaan said, "I have never before seen a day like today! He allows these slaves to enter without paying any attention to us sitting there." Hadhrat Hasan narrates further by saying, "Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr responded to him. What an excellent and intelligent man he was! He said, 'O people! By Allaah! I see the expressions on your faces. If you are angry, be angry with yourselves. You were also invited to accept Islaam when these people were invited. However, they were quick to respond while you procrastinated. Listen well! I swear by Allaah that the virtue (of accepting Islaam early) by which they (1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 445 have excelled ahead of you is a greater loss to you than their beating you to this door (of the Ameerul Mu'mineen) for which you are competing." Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr then continued to say, "As you see, these men have beaten you and I swear by Allaah that you have no way of reaching the status that they have to beat you. You should therefore look towards waging jihaad and hold tightly to it. Perhaps Allaah shall bless you with the honour of (waging sincere) Jihaad and martyrdom." Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr then stood up, dusted his clothing and proceeded to Shaam. Hadhrat Hasan "S^M^> added, "Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr had spoken the truth. By Allaah! When he reached an elevated spot of Bat'haa or somewhere close to it, he stopped and the people around him also stopped. They were all weeping. Seeing the sorrow of the people, he said, "O people! I swear by Allaah that I am not leaving because I love myself more than you nor because I prefer another city to yours. However, when islaam came, there were many men of the Quraysh who left (Makkah and left in Jihaad) for the sake of Islaam even though they were not from amongst the prominent people of the Quraysh nor from its nobility. Tabraani has also narrated this report in brief and Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.350) has commented on the chain of narrators.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 447 bin Hafs all narrate from their fathers that Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) once approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) saying, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah (s) I have heard Rasulullaah (s) say that the best deed of the Mu'mineen is Jihaad in the path of Allaah. I have therefore decided to guard the borders for the pleasure of Allaah until I die." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) responded by saying, "O Bilaal! I plead to you in the name of Allaah and for the sake of my honour and the rights I have (not to leave me). My age has advanced, my strength has weakened and my death is near." Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) therefore stayed with Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra). After Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) had passed away, Hadhrat Umar (ra) gave Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) a similar reply (when he requested to proceed in Jihaad). However, Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) refused to accept the reply. Hadhrat Umar (ra) then asked, "Who then (will call out the Adhaan)?" Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) replied, "Leave it to Sa'd, for he also called out the Adhaan in Quba during the time of Rasulullaah (s)." Hadhrat Umar (ra) then appointed Hadhrat Sa'd (ra) to call out the Adhaan and decided that his progeny after him should call out the Adhaan. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem Taymi narrates that after the demise of Rasulullaah (s), Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) called out the Adhaan before Rasulullaah (s) was buried. The people in the Masjid started to weep uncontrollably when he called out the words: "Ashadu an la ilaha illa Allah, Muhammadun rasulu Allah." After Rasulullaah (s) was buried and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) asked Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) to call out the Adhaan, Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) said, "if you had freed me so that I should always remain with you, then it is alright (I shall do so). However, if you freed me for Allaah then leave me to the One for Whom you had freed me." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) made it clear that he had freed Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) solely for the pleasure of Allaah, Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) said, "I therefore prefer not to call out the Adhaan for anyone else after the demise of Rasulullaah (s)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) acknowledged this by saying, "The choice is yours." Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) then remained in Madinah until an army was leaving for Shaam. He then joined them to Shaam. Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib (ra) narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra) once ascended the pulpit on the day of Jumu'ah, Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) called for him. "At your service," replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra). Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) asked, "Did you free me for the pleasure of Allaah or for yourself?" "Only for Allaah's pleasure," was the reply. "Then," continued Hadhrat Bilaal (ra), "permit me to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah." With the permission of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (ra), Hadhrat Bilaal (ra) then left for Shaam where he passed away. (1) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.274) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg. 168) has also reported the narration. (2) Ibn Sa'd and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.150).

This was their interpretation of the verse: Proceed (in the path of Ailaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions) {Surah Taubah, verse 41 } ^ Hadhrat Abu Raashid Habraani cHSffliSy narrates that he once happened to meet Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad SJSSSs!® who was part of Rasulullaah&iSI's cavalry. Hadhrat Miqdaad JaS^SS© was sitting on a box which had no space left on it (because his weight had become uncontrollable). Someone said to him, "You should sit out the year without fighting in Jihaad (because of your ill health)." He replied by saying, "The verse of Surah Bu'hooth has come to us." He was referring to Surah Taubah. He continued, "Ailaah says: (i\ :>ljtJI hy») 4v&) fa* lf$) 'Proceed (in the path of Ailaah) when light or heavy' {Surah Taubah, verse 4 1 } I find myself to be light (and therefore have no excuse to remain behind)." *4) The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Talha *Wm in this Regard Hadhrat Anas S!&@8> narrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha ©)3@s> was reciting Surah (1) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.47). THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-D 449 Baraa'ah when he came to verse: 'Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy' {Surah Taubah, verse 41 } He said, "I have no doubts that our Rabb intends to encourage us to proceed (in Jihaad) whether we are young or old. O my sons. Prepare my provisions for the journey. Prepare my provisions for the journey." His sons said to him, "May Allah have mercy on you! You fought with Rasulullaah (ﷺ) until he passed away. Thereafter, you fought with Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) until he passed away and then with Hadhrat Umar (رضي الله عنه) until he passed away. Now let us fight on your behalf." "Never!" exclaimed Hadhrat Abu Talha (رضي الله عنه), "Just prepare my provisions." He then joined the naval expedition and passed away while at sea. It was only after seven days that an island could be found on which to bury him. When he was buried there, his body had not even started to decay. ^ The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (رضي الله عنه) in this Regard Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen (رحمته الله) has mentioned that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari (رضي الله عنه) was present at the Battle of Badr with Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Thereafter, apart from one year, he never missed a single military expedition. He sat out that year because a youngster had been appointed as commander of the army. However, after that year, he was always remorseful and would repeat three times, "I care not who is appointed as commander over me." He fell ill while with an army under the command of Yazeed bin Mu'aawiyah. When he came to see Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (رضي الله عنه), Yazeed asked, "Is there anything you need?" Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (رضي الله عنه) replied, "When I die, I want you to place my body on an animal and take me as far as you can into the land of the enemy. Eventually, when you are unable to take me any further, you may bury me." Consequently, after Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (رضي الله عنه) passed away, Yazeed had his body placed on an animal and took him as far as he could into enemy territory. When he could no longer take him along, he buried him and then left the area. Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (رضي الله عنه) used to recite the verse: Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy {Surah Taubah, verse 41 } Thereafter, he would say, "I always find myself to be either light or heavy (never being excused from marching in Jihaad)." (2) Hadhrat Abu Dhabyaan narrates from his teachers from Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari (رضي الله عنه) that he fell ill as he was on a military expedition during the rule (1) of 'Uthman

450 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (رضي الله عنه). When his illness worsened, he said to his companions, "Load me on an animal after I die and bury me beneath your feet when you stand in your rows in front of the enemy." They did as he requested. The narration still continues further. '*' Hadhrat Abu Dhabyaan also narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (رضي الله عنه) was on a military campaign under the command of Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya, he said, "Take me to enemy territory after I die and bury me beneath your feet wherever you clash with the enemy." Thereafter he said, "The person who dies without ascribing partners to Allaah shall enter jannah." *2' Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) forsakes the Luxuries of this world and Proceeds in the Path of Allaah. Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq (رضي الله عنه) narrates that it was a few days after Rasulullaah (ﷺ) had already left (for Tabook) that Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) returned home on an extremely hot day. He found his two wives beneath their shelters in his orchard. Each one of them had sprinkled water on their shelters and kept cold water for him together with food they had prepared. When he entered the orchard and stood at the door of a shelter, he saw his wives and what they had done for him. He then said, "Rasulullaah (ﷺ) is sweltering in the sun, hot winds and heat while Abu Khaythama is enjoying cool shade, prepared meals and beautiful wives as he remains with his wealth. This is not fair! I swear by Allaah that I shall not enter the shelter of any of you before meeting with Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Prepare my journey's provisions." They prepared the provisions and brought his camel. He saddled the camel and left in search of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) until he finally caught up when Rasulullaah (ﷺ) had set up camp in Tabook. Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) met up with Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab Jamahi (رضي الله عنه) on the road, who was also looking for Rasulullaah (ﷺ). The two rode together until they came close to Tabook. Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) then said to Hadhrat Umayr (رضي الله عنه), "Since I am at fault (for not joining the army earlier and have to meet Rasulullaah (ﷺ) as soon as possible), why do you not ride behind me (for you have no hurry) so that I may reach Rasulullaah (ﷺ) (first)." Hadhrat Umayr (رضي الله عنه) complied and when Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) drew close to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) in Tabook, the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) said, "Here comes a rider on the road." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "Let it be Abu Khaythama." The Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) then said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! By Allaah! It really is Abu Khaythama!" When Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) had made his camel sit down, he approached Rasulullaah (ﷺ). After he had greeted Rasulullaah (ﷺ), Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said to him, "Shame on you, O Abu Khaythama!" After Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) had explained the incident to Rasulullaah (ﷺ), (1) Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.404). (2) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.8 Pg.59). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.49) has also reported the narration.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 451 Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) commended him and prayed for him. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) says, "I was unable to march with Rasulullaah (عليه السلام). When I entered my orchard, I saw a shelter sprinkled with water and my wife. I then said, 'This is not fair! Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) is suffering in hot winds and heat while I am enjoying shade and luxury.' I then went to load my camel and took along some dates as my provisions. My wife called out, 'Where are you heading, O Abu Khaythama?' 'I am going to Rasulullaah (عليه السلام),' I replied." Narrating further, Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (رضي الله عنه) says, "I then left to find Rasulullaah (عليه السلام). On the road Umayr bin Wahab met me. I said to him, 'You are a brave man (and have nothing to fear being alone). I know where Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) is and I am at fault (for not joining the army sooner). Do ride behind me so that I may meet Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) alone.' Umayr did as I bid and as I set sight on the Muslim army, they also spotted me. Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) said, 'Let it be Abu Khaythama.' I approached Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) and said, 'I had almost destroyed myself, O Rasulullaah (عليه السلام)!' After narrating my story to him, Rasulullaah (عليه السلام) had good words to say and made du'aa for me." ^ The Grief of the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) When they did not have the Ability to Go Out in the Path of Allaah or to Spend in the Path of Allaah The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Layla (رضي الله عنه) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal (رضي الله عنه) *MS2 Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq says that the report reached him that Hadhrat Ibn Yaameen Nasri (رضي الله عنه) once met Hadhrat Abu Layla (رضي الله عنه) *gjl£

He would then make a du'aa for me that would reach the Day of Qiyaamah (and benefit me then)." After Rasulullaah had completed the salaah, the man came forward to greet him. Rasulullaah asked, "Do you know how far ahead your companions have gone?" "Yes," replied the Sahabi, "They are ahead of me by half a day." Of course, I did miss the Battle of Badr, but no one was reprimanded for missing that expedition because Rasulullaah(!g^f had only intended to intercept a caravan of the Quraysh, after which Allaah brought the Muslims and their enemy together without any prearrangement. I was present on the night that the Pledge of Aqaba took place with Rasulullaah^if. This was the night that we pledged our allegiance to Islaam. I would not like to exchange that night for being at the Battle of Badr even though the Battle of Badr is more popularly spoken about amongst people. This is my story: I was never more healthier or more financially prosperous than the time when I missed the (Tabook) expedition with Rasulullaah(Ji$. I had never before owned two animals as I had at the time of the expedition. Until this expedition took place, it was always the practice of Rasulullaah@i? to conceal the destination and make it seem that he was heading in a different direction. When RasulullaahfSii intended to march on this expedition, the heat was extreme, the journey was long and across barren land and the enemy were large in number. Rasulullaah(S$| therefore disclosed the matter to the Muslims so that they could make proper preparations for the expedition. He informed the Muslims exactly where he intended marching. The Muslims marching with Rasulullaah@i!f were so many that a single register could not contain their names. In fact, anyone who intended absenting himself knew that his absence would not be noted unless Allaah sent revelation about it. RasulullaahfcSJH left on this expedition at a time when the date crop and the shade was most appealing (because the dates were ripe for the picking and the intense heat drew everyone towards the shade). However, the Muslims started their preparations along with RasulullaahfS?J$. Each morning I left to start my preparations with the other Muslims but returned home every time without doing anything, telling myself that I have the means to prepare (and can even do so at short notice). This procrastination continued until others had prepared in earnest and the morning arrived when Rasulullaah^Si? marched with the Muslims. By then I had still not yet made any preparations but told myself that I would get ready in a day or two and then catch up with them. After they had left, I started the morning with the intention of making preparations, but returned home without accomplishing anything. The next morning was the same and again I (1) Ibn Raahway and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.289).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 455 returned home without accomplishing anything. This continued happening to me and the Muslims marched very fast until every chance of catching up with the expedition was lost. I had a firm resolve to ride out to meet them and wish that I had. However, I was never destined to do so. When I walked amongst the people after Rasulullaah (ﷺ) had left, it saddened me greatly to see only people whose hearts were tainted by hypocrisy or ailing people whom Allaah had excused (staying behind). Rasulullaah (ﷺ) made no mention of me until the Muslims had reached Tabook. As he was sitting amongst the others at Tabook, he asked, "What has happened to Ka'b?" Someone from the Banu Salma tribe commented, 'O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! His fine clothing (wealth) has obstructed him.' Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (رضي الله عنه) interjected by saying, 'You have made a terrible statement! O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! I swear by Allaah that we only know him to be an excellent person.' Rasulullaah (ﷺ) remained silent." Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik (رضي الله عنه) continues to narrate, "When the news reached me that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was returning, I became worried and started thinking of false excuses. I asked myself what I could do to avert the anger of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and I also sought advice from every wise person of my family. When the news arrived that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) was about arriving, all false excuses vanished from my mind and I knew that I could never come out of the situation with anything connected to lies. I therefore resolved to tell Rasulullaah (ﷺ) the truth. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) arrived and according to his normal practice after returning from a journey, he proceeded to the Masjid where he performed two Raka'ahs of salaah. He then sat to meet with people. As Rasulullaah (ﷺ) did this, those who stayed behind started approaching him and to present their excuses. They numbered eighty odd men and even took oaths before Rasulullaah (ﷺ) (to substantiate their excuses). Rasulullaah (ﷺ) accepted their excuses at face value, renewed their pledges of allegiance and sought Allaah's forgiveness on their behalf. He then handed over the inner details of their affairs to Allaah. When I approached Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and greeted him with Salaam, he smiled the smile of an angry person and said, 'Do come forward.' I walked to him and sat in front of him. He asked, 'What kept you behind? Had you not already purchased your conveyance?' I responded by saying, 'That's true. By Allaah! Had I been sitting before someone other than you from amongst worldly men, I would have certainly escaped your anger by making some excuse because I have been given the ability to present convincing arguments. However, I swear by Allaah that if I lie to you today and manage to secure your pleasure, the time will soon come when Allaah shall make you angry with me. On the other hand, if I tell you the truth and you become angry with me, I have strong hopes of Allaah's forgiveness. I swear by Allaah that I really had no excuse. By Allaah! I was never more healthier or more financially prosperous than the time when I missed the expedition.'

RasulullaahSi^ said, 'At least this man had spoken the truth. You may leave (and wait) until Allaah decides your matter.'

 ■■■■ ■- j! ' ■'■■'■■ ■—■■ As I stood up, some men from the Banu Salma tribe (to which I belonged) also stood up and followed me. They said to me, 'By Allaah! We have never known you to commit a sin before this!
 Could you not make an excuse like the others who stayed behind had made excuses? The forgiveness that Rasulullaah&JiSli would have sought on your behalf should have then sufficed for our sin.' They kept scolding me in this manner so much that I actually made up my mind to return to Rasulullaah{j| ^ and deny whatever I had told him. I then asked them, 'Has anyone else experienced the same treatment as I have?1 They replied, Yes. Two others said what you did and received the same reply you received.' 'Who are they?' I asked. 'Muraarah bin Rabee Amri and Hilaal bin Umayyah Waaqifl,' came the reply. The two men they named were two righteous men who had participated in the Battle of Badr and who made excellent examples to follow. I therefore went on my way when they mentioned these two names to me. RasulullaahfiSlif subsequently prevented people from speaking only to the three of us as opposed to the others who had missed the expedition.
 People avoided us and ignored us so much so that even the earth seemed like a different place to me. It was not the same place I had been used to.
 We remained in this condition for fifty days. My two companions became helpless and confined themselves to their homes, weeping excessively.
 Since I was the youngest and most daring of us, I used to go out and join the Muslims for salaah. I even walked about in the marketplace but no one spoke to me. When Rasulullaahfi^ sat in gatherings after salaah, I would approach him and greet him with Salaam. I would then ask myself whether his lips moved in reply to my Salaam or not. I also performed salaah close to Rasulullaah(£S$S and steal a glance at him. I noticed that whenever I was engaged in salaah, he looked at me and would avert his glance as soon as I turned towards him. The time eventually arrived when the attitude of the people became too much to bear, I walked to the orchard of Abu Qataadah and scaled the wall. He was my cousin and my closest friend. I swear by Allaah that he did not even reply to my Salaam when I greeted him. I protested by saying, 'O Abu Qataadah! I ask you in the name of Allaah to tell me whether I have love for Allaah and His Rasool{$SI8$?' When he gave no reply, I repeated the question and again asked in the name of Allaah. He remained silent. Yet again, I repeated myself and took the name of Allaah. All he said was, 'Allaah and RasulullaahSSS know best.' My eyes welled with tears and I turned around to again scale the wall." Continuing with the story, Hadhrat Ka'b JS3S&&& says, "As I was walking in the marketplace one day, I heard the voice of a farmer from the farmers of Shaam who had come to Madinah to sell his grains. He was announcing, 'Who will show me where is Ka'b bin Maalik?' As the people pointed him in my direction, he handed over to me a letter from the king of Ghassaan (wrapped in a silken cloth). The letter read:
 The news has reached me that your master is being harsh towards you.

Allaah has not made you a lowly and ruined person, join forces with us and we shall

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH ftgjBSggi (Vol-1) 457 honour you.' After reading the letter, I said to myself, 'This is part of the test.' I then went to an oven where I burnt the letter, when forty of the fifty days had passed, a messenger of Rasulullaah (SiSi suddenly came to me with the message that I was to separate from my wife. 'Should I divorce her?' I asked. 'No,' he replied, 'Just be separated from her and do not go near her.' The same message was sent to my two companions. I then said to my wife, 'Go to your family and stay with them until Allaah decides this matter.' The wife of Hadhrat Hilaal bin Umayyah JSJ^S® approached Rasulullaah^lSif and pleaded, 'O Rasulullaah{ fi!if! Hilaal bin Umayyah is an extremely old and helpless man who has no servant. Would you object if I serve him?' 'No,' replied RasulullaahUI^, 'Just ensure that he has no intimate relations with you.' She commented, 'By Allaah! He has no inclination to do anything. By Allaah! He has wept continuously since this affair started and continues to do so.'" Hadhrat Ka'b J&DS&Ss) continues, "Some of my family members advised me to also request that my wife stays to serve me as Hilaal bin Umayyah 5s3)2S@» had requested permission. I told them that I would never seek such permission from Rasulullaah^^ for I do not know what reply Rasulullaah(S$i? would give me as a young man (who can care for himself). I then remained in this condition (without my wife) for ten days until full fifty nights had passed since Rasulullaah^^ banned others from speaking to us. After performing the Fajr salaah on the morning of the fiftieth night, I was still on the roof of my house and sitting there in the condition that Allaah describes in the Qur'aan (in verse 118 of Surah Taubah); the earth had narrowed for me despite its vastness (I could find no place to hide myself) and my own soul had narrowed for me (I had become frustrated with myself). It was then that I heard the voice of a caller who had climbed to the top of Mount Sala. He announced at the top of his voice, 'Rejoice, O Ka'b!' I immediately fell prostrate in Sajdah for I knew that relief had arrived. After performing the Fajr salaah, RasulullaahiS^f had announced to the people that Allaah had accepted our repentance. Many people came to congratulate us and went to congratulate my two companions. As someone (Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam JS»2fflSi) spurred his horse to reach me, a man from the Banu Aslam (Hadhrat Hamzah bin Amr Aslami Jf|2®!8>) tribe rushed to climb the hill and his voice was faster than the horse. When the person whose voice I had heard came to me, I took off the two sheets of cloth I was wearing and gave them to him (in thanks) for the good news he had given me. I swear by Allaah that I had no other clothes besides this at the time. I therefore borrowed some clothes and went to Rasulullaah(Ji^. Drove of people came to congratulate me on my repentance saying, 'Congratulations! Allaah has accepted your repentance.' When I eventually reached the Masjid, RasulullaahSJSSf was sitting there surrounded by people. It was Talha bin Ubaydillaah ©S2s33isi who stood up and rushed towards me to shake my hands and to congratulate me. By Allaah! No towards the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar who followed him in the hour of difficulty (to Tabook) after the hearts of some of them were almost shaken (causing them to hesitate). Without doubt, He is Most Compassionate and Most Merciful towards them (by blessing them with steadfastness and safety from Allaah except (in turning) towards Him. Then Allaah turned towards them (in mercy) so that they (could)

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol- 1) 459 turn to Him (in repentance). Indeed Allaah is Most Pardoning, Most Merciful. O you who have Imaan! Fear (the punishment of) Allaah (by doing good and abstaining from sin) and stay (associate) with the truthful. {Surah Taubah, verses 117-119} I swear by Allaah that after guiding me to Islaam, Allaah has not granted me a greater blessing than making me speak the truth to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) rather than lying, thereby causing me to be destroyed like those who had lied. When Allaah sent revelation, he used the worst of terms for those who had lied than for anyone else. Allaah states: '... وَاُولَٰئِكَ يَلْعَنُهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَيَلْعَنُهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَيَلْعَنُهُمُ اللّٰهُ' When you (O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)) return to them (the Munaafiqeen) shortly (in Madinah) they will swear before you by Allaah (that they had valid reasons for not accompanying you), so that you may leave them alone (and do not admonish them). Pay no attention to them! They (their beliefs and actions) are impure! Their abode shall be Jahannam as a punishment for what (evil deeds) they earned. They swear (oaths) before you (O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)) so that you may be pleased with them. (However,) Even if you are pleased with them, Allaah is certainly not pleased with the disobedient ones (Muslims should therefore not maintain close ties with such people). {Surah Taubah, verses 95,96} The matter of the three of us was postponed until after the matter of those whose excuses Rasulullaah (ﷺ) accepted. When they swore oaths before Rasulullaah (ﷺ), he renewed their pledges of allegiance and sought Allaah's forgiveness for them. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then postponed our matter until Allaah had passed judgement. It is with reference to this that Allaah says: And Allaah (has also turned in mercy towards) the three whose matter was postponed. . . {Surah Taubah, verse 118} In this verse, Allaah is not referring to our staying behind from the expedition but to the postponement of our case after deciding the case of the others who had sworn oaths before Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and who had made excuses that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) accepted. (1) (1) Bukhari, Muslim and Ibn Is'haaq. Ahmad has also reported the narration with some additions, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 5 Pg.23). Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee have also reported the narration in parts and with more brevity and Tirmidhi has reported a part of the beginning. These are quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.366). Bayhaqi (Vol. 9 Pg.33) has also reported the narration in detail.

460 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH '§&&&& (Vol-1) A Warning to Those who Forsake Jihaad to remain with their Families and Wealth Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob W$8$%>s Interpretation of the Verse: "and do not throw your own hands into destruction" Hadhrat Abu Imraan W&&& narrates that they were in Constantinople with Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir JDJjb®* as the commander of the Egyptian forces and Hadhrat Fudhala bin Ubayd W&&9 as commander of the forces from Shaam. When an extremely large Roman army marched from Constantinople, the Muslims formed their rows to face them. One of the Muslims assaulted the Roman army so tenaciously that he penetrated their ranks and then returned to his own ranks. The other Muslims shouted at him saying, "Subhaanallaah! He is throwing himself into destruction by his own hands." It was then that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari JsSStgi© a Sahabi of Rasulullaah^gi stood up and said, "O people! You people are interpreting this verse in this manner whereas it was actually revealed with reference to us the Ansaar community, when Allaah gave strength to Islaam and there were many people to assist its cause, we said to each other without the knowledge of RasulullaahiJI^, 'Our fields have been destroyed (out of neglect). We should therefore stay in Madinah to repair the damage done. In response to what we had intended, Allaah revealed the verse: (Wo :<jf*Jt 3jj*i) ^Q) ^^JLmJmJI Spend in the path of Allaah and do not throw (do not lead yourselves) into destruction by (the doing of) your own hands. {Surah Baqara, verse 195} The destruction referred to is our staying behind (in Madinah) to tend to our fields, as we had intended to do." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari JsJJSSffiig thereafter instructed the others to fight and remained fighting in the path of Allaah until Allaah took him away. W In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Imraan narrates that when they were attacking the city of Constantinople under the leadership of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin , Khaalid bin Waleed, the Romans had their backs against the walls of the city. As one of the Muslim soldiers courageously attacked the enemy, the others shouted, "Stop! Stop! Laa Ilaaha Illallaah! He is throwing himself into destruction by his own hand." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari WH20&6 then said, "That verse was revealed with reference to us the Ansaar community. When Allaah's assistance came to His NabiOiSS and Islaam became dominant, we said, 'Let us stay in our fields and tend to them.' Allaah then revealed the verse: (1) Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.45).

Spend in the path of Allaah and do not throw (do not lead yourselves) into destruction by (the doing of) your own hands. {Surah Baqara, verse 195} The destruction by our own hands refers to staying behind in our fields and tending to them while neglecting Jihaad." Hadhrat Abu Imraan says that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ja3!2®» continued fighting in the path of Allaah until he was eventually buried in Constantinople. (1) Hadhrat Abu Imraan narrates that someone from amongst the Muhaajireen attacked the ranks of the enemy soldiers at Constantinople and actually penetrated them. To this, some people commented, "He is throwing himself into destruction by his own hand!" In the army was Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari SJSffiiw who then said, "We know this verse best for it was revealed with reference to us. We remained in the company of Rasulullaah®jii, fought many battles with him and were there to assist him. However, when Islaam spread and became dominant, we the Ansaar community gathered together for the love of Islaam and said, 'Allaah has honoured us with the companionship of Rasulullaah®$! and giving us the ability to assist him until Islaam has spread and its adherents have multiplied greatly. We had given preference to Islaam over our families, our wealth and our children and now that the wars have stopped, we should return to our families and children and tend to them. With reference to this, the verse was revealed: Spend in the path of Allaah and do not throw (do not lead yourselves) into destruction by (the doing of) your own hands. {Surah Baqara, verse 195} The destruction being referred to is staying with our families and properties and neglecting Jihaad." (2) Warnings to Those who Forsake Jihaad because of their Preoccupation with Farming Hadhrat Umar W&ffl&j Rebukes Hadhrat Abdullaah Anasi *£$5@g> Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Habeeb narrates that the news reached Hadhrat Umar (1) Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.99). 462 : THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Harr Anasi had started farming on his land in Shaam. Hadhrat Umar therefore took the land away from him and gave it to someone else saying, "You have taken the disgrace and humiliation from the necks of these prominent people and placed it on your neck." ^ Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas Rebukes a man who Neglected Jihaad Hadhrat Yahya bin Abi Amr shaybaani narrates that a group of people from Yemen once passed by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas (Wffl&t). They asked him, "What is your comment about a person who accepts Islaam in a most beautiful fashion, then undertakes Hijrah in a most perfect manner and also wages Jihaad most superbly. However, he then returns to his parents in Yemen to serve them and to care for them." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas asked them, "What is your comment on such a person?" They replied, "In our opinion, he has turned back on his heels." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas corrected them saying, "In fact, this person shall be in Jannah. Let me tell you of someone who has turned back on his heels. He is a man who accepts Islaam in a most beautiful fashion, then undertakes Hijrah in a most perfect manner and also wages Jihaad most superbly. However, he then goes to the land of a non-Muslim farmer in Shaam and takes over the land together with the Jizya that was being paid and the monthly quota of produce which is given to the Muslim state. Thereafter, he develops the land and forsakes Jihaad. This man is one who has turned back on his heels." (2) Moving Urgently in the Path of Allaah to Uproot Strife The Expedition of Muraysee Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah SJSSSS narrates that they (the Sahabah &&$»&) were once on an expedition when someone from the Muhaajireen punched another Sahabi from the Ansaar on the back. When the Ansaari called the other Ansaar for help, the Muhaajir called for the other Muhaajireen to help him as well. When Rasulullaah {fi$|f heard this, he exclaimed, "What are these calls of the Period of Ignorance?" When the Sahabah &3S3®!»gi informed Rasulullaah (i$|$| that a Muhaajir had punched an Ansaari, Rasulullaahf^^? said, "Forget these talks for they are foul-smelling."  *'' Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr W&8&& and Hadhrat Amr bin Thaabit Ansaari SJ3s@8) narrates that Rasulullaah#i# was on the expedition of Muraysee when he demolished the idol Manaaf that stood between Qafa Mushallal and the coast. Rasulullaah^i? had dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 'tgJ&Qgfe to destroy the idol. It was during the same expedition that two men started fighting with each other. The one belonged to the Muhaajireen while the other belonged to the Bahz tribe who were allies of the Ansaar.
 The man from the Muhaajireen had floored the man from the Bahz tribe and was on top of him when the man from the Bahz cried out, "O assembly of Ansaar!" When some members of the Ansaar came to his assistance, the Muhaajir called to the Muhaajireen for help. A few Muhaajireen responded.
 When a fight was about to break out between the group from the Ansaar and the group from the Muhaajireen, they were stopped. When this occurred, every Munaafiq and those with the disease (of hypocrisy) in their hearts went to Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool (the leader of the Munaafiqeen) saying, "We used to entertain hopes in you previously and you always used to defend us. However, you can no longer cause any harm nor any benefit. These Jalaabeeb have assisted each other against us." They referred to the new Muhaajireen as Jalaabeeb. Allaah's enemy Abdullaah bin Ubay responded by saying, "By Allaah! If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us (the people of Madinah) shall certainly exile the humiliated ones (the Muhaajireen)." Another Munaafiq by the name of Maalik bin Dukhshun commented, "Did I not tell you people not to spend on those who are with Rasulullaah@i? until they disperse." When Hadhrat Umar @l3@ei heard about this, he went to Rasulullaahf|$£ and said, "O Rasulullaah^Sil! Permit me to cut off the neck of that man who is causing Rasulullaah ﷺ left with the Sahabah ﷺ during the afternoon and travelled the entire day and night until the following afternoon. Rasulullaah ﷺ then set up camp and again left with the Sahabah ﷺ in the afternoon as he did previously until after the third day of travelling they reached Qafa Mushallal in the morning. When Rasulullaah ﷺ replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Had you killed him on that day, many of the Ansaar would have felt insulted (because the skirmish had just taken place in which the Ansaar were in a weaker position). However, if I issue the command today, even they would be prepared to execute him. (Had you killed him then) People would have said that I attack my own companions, take them out of their homes (in Jihaad) and then kill them after having them bound." It was with reference to this incident that Allaah revealed the verses: They (the Munaafiqeen) are the ones who said, "Do not spend on those with Rasulullaah ﷺ (the Muhaajireen) until they disperse (leave Madinah)!" (However, they fail to realise that Allaah can sustain people without them because) To Allaah belongs the treasures of the heavens and the earth but the hypocrites do not understand (this). They (the Munaafiqeen) say, "If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us (the people of Madinah) shall certainly exile the humiliated ones (the Muhaajireen)." (However, they fail to realise that it is the true Mu'mineen who are truly honourable because) All honour belongs to Allaah, His Rasool ﷺ and the Mu'mineen but the Munaafiqeen do not know it. {Surah Munaafiqoon, verses 7,8} Ibn Is'haaq has also reported the narration with the addition that Rasulullaah ﷺ travelled with the Sahabah ﷺ the entire day until the evening and throughout the night until the morning. They also travelled the following day until the sun hurt them. Rasulullaah ﷺ then set up camp and (because of exhaustion) they all fell sound asleep as soon as they touched the ground. Rasulullaah ﷺ did this so that the Sahabah ﷺ do not have the opportunity to discuss what had been said the previous day by Abdullaah bin (1) Ibn Abi Haatim. Ibn Katheer in his Tafseer ﷻ Pg.372) and Ibn Hajar in his Fat'hul Baari (Vol.fr Pg.458) have commented on the chain of narrators.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $SlE%Si?g> (Vol-1) 465 Ubay. Rebuking Someone Who had not Completed Forty Days in the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Zaid bin Abi Habeeb narrates that when a man once came to Hadhrat Umar iEU*®ei, Hadhrat Umar S5f@g> asked, "Where have you been?" "I have been guarding the borders," the man replied. Hadhrat Umar W&ft&j asked further, "How many days did you spend on guard?" "Thirty days," was the reply. Hadhrat Umar 3S3&®e> commented, "Why did you rather not complete forty days?"(,) Spending Three Periods of Forty Days in the path of Allaah The Incident of a Woman and the Decision of Hadhrat Umar &S&&& Hadhrat Ibn jurayj narrates that someone whom he regards to be a truthful person informed him that as Hadhrat Umar Wi*$$s?> was patrolling (the streets of Madinah), he overheard a woman saying: " The night is long and its ends have become dark I am unable to sleep because I have no beloved to fondle Were it not for fear of Allaah, which is something without a match every end of this bed would be shaken furiously" When Hadhrat Umar JgJIS^SsSgi asked her what the matter was, she replied, "My husband has been away for several months and I have great desire for him." H#dhrat Umar ©)f@8> asked, "Have you no evil intentions?" "Allaah forbid!" she exclaimed. Hadhrat Umar S!f®f> then said to her, "Control yourself for 1 shall sent a message to him." When Hadhrat Umar W&®&> had done this, he went to (his-daughter) Hadhrat Hafsa SP3®gi and asked, "I wish to ask you something that worries me, so do remove my worries from me. Tell me after how long a period does a woman start desiring for her husband?" Hadhrat Hafsa SfiSSoliig cast down her gazes out of modesty. Hadhrat Umar ©lf@g> said, "Verily Allaah does not shy away from the truth." She then motioned with her hands to indicate three months, otherwise four. Hadhrat Umar JsSSSBssi then wrote (to the governors of all the regions) that no army was to be kept away (from home) for more than four months. 2' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar S3S(@eS narrates Hadhrat Umar S$2®! se> once left the house at night. He then happened to overhear a woman recite the following couplet: (1) Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg.157). (2) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Lfmmaa/! }/o\,a Pg.308).

She replied, "Four to six months." Hadhrat Umar SSSfe' then said, "I shall then not keep an army (away from home) for more than this period." '' The Keenness of the Sahabah %&$&& to Encounter Dust in the Path of Allaah Rasulullaah^if Rebukes those who Disliked experiencing Dust While out in the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Rabee bin Zaid Sf3)3@0 narrates that while Rasulullaah(JS$l was once in the centre of the road, he noticed a youngster from the Quraysh walking off the road. When Rasulullaah(!l8Si took the youngster's name and asked whether it was he, the Sahabah $9$@$ confirmed that it was. Rasulullaah^li then asked the Sahabah $&&&& to call for him. Hadhrat Jaabir JiSSsSSs understood what Hadhrat Maalik SJiai®© wanted (that everyone should hear his reply) so he called out, "I have kept my animal in a good condition and require nothing from my people. However, (I am walking because) I have heard Rasulullaah&$i$ say that Allaah has forbidden Jahannam for the person whose feet become dusty in the path of Allaah." Hadhrat Abul Musabbih says, "At that instant all the people jumped off their animals and I have never (l)Bayhaqi(Vol.9Pg.29). When they stopped to set up camp, the heat was extreme and those with the most shade were those with shawls (who used their shawls to shade themselves). Others used their hands to shield themselves from the blazing sun. Those who were fasting fell to the ground while those who were not fasting stood up to pitch the tents and water the animals. Rasulullaah&jSSi commented, "Today those who are not fasting have taken all the rewards." (3) A narration of Bukhari states that those with the most shade with Rasulullaah $$$f were those who used their shawls to shade themselves. Whereas the fasting ones could do nothing, those who were not fasting sent the animals (for watering), exerted themselves to serve and did other tedious tasks. Rasulullaah Wt$t commented, "Today those who are not fasting have taken all the rewards." The Sahabah $&$$€> Serve a Man Engrossed in Reciting the Qur'aan and Performing Salaah Hadhrat Abu Qilaaba SIjSsSsS narrates that after returning from a journey, the Sahabah $&$$f were full of praise for one of their companions. They said, "We have not seen anyone like him. Whenever we traveled, he was busy reciting the Qur'aan and whenever we set up camp, he was engaged in salaah." RasulullaahflfSf asked, "Who did his errands for him?" Asking about several things, Rasulullaah^SI also asked, "who used to feed his animal?" When the others replied that they had been doing this, Rasulullaah^^ said, "Then all of you are better than him (because you have gained all his rewards by serving him)." <4> The Freed slave of Rasulullaahi^ Called Hadhrat Safeena W&@& Carries the Goods of the Sahabah »» Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jumhaan narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Safeena (1) Ibn Hibbaan and Abu Ya'la. (2) Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.396). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.286) and Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.126) have commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.162) has also reported the narration. Hadhrat Sa'eed asked. Hadhrat Safeena replied, "Rasulullahi once left on a journey with his Sahabah. When their goods became too heavy for them, Rasulullah said (to me), 'Spread out your shawl'. When I spread it out, Rasulullah tied up all the goods in it and placed it on me, saying, 'Carry this for you are Safeena (a ship).' Had Rasulullah loaded on me the load of not only one or two but five camels, it would not have been heavy for me." (1) The Incidents of Hadhrat Ahmar the Freed Slave of Hadhrat Ummu Sauna and Mujaahid with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Hadhrat Ahmaf who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Ummu Salma narrates that they were travelling with Rasulullah on an expedition when they passed by a stream. As Hadhrat Ahmar started transporting people across the stream, Rasulullah commented, "You are certainly a Safeena (a ship) today." (2) Hadhrat Mujaahid narrates, "I used to accompany Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar on his journeys. Whenever I would mount my animal, he would come and hold the stirrup and whenever I got on to the animal, he would put my clothes right. When he came to me once (to give me the same service) I expressed my annoyance. He then said, 'O Mujaahid! You have a very straitened personality.'" (3) Fasting While out in the path of Allaah and the Sahabah Fast During Extreme Heat While Out in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Abu Darda says, "I saw us on some journeys with Rasulullah during such extreme heat that people would place their hands over their heads because of the severity of the heat. None would be fasting then besides Rasulullah himself and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha." (4) Another narration states that this was during the month of Ramadhan. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri says, "We went on expeditions with Rasulullah: during the month of Ramadhan. Whilst some of us fasted, others did not. Neither would the fasting ones get upset with the non-fasting ones, nor would the non-fasting ones get upset with the fasting ones. Each one thought that if someone had the strength, he would fast and that was best for (1) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.369). (1) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama W&&& fasts during the Battle of Yamaamah Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ©12s@e> narrates that during the Battle of Yamaamah he approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin MakhramailM@8>, who was lying on the ground. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar &D&H&& stopped by him, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama Sl3@!se> asked him whether the time had come to break the fast. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar JsilSsSeS replied that the time had already come, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama WMffiOs said, "Fill some water in that wooden shield so that I may break my fast with it." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar W&@$& went to a pond which was brimming with water and used his leather shield to scoop up water to fill the wooden shield. However, when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sfi3@s> returned to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama JaS-SsSs, he found that he had already passed away. ^ The Fast of Hadhrat Atvf bin Abi Hayya and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar W&38& in this Regard Hadhrat Miidrik bin Awf Ahmis states that he was once with Hadhrat Umar S3)a@«9 when a messenger from Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin ©Jfi®2) arrived. When Hadhrat Umar &$$& asked him about the condition of the people, he mentioned those Muslims who had been martyred. He mentioned the names of the martyrs and added that there were many whom he did not recognise. Hadhrat Umar JiS^iSsi commented, "But Allaah knows them all." Some people then said that there was a person who had sold his soul. They were referring to Hadhrat Awf bin Abi Hayya Ahmisi, also known as Abu Shubayl. Hadhrat Mudrik bin Awf interjected by saying, "O Ameerul Mu'rnineen! These people are of the opinion that that uncle of mine threw himself into destruction." Hadhrat Umar SSSSaS^S replied, "They are wrong. In fact, he bought the Aakhirah in exchange for this world." Hadhrat Awf had been fasting on the day that he was wounded. He was still alive when he was removed from, the battlefield and refused to drink any water until he eventually passed away (in the state of fasting). '3 The Fast of Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari WS8&& In the chapter entitled "Enduring Thirst when Inviting People Towards Allaah and His Rasool l^i"4'; it has already been narrated from Hadhrat Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah &$$&?> who says, "Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari &H^& had participated (1) Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.356). • (2) Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.316), Ibn Abi Shayba and Bukhari in his Taareekh, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol. 2 Pg.366). 470 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) in the Battles of Badr, Uhud and the pledge at Aqaba. I once saw him fasting (on the battlefield), restless because of severe thirst. He asked his slave to pass to him his shield and when the slave did so, he fired an arrow which did not go far (because he had grown weak with thirst). When he had fired three arrows, he said that he had heard Rasulullaah (ﷺ) say, "Whoever fires an arrow in the path of Allaah, the arrow shall be a source of light for him on the Day of Qiyaamah whether it reaches its target or not." Hadhrat Abu Amr (رضي الله عنه) was martyred before sunset of that day. Performing Salaah While Out in the path of Allaah The Salaah of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) On the Night Before the Battle of Badr was Fought Hadhrat Ali (رضي الله عنه) says, "There was not a single horseman amongst us during the Battle of Badr besides Miqdaad (رضي الله عنه). I noticed that each one of us was asleep (the night before the battle) besides Rasulullaah (ﷺ). He was performing salaah beneath a tree and weeping until dawn broke." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) Performs Salaah in Usfaan Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (رضي الله عنه) narrates that they were with Rasulullaah (ﷺ) at a place called Usfaan when the Mushrikeen army under the command of Khaalid bin Waleed (رضي الله عنه) confronted them. The Mushrikeen army was positioned between the Muslims and the Qibla. When Rasulullaah (ﷺ) led the Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) in the Zuhrah salaah, the Mushrikeen said, "If only we had taken advantage of the state of obliviousness that they were in (during their salaah) and attacked them!" However, they consoled themselves by saying, "A salaah is approaching (the Asr salaah) that is more beloved to them than their children and even their own selves (we can attack them then)." However, between the Zuhrah and Asr salaahs, Hadhrat Jibra'eel (عليه السلام) came with the revelation of the following verses of the Qur'aan describing the Salaatul Khowf: (VT *LjJI Sjj^i) ^SjjLaII j>Lf c~«ilj >1-$li y^if lijijf When you (O Muhammad (ﷺ)) are with them (present with the Muslims on the battlefield) and you lead them in salaah... {Surah Nisaa, verse 102}(2) A narration of Muslim from Hadhrat Jaabir (رضي الله عنه) states that the Mushrikeen said, "There shall soon come a salaah which is more beloved to them than even their own children." 3 The Salaah of Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr (رضي الله عنه) In the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Jaabir (رضي الله عنه) narrates that they were accompanying Rasulullaah (ﷺ) to (1) Ibn Khuzayma, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.316). THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH %&&$&& (Vol-1) 471 a place called Nakhl during the expedition of Dhaatur Riqaa. It so happened that one of the Muslims killed (or captured) the wife of one of the Mushrikeen. The woman's husband had been away and only returned after Rasulullaah &$$# had left. When he was informed about what had happened, he took an oath that he would never rest until he spilt the blood of the companions of Rasulullaah &$. He therefore set off to follow the tracks of Rasulullaah {jf&f>. When Rasulullaah &0> set up camp, he asked, "Who shall stand guard over us tonight?" A volunteer from amongst the Muhaajireen and another from amongst the Ansaar stood up and said, "We shall do so, O Rasulullaah {JS$l!" Rasulullaah QHHmti gave them instructions to stand guard at the mouth of the valley. The two volunteers were Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir SMSSs and Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr 5sM@». When the two men reached the mouth of the valley, the Ansaari (Hadhrat Abbaad JJUlSS&i) said to the Muhaajir (Hadhrat Ammaar Wffi&Z), "For which part of the night would you like me to relieve you (as we take turns to keep watch)? Will it be the first part of the night or the second?" the Muhaajir replied, "Relieve me for the first part of the night." The Muhaajir then lay down to sleep as the Ansaari stood up to perform salaah. Subsequently, the man (who swore to spill the blood of the Muslims) arrived there and when he saw the silhouette (external shape) of a person, he took the Ansaari to be a spy and immediately fired an arrow which struck the Ansaari. The Ansaari removed the arrow from his body, threw it aside and continued standing (in salaah). The Mushrik fired another arrow which also struck the Ansaari. The Ansaari also removed this arrow from his body, threw it aside and continued1 standing (in salaah). When the Mushrik fired a third arrow which also struck the Ansaari, the Ansaari removed the arrow from his body, threw it aside and then completed his Ruku and Sajdah (and his salaah). He then awoke his companion saying, "Sit up because I have been incapacitated." The Muhaajireen jumped up and when the Mushrikeen saw the two of them, he realised that they had been alerted and he fled. When the Muhaajir saw the blood on the Ansaari, he exclaimed, "Subhaanallaahl Why did you not wake me up when he shot at you the first time?" the Ansaari replied, "I had started reciting a Surah and did not like to cut it short before completing it. However, when the firing persisted, I went into Ruku (completed my salaah) and informed you. I swear by Allaah that had it not been for (fear of) jeopardising the mouth of the pass that Rasulullaah (JSsSi had instructed me to guard, I would have given my life rather than cut the Surah short." ^ Another narration state that while Hadhrat Ammaar JESS@* went to sleep, Hadhrat Abbaad &&&& stood in salaah. The narration also adds that Hadhrat Abbaad SULS&Sei said, "I was reciting Surah Kahaf in my salaah and did not like to cut it short." (1) Ibn Is'haaq and Abu Dawood (Vol.1 Pg.29), as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg.85). Ibn Hibbaan in his Saheeh, Haakim in his Mustadrak (certified 472 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1-) The Salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays W&W in the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays JgS3@« narrates that Rasulullaah iJ$S# once called him and said, "I have intelligence that Khaalid bin Sufyaan bin Nubay of the Banu Hudhayl tribe had mustered up a force to attack me. He is now at Urna. Go there and kill him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays 3gS3@9 asked, "O Rasulullaah { $gg! Describe him to me so that I may recognise him." Rasulullaah { £$!$!? said, "When you see him, you will find him shivering." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays 5SR2@e> relates further that he then left with his sword hanging around his neck and proceeded until he found him at Urna with his wives. The time for Asr had already arrived and Khaalid was looking for a place to settle his wives. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays W&8&6 says, "When I saw him, I recognised the shivering that Rasulullaah (£|$l described and I advanced towards him. Fearing that nothing should prove an obstacle to prevent me from my salaah as I attempted to kill him, I performed my salaah as I walked towards him. I performed Ruku and Sajdah by making gestures with my head. When I reached him, he asked, 'Who is this man?' I replied, 'I am an Arab who has heard about you and about your mustering forces against that person (Rasulullaah &S$|). I have come to you in this regard.'" He said, 'Yes, I am busy with that.'" Continuing further, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays Js3S3S@35 says, "I then travelled with him for awhile until I found an opportunity. I then attacked him with my sword and killed him. I then left, leaving his wives falling over him. When I came to Rasulullaah (jjjJSSI and he saw me, he said, 'A look of success.' 'I have killed him,' I said. 'True,' was the reply. Rasulullaah { ^i? then stood up with me, took me in his room and gave me a staff saying, 'Keep this staff with you, O Abdullaah bin Unays.' When I left with the staff and came to the people, they asked, 'What is this staff?' I replied, 'Rasulullaah W$£ gave it to me with instructions to keep it with me.' When they told me to return to Rasulullaah WH& to ask him about it, I complied. When I got to Rasulullaah &&, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah @?i! Why have you given me this staff?' Rasulullaah { Ja^? replied, 'It is a token between you and me on the Day of Qiyaamah because on that day there shall be few people carrying staffs (few people with the support of their good deeds).'" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays Wi^&9 tied the staff to his sword and it remained with him throughout his life. When he passed away, he instructed that it should be included in his burial clothes and buried with him. ']) Performing Salaah at Night While out in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Urwa *gHf@s> narrates that when the two armies confronted each other for the Battle of Yarmook, Qubqulaar (a Roman commander) dispatched an Arab (to spy on the Muslims). The last portion of the narration states that (after the spy returned) Qubqulaar asked him what he had noticed. The spy replied, "They (1) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.140).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) • 473 Muslims are engaged in worship by night and seasoned horsemen by day." *1' In a lengthy narration of Abu Is'haaq, it is mentioned that Heraclius (the Roman Emperor) asked (his generals), "What is the matter? Why are you being defeated (by the Muslims)?" An old man from amongst his senior officers replied, "Because the Muslims stand in worship during the night and fast during the day." *2' More Ahadeeth on this subject will be discussed in the chapter dealing with the reasons for which divine assistance came. In the chapter titled "Women pledged Their allegiance" *3', the narration has passed which states that Hadhrat Hind bint Uthman said (to her husband Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan), "I wish to pledge allegiance to Muhammad ﷺ." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan said, "But I have noticed that you have always been rejecting what he says." She replied, "By Allaah! That is true. However, I swear by Allaah that before this night I have never seen Allaah being worshipped in this Masjid as He deserves to be worshipped. By Allaah! The Muslims spent the entire night performing salaah standing, bowing down and prostrating." Engaging in Dhikr While Out in the path of Allaah The Dhikr of the Sahabah and the Night they Conquered Makkah Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that on the night after the Muslims entered Makkah as conquerors, they continuously recited "Allahu Akbar", "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah" and performed Tawaaf of the Kabah until dawn broke. Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan then said to his wife Hind, "Do you not see that all this is from Allaah?" "Yes," she replied, "this certainly is from Allaah." The next morning Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan went early to Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Rasulullaah said, "(Last night) You said to Hind, 'Do you not see that all this is from Allaah?' and she replied, 'Yes, this certainly is from Allaah.'" Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan exclaimed, "I testify that you are certainly the servant and Rasul of Allaah! I swear by the Being in Whose name I take oaths that no one but Hind heard this statement of mine." 4' The Dhikr of the Sahabah as they Stood over a Valley During the Battle of Khaybar Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari narrates that when Rasulullaah (ﷺ) left on a military expedition to Khaybar, the Sahabah had reached a valley when they raised their voices reciting, "Allahu Akbar! Laa Ilaaha Illallaah!" Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said to them, "Have mercy on yourselves (do not exert yourselves) for you are not calling someone who is deaf or absent. You are calling One Who is All Hearing, Who is close and Who is always with you." Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari narrates further that he was behind the (1) Tabari (Vol.2 Pg.610). (2) The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar W&I&0 that the People Embarking on Military Expeditions are of Two types Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar WofflUS® said, "On an expedition, people are of two types. One type are those who go out and abundantly engage in the Dhikr of Allaah together with maintaining the consciousness of Allaah. They stay away from evil on their journey, assist their companions (physically and financially) and spend the best of their wealth. They are more keen on the wealth they spend (in the path of Allaah) than the wealth they use to benefit their worldly lives. When they are in war situations, they feel ashamed that Allaah should discover any doubts in their hearts or that He should find them failing to assist the Muslims. Even if they are in a position of misappropriating the booty, they cleanse their hearts and deeds from any such activity. Shaytaan is therefore unable to involve them in sin or to whisper evil into their hearts. It is through such people that Allaah strengthens and gives honour to His Deen and defeats His enemies." "As for the second type. They go out without engaging in abundant Dhikr and without being conscious of Allaah. They do not abstain from evil and are reluctant to spend their wealth. They regard whatever they spend as a tax and this is what Shaytaan tells them. In the battle situation they remain with those right at the back and those who render absolutely no help. They stick to the tops of mountains watching what the others are doing and speak the worst of lies when Allaah grants victory (by boasting about feats they did not achieve). Should they have the opportunity to misappropriate the spoils of war, they boldly do so (1) Bukhari and the other five. As quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.213), this incident occurred during the return from Khaybar because Hadhrat Abu Moosa 3SSs@8j arrived in Madinah only after the conquest of Khaybar. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH H&SmSi (Vol-1) 475 with the booty of Allaah, as Shaytaan tells them that these are merely spoils of war (and they therefore have a right to do as they please with it). When conditions are favorable, they boast and when they encounter any obstacle, Shaytaan misleads them to place their needs before people. They shall have no share of the rewards of the Mu'mineen. All they shall have to show is that their bodies were with the bodies of the Mu'mineen and that they travelled with the Mu'mineen. Their intentions and deeds vary and Allaah shall judge them when He gathers them on the Day of Qiyaamah." Making Du'aa at the Beginning of the Battle The Du'aa Rasulullaah ﷺ Made on the Occasion of the Battle of Badr Hadhrat Umar رضي الله عنه narrates that on the day of the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah ﷺ looked at his Sa'habah رضي الله عنهم who numbered just over three hundred. He then looked at the Mushrikeen who numbered over a thousand. Wearing only an upper and lower garment, Rasulullaah ﷺ then turned towards the Qibla and prayed, "O Allaah! Fulfil Your promise to me. O Allaah! If this group of Muslims is destroyed] You will never again be worshipped on earth." Rasulullaah ﷺ continued seeking Allaah's help and praying to Him until his upper garment fell off. Hadhrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه came to put the garment on again and then held on to RasuhiHaah ﷺ from behind saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! What you have so persistently asked from your Rabb is sufficient for He will certainly fulfil the promise He made to you." it was then that Allaah revealed the verse: (O Muhammad ﷺ, remember the time before the Battle of Badr) When you sought help from your Rabb and He accepted your du'aa saying, "I shall strengthen (reinforce) you with a .thousand angels who will appear one after another (to- help you fight the Mushrikeen)" {Surah Anfaal, verse 9} ^ Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ left for Badr with three hundred and fifteen men. It was not long after this that he passed away in their hands. When the incident was mentioned to Rasulullaah WfflU, he said, "He is certainly from amongst the people of Jannah." (1) Hadhrat Abu Hurayra 5fSj5(@s> narrates that because Hadhrat Amr bin Uqaysh 2s3)@l5 had given out a loan on interest during the Period of Ignorance, he disliked accepting Islaam until he had received the payment. When the Battle of Uhud took place, he asked, "Where are my cousins?" When he was informed that they were at Uhud, he exclaimed, "At Uhud!" He then donned his helmet, mounted his horse and rode towards them. Seeing him arrive, the Muslims called out, "Go away, O Amr!" He responded by saying, "I have already accepted Imaan." He then fought fiercely until he was wounded and carried off to his family as a wounded man. 486 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH jeS,l£$&! ?gi (Vol-1) Hadhrat Abul Mukhtaar the father of Mukhtaar bin Abu Ubayd at the bridge of Abu Ubayd. This was the place where Hadhrat Abu Ubayd (Thaqafi) was martyred (along with his entire battalion in the year 13 A.H.). All were martyred save for two or three men who used their swords to attack the enemy lines with such force that they opened up a path for themselves through which to escape. They eventually reached Madinah. As the three were sitting one day and discussing about the others (those who were killed in the battle), Hadhrat Umar JsiSgSSg came to them and asked, "Tell me what you have been discussing about them?" They replied, "We were seeking forgiveness on their behalf and making du'aa for them." Hadhrat Umar S3!S®j© threatened, "You will have to tell me what you were saying about them otherwise you will receive harsh treatment from me." They said, "We were saying that they are martyrs." Hadhrat Umar &$&&$ then said, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is no deity, Who has sent Muhammad {Ji^i with the truth and without Whose command Qiyaamah will never take place! No living being knows what a dead person will receive by Allaah except for the Nabi of Allaah W^ because Allaah has forgiven all his past and future errors. I swear by the Being besides Whom there is no deity, Who has sent Muhammad &SH with the truth and guidance and without Whose command Qiyaamah will never take place! There are people who fight to show off, others who fight because of their tribal fanaticism, those who fight to attain worldly gain and those who fight for wealth. All those who fight will receive by Allaah only that which was in their hearts." (I) Hadhrat Maalik bin Aws bin Hadathaan JSP®© narrates that they were busy discussing an army that was martyred during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar S)3@s£) when one of them commented, "They were the workers of Allaah out in the path of Allaah so their rewards will be with Allaah." Another person observed, "Allaah will resurrect them (on the Day of Qiyaamah) according to the intentions they died with." To this, Hadhrat Umar 5SHS®9 remarked, "Correct. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Allaah will certainly resurrect them according to the intentions they died with. There are people who fight for show and boasting while others fight with the intention of gaining things of this world. There are also those whom the battle takes by surprise and they have no option but to fight. Then there are those who fight with perseverance and with hope of rewards from Allaah. These are the true martyrs. In fact, even I have no idea of what will happen to me (in the Aakhirah) or of what will happen to you. All I do know is that the occupant of this grave (Rasulullaah (JS^)) has all his past and future errors forgiven." ^ Hadhrat Masrooq narrates that when mention was made of some martyrs in front of Hadhrat Umar JSRSSsSs, he addressed the people saying, "Whom do you regard to be martyrs?" Bravery and cowardliness are natural traits amongst people which Allaah places wherever He wills. The truly brave person is therefore the one who fights with fervour without caring whether he returns to his family. On the other hand, the coward is the one who flees from the battlefield on account of his wife. The true martyr is he who gives his life with the hope of earning rewards from Allaah. The true Muhaajir is he who leaves the acts that Allaah forbids and the true Muslim is he from whose tongue and hands other Muslims are safe." *

The Story of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (r) and his Mother (r) Hadhrat Dimaam narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (r) sent a message to his mother (Hadhrat Asmaa (r)) saying, "People have deserted me while those people (my enemies) are calling for a truce." Her reply was, "If you are out to revive the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of Allaah's Nabi (s), then die on the truth. However, if you are out in search of worldly gain, then there is no good in you whether you are alive or dead." (2) Obeying the Instructions of the Ameer when Proceeding in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (r) Rebukes a Man who did not Carry out his Instructions Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ash'ari (r) narrates, "Rasulullaah (s) sent us on an expedition and appointed Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (r) as our commander. We set out and later set up camp somewhere. When a man stood up to saddle his horse, I asked him where he was off to. He replied, 'I am off to get fodder.' I said, 'Do not do anything until we ask our Ameer.' We then went to Abu Moosa Ash'ari (r) (in command of our battalion) and spoke to him about it. He said, 'It seems as if you want to return to your family.' when the man denied it, Abu Moosa Ash'ari (r) cautioned him, 'Watch what you say.' 'No (I do not wish to return home),' repeated the man. Abu Moosa Ash'ari (r) then said, 'You may proceed on the path of righteousness.' The man left and returned after a considerable portion of the night had passed. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (r) asked, 'Did you perhaps go to your family?' when the man denied it, Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (r) cautioned, 'Watch what you say,' The man then admitted that he did. 488 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Staying Together While out In Jihaad in the path of Allaah Rasulullaah Criticises Separating in Valleys and Sealing Roads Hadhrat Abu Tha'laba Khushani narrates that when the Muslims camped at a valley, they separated and dispersed. Rasulullaah said, "Your separating in valleys is from Shaytaan." Thereafter, whenever they set up camp, they would stay together. (1) Another narration adds that (the Sahabah stayed so close together thereafter that) if a sheet was thrown over them, it would cover them all. Hadhrat Mu'aadh Juhani narrates that he was on a certain expedition with Rasulullaah when the Muslims (because they separated) they made the camp small (making it difficult for others to find space) and crowded the road (so that no one could pass). Rasulullaah then sent someone to announce, "There is no (rewards for) Jihaad for the person who makes the camp small or seals a road." (3) Standing Guard While Out in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Anas bin Abi Marthad Ghanawi stands Guard Hadhrat Sahl bin Handhaliyya narrates that they marched with Rasulullaah for the Battle of Hunayn and were marching with great speed until the afternoon. Hadhrat Sahl narrates further that he had completed the Zuhr salaah with Rasulullaah when a horseman came to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah I rode ahead of you and got to the top of a certain mountain where I chanced to see the Hawaazin tribe watering their camels of their fathers along with their women, their animals and goats. They have all gathered at Hunayn. Rasulullaah smiled and said, "Inshaa Allaah, that will all be booty for the Muslims tomorrow." Rasulullaah then announced, "Who will stand guard over us tonight?" Hadhrat Anas bin Abi Marthad Ghanawi said, "I will, O Rasulullaah." Rasulullaah then instructed him to get mounted. When he mounted his horse and came to Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah briefed him by saying, "Go to that ravine in front and get to the top of it. In the narration, he states, "Rasulullaah ®i? announced, 'Who will stand guard over us tonight? I shall make such a du'aa for him, the virtues of which he will certainly receive.' A man from the Ansaar stood up and volunteered. When Rasulullaah {£!$$ asked who he was, he gave his name. Rasulullaah {JiSI asked me who I was and I informed him that I was Abu Rayhaana. Rasulullaah fHii then made a du'aa for me that was shorter than the one he made for the other person. Thereafter, Rasulullaah QggM said, 'The fire of Jahannam has been forbidden for the eye that stands guard in the path of Allaah.'" (2) In the chapter entitled "Performing Salaah While Out in the path of Allaah" (3), the narration is reported by Hadhrat Jaabir !£l)3@g> in which it is mentioned that Rasulullaah (S^i asked, "Who shall stand guard over us tonight?" A volunteer from amongst the Muhaajireen and another from amongst the Ansaar stood up and said, "We shall do so, O Rasulullaah f^il" Rasulullaah ®i? gave them instructions to stand guard at the mouth of the valley. The two volunteers were Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir JUCSSSs and Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr S3.tf@ss>. The Hadith continues further as already narrated. ^ Enduring Illness while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah The Story of Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b W®% and His Du'aa to be able to Endure Fever Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri S.l^®si narrates that Rasulullaah {^$! said, "Whenever a Mu'min is hurt on his body, Allaah uses it as a means to annul some of his sins." Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b Wix®&> then prayed, "O Allaah! I beseech You to allow a fever to inflict the body of Ubay bin Ka'b until the day he meets you (until I die). However, it should not prevent him from salaah, fasting, Hajj, Umrah or Jihaad in Your path." A fever then overcame him where he stood and did not leave him until he passed away. Even while suffering the fever, he was always present for salaah, observed his fasts, performed Hajj and Umrah and participated in military expeditions. *5'

He Ubay bin Ka'b asked, "Even if it is something mild?" Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Even if it be a prick of a thorn or something milder." It was then that Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b prayed to Allaah that fever should never leave him until his death but should not prevent him from Hajj, Umrah, Jihaad in the path of Allaah or salaah in congregation. Whenever someone touched him, the heat of the fever could be felt. This continued until the day he passed away. ^ Enduring Injuries while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah The Injuries that Rasulullaah ﷺ Suffered Hadhrat Jundub bin Sufyaan reports that as Rasulullaah ﷺ was walking, his foot struck a stone and he fell. This caused his finger to start bleeding. Rasulullaah ﷺ then said: You are merely a finger that is bleeding But whatever you suffer, is in the path of Allaah The Hadith of Hadhrat Anas bin Malik has already passed in the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah ﷺ Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah" ^ . There he narrates that the canine teeth of Rasulullaah ﷺ were broken during the Battle of Uhud and he was also severely injured on the head. The Hadith is narrated by Bukhari, Muslim and others. The Injuries Sustained by Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillah and Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf The Hadith has also passed in which Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr spoke about the Battle of Uhud, he would say, "Every credit for that day goes to Talha." Later on in the narration, Hadhrat Abu Bakr says further, "When we reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, his canine tooth was already broken and his face was injured when two links of his helmet pierced his cheeks. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'See to your companion!' Rasulullaah ﷺ was referring to Talha who had become weak due to loss of blood. He addressed Rasulullaah WM saying, "I was unable to participate in the first opportunity to fight the Mushrikeen. If Allaah affords Muslim the opportunity to fight them, I shall (show my mettle and) Allaah will see what I can do." Consequently, he participated in the battle of Uhud. When the Muslims suffered a reversal in the battle, he supplicated to Allaah saying, "O Allaah! I apologise for what they (the Mu'mineen) have done and I absolve myself from what they (the Kuffaar) have done." Saying this, he advanced into the enemy lines. He passed by Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh SIS©?) and said, "O Sa'd! I swear by the Rabb of (my father) Nadhar that I can smell the fragrance of Jannah coming from the direction of Uhud." Hadhrat Sa'd ©!S@!gJ later said, "O Rasulullaah &$°] I would never have been able to do what he did." Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik SUISSstssS reports that there were more than eighty sword, spear and arrow wounds on his body. When his corpse was found, it was badly mutilated and it was only his sister who could recognise his body and that too by his fingertips. Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik ©)3@ss> says that they all believed that it was with reference to people like his uncle that Allaah revealed the verse: ,6,jt,(, ^ \ c , & , ■>>■>:""»... , ■>'.' ' .,1' ' #..' Rasulullaah's caller announced that we should march in pursuit of the enemy, I said to my brother or he said to me, 'Can we miss this opportunity to march with Rasulullaah?' By Allaah! Although we had no transport to ride and we were both heavily wounded, we went with Rasulullaah. Since my wounds were less serious than my brother's, I carried him when he could not manage and he walked at other times. In this manner, we eventually reached the place where the other Muslims were." The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik and How he Lost the Flesh on his Bones Hadhrat Anas reports that during the battle against Musaylama (Kadhaab), Hadhrat Baraa threw himself on to the people in the orchard (the defenders of Musaylama locked themselves in an orchard. Hadhrat Baraa scaled the wall of the orchard to get in and) He then fought them (single-handedly) until he was able to open the gate of the orchard. Hadhrat Baraa sustained over eighty arrow and sword wounds and had to be carried away to the camp for treatment. Hadhrat Khaalid stayed with him (and nursed him) for a month. Hadhrat Is'haaq bin Abdullaah bin Abu Talha narrates that Hadhrat Anas and his brother were (fighting) at an enemy fortress in Hareeq, a place in Iraq. The Kuffaar were throwing hooks fixed to heated chains and when it caught hold of someone, they would pull him up to them (in the fortress). They managed to get hold of Hadhrat Anas in this manner (and were pulling him in). However, Hadhrat Baraa advanced, kept watch at the wall (for an opportunity) and then grabbed at the chain. He kept holding on to the (burning hot) chain until the rope gave way. When he then looked at his hand, the bone was visible because all the flesh on it had burnt away. In this way, Allaah had saved Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik. Another narration states that the hooks caught Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik and the Kuffaar started pulling at him until he was lifted off the ground. While his brother Hadhrat Baraa was fighting the enemy, he was told to catch hold of his brother. He came running, jumped on to the wall and grabbed the chain as it kept turning. He then kept tugging the chain from the Kuffaar with his hands burning until the rope finally gave way. Thereafter when he looked at his hands and saw that the bone was visible because all the flesh on it had burnt away.

502 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) During the Battle of Uhud The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and his brother Zaid Concerning not Wearing Armour with the Intention of being Martyred Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that on the day that the Battle of Uhud was fought, Hadhrat Umar said to his brother, "Take my armour, dear brother." His brother replied, "I desire martyrdom just as you do." They both therefore left the armour. Hadhrat Ali Resolves to Fight to Death Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Mansoor reports that Hadhrat Ali said, "Once the people had left Rasulullaah during the Battle of Uhud, I looked through all the dead and did not see Rasulullaah there. I then said to myself, 'By Allaah! It is impossible for Rasulullaah to flee and I do not see him amongst the dead. I think that Allaah has become angry with us because of what we did and had lifted his Nabi. it is therefore best for me to fight until I am killed.' I then broke the sheath of my sword and attacked the Mushrikeen. When they gave way, I suddenly saw Rasulullaah in their midst." The Incident of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Raafi who belonged to the Banu Adi bin Najjaar tribe narrates that Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar the uncle of Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik came across some men from the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar (during the Battle of Uhud) who had lost all morale to fight. Amongst them was Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab and Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah. Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar asked them, "What makes you sit here?" "Rasulullaah has been martyred," they replied. Rasulullaah said, "Who will repulse them from us and be my companion in jannah?" An Ansaari stepped forward and fought until he was martyred. When the Mushrikeen again surrounded Rasulullaah, he again announced, "Who will repulse them from us and be my companion in Jannah?" Rasulullaah and the others were repeatedly surrounded and repulsed by each one of the seven Ansaar until) Eventually all seven had been martyred. Rasulullaah then said, "We have not been fair to our companions (by leaving them to fight single-handedly)." *2' Another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir states that after being overwhelmed during the Battle of Uhud, the Muslims dispersed from around Rasulullaah and the only people with him were eleven men from the Ansaar and Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah. Rasulullaah had begun climbing the mountain when the Mushrikeen caught up with him. Rasulullaah then asked, "Is there none to repulse them?" "I am here, O Rasulullaah!" responded Hadhrat Talha. "Stay where you are, O Talha," Rasulullaah instructed. One of the Ansaar then said, "I shall, O Rasulullaah!" As the Ansaari fought in their defence, Rasulullaah and the others with him continued climbing. The Ansaari was eventually martyred and the Mushrikeen were again catching up with Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah again asked, "Is there none to repulse them?" When Hadhrat Talha again volunteered for the task, Rasulullaah gave him the same instruction as before. One of the Ansaar said, "Then I shall, O Rasulullaah!" As the Ansaari fought in their defence, the others continued climbing. This Ansaari was also martyred and the Mushrikeen again started catching up with Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah then repeated his request as before (every time an Ansaari was martyred defending them) to which Hadhrat Talha repeatedly volunteered himself. Rasulullaah however, kept holding him back, to which an Ansaari volunteered himself and received permission to fight. Each one then fought as the others had fought until none but Hadhrat Talha was left with Rasulullaah. However, the Mushrikeen again surrounded Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah announced, "Is there none to repulse them?" Hadhrat Talha replied, (1) Haakim, narrating from Ibn Is'haaq. Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators. The complete narration of Ibn Is'haaq is reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.39). Imaam Maalik has also reported the narration in his Mu'atta (Pg. 175) as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.523). (2) Ahmad and Muslim.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 5Q5 "I shall". Hadhrat Talha (رضي الله عنه) then fought as much as all the previous Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) combined. When his fingertips became severely injured, he exclaimed, "Hass!" (An Arabic expression roughly equivalent to "Oh Dear!".) Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said to him, "Had you exclaimed Bismillaah, the angels would have lifted you to the heavens in full view of the people and enter you into the skies." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then climbed to the top of the mountain where he joined the other Sahabah (رضي الله عنهم) who had regrouped there. ^ The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Yamaan bin Jaabir (رضي الله عنه) and Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais (رضي الله عنه) Hadhrat Mahmood bin Labeed says that when Rasulullaah (ﷺ) marched to Uhud, Hadhrat Yamaan bin Jaabir (رضي الله عنه) (the father of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه)) and Hadhrat Thabit bin Qais (رضي الله عنه) were taken to a fortress together with the women and children since they were very old men. The one said to the other, "Shame on you! What are we waiting for? By Allaah! What is left of any of our lives is equivalent to the amount of thirst a donkey can bear (of all animals, the donkey is least capable of enduring thirst). We shall have to die either today or tomorrow. Why don't we take our swords and join Rasulullaah (ﷺ)?" The two men then joined the Muslim army without the knowledge of anyone. While Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais (رضي الله عنه) was killed by the Mushrikeen, the father of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه) was killed by the swords of the Muslims who did not recognise him. Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه) shouted, "My father! My father!" but the Muslims (who had killed him) truthfully said, "We swear by Allaah that we did not recognise him." Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه) acknowledged what they said by saying, "May Allaah forgive you for He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." When Rasulullaah (ﷺ) wanted to pay the blood money, Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه) forgave it. This increased the status of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه) in the eyes of Rasulullaah (ﷺ). (2) Another narration adds that the two men also said, "We shall then join up with Rasulullaah (ﷺ). Perhaps Allaah shall bless us with martyrdom as we fight by the side of Rasulullaah (ﷺ)." They then took their swords and joined up with the Muslim army without the knowledge of anyone. The concluding portion of this narration states that this (forgiving the blood money) considerably increased the status of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (رضي الله عنه) in the eyes of Rasulullaah (ﷺ). (3) During the Battle of Rajee Hadhrat Aasim, Hadhrat Khubayb and their Companions (رضي الله عنهم) are Martyred Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (رضي الله عنه) narrates that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) once sent an expedition on a spying duty under the command of Hadhrat Aasim bin Thaabit (1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in AJ Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.26). (2) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.202), narrating from reliable sources. (3) Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.167).

506 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $$$& (Vol-1) JUS@!), who was the maternal grandfather of Hadhrat Aasim bin Umar bin Khattaab @!3@g). The expedition proceeded and was at a place between Usfaan and Makkah when their presence was reported to a clan from the Hudhayl tribe known as the Banu Lihyaan. With close to a hundred archers, the people of this tribe set out after the Sahabah $$$&» and traced their tracks until they arrived at a place where the Sahabah W&& had set up camp earlier. There they found some date stones from the provisions that the Sahabah (@!I5@fg> had brought from Madinah. Seeing this, they said, "These are dates from Yathrib." They then continued tracing the tracks until they eventually caught up with the Sahabah Hadhrat Aasim !S3!3s@eS and his companions took shelter on a hillock as the Banu Lihyaan surrounded them. The Banu Lihyaan called out, "We make a promise that we shall not kill any of you if you surrender to us." Hadhrat Aasim 5fH»@ss> said, "As for myself, I shall never surrender into the custody of a Kaafir." He then prayed, "O Allaah! Inform Your Nabi fl$l about us." The Sahabah iBUSs®© then fought the Banu Lihyaan, who martyred Hadhrat Aasim ©!3@e> and another seven Sahabah $B&&g> with arrows. The only ones who survived were Hadhrat Khubayb, Hadhrat Zaid and another Sahabi isSSiS®*?). When the Banu Lihyaan again offered their promise, these Sahabah $$$& &?> agreed to it and came down from the hillock. However, no sooner did the Banu Lihyaan have control over them then they removed the strings from their bows and used it to tie the Sahabah (Sj3!3@f! up. To this, the third Sahabi SSS©?> said, "This is the first breach of your promise." He then refused to accompany them. Despite their efforts to pull and drag him, he would not budge. They eventually killed him. They then took Hadhrat Khubayb S!3s@e> and Hadhrat Zaid &S8&& away and sold them in Makkah. The sons of Haarith bin Aamir bin Naufal bought Hadhrat Khubayb iEXi&&?> because he had killed (their father) Haarith bin Aamir in the Battle of Badr. He lived as a prisoner with them until they eventually decided to kill him. Hadhrat Khubayb ©JSSSi asked one of the ladies of the household for a razor to shave with and she lent it to him. (Narrating the incident later) She says, "I was unmindful of one of my little children who went towards him. When the child came to him, he put the child on his lap. When I saw this, I became terribly alarmed for he was holding the razor in his hand (I thought that he would use the razor to kill the child). Sensing fear, he said, "Are you afraid that I will kill this child? By the will of Allaah, I shall never do such a thing." The lady narrates further, "I have never seen a prisoner better than Hadhrat Khubayb W0%!&t>. I saw him eating a bunch of grapes at a time when there was no fruit in Makkah and he was bound in chains. It was nothing short of (unseen) sustenance that Allaah had provided for him." When Hadhrat Khubayb i£3)3@9 was led outside the area of the Haram to be executed, he requested to be left to perform two Rakaahs of salaah. After performing the salaah, he turned to the people and said, "I would have lengthened the salaah if it were not for you thinking that (I am doing so because)

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (SB, l* @? g> (Vol-1) 507 I am afraid to die." Hadhrat Khubayb S3l3@sS was the first to start the practice of performing two Rakaahs salaah at the time of execution. He then said, "O Allaah! Do not leave any of them alive." He then recited some couplets which meant: When I am killed as a Muslim, I care not on which side I fall This is all for Allaah and if He wills, He could bless the severed limbs of my body Thereafter, Uqba bin Haarith martyred him. Because Hadhrat Aasim JgXwsSiSs had killed one of the leaders of the Quraysh during the Battle of Badr, the Quraysh sent some people to bring a portion of his body to them which they may recognise as his. However, Allaah sent a swarm of wasps to his body and they protected him from the people whom the Quraysh had sent. They were therefore unable to get anything from the body. "' Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr bin Qataadah reports that after the Battle of Uhud, a delegation from the Adhal and Qaara tribes came to Rasulullaah {fjj2$| and said, "O Rasulullaah {i$ $|! islaam has come to us so send with us a group of your Sahabah W2$fl®& to make us understand the Deen, to teach us the Qur'aan and to educate us about the Shari'ah of Islaam." Rasulullaah &ii$ therefore sent with them six Sahabah i@13®gi, whose names have been recorded. These Sahabah 'f&&&s^ proceeded with these people until they reached Rajee, which was a well of the Hudhayl tribe situated at one end of Hijaaz where the Hada'a region commences. There the people accompanying the Sahabah $9S®gi betrayed them and solicited help from the Hudhayl tribe. Unaware of what was happening, the Sahabah $&$&&>& were in their camp when they were suddenly surrounded by many men brandishing their swords. When the Sahabah 'i@!3®9 grabbed their swords to fight them, the men said, "We swear by Allaah that we do not wish to kill you. All we want is to get some money from the people of Makkah in exchange for you. We give you assurance in the name of Allaah that we shall not kill you." However, Hadhrat Marthad 3s3l2@g>, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Bukayr &$ $&& and Hadhrat Aasim Wi%®se> said, "By Allaah! We shall never ever accept a promise or pledge from a Mushrik." The Couplets that Hadhrat Aasim 0$[%8&$ Recited and His Body is Protected from the Mushrikeen Hadhrat Aasim ©fSaFs> then recited some couplets which meant: "Far from being a sick man, I am a powerful archer And my bow has a sturdy string Arrows with long and wide shafts glide over it Death is true whereas life is a fake Whatever Allaah has destined will certainly happen to a man And man will have to return to Him May my mother forsake me if I do not fight you " (1) Bukhari, Bayhaqi (Vol. 9 Pg.145), Abdur Razzaaq (as quoted in Isti'aabVoX.i Pg.132) and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 112).

508 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $B&!&& (Vol-1) Hadhrat Aasim @!2®£ also said the following: I am Abu Sulaymaan with arrow made by (the expert arrow-maker) Muq'ad And with a bow that is like a kindled fire I feel no fear when a warrior comes storming on a speedy camel And my shield is made from the hide of a bull with little hair (To top it all) I am a firm believer in everything revealed to Muhammad ^^ He is also reported to have said: I am Abu Sulaymaan and warriors like me are excellent archers I am also from a tribe that is a most honourable one Hadhrat Aasim *£)!2®ei then fought the Mushrikeen until he and his two companions were martyred. After killing Hadhrat Aasim %$%, the Hudhayl intended to sever his head to sell it to Sulaafa bint Sa'd bin Shuhayd. When her son was killed in the Battle of Uhud, she made a vow that if she ever got the head of Hadhrat Aasim ©ISsSfe', she would drink wine from his skull. However, a swarm of wasps protected his body. When the Mushrikeen were prevented from getting to it, they said, "Leave him until the evening when the wasps would have left. We can then have him." Allaah then sent heavy rains flowing down the valley, which carried his body away. Hadhrat Aasim 3Si! 3@jg> had made a promise to Allaah that because the Mushrikeen were impure, none of them should ever touch him and he would not touch any of them either. When the news of the wasps protecting the body of Hadhrat Aasim &£%$$& reached Hadhrat Umar '&$&&&, he said, "Allaah protects the Mu'min servant. Aasim ®!s®s> vowed that no Mushrik should touch him and that he would not touch any Mushrik during his lifetime, so Allaah prevented it from happening after his death just as Allaah prevented it during his lifetime." The Story of Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana W%&$ and SA'VW & his Statement About his Love for Rasulullaah (The other three Sahabah $&&$&$> in the group) Hadhrat Khubayb JSSSffigg, Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana JSDJS&SsSgi and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Taariq 5s31S@9 chose the easier option and chose to remain alive. They therefore surrendered and were taken prisoner. The Mushrikeen took them to Makkah to sell them. When they reached a place called Zahraan, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Taariq Wi®&6 slipped his hands from the bonds and grabbed a sword. The Mushrikeen stepped away from him started throwing rocks at him until they eventually martyred him. His grave is in Zahraan. This left Hadhrat Khubayb W&®% and Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana S,l3®s>. they were taken to Makkah and exchanged for two prisoners from the Hudhayl who had been in Makkah. while Hujayr bin Abi lhaab Tameemi bought Hadhrat Khubayb Wffi&i, Safwaan bin Umayyah bought Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana *s3|2®&' to execute him for the death of his father. Safwaan sent .Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana JaBSSBSs outside the Haram to Tan'eem with his slave Nistaas so that he could be executed there.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 5Q9 Amongst the group of the Quraysh that gathered there was Abu Sufyaan bin Harb. When Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana was brought for execution, Abu Sufyaan said to him, "O Zaid! I ask you to swear by Allaah whether you wish that Muhammad was here with us in your place to have his head severed while you could be with your family." Hadhrat Zaid replied, "I swear by Allaah that I would not even like a thorn to prick Muhammad where he is while I am sitting with my family." Abu Sufyaan said, "I have never seen people love anyone as much as the companions of Muhammad loved Muhammad." Nistaas then executed Hadhrat Zaid. The Story of Hadhrat Khubayb in Makkah and His Salaah at the time of Death Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq narrates the story of Hadhrat Khubayb bin Adi from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Najeesh who was informed by Maariya, the freed slave of Hujayr bin lhaab. After accepting Islaam, she narrated, "He (Hadhrat Khubayb) was held prisoner in my home. I once saw him eating from a bunch of grapes the size of a human head at a time when there was not a grape to be eaten in all of Allaah's land." Ibn Is'haaq narrates further from Aasim bin Umar bin Qataadah and Abdullaah bin Najeesh that she said, "When the time for his execution drew near, he asked me to send him a razor so that he may clean himself before his death. I gave the razor to the little boy from the family and told him to give it to the man in the house. By Allaah! I had just sent the boy with the razor to him when I exclaimed, 'What have I done! By Allaah! That man will have his revenge by killing the boy and have a life in exchange for his own!' However, when the boy handed the razor over to Hadhrat Khubayb, he took it and said, 'By your life! Did your mother not fear any treachery from me when she sent you with this razor?' He then sent the boy off." Ibn Hishaam says that it is commonly believed that the boy was the son of Maariya. Ibn Is'haaq narrates further from Aasim that the Mushrikeen took Hadhrat Khubayb out of the Haram to Tan'eem where they intended to crucify him. He then requested, "If you permit, could I please perform two Rakaahs salaah." "Go ahead," they agreed, "Perform your salaah." Hadhrat Khubayb

510 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Abu Sufyaan used to say, "I was also present on that day with (my father) Abu Sufyaan and others. I saw my father throw me down on the ground out of fear for the curse of Hadhrat Khubayb. He did this because people used to say that if a person lies on his back when he is cursed, the curse would miss him." The Maghaazi of Moosa bin Uqba narrates that Hadhrat Khubayb and Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana were both martyred on the same day and it was on that day that Rasulullaah was heard saying, "Salaams to you (two) as well. The Quraysh have martyred Khubayb." It is also narrated that when the Mushrikeen crucified Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana, they first speared him to make him forsake his Deen. However, this only increased his Imaan and faith in Islaam. Moosa bin Uqba also narrates that when Hadhrat Khubayb was lifted on to the wooden structure the Mushrikeen asked him to swear by Allaah whether he preferred to have Rasulullaah in his place (in exchange for his own freedom). Hadhrat Khubayb replied, "Never! I swear by the Exalted Allaah that I would not even accept a thorn pricking the foot of Rasulullaah as ransom for my life." The Mushrikeen laughed at this, Ibn Is'haaq has reported this with reference to Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana. Allaah knows best. (1) The Statement of Hadhrat Khubayb Concerning his Love for Rasulullaah and the Couplets he Recited Before his Execution A lengthy narration of Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr states that the children of the Mushrikeen killed at Badr executed Hadhrat Khubayb. While he was tied to the cross they were using their weapons on him, they asked him in a loud voice to swear whether he preferred Rasulullaah to be in his place. He responded by saying, "I swear by the Magnificent Allaah that I would not even accept a thorn pricking the foot of Rasulullaah as ransom for my life." The Mushrikeen laughed at this. When he was lifted on to the cross, Hadhrat Khubayb recited some couplets which meant: "The groups have amassed around me and have also gathered their tribes and have collected a large gathering They have also gathered their women and children As I have been brought to a large trunk of a palm tree (to be crucified) To Allaah do I plead my case of estrangement and my grief And the place these groups have prepared for my death O Master of the Glorious Throne! Grant me fortitude against what they intend to do to me They have cut through my flesh and my hopes have been exposed This is all for Allaah and if He wills, He could bless the severed limbs of my body (1) Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg.63).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH '$&&$& (Vol-1) 5H By my life! When I am killed as a Muslim I care not In what condition will my resting place be for Allaah" ^ Another narration adds the following line after the first couplet: "They all express their hatred for me and make every effort to oppose me because I am in fetters and in a place of destruction " The following lines are then added after the fifth couplet: "They have given me a choice between kufr and death whereas death is better My eyes are tearing but not out of any fear I have no fear for death because I have to die I have fear only for the leaping flames of the raging fire ByAllaah! When I die as a Muslim, I care not on which side I shall fall for the sake ofAllaah I shall express no fear to my enemy Because my return shall be to Allaah " *2'

During the Expedition to Bir Ma'oona The Story of the Sahabah itBU^@S) at Bir Ma'oona Several men of knowledge including Mughiera bin Abdur Rahman and Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr bin Muhammad bin Amr bin Hazam narrate that the expert spear-thrower Abu Baraa Aamir bin Maalik bin Ja'far once came to Madinah to meet Rasulullaah Wm$>, Rasulullaah &HH presented Islaam to him and invited him to accept. However, he neither accepted Islaam nor shunned it. Instead he said, "O Muhammad {JSH! if you send some of your companions to the people of Najd to call them towards Islaam, I strongly feel that they would accept." Rasulullaah (S$SI replied, "I fear harm coming to them from the people of Najd." Abu Baraa reassured Rasulullaah WHO!: by saying, "I stand surety for their safety. Do send them to invite people towards your Deen." Rasulullaah f$!$ then sent Hadhrat Mundhir bin Amr WX%8&6 who was called "Al Mu'niq Liyamoot" ("one who is eager to die") together with seventy Sahabah itc3!f@e> who were amongst the best of the Muslims. When they set up camp there, Hadhrat Haraam bin Milhaan JSRSSbSs sent the letter of Rasulullaah W$f to Aamir bin Tufayl. When the messenger arrived, Aamir did not even look at the letter before attacking the messenger and killing him. He then solicited help from the Banu Aamir tribe but they declined to respond to his call. They made it clear that they would never betray Abu Baraa who had entered (1) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 6 Pg.200) has commented on the chain of narrators. (2) Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.67).

They responded to his call and left (with him). They amassed around the Sahabah SSB^Sw and surrounded their camp. When the Sahabah &i%&t> saw the enemy they grabbed their swords and fought until all of them were martyred. May Allaah shower His mercies on them. The only survivor was Hadhrat Ka'b bin Zaid 3£!Ja@ss> from the Banu Dinaar bin Najjaar tribe. There was still life in him when the attackers left and he was removed from amongst the dead. He still lived afterwards until he was martyred during the Battle of Khandaq. Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah Dhamri SI!^@*e> and an Ansaari from the Banu Amr bin Auf tribe were busy grazing the animals and were unaware of the attack on the other Sahabah $9J3@gi, All that made them aware was (carrion-eating) birds hovering above the camp. They said, "By Allaah! Something must have happened for these birds (to be here)." The two men then went to investigate and found the Muslims lying in pools^ofjjlood The horsemen (who had attacked the Sahabah $31tf@tjgi) were stitrtftere. The Ansaari asked Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah ©!3j@g), "What do you suggest?" "I suggest that we go and inform Rasulullaah {iSi? about what had happened," he replied. The Ansaari then said, "To save my life I would not like to leave a place where someone like Mundhir bin Amr &&&S9 has been martyred. I would also not like to just inform others about people who have been martyred (I prefer to be amongst them)." He then fought until he was martyred. Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah 3gSSiS!» was taken prisoner but later released by Aamir bin Tufayl when he informed them that he belonged to the Mudhar tribe. However, Aamir cut off Hadhrat Amr SHS®e>'s forelocks and gave him freedom because his mother was required to free a slave (so he freed Hadhrat Amr JMSSsSaSsi on her behalf). (1) The Last Words of Hadhrat Haraam *gMg Because of which his Killer Accepted Islaam Hadhrat Anas JsSaSsiS narrates that Rasulullaah &■? once dispatched Hadhrat Haraam $$82@s> the brother of Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym W£%&9 together with seventy riders on an expedition. The leader of the Mushrikeen (in the region where the expedition went) was Aamir bin Tufayl. He had given Rasulullaah {^^ a choice between three options (when he said), "Either (1) you have the villagers for yourself and leave the city dwellers to me or (2) you appoint me as your successor or (3) I shall fight you with the support of thousands of men from the Ghitfaan tribe." However, Aamir was afflicted with a plague in the. home of a certain woman. He said, "It is a sore like that which afflicts camels and in the house of some woman (he regarded it below his dignity to die in the house of some simple woman by whom he stayed during his travels). Bring me my horse." He then died on the back of his horse. (1) Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.73). Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.129).

Commanding the reinforcements was a man named Maalik bin Zaafla who belonged to the Iraasha

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 515 clan, an offshoot of the Baly tribe. When this news reached the Muslims, they stayed in Ma'aan for two nights, discussing their situation. They said, "We should send a message to Rasulullaah ﷺ informing him about the numbers of the enemy. He will then either send reinforcements to us or issue further instructions for us to follow." It was then that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ؓ bolstered the courage of the Muslim by saying, "O people! By Allaah! The thing that you seem to dislike is the very thing for which you have left, martyrdom. We have never fought with reliance in our numbers and our strength. We have always fought on the strength of this Deen that Allaah had blessed us with. March ahead! You will have either one of two excellent things, victory or martyrdom." The others echoed, "By Allaah! Ibn Rawaaha has spoken the truth!" The Sahabah ؓ then proceeded to the border of Balqaa, where the coalition of Heraclius's Roman army and the Arab forces met them at one of the villages of Balqaa called Mashaarif. As the enemy forces drew closer, the Muslims regrouped at a village called Mu'ta. It was there that the armies clashed. The Muslims arranged their army by appointing a Sahabi from the Banu Udhra tribe called Qutba bin Qataadah ؓ as commander of the right flank and a Sahabi from the Ansaar called Abaaya bin Maalik as commander of the left flank. In this way they met the enemy and started fighting. Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha ؓ fought courageously with the flag of Rasulullaah ﷺ until he was martyred by a spear. Hadhrat Ja'far ؓ then grabbed hold of the flag and fought until he was also martyred. He was the first Muslim in the history of Islaam who disabled his animal (to dispel thoughts of fleeing from the battlefield). ^ Another narration of Hadhrat Urwa ؓ states that afterwards (after the martyrdom of Hadhrat Zaid ؓ) Hadhrat Ja'far ؓ grabbed hold of the flag and fought with it until when the battle became pitched, he dismounted his red horse and hamstrung it. He then fought until he was also martyred. He was the first Muslim in the history of Islaam to disable his animal. (2) The Couplets that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ؓ Recited During the Journey Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam ؓ says, "I was an orphan in the care of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ؓ. He took me along on the journey (to Mu'ta) and seated me behind him on his satchel. By Allaah! He was travelling one night when I heard him recite the following couplets (which mean): '(O my camel) When you take me closer, carrying my carriage along for four days after leaving Hisaa May you then have comfort and not any more hardship For I shall not be returning to my wife and family (because I shall become a

He struck me with his whip and said, "You little imp! Why should it be a bother for you if Allaah blesses me with martyrdom and you can ride back (to Madinah) on my camel?" ^ The Couplets that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 35M& Recited During the Battle Hadhrat Abbaad bin Abdullaah bin Zubayr JSI!3®e> narrates from his foster father from the Banu Murrah clan that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha &&88S6 grabbed hold of the flag after Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib was martyred. He then took it forward riding on his horse. Because his heart seemed reluctant to dismount (to engage the enemy), he said to himself: "O my heart! I command you in the name of Allaah to dismount You will have to dismount either willingly or unwillingly (Especially) If the enemy gather and shout out in loud voices (as they attack) Why do I see you displaying an aversion forjannah For a long time you have enjoyed a good life You are merely like a drop in a waterbag (will come to an end very soon) " Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha t£$%0&9 also recited the following couplets which mean: "O my heart! If you are not killed, you will still have to die some day This is the pronounced decree of death that you will have to enter You have been granted whatever you desire Now if you do what those two (Hadhrat Zaid and Ja'far &&$&>) have done, you will have been rightly guided" He then dismounted his horse. As he did so, his cousin came to him with a piece of meat saying, "Strengthen yourself with this because you have experienced much hunger the last few days." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha isJ! 2S@»ei took the meat and had taken just one bite from it when he heard an uproar at one end of the battlefield. He said to himself, "(The Muslims are giving their lives) And you are still engrossed in worldly affairs?" Throwing the meat from his hand, he grabbed his sword and went forward, fighting until he was martyred. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 517 Hadhrat Ja'far Disables his Horse and Recites Some Couplets as he Fights Hadhrat Abbaad bin Abdullaah bin Zubayr narrates that his foster father from the Banu Murrah who participated in the Battle of Mu'ta said, "By Allaah! It is as if I can still see Ja'far dismounting his red horse and then hamstringing it. He then fought the enemy until he was martyred. As he fought, he was reciting the following couplets (which meant): 'O how delightful is jannah and drawing close to it With its pure and cool waters Their punishment has drawn close to the Romans Who are non-believers without any mutual relations When I meet them on the battlefield, I shall have to strike at them with my sword'. An arrow struck him between his shoulder and heart. The arrow bent and therefore did not kill him. When the arrow was removed, the left side of his body became paralysed because of the injury. This occurred during the early part of the day and he was taken to the camp. When the fighting grew intense, the Muslims were being defeated and driven back behind their camp. As Hadhrat Abu Aqeel &&&f lay in a weak condition because of his wound, he heard Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi ©f@& calling to Ansaar, "Trust in Allaah! Trust in Allaah and attack the enemy once again." Hadhrat Ma'n $f %&&$ was walking quickly ahead of the others. This was during the time when the Ansaar were shouting, "Let us Ansaar separate! Let us Ansaar separate!" One by one, the Ansaar started separating from the others (and grouping together to launch an attack that would encourage the others). Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 3fK8@si says, "Abu Aqeel SDSSSei jumped up to join his people (the Ansaar). I said to him, 'What are you doing, Abu Aqeel? You are in no condition to fight.' He replied, 'A caller has announced my name.' 'He has called for the Ansaar and is not referring to the injured,' I explained. He replied, 'I am from the Ansaar and I shall respond even though I have to crawl.'" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar W&&& narrates further that Hadhrat Abu Aqeel isSSSSSi then fastened his back and took a naked sword in his right hand. He then started calling, "O Ansaar! Attack the enemy once more like the Battle of Hunayn." The Ansaar then regrouped and spearheaded an extremely fierce attack on the enemy, forcing them to retreat to an orchard. The Muslims and the enemy met at close quarters and crossed swords with each other. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar W&&& says that he saw the injured arm of Hadhrat Abu Aqeel 't$2&&6 severed from the shoulder and lying on the ground. Hadhrat Abu Aqeel iaH® ^ sustained fourteen wounds, each of which were fatal by themselves. Musaylama was killed and when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar *fU3w$s> reached Hadhrat Abu Aqeel Sllf®e>, he was lying on the ground breathing his last. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar S.l2®e> called Hadhrat Abu Aqeel t's name, he responded by muttered in a faint voice, "At your service! Who has won the battle?" They had hardly stayed (in Madinah) for three days when they had to march to (1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol .4 Pg.106).

526 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-I) Khaybar. Hadhrat Salama (ra) says that (his uncle) Hadhrat Aamir (ra) also left (with the army) as he recited the following couplets (which meant): "By Allaah! Were it not for You (O Allaah) we would not have received guidance Nor would we have given charity or performed salaah We can never be independent of Your grace So do send tranquillity to us And make our feet firm when we clash (with the enemy)" Rasulullaah (s) asked, "Who is saying that?" When the Sahabah (ra) informed Rasulullaah (s) that it was Hadhrat Aamir (ra), he said, "May your Rabb forgive you." Hadhrat Salama (ra) says, "Whenever Rasulullaah (s) said this to anyone, they were always martyred." Riding his camel, Hadhrat Umar (ra) commented, "(O Rasulullaah (s)) You should have allowed us to benefit more from Aamir." When the Sahabah (ra) reached Khaybar, (one of the bravest Jewish warriors) Marhab came out brandishing his sword and reciting the following couplets (which meant): "All of Khaybar knows that I am Marhab A well-armed and experienced hero (Who thrives) When the leaping flames of war arrive" Hadhrat Aamir (ra) met Marhab's challenge to a duel as he recited the following: "All of Khaybar knows that I am Aamir A well-armed hero who throws himself in the thick of battle" The two men exchanged blows with their swords. When Marhab's sword got stuck in Hadhrat Aamir (ra)'s shield, he attacked Marhab from beneath but his sword accidentally severed an artery in his own arm. This caused the death of Hadhrat Aamir (ra). Hadhrat Salama (ra) says that as he was passing by a group of Sahabah (ra), he overheard them say, "All Aamir's deeds have been wasted because he killed himself." Hadhrat Salama (ra) then went weeping to Rasulullaah (s) who asked him what the matter was. Hadhrat Salama (ra) replied, "They are saying that all the deeds of Aamir are wasted." "Who is saying this?" asked Rasulullaah (s). "A group of your Sahabah (ra)," came the reply. Rasulullaah (s) then said, "They are wrong. In fact, his reward will be double." Rasulullaah (s) then sent for Hadhrat Ali (ra), who was experiencing some pain in his eyes. "Tomorrow," declared Rasulullaah (s), "I shall give this flag to someone who loves Allaah and His Rasool (s)." Hadhrat Salama (ra) says that he was he who led Hadhrat Ali (ra) to Rasulullaah (s). Rasulullaah (s) then applied some of his saliva to Hadhrat Ali (ra)'s eyes, which cured them instantly. He then handed the flag over to Hadhrat Ali (ra). (When the battle started) Marhab then again came forward to issue a challenge as he said: "All of Khaybar knows that I am Marhab A well-armed and experienced hero

THE LIVES OF THE SAUABAH " (Vol-1) 527 (Who thrives) When the leaping flames of war arrive" Hadhrat Ali stepped forward to accept his challenge as he said: "I am the one whose mother calls a lion Like the lion of a terrifying jungle I give the enemy his full measure just like an open scale" Hadhrat Ali then swung his sword to deliver a blow that decapitated Marhab's head. This led to the conquest of Khaybar. Hadhrat Abu Raafi who was the freed slave of Rasulullaah narrates that they marched with Hadhrat Ali to Khaybar, where Rasulullaah sent him ahead with the flag. When Hadhrat Ali approached one of the fortresses, the people inside came out to fight him. One of the Jews struck Hadhrat Ali's shield, causing it to fall from his hand. Hadhrat Ali then ripped off one of the doors of the fortress and used it as a shield. He kept fighting with it in his hand until Allaah gave victory to the Muslims. He then threw it away. Hadhrat Abu Raafi says, "I saw myself with a group of seven others of which I was the eighth. Try as we did to turn that door over, we did not succeed." (2' Hadhrat Jaabir reports that during the Battle of Khaybar, Hadhrat Ali lifted up the door of a fortress, which the Muslims used to climb over the walls. This led to their victory. When the people tried to lift the door afterwards, forty of them were unable to do so. '3' Another narration states that seventy men had to exert themselves before they were able to put the door back on its place. *4) Yet another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samura states that during the Battle of Khaybar, Hadhrat Ali lifted up the door of a fortress, which the Muslims used to climb over the walls. This led to their victory. When the people tried to lift the door afterwards, it took forty of them to do so. *5) Hadhrat Talha reports that during the Battle of Uhud, he recited the following couplets (which meant)-. "We are the protectors of the Ghaalib and Maalik tribes Fighting in defence of our blessed Rasulullaah 528 THE LIVES OF 7TH SAHABAH (Vol-1) slaughtering)" As the Muslims were leaving Uhud, Rasulullaah (s) told (the famous poet) Hadhrat Hassaan (r) to say something in praise of Hadhrat Talha (r). He obliged by saying the following couplets (which meant): "On the day of the valley (the Battle of Uhud), Talha assisted Muhammad (s). During a time of extreme hardships and difficulties With his bare hands he shielded (Rasulullaah (s) from the arrows And placed his hand beneath the swords (to shield Rasulullaah (s) because of which it was paralysed After Muhammad (s) he led all the others He erected the mill of Islam until it could function by itself Hadhrat Abu Bakr (r) then recited the following (which meant): "Talha defended the Nabi of guidance as the cavalry chased him When they eventually caught up, he defended all of Deen He patiently bore the injuries when his comrades had left At that time, people were either rightly guided or misguided O Talha bin Ubaydillaah! incumbent for you is the gardens of Jannah and marriage to its beautiful wide-eyed damsels" Hadhrat Umar (r) then said the following couplet (in praise of Hadhrat Talha "He defended the Nabi of guidance with his drawn sword at a time when everyone had fled and dispersed" Rasulullaah (s) then commented, "What you have said is true, O Umar." ^ The manner in which Hadhrat Talha (r) fought during the Battle of Uhud has already been narrated (in the chapter "Rasulullaah (s) Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah" under the subheading "The Hardship Rasulullaah (s) Bore During the Battle of Uhud"). The Bravery of Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Hadhrat Zubayr (r) Emerges with a Drawn Sword in Makkah before the Hijrah Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib (r) says that the first person to draw a sword for the pleasure of Allaah was Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam (r). He was in Makkah one day when he heard that Rasulullaah (s) was assassinated. He immediately left home with a drawn sword when he came face-to-face with Rasulullaah (s). Rasulullaah (s) enquired, "What is the matter, Zubayr?" "I heard that you had been assassinated," he replied. "What were intending to do in that case?" Rasulullaah (s) asked. "By Allaah!" replied Hadhrat Zubayr (r), "I had intended to tackle all the people of Makkah." Rasulullaah (s) then prayed for him. It is with reference to this that Asadi said the following poem (which meant): (1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.68) with commentary on the chain of narrators. Ibn Hibbaan has also reported the narration, as quoted in Lisan (Vol.3 Pg.77).

When he called for someone to challenge him to a duel, the Muslims hesitated. The only person to accept the challenge was Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam ؓfi@s>. Hadhrat Zubayr ؓ&&6 leapt on to Talha's own camel, threw him off and killed him with his own sword. In praise of him, Rasulullaah ^cH$ said, "Every Nabi has a devoted friend in Jannah and mine shall be Zubayr." Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam @3l2 ؓgi responded and struck Naufal so forcefully with his sword that Naufal's body was split into two and Hadhrat Zubayr t's sword was dented. (1) Hadhrat Zubayr Wffi&$ Fights During the Battles of Khandaq and Yarmook Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr SJ!2@s> says, "During the Battle of Khandaq, myself and Umar bin Abu Salama were put with the women and children in a fortress (because we were both very young). He would bend over for me to get on to his back so that I could watch (the battle). I watched my father (Hadhrat Zubayr SS2i~9) sometimes fighting here, sometimes there and tackling anyone that confronted him. When he came to us in the fortress that evening, I said to him, 'Dear father, I watched you today and saw what you were doing.' 'Did you really see me?' he asked. 'I sure did,' I replied. He then said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you.'" Hadhrat Zubayr JaSSSSSi said to them, "If I lead the attack, you will fail in your word (to fight with me)." "We will not," they assured him. Hadhrat Zubayr $312@s> then attacked the enemy so fiercely that he penetrated past their ranks without the support of anyone else. However, as he returned, the enemy grabbed the reins of his horse and inflicted two wounds on his shoulder on either side of the wound that he sustained during the Battle of Badr. Hadhrat Urwa JbShSbSSi says that (the wounds were so deep that) as a child he used to playfully put his finger into those wounds. With Hadhrat Zubayr JSBSSSS© on that day was his son Abdullaah who was only ten years of age. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas &Xfv&?> was also part of this expedition. When the Mushrikeen attacked the Muslims, Hadhrat Sa'd Js3!3©»© defended them with his arrows and was the first person to fire an arrow in the path of Allaah. This was the first battle fought in Islaam. Concerning his archery, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Sl3®ei recited the following couplets (which meant): " Behold! 532 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) The Bravery of Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib His Bravery During the Battle of Badr and the Statement of Umayyah bin Khalaf in this Regard Hadhrat Haarith Taymi narrates that during the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib distinguished himself by wearing ostrich feathers. One of the Mushrikeen asked, "Who is the man who marks himself with ostrich feathers?" "He is Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib," came the reply. The man then commented, "It was he who carried out all those major offensives against us." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf says that Umayyah bin Khalaf once asked him, "O Abdul Ilah! Who was the man who marked his chest with ostrich feathers during the Battle of Badr?" "He was the uncle of Rasulullaah. He was Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib," replied Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf. Umayyah then commented, "It was he who carried out all those major offensives against us." (2) Rasulullaah Weeps Bitterly as he Sees the Dead Body of Hadhrat Hamza Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah. Someone said, "I saw him by that tree as he was saying, 'I am the lion of Allaah and the lion of His Rasool. O Allaah! I absolve myself from what those people (Abu Sufyaan and the others) have done and I seek pardon from what these people (the Muslims) have done (by causing their own defeat).'" Rasulullaah went in that direction and started crying when he caught sight of Hadhrat Hamza's forehead. However, when Rasulullaah saw how the body of Hadhrat Hamza was mutilated, he wept uncontrollably. Rasulullaah then asked, "Is there no Kafan (burial shroud)?" One of the Ansaar stood up and threw a cloth over the body. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "In the sight of Allaah, Hamza shall be the leader of all martyrs on the Day of Qiyaamah." (3) Hadhrat Ja'far bin Amr bin Umayyah Dhamri says that it was during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya when he and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Adi bin Khiyaar went out. He then goes on to report a lengthy narration in which he states that when the two of them sat before Hadhrat Wahshi, they asked, "We have come here so that you may relate to us how you managed to martyr Hadhrat Hamza." He responded by saying, "I shall relate the incident to you as I had related it to Rasulullaah when he asked me about it. I had been (1) Tabraani. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-D 533 a slave of Jubayr bin Mut'im, whose uncle Tu'ayma bin Adi was killed in the Battle of Badr. When the Quraysh marched to Uhud, Jubayr said to me, 'You will be a free man if you manage to kill Hamza the uncle of Rasulullaah W^ to compensate for the death of my uncle.' I was an Abyssinian man who could throw the spear with the accuracy of the Abyssinians. I seldom ever missed a target. I therefore marched with the others and when we engaged the Muslims in battle, I set out to locate Hamza JsJ.I33@»gi. I searched for him until I eventually saw him at one end of the army. (With his brawny body covered in dust) He looked like a brown camel, smashing people with his sword so fiercely that nothing could stand before him. By Allaah! I prepared well for him and hid myself behind a tree or a rock until he drew close to me. However, Sibaa bin Abdul Uzza beat me to him. When Hamza &'&?> saw Sibaa, he called to him, "Come to me, O son of a circumcised woman!" Hamza S)3@!s2 then struck Sibaa so forcefully that his head was taken off as if by mistake. I then shook my spear until I was satisfied (that it would hit the target) and then let it fly. The spear struck him beneath the navel and penetrated his body until it emerged from between his legs. He started to come to me, but fell unconscious. I then left him like that until he passed away. I later returned, took my spear and returned to the camp. I then sat there because I had no need for anything else. I had killed Hamza &83f&6 only to secure my freedom. I then returned to Makkah and was set free. I remained there until Rasulullaah {#s£ conquered Makkah, after which I escaped to Taa'if. I stayed there until the time when a delegation from Taa'if went to Rasulullaah W$£ to accept Islaam. All avenues were then shut for me and I thought, 'Should I go to Shaam, to Yemen or someplace else?' By Allaah! I was still engrossed in these thoughts, when someone said to me, 'Shame on you! (Do you still not know that) Muhammad W$£ never kills anyone who enters his Deen and recites the Shahaadah of truth.' I then set out until I reached Rasulullaah &iH in Madinah. (Rasulullaah {£$! had no idea of my arrival and) Nothing warned him of my presence besides me standing over his head reciting the Shahaadah of truth. When he saw me, Rasulullaah (S^i asked, 'Are you Wahshi?' 'Yes, O Rasulullaah &M,' I replied. He then said to me, 'Sit down and tell me how you managed to kill Hamza JsSSSaSgi.1 I then related the incident to Rasulullaah iSi? as I have related it to you. Once I had completed the narration, Rasulullaah £|s£ said to me, 'Hide your face from me so that I do not have to see you (do not let me see you because it reminds me of my uncle's death).' I would then avoid the places where Rasulullaah *&f was so that he did not have to look at me. I continued doing this until Allaah took the life of Rasulullaah @ai. When the Muslims marched to fight the great liar Musaylama from Yamaamah, I marched with them. I took along with me the same spear I had used to martyr Hamza W&8&J. The battle then began. Although I never knew him (from before), I recognised Musaylama standing with sword in hand. As I prepared to kill him,

Only your Rabb knows which of us had killed him. If I had killed him, then although I had martyred the best of people after Rasulullaah ®JH? (Hamza S3S@ei), I had also killed the worst of people (Musaylama)." (1) A similar narration of Bukhari also narrated by Hadhrat Ja'far bin Amr adds that when the armies formed their rows for the battle, Sibaa stepped forward and said, "Is there anyone to fight me?" Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib W&$> accepted the challenge and said, "O Sibaa! O son of Ummu Anmaar the circumcised woman! Do you oppose Allaah and His Rasool $$$g$?" I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if I see him, I shall not leave him until the first of us dies.' I was very impressed with this. The other boy then nudged me and we had a similar conversation. No sooner did I spot Abu Jahal doing his rounds amongst his people, when I said to the boys, 'Look over there! There is the man you were asking me about.' The two darted towards him with their swords and struck him until they had killed him. They then went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and reported it to him. When Rasulullaah ﷺ asked them which of them killed Abu Jahal, they both claimed to have done so. 'Have you wiped your swords yet?' Rasulullaah ﷺ asked. 'No,' they replied. Rasulullaah ﷺ then examined their swords and said, 'You have both killed him.' Rasulullaah ﷺ (SiSf) however decided to award Abu Jahal's possessions to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh رضي الله عنه. The other youngster was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa رضي الله عنه. ' ' ' Another narration from Bukhari quotes that Hadhrat Abdur Ramaan bin Auf رضي الله عنه said, "I was standing in the rows during the Battle of Badr and happened to look to my right and my left when I noticed two youngsters on either side. I began to feel unsafe in my position when one of them addressed me in a manner that the other should be unaware of. He requested, 'Dear uncle! Do show me who Abu Jahal is?' 'Dear nephew,' I asked, 'What will you do about him?' He responded by saying, 'I have taken a pledge with Allaah that as soon as I see him, I will either kill him or I shall be killed in the attempt.' Thereafter, the second youngster also had a similar conversation with me that the first was unaware of. (impressed by their courage) I then did not want to be between any other men other than them. When I pointed Abu Jahal out to them, they attacked him like two peregrine falcons and struck him with their swords. They were the two sons of Afraa (Mu'aadh and Mu'awwadh. Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh رضي الله عنه was most probably with them). Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas رضي الله عنه and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه both narrate from Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh رضي الله عنه of the Banu Salma tribe that he said, "(During the Battle of Badr) Abu Jahal seemed to be in a dense forest (because he was surrounded by soldiers on all sides). The people therefore said that it was impossible for anyone to reach him. No sooner had I heard this, then I resolved to get to him and went in his direction. I attacked him as soon as I got the opportunity and struck him with my sword, causing his foot to fly off from halfway down his calf. By Allaah! The only comparison I can draw of his foot flying off is like a date stone flies off a grindstone when it is thrown against it. Abu Jahal's son Ikrama then struck me on the shoulder. The blow severed my arm and it hung by its skin to my side. The battle occupied me from feeling the pain and I fought most of the day with the arm trailing behind me. When I proceeded ahead, I saw a fully-armed Mushrik passing by the Muslims saying, 'Herd together (to be slaughtered) as goats herd together!' I then noticed that a Muslim wearing a helmet was waiting for the approach of this Mushrik. I went ahead until I stood behind him. I then visually assessed the strength of the Muslim and the Mushrik, arriving at the conclusion that the Mushrik was better armed and better prepared for battle. I then waited until the two men clashed. The Muslim struck the Mushrik so powerfully that after the sword struck the artery of his shoulder, it penetrated through his body and emerged from his posterior. His body was therefore cut into two. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH jtBffiJjMJgi (Vol-1) 539 The Bravery of Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa WS$&$ His Bravery During the Fight at Dhu Qarad Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa W&ft&j narrates, "It was during the period when the Peace Treaty of Rudaybiyyah was being abided by that we returned to Madinah with Rasulullaah @$f. Rasulullaah (SSif's slave Rabaah 2SHiS@s> and I then took the camels of Rasulullaah (fS$f (to graze and water) and I also took the horse of Talha bin Ubaydullaah S3t2@e) to water and graze with the camels. It was during the last vestiges of night that Abdur Rahmaan bin Uyayna (with a band of Mushrikeen) launched an attack and killed the shepherd tending to Rasulullaah {jgiiS's camels. He and those with him then started taking the camels away when I said to Rabaah JfB3@s>, 'Take this horse back to Talha W&&9 and inform Rasulullaah (JSSi that his camels are being stolen.' I then stood on the top of a hill facing towards Madinah and thrice shouted, Yaa Sabaahaal' (This was a call for help when under attack from an enemy). I then chased after them with my sword and arrows. I started shooting arrows at them and hamstringing their animals every time I came by an outcrop of trees. Whenever any rider turned on me, I sat by the roots of a tree and shot an arrow. In this manner, I managed to injure the horse of every rider that approached me. As I fired the arrows, I was chanting the following couplet (which meant): 'I am the son of Akwa and today is the day of (destroying) the wretches' When I (on foot) caught up with one of them as he rode, I let fly an arrow. As the arrow struck his leg, I (was so close that I) could almost strike his shoulder when I said: 'Take that! For I am the son of Akwa and today is the day of (destroying) the wretches' Whenever I found some trees, I would assault them with my arrows and when a valley narrowed, I would climb to the top and throw stones at them. This is how I kept pursuing them and reciting my couplets until I had recaptured and put behind me every camel of Rasulullaah $$M. I then continued shooting arrows at them until, in an effort to lighten themselves, they had thrown off more than thirty spears and more than thirty shawls. Whenever they threw anything down, I placed a stone on it and placed it on the road that Rasulullaah {jgJsS!/? would be taking. By midmorning, Uyayna bin Badr Fazaari arrived to reinforce them at a narrow valley. I then climbed to the top of the hill and was high above them. Uyayna asked them, 'Who is this person I see (chasing you)?' They replied, 'He has given us a difficult time. He has been chasing us from daybreak until now and had taken everything we had and left it behind him.' Uyayna said, 'If he had known that a search party was coming up after him, he would certainly have left you. A few of you will have to get him.' Four of them then stood up and climbed the hill. As soon as they came within earshot, I called out, 'Do you know who I am?' 'Who are you?' they enquired. I responded by saying, 'I am the son of Akwa. I

Just before sunset, they entered a valley where there was a watering place called Dhu Qarad. They had intended to drink some water there but when they saw me in hot pursuit, they abandoned the idea and climbed up the ridge of Dhu Bir. 'Is that so, O enemy of himself?' I shouted. He was the same person whom I had shot early that morning. I then fired another arrow at him. Both arrows were now stuck to him. They left behind two horses and I brought them down to Rasulullaah W$$ who was at the watering place from which I had chased the bandits. off, namely Dhu Qarad. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (SB.lSui@?gi (Vol-1) 541 man from the Banu Ghitfaan later informed us that some people from the Ghitfaan tribe passed by him and he slaughtered a camel for them. The next morning, Rasulullaah OH announced, 'Our best cavalryman is Abu Qataadah and our best infantryman is Salama.' Rasulullaah {JaSi? then gave me the share of a cavalryman as well as the share of an infantryman. As we returned to Madinah, Rasulullaah ^M seated me behind him on his camel Adhbaa. Eventually all that was left of the journey equalled the distance travelled between sunrise and midmorning. Amongst us was a person from the Ansaari who was undefeated in a road race. He started to announce, 'Is there anyone to race? Will anyone race me to Madinah?' He repeated himself several times as I was seated behind Rasulullaah W$- I said to him, 'Don't you respect any honourable person or fear any respectable person?' The Ansaari said, 'I care for none after Rasulullaah W$s- Thereupon, I said, 'O Rasulullaah fS$|! May my parents be sacrificed for you! Permit me to race him.' Rasulullaah W$s replied, 'If you wish.' I said to the man, 'I am on my way.' He jumped off his camel. I doubled up my legs and also jumped from the camel. (We then started the race) I initially held myself back for one or two hills (so that he could run ahead) and then I ran faster until I caught up with him and hit my hands between his shoulders. I said something like, 'By Allaahl I have beaten you.' He laughed and said, 'I think so too.' We then reached Madinah." A narration of Muslim adds that Hadhrat Salama SS2®© said, "I then beat him to Madinah. We had not even stayed three days in Madinah when we marched for Khaybar." 'Subhaanallaah!' exclaimed Rasulullaah W$s (thinking it to be too much for someone like myself), 'Had you married any lady from the town, you would not have had to pay so much (they demand higher because she is from your tribe). I swear by Allaah that I have nothing to assist you with.' I then stayed like that for a few days when a man from the Jusham bin Mu'aawiya tribe arrived with a large group from the Jusham tribe and others and camped at a place called Ghaaba (close to Madinah). His name was either Rifaa'ah bin Qais or Qais bin Rifaa'ah and he was a prominent person amongst the Jusham tribe. His intention was to rally the Qais tribe to fight against Rasulullaah {f8$#. Rasulullaah &$ $• said, 'You will reach there on her.' (With the blessing of Rasulullaah (fS$î's du'aa, Allaah gave her the strength and we rode her) We left with our weapons, which included arrows and swords and reached their camp as the sun was setting. We then sat waiting for an opportunity to attack when they became unmindful. The night covered us until there was only darkness. There was a shepherd of theirs who had gone out to graze the flocks and had not yet returned. They feared for his life and their leader Rifaa'ah bin Qais stood up and hung his sword around his neck. He said, 'By Allaah! I shall find out for sure what has happened to our shepherd. Some harm must have come to him.' A group of his men said, 'Do not go. We shall do it for you.' However, he instructed, 'No! I shall go alone.' 'Let us accompany you,' they appealed. 'No!' he insisted, 'None of you should follow me.' He then left and passed by me. When I had him perfectly in my sights, I fired an arrow that penetrated his heart. By Allaah! He made not a sound. I then jumped at him and severed his head. I then attacked one end of the camp, calling 'Allahu Akbar!' My two companions also sprung to the attack shouting 'Allahu Akbar!' By Allaah! Whoever was there only thought of getting to safety as they called out, 'Save yourselves! Save yourselves!' They made a dash for it, taking with them only their wives and children and the lightest of their possessions. We managed to take a great number of camels and goats, which we brought to Rasulullaah $$$!. I also took Rifaa'ah's head along with me. The Muslims then stormed the orchard and Allaah had Musaylama killed. Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik ؓ sat on a shield and said to the others, "Lift me up with your spears and throw me on them." They lifted the shield with their spears and threw him over the wall. However, Abu Mihjin is in prison." When the enemy was defeated, Hadhrat Abu Mihjin W&Mi returned secured his feet back in the shackles. When the daughter of Hasfah informed Hadhrat Sa'd W&®& about what had happened with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin W&X&Z, Hadhrat Sa'd said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never again penalise the person through whom Allaah has granted honour to the Muslims." Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami (r) narrates further that he saw Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (r) and Hadhrat Haashim bin Utba (r) as Hadhrat Ali (r) was fighting between two rows of the enemy. (Looking at Hadhrat Ali (r)) Hadhrat Ammaar (r) said, "O Haashim! By Allaah, this man's commands are being violated and his army is being deserted. O Haashim! Jannah lies beneath flashing swords. Today I shall meet those I love, Muhammad (s) and his group. O Haashim! You are one-eyed and one-eyed people are no good if they do not swamp the battlefield." (With this incitement from Hadhrat Ammaar (r)) Hadhrat Haashim (r) waved the flag and said (the following couplets which mean): "The one-eyed man has spent his life in search of a home for his family until he has become tired He will now fight until he defeats the opposition or is defeated" He then went into one of the valleys of Siffeen (to fight). Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami (r) says, "I then saw the Sahabah (r) of Rasulullaah (s) follow Hadhrat Ammaar (r) as if he were their flag. ^ In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami (r) says, "I noticed that (during the Battle of Siffeen) whenever Hadhrat Ammaar (r) went into any of the valleys of Siffeen, all the Sahabah (r) of Rasulullaah (s) who were there followed him. Just then, one of the Persian commanders shot an arrow at Hadhrat Amr 5S3®@eJ, which struck the edge of his bow. Hadhrat Amr 5s$3S2@# attacked the man so forcefully with his spear that the man's back was broken. He then dismounted and took the man's possessions. ^ Ibn Asaakir has narrated a longer version of the story. At the end of his narration, it is stated that when an arrow struck the front of Hadhrat Amr S13@s>'s saddle, he attacked the man who fired it and lifted him up like a little girl is lifted up. He then placed him between the rows (of the Muslims and the Kuffaar) and cut off his head while telling the others, "Do it this way." (1) The Bravery of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr &$$$& His Fight Against Hajjaaj and Subsequent Martyrdom Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr 5gt!3@gi reports that after Hadhrat Mu'aawiya S!3 passed away, it became very difficult for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ®!3@Si to be subservient to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 3$8«@gj's son Yazeed. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr WX$&t> once insulted Yazeed in public, Yazeed vowed that if Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ®I2>@8) was not brought before him wearing a yoke around his neck, he would send an army to get him. The people said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr S0f®b', "Should we not make for you a yoke out of silver which you could wear under your clothing so that his vow could be fulfilled? It is best that you make peace with him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr S3!S@S> exclaimed, "May Allaah never fulfil his vow!" He then recited the following couplet (which meant): "I shall never soften to his demands that oppose the truth Until rock is softened for the molars to chew" He then declared, "By Allaah! The strike of a sword in honour is better than the lash of a whip in disgrace." Thereafter, he started calling for support and proclaimed his opposition to Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya. Yazeed then dispatched an army from Shaam under the command of Muslim bin Uqba Murri with explicit instructions to fight the people of Madinah and to then march to Makkah. When Muslim entered Madinah, the Sahabah (SSRSSaS who were left there were already gone. Muslim humiliated the people of Madinah and went on a killing spree. He then left Madinah and was on the way (to Makkah) when he died. Later on the narration states that when the news reached Husayn bin Numayr that Yazeed had passed away, he fled. When Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya had passed away, Marwaan bin Hakam canvassed for support. Further on, the narration states that after Marwaan died, Abdul Malik called people to pledge their allegiance to him. The people of Shaam responded to him and he delivered a sermon in which he said, "Who will kill Abdullaah bin Zubayr 5S52@s>?" When Hajjaaj volunteered, Abdul Malik silenced him. However, after being silenced for a second time, he again volunteered saying, "I shall do it, O Ameerul Mu'mineen because Isawinadreamthat I had snatched his cloak away from him and wore it." Abdul Malik then appointed Hajjaaj as commander and dispatched him with an army. He started the war against Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr JSB-SiiSs as soon as he reached Makkah. Addressing the people of Makkah, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr @12$J!® said, "Guard the two mountains because you will always remain in good stead and dominant as long as they do not climb the mountains. Although she was then a hundred years old, not a single tooth had fallen out nor had she lost her eyesight. She asked her son, "O Abdullaah! What has happened to your battle?" He informed her of the extent to which the enemy had advanced and then laughed as he said, "There is peace in death." She said, "Dear son! I hope that you do not wish death to me because I do not want to die until I see one of two results. Either you become the ruler and thus give pleasure to my eyes or either you are martyred and I may expect rewards from Allaah (by exercising patience)." As he bade farewell to her, she said, "Dear son! Ensure that you never compromise on any facet of your Deen for fear of being killed." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr JgJEJ&Ssi then proceeded to the Masjidul Haraam where they had placed two thresholds across the Hajar Aswad (Black Stone) to protect it from the catapult. He then recited the following couplets (which meant): "I shall not sell my life for something that is flawed nor shall I climb a ladder for fear of death I aspire for an arrow that strikes and cannot be shifted How can one who desires death have any other aspiration?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr W$8$i) then addressed the family of (his father) Hadhrat Zubayr 3$il3@e> saying, "Each one of you should look after his sword as he looks after his face. As they were talking, some people suddenly entered through the door of Banu Jumah. Amongst them was black man. "Who are they?" asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ©l*®gi. When he was informed that they were people from Hims, he attacked them carrying two swords. The first person he met was the black man, whom he attacked with his sword and severed his leg. It was on Friday the 17th of Ramadhan that the Mushrikeen were defeated in the Battle of Badr." ^ Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (r.a.) states that the Sahabah (r.a.) participating in the Battle of Badr numbered just more than three hundred and ten. The narration also adds, "The Ansaar numbered two hundred and thirty six and it was Hadhrat Ali (r.a.) who carried the flag of the Muhajireen." ^ Yet another from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (r.a.) states, "When Rasulullaah (s.a.) left for the journey, he appointed Hadhrat Abu Ruhm Kulthoom bin Husayn bin Utba bin Khalaf Ghifaari (r.a.) as his deputy in Madinah. It was on the tenth of Ramadhan that he left. Rasulullaah (s.a.) fasted and so did the Sahabah (r.a.) with him. However, when they reached Qudayd, an oasis located between Usfaan and Amaj, Rasulullaah (s.a.) terminated his fast. Rasulullaah (s.a.) then proceeded until he set up camp at Marruz Zahraan along with the ten thousand Sahabah (r.a.) with him." *3' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (r.a.) has also narrated that Rasulullaah (s.a.) proceeded in Ramadhan to conquer Makkah and fasted until he reached Qudayd. The Sahabah (r.a.) were thirsty and started craning their necks (in search of water). They had started becoming uneasy when Rasulullaah (s.a.) asked for a cup of water. THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-1) 561 Performing Salaah and Eating Upon Returning from the path of Allaah Rasulullaah & Performs Salaah upon his Return Hadhrat Ka'b SKS®si narrates that whenever Rasulullaah Ws returned from a journey during the morning, he would first enter the Masjid and perform two Rakaahs salaah before being seated. Thereafter when he reached Madinah, Rasulullaah {Ji$! instructed me to first go the Masjid to perform two Rakaahs salaah. Rasulullaah %jfEM then weighed out the price for my camel and paid me." ^3' Women Proceed in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Aa'isha S9Si@^ Participated in the Banu Mustaliq expedition Hadhrat Aa'isha t^JlS®© says, "Whenever Rasulullaah %!$!$ embarked on an expedition, he would draw lots between his wives and whoever's name was drawn would accompany him. When the Banu Mustaliq expedition was to take place, Rasulullaah ®i? again drew lots as he usually did. This time my name emerged as the one to accompany him. Rasulullaah (Hi! therefore took me along. During those times women ate just enough to sustain themselves. The flab on their bodies was therefore less and they were lighter in weight. For this reason I would sit in my carriage when it was loaded on my camel. The men who fastened the carriage to the camel for me would lift the carriage from the bottom, lift me up and place the carriage on to the camel. They would then secure it with ropes, take the camel by the head and lead it along. After the journey was done, Rasulullaah ^^ left (for Madinah) and we were close to Madinah when we set up came and spent part of the night there. When the announcer announced that it was time to depart, everyone got ready to move. Wearing a necklace of mine that was decorated with onyx from the Yemeni tribe of Dhifaar, I went (out of the camp) to relieve myself. When I had completed, the necklace had slipped from my neck without me knowing it. It was only after returning to my carriage that I felt my neck and could not find it. The people had (1) Bukhari. (2) Bukhari. (3) Bukhari.

562 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH jgg3,f%fg> (Vol-1) already started leaving when I returned to the place I had been. There I looked for it until I eventually found it. The men who usually tied my carriage had by then already tied it to the camel. Thinking that I was inside, they did what they always did and took the carriage away. Without even once suspecting (that I was not inside), they picked up the carriage and loaded it on to the camel. They then took the camel by the head and led it away. When I eventually returned to the camp, there was not a soul in sight. Everyone had left. I then spread out my shawl at the place where I had been and lay down. I knew that once my absence was detected, people would return to where I was (to search for me). By Allaah I was still lying there when Safwaan bin Mu'attal Sulami JalESSsi passed by. He had fallen behind the expedition for some reason and had not spent the night in the camp. Seeing my silhouette, he came closer until he stopped by me. He had seen me before we were instructed to don the Hijaab and when he saw that it was I lying there, he exclaimed in astonishment, 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! The wife of Rasulullaah W^1' I was properly wrapped up in my clothing when he said, 'May Allaah have mercy on you. How did you get left behind?' I did not speak a word to him. He brought his camel next to me and said, 'Mount the camel and stay behind me.' I mounted the camel and he led it quickly along by its head, in search of the rest. By Allaah! Neither did we catch up with the others until the morning, nor did they notice my absence. The army had set up camp and were resting when Safwaan Sf®? > was seen leading me on the camel. It was then that the slanderers said what they did (about me being an adulteress), causing much tumult amongst the army. I swear by Allaah that I was then still in the dark concerning what was happening. After we had returned to Madinah, no news had still reached me (about the slander) when I happened to fall terribly ill. In the meanwhile, the news had reached Rasulullaah ®H§ and my parents, none of whom breathed a word to me. All that I noticed was a lack in the affection that Rasulullaah W^ usually showed towards me. Whereas he expressed tremendous love and affection towards me whenever I fell ill, he did not do so this time. This greatly disappointed me. When he came to me as my mother was nursing me, he asked, 'How are you feeling?' That was all he said. I eventually grew upset with his apparent indifference and asked, 'O Rasulullaah {^Hf! Permit me to move to my mother's place for she has been nursing me all along. When Rasulullaah f|SI indicated that it was not a problem, I moved to my mother's. I was then still completely in the dark about what had been happening until I had started to recover from my illness after twenty odd days. We Arabs were not accustomed to building toilets inside our houses like the non-Arabs do. We disliked this and regarded it as something deplorable. We used to go outside Madinah (to relieve ourselves) and every night us women would go there (together). I had gone out to relieve myself one day in the company of Ummu Mistah who was the daughter of Abu Ruhm bin Abdul Muttalib. By Allaah! We were still walking when she tripped over her shawl and exclaimed} 'May

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH $&&$& (Vol-D 563 Mistah be destroyed!' 'By Allaah!' She then asked, 'Has the news not yet reached you, O daughter of Abu Bakr?' 'What news?' I enquired. She then informed me about what the slanderers were saying. 'Has all this really been happening?' I asked in disbelief. 'Yes,' she replied, 'I swear by Allaah that it certainly has.' By Allaah! (After hearing all of this) I was unable to even relieve myself properly and returned. I then wept continuously until I actually thought that my liver would burst. I said to my mother, 'May Allaah forgive you! The people have been saying what they have said and you didn't even mention a word to me!' my mother responded by saying, 'Take it easy, dear daughter! When a beautiful woman has a husband who loves her greatly and has co-wives as well, it does happen that the wives and other people pick on her.' Unknown to me, Rasulullaah t^li had already delivered a sermon to the people. After praising Allaah, he said, 'O people! What is the matter with some of you who cause me hurt with regards to my family by saying things that are not true? I swear by Allaah that I see only good in my wives. They are also making allegations about a man (Hadhrat Safwaan bin Mu'attal iFl2@2>) about whom I also swear that I know only as a good man. He never enters any of my rooms without me with him.' Most of the slander was publicised by (the Munaafiq) Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool along with some men from the Khazraj tribe. Also involved were Mistah SSSaffiSsi and Hamna bint Jahash S0IS®s. Hamna bint Jahash was involved because her sister Zaynab bint Jahash fgl2®e> was a wife of Rasulullaah W$? and from all the other wives of Rasulullaah W$i, she was the only one who was of any competition to me. Since Allaah protected Zaynab E©js®ie> because of her piety, she had only good words to say (and did not slander me). On the other hand, Hamna SSS®s© passed around plenty of slander to spite me for the sake of her sister, in this manner, she defamed only herself. After Rasulullaah (i? $f had delivered the sermon, Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr W&$& (of the Aws tribe) said, 'O Rasulullaah {®i?! Had the slanderers been from the Aws tribe, we would have dealt with them on your behalf. However, if they are from our brothers of the Khazraj tribe, we shall do as you command. By Allaah! They ought to be executed!' It was then that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah W*%&> stood up. Although he was always regarded as a good man, he retorted by saying (to Hadhrat Usayd j^2@&), 'By Allaah! You are lying! They shall not be executed! I swear by Allaah that you say this only because you know that they are from the Khazraj. You would never have said it had you known that they were from your tribe!' Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr isSSSSsSei replied, 'By Allaah! It is you who are lying! You must be a Munaafiq since you are defending the Munaafiqeen!' The Sahabah

Continuing the story, Hadhrat Aa'isha Si3@« says further, "Rasulullaah i8S$ then came to me when I was staying with my parents. A woman from the Ansaar was with me at the time and she wept with me as I wept. Rasulullaah ®H$ sat down and after praising Allaah, he said, 'O Aa'isha! As soon as Rasulullaah {^H said this, my tears immediately stopped and I could not even feel them. I waited for my parents to reply to Rasulullaah ®li, but they said nothing. By Allaah! I never regarded myself so distinguished that verses of the Qur'aan should be revealed about me (to clear my name), which would be recited (forever) and read in salaah. However, all I wished for was that Rasulullaah (US!? should see a dream in which Allaah would deny the allegations on my behalf, for Allaah knew that I was innocent. After selling our wares, I told myself that I should meet with Rasulullaah ﷺ and inform the others at home about him. When I came to him, Rasulullaah ﷺ pointed out a house to me and said, 'A woman who lived in that house went out on an expedition with the army and left behind twelve goats and her needle with which she used to knit. However, she lost one of her goats and her needle. She then prayed, 'O my Rabb! You have undertaken to protect those who go out in Your path in every way. I have however lost one of my goats and my needle. I ask You in Your name for my goat and my needle.' Rasulullaah ﷺ then described to me the determined manner in which she prayed to Allaah. By the next morning she had her goat and another just like it as well as her needle with another needle just like it. There she comes. There she is. You may ask her if you like.' 'No,' I replied, 'I believe what you say.'" (1) Hadhrat Ummu Haraam bint Milhaan W&Mz* the Aunt of Hadhrat Anas WffiS& goes Out in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Anas 5S3S3®« narrates that Rasulullaah W$s once visited Hadhrat Ummu Haraam bint Milhaan ®lf®®, where he lay down to sleep. He then woke up smiling. When she asked him why he smiled, Rasulullaah (H^ replied, "I saw (in a dream) some people from my Ummah who were navigating the green seas in the path of Allaah looking as if they were kings on their thrones." Hadhrat Ummu Haraam &S&si©s> said, "O Rasulullaah @if! Pray to Allaah that I should be amongst them." Rasulullaah ^M prayed, "O Allaah! Make her from amongst them." Rasulullaah $M& then again fell asleep and again woke up smiling. When she again asked him the reason for the smiling, he gave her the same reply. When she again asked him to pray that she should be amongst them, he said, "You are with the first group and not with the second." Hadhrat Anas S52@g> says that Hadhrat Ummu Haraam &$l2@g> married Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit J13!f@s> and joined the naval expedition with Bint Qaradha (the wife of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya S31*®?>). However, upon return she was riding an animal when it bolted. This caused her to fall and she passed away. 2' The services of Women in Jihaad Women March with Rasulullaah W$s to Tend to the ill and Wounded Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym W20&& narrates that several women from the Ansaar proceeded on military expeditions with Rasulullaah &H-, where they would provide water for the ill and treat the wounded. Hadhrat Umar ifK»S®e> went on to explain, "Because she sewed water bags for us during the Battle of Uhud." (1) Women Proceed for the Battle of Khaybar to Render Services The grandmother of Hadhrat Hashraj bin Ziyaad W&t&i narrates that women also accompanied Rasulullaah W$s for the Battle of Khaybar. In her narration she mentions that when Rasulullaah if|$l asked them the reason for going, they replied, "We are going out to weave ropes from animal hair to assist in the path of Allaah. We shall also nurse the wounded, retrieve arrows and give the soldiers barley porridge to drink." '2 Hadhrat Zuhri narrates that women also participated in the battles with Rasulullaah %$$$ by providing water for the Mujaahideen and nursing the wounded. *3' Women Fighting in Jihaad in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara W&$>$& Fights in the Battle of Uhud Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Abu Zaid Ansaari $3l2@e> narrates from Hadhrat Ummu Sa'd bint Sa'd bin Rabee G©ii5®s> that she used to go to her maternal aunt Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara Bg)i3j@g> and ask her to relate her story. Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara l5S©s@ei would say, "It was at the beginning of the day that I ventured out with a bag of water to see what was happening to the Muslims. When I reached Rasulullaah W^, he was with his companions and the Muslims were enjoying victory and steadfastness. When the Muslims later started losing the battle, I drew close to Rasulullaah Qsfflfflt and openly started fighting. As I fended off the Mushrikeen from Rasulullaah ®i?, I also fired some arrows with a bow until I sustained many injuries." The narrator Hadhrat Ummu Sa'd ISlf®s> says that she noticed a very deep wound on the shoulder of Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara Sglis®!© and asked her who had afflicted it. She replied, "It was Ibn Qami'Ahmad. May Allaah disgrace him! When the Sahabah $3!3@ei had withdrawn from Rasulullaah (H^, he came shouting, 'Show me where is Muhammad! Although I struck several blows at him with my sword, the enemy of Allaah was wearing two coats of armour." ^ Hadhrat umaarah bint Ghaziyyah narrates that during the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara W&&£ killed a Mushrik horseman. Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Umar S.lf@e> said, "I heard Rasulullaah f£i$ii say, 'Whether it was to the right or to the left, in whichever direction I turned I saw her (Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara W&S&g) fighting in my defence.'" ^ In yet another narration, Hadhrat Hamza bin Sa'eed W&Mf> narrates that some woollen shawls were once brought to Hadhrat Umar S3.l*@g>. Amongst them was a very large one of excellent quality. Some people indicated that it was of great value and should be sent to Safiyya bint Ubayd who was recently married to Hadhrat Umar @)3@s>'s son Abdullaah Sl2@s>. However, Hadhrat Umar S3!&®2> said, "I shall send it to someone who is more deserving to it, namely Ummu Ammaara Nusayba bint Ka'b EgSlS® ^ about whom I heard Rasulullaah $M$ say, 'Whether it was to the right or to the left, in whichever direction I turned I saw her fighting in my defence.'" *3' Hadhrat Safiyya W&®&f>

Fights During the Battle of Uhud and the Battle of Khandaq Hadhrat Hishaam narrates from his father that when the Muslims were being defeated during the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Safiyya lip*®?© arrived with a spear in her hand to smite the (retreating) Muslims in the face (and send them back to the battlefield). Rasulullaah ®i? then said (to her son Hadhrat Zubayr i!3!3@g>), "O Zubayr! Look after the lady (your mother)." (4) Hadhrat Abbaad narrates that (during the Battle of Khandaq), Hadhrat Safiyya bint Abdul Muttalib &gH2®?> was in a fortress called Faari, which belonged to Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit §S2®?>. She narrates, "Hassaan SH@s was with us women and children in the fortress when a Jew passed by and started circling the fortress. The Jewish Banu Qurayzah tribe had also declared war on Rasulullaah (SeSI and had severed the ties they had with him. There was none to defend us from the Jews since Rasulullaah (ScSi and the Muslims were at the necks of the enemy and were unable to turn their attention towards us. When this intruder suddenly came upon us, I said, 'O Hassaan! As you can see, this Jew is circling the fortress. By Allaah! Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Had I not feared that this would become a regular practice and that people would say, 'But she went out (why can't I)', I would have granted you permission. You should rather stay at home." (1) The Reward for Obedience to One's Husband and Fulfilling His Rights Equals that of Jihaad Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas JSK5@@ narrates that a woman once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I have been sent to represent all the women before you. Allaah has made Jihaad compulsory on the men. They are rewarded when they suffer any injuries and if they are martyred, they remain alive by their Rabb and are sustained. On the other hand, all we women do is to serve the men. What rewards will we then receive?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Make it clear to every woman you meet that the reward for obedience to the husband and for fulfilling his rights equals this (reward for Jihaad). However, there are few of you who do this." (2) Towards the end of a narration in Tabraani, it is reported that a woman came to Rasulullaah ﷺ; and asked, "I have been sent to you as an envoy from the other women. Every woman who knows about my coming here and every woman who does not know about it have wished me to come. Allaah is the Rabb of men and women alike and he is also the Rabb of women. Similarly, you are Allaah's Rasool ﷺ to men and women. Allaah has made Jihaad compulsory on the men. They receive the booty when they do well (and are victorious) and if they are martyred, they remain alive by their Rabb and are sustained. Which good deed (of a woman) can equal these deeds of men?"- Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Obedience to their husbands and recognising the rights they owe. However, there are few of you who actually do this." (3) Children March and Fight in Jihaad A Child Fights and is Injured in the Battle of Uhud Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when the Battle of Uhud was to take place, a woman gave her son a sword. Because he was unable to carry it, she tied it securely to his arm using leather straps. She then took him to Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! This son of mine shall fight for you." (As the battle progressed) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the boy, "Dear son! Attack here" and "Dear son! Attack there". The boy was later wounded and fell to the ground. When he was brought to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Dear son! You must be terrified?" "No, O Rasulullaah ﷺ," he replied, "Not at all." THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH '§!}& narrates that Rasulullaah W$: sent Hadhrat Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas &&&& back as they were proceeding to Badr because Rasulullaah WM thought that he was too young. However, when Hadhrat Umayr S21f®g> started weeping (out of disappointment), Rasulullaah t&$° granted him permission. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas &&>$$$ says, "I then tied a knot on the belt that held his sword (because it was too large for him). I also participated in the Battle of Badr at a time when there was only a single hair on my face that I could hold in my fingers (because my beard had just started growing)." (1) Hadhrat Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas ©S@jg> is Martyred Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas SHf@si says, "Before we presented ourselves to Rasulullaah fS$f for the Battle of Badr, I noticed my brother Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas S312®g> hiding from Rasulullaah W$. 'What is the matter, dear brother?' I asked. 'I fear that Rasulullaah &SSI would see me and send me back (to Madinah) thinking that I am too young whereas I would love to march so that Allaah should bless me with martyrdom.' When he was presented to Rasulullaah ijfSI, Rasulullaah *&$§ asked him to return. However, when he started weeping, Rasulullaah &$? permitted him. I then tied knots to the belt that held his sword because of his small size. He was later martyred at the tender age of sixteen." ^ (1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Uminaal (Vol.5 Pg.270). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.88) and Baghawi have also reported the narration. (2) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.135).
